

Chapter 34: Disgusted by Oneself

Yang Xuan's mom shocked everyone with her action!

Even Yang Xuan didn't think his mom would do something like this!

The two teachers were dumbfounded too. This was the first time they had seen a move like this!

Only Xia Xibei was relatively calm. She knew Yang Xuan's mom's true character and she had already prepared for this scenario.

However, she was also very surprised. She thought that Yang Xuan's mom would find a way to deny it, but she never expected the method to be so simple and rude!

"What are you doing?"

After the two teachers recovered, they laughed lightly out of exasperation. Wasn't she afraid of indigestion?

Yang Xuan's mom held her neck high and said, "Why would I keep those fake receipts, so they could slander our Xuan Xuan?"

“If they’re fake, why did you destroy them?” Xia Xibei asked.

“You are such a shameless girl! You wanted to slander us with fake evidence! I won’t let you win!” Yang Xuan’s mom glared at Xia Xibei. At the same time, she inwardly rejoiced. It was fortunate that she had acted so quickly.

If those receipts were kept, Yang Xuan would have lost face.

But she didn’t know that this would make her lose even more face!

Yang Xuan, for his part, was also dumbfounded. He never thought that his mother would do something so insane!

“I don’t know if they are fake or not. But...” Xia Xibei’s expression twitched a little, almost as if she had smiled for a second before dropping it from her face.

“But what?” Teacher Liu asked.

“But... those receipts fell on the bathroom floor just now, and I had only just managed to dry them...”

Bathroom?

Everyone's expressions changed.

Even if those papers did not fall into the toilet, the floor wasn't a very clean place either.

And Yang Xuan's mom had eaten them...

Everyone watched Yang Xuan's mom with the same horrified expression.

Yang Xuan's mom froze for just a moment. After finally processing the information, she felt as if she had eaten a pound of excrement, immediately nauseated.

"Ugh..."

The more she thought about it, the more nauseous she got. To get some relief, she pinched her neck and started retching. Unfortunately, once you put something in your stomach, it does not come out easily.

Yang Xuan and his father's expressions were even more ugly, feeling just as sick as the mother.

They really didn't think that things would develop like this. So mortifying!

The two teachers finally felt a little more relaxed. The way they watched Yang Xuan's mom showed condemnation and contempt.

Did she think everyone was stupid? Just because the evidence had been eaten, did it mean that it had never existed in the first place?

Most importantly, this showed that Yang Xuan was lying!

Realizing this, Yang Xuan's head teacher looked at him in an even worse way.

Teacher Zhang hadn't felt good about Yang Xuan to begin with. He thought that Yang Xuan was too ostentatious and unreliable. Now he knew that Yang Xuan had lied too! Not only did he not admit borrowing the money, he had slandered the innocent girl, saying she had beat him!

His character was too despicable!

"Also, why did you eat them?" Xia Xibei looked at Yang Xuan's mom in a puzzled and innocent way. "I have copies of these receipts, and I can give you as many of them as you want."

As soon as these words came out of Xia Xibei's mouth, Yang Xuan's mom stopped vomiting.

Did that mean what she had just done was useless? Had she done all that to herself for nothing?

Yang Xuan's mom wanted to cry, but had no tears left.

Yang Xuan and his father also had complicated expressions on their faces.

“Teacher, I think things should be very clear by now,” Xia Xibei looked at the two teachers. “I really lent a lot of money to Yang Xuan, and I didn’t beat him up!”

“You are lying!” Yang Xuan exclaimed in panic, “You did beat me!”

“Shut up!” Teacher Zhang immediately shouted, his face having turned dark and stormy, “We know who is lying!”

Chapter 35: I Won't Argue With You

The teachers were suspicious of Yang Xuan’s words from the start, as he sounded too ridiculous.

A girl failed to get him, so she beat him up— people were going to taunt him so badly if they found out!

Especially when it was a girl as weak and delicate as Xia Xibei. How could she have fought a big boy like Yang Xuan?

Yang Xuan’s mother’s attitude and behavior didn’t do him any favors either, repulsing the teachers even more.

As for Yang Xuan's father, although he didn't say more than a few lines, his lack of participation was exactly what roused their distaste. He was quiet, standing behind his wife and his son, allowing them to partake in this type of behavior. If it wasn't for his presence, Yang Xuan's mother wouldn't have dared to be so fierce and unreasonable.

If they had been the righteous party, their behavior would have, at most, caused the teachers to be a little bit uncomfortable, thinking that they were unforgiving. However, it was proven that they were the ones who were lying!

How could they be so flagrant as to come all the way here and make such remarks, with all that they had done?

"Xia Xibei, how do you think this issue should be dealt with?" Teacher Liu looked over at Xia Xibei, encouragement and solace in his eyes.

Xia Xibei felt a surge of warmth within her, flashing him a nervous smile. "This...I have no other opinions, I just want him to return my money..."

"That's impossible!" Yang Xuan's mother growled, "Our Xuan Xuan did not borrow your money!"

"Madam Xie!" Teacher Liu finally erupted, screaming at her, "You ought to return the debt you owe, that's an unquestionable principle!" His chest was rising and falling quickly. "If we bring this matter before the court, you will be at fault! Don't think you can brush this matter aside just by eating the evidence!"

Even though Teacher Zhang didn't really get along with Teacher Liu under normal circumstances, in the face of fierce, unreasonable women like Yang Xuan's mother, he was equally furious. Yang Xuan's mother was driving them both crazy.

Worse still, Yang Xuan was his student!

It was a sort of humiliation to him that his own student had committed such a deed!

"Yang Xuan, if you are willing to return the money, we can get this matter over and done with fast enough. But if you refuse to admit it and return the money, I have no choice but to report this incident to the principal! As for what the principal is going to do once he learns about this... I'm sure you wouldn't want to know."

Yang Xuan's face reddened at Teacher Zhang's words, hearing the teacher's dissatisfaction and attempt at intimidation.

"Teachers, there must be some misunderstanding going on here..." Yang Xuan's father stated awkwardly, "Our Yang Xuan really wouldn't do that..."

Xia Xibei interrupted him, "How can it be a misunderstanding? Haven't I just shown you the evidence? It's just that it has gone down auntie's stomach now."

She then muttered softly, "You said it wasn't a misunderstanding just now, and now you're saying it is..."

Her voice was soft, but it wasn't inaudible.

The teachers' faces turned even darker upon hearing her words. The whole family was unbelievable.

"Alright, my advice is that you should return the money," Teacher Liu said with a pinched face, "And focus on your studies from now on. Do that and you could still be a good student!"

"As for your accusation against me for hitting you, I'm not going to hold on to it anymore. I don't expect you to apologize either, I just want to get back the money that I lent," Xia Xibei chimed in, looking beyond sincere.

As he looked at her pretty little face, Yang Xuan was so mad that he nearly had a heart attack.

How could she speak so shamelessly?! It was her who hit him after all!

"Xia Xibei is a forgiving person, Yang Xuan, you shouldn't be so stubborn anymore," Teacher Zhang added.

"You borrowed more than 20,000 dollars from me altogether, you just need to return that much to me."

"When did I ever borrow so much from you?! I only borrowed 10,000!" Yang Xuan panicked.
