

Chapter 3400 – 3401 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 3400

The Chu family snarled unwillingly.

For so many years, they have been stepping on others to advance.

But now their Chu family has become a stepping stone for others.

Sweeping his face, fulfilled Chu Tianfan's amazing name!

People always worship the strong!

Chu Tianfan's powerful record overnight gained tens of thousands of fans all over the world.

Guyana was shameless and even secretly registered an account on the Wuzhe forum under the name of Mark.

He named himself countless titles, such as Mr. Jiang Dongchu, the first person to set foot in the Chu family, and of course, the biggest title is Chu Tianfan, the lord of the Dragon God Temple!

Once this account is registered, it attracts countless fans. ?

And the Dragon Temple, which has been hidden for many years, also spread the world of martial arts on this night.

At the same time, this night, martial arts friends from all over the world sent congratulatory messages to the Yanxia Wushen Temple.

“Juggernaut, congratulations!”

“Congratulations to you hot summer, a monster was born.”

“I heard that he was only in his twenties, so he commanded big titles. After that, relying on his own efforts, the Chu family was almost destroyed.”

“With such a genius, why worry about martial arts in the summer?”

.....

“Trumen has ruled the world of martial arts for hundreds of years.”

“From now on, the era that belongs to the hot summer martial arts will also come!”

.....

“Hahaha, congratulations to the Martial God Temple...”

This night, the call of the Yanxia Wushen Temple was almost broken.

But the things that should have been happy, the Juggernauts couldn't be happy at all.

On the contrary, the old face was still green and white, which was extremely ugly.

In the end, the phone line was simply disconnected, and no one's call was answered.

At this time, it was night.

When the martial arts of the whole world were in chaos, the temple of the god of war was full of solemnity.

“Juggernaut, what should I do now?”

“Mark is not dead, is he still alive?”

“But have we all sent the wreaths?”

Tang Hao's face was full of bitterness.

I just feel that they have done an extremely stupid thing.

“I'm anxious, we're anxious.”

“Before sending someone to mourn, you should find someone to verify it.”

“What can I do now?”

Tang Hao was heartbroken and regretted that he was too anxious to hold a funeral for Mark before.

It's all right now, making a big joke, I guess when Mark comes back, he must think that they are cursing him to death?

However, Tang Hao can't blame them either.

After all, who would have thought that Moon God, the supreme god of the Japanese kingdom, would actually help Mark contend with Chu Yuan.

Without the help of Moon Reading, Mark would definitely die.

“What else?”

“Hurry up and call and call back the envoy urgently.”

“At the same time, cancel the funeral and restore the impact.”

The Juggernaut also felt very upset inside.

He doesn't know what to do now, he can only take one step and count one step.

“What about?”

“From now on, our Martial God Temple, should we face Mark with our face?”

This is where Tang Hao feels most helpless and embarrassed.

The Juggernaut shook his head and said nothing.

Before that, he had planned countless situations, but he had never thought of the one in front of him.

Just when the Sword Saint and others were frowning, a young man rushed in from outside the hall: “Uncle Sword Saint, Uncle Tang, please go to Skynet to take a look.”

“Breaking news!”

“Tonight, the Skynet organization will update the top list.”

“Just five minutes later!”

Mu Wuya, the son of boxing champion, has recovered a lot from his injuries and is now taking care of his father.

However, knowing that the ranking list that had not been opened for many years was updated again, Mo undoubtedly became excited instantly and ran to inform the Juggernauts.

“what?”

“The sky list is going to be updated?”

The Juggernaut and Tang Hao were also shocked.

Then I turned on my computer and logged on to a special website.

On the huge projector, it was a dark screen at this time.

In the middle of the black screen, there is a red time beating.

Countdown, sixty seconds!

“Thirty seconds!”

....

“Ten seconds!”

....

“One second!”

....

Boom~

Jinhui fell, light and shadow beat.

After many years, the top list will open again!

Chapter 3401

Day list.

The fiftieth, the little king of fighters-Mo Wuya.

....

“Oh oh oh...”

In the hall, seeing his name, Mo Wuya's whole person was like a mad dog, and he yelled directly.

In an instant, tears broke down.

Thirty years, nearly thirty years.

From the moment he was sensible, from the first moment he set foot in martial arts, Mo Wuya had dreamed of this moment.

That is, from the top of the list, he can see his Mo Wuya name.

Nowadays, all the hardships have come, and years of hard work have finally poured out the flower of hope.

There has never been a moment that made Mo Wuya as happy as he is now.

He can't wait to sing a song to express his joy.

“Uncle Sword Saint, Uncle Tang, I'm on the top of the list!”

“My name is on the list!”

“I finally made it to the top list...”

Excited, Mo Wuya burst into tears, rushed up and hugged Sword Saint and Tang Hao directly.

However, what Mo Wuya didn't expect was that Tang Hao directly pushed him away.

“Go go go...”

“Have fun.”

“I have no time to talk to you now.”

Tang Hao was full of disgust, and pushed Mo Wuya away, as if he thought he was blocking his vision.

At that time, Mo Wuya was very frustrated, and felt that his achievements and happiness were not shared by anyone.

However, it is true.

If it is normal time to see the people they have cultivated to the top of the list, the Juggernauts will naturally be happy from the bottom of their hearts, and they will even celebrate with a special feast for Mo Wuya.

But now, Tang Hao and Juggernaut, how could they still care about other things, only Mark's affairs made them feel devastated.

Now their only thought was to know how Mark, or the man named Chu Tianfan, actually ranked.

At this time, on the screen, the bloody light and shadow were still beating.

Countless light spots converge into lines of writing.

And the well-known title powers of the world have also continued to appear on this list.

Since the list is from the back to the front, the first to appear are some of the lower-ranked figures.

For example, Mochizuki River in Japan, there are also some other small countries' titled powerhouses.

.....

“Gaia, ranked thirty-second!”

“The thirty-first person, Haotian, Tang Hao!”

.....

“The twentieth place, Sword Saint, Xiao Chen!”

....

“Thirteenth, God of War, Ye Qingtian!”

....

The ranking has reached the God of War Ye Qingtian, so far, Mark's ranking has not yet appeared.

This undoubtedly means that Mark's ranking is even higher.

“Um?”

“what happened?”

“Why is Uncle God of War still the thirteenth?”

“It stands to reason that Brian Chuhas fallen, and his rank has been topped!”

“Uncle Ye should rise by one position.”

“Could it be that during this period of time, another hidden powerhouse has appeared?”

After seeing the ranking of the God of War Ye Qingtian, Mo Wuya frowned suddenly, full of doubts.

The last time the ranking was reopened was the time when Comet Brian Churose and swept through Japan.

At that time, Ye Qingtian was ranked thirteenth by Brian Chufrom the original twelve.

Later, Brian Chufell.

According to common sense, Ye Qingtian will move forward.

But the rank hasn't changed.

Mo Wuya was naturally puzzled.

“shut up!”

Tang Hao didn't bother to pay attention to this silly fellow.

These days, Mo Wuya worked hard while taking care of his father. In addition to the father on the bed, he also had the cultivation skills in his hands. Apart from that, his ears did not hear outside the window.

He also accidentally heard the news of the reopening of the list from other people. Therefore, Mo Wuya really didn't know what happened recently.

But Tang Hao and the others were naturally not in the mood to explain this to Mo Wuya. At this time, both Tang Hao and the Sword Saint, after they finished the ranking of the God of War, their eyes were still staring forward.
