

Chapter 341: There really is you, viewer

The figure of the White Queen gradually disappeared, and only the Black Witch was left on the bed.

She lay down with open hands, closed her red and swollen eyes, swallowed the cry from her throat back into her belly, and replaced it with another kind of tremor.

“Ha ha...”

“Hahahahahaha...”

“Ha ha ha ha!”

“She agreed, she agreed! But what’s the use, she can’t protect anything, we can’t protect anything! Nothing will change, the princess on the tower will definitely fall, tonight is everything Turning point... tonight...”

When she got to the back, the black witch couldn’t suppress the laughter from the deep folds of her soul. She twitched and shook her whole body. She even slapped the mattress vigorously, her closed eyes shed tears of laughter, and mocking saliva swept across her mouth. Several times he was breathless but still laughing until his body was relieved and turned into a puddle of mud.

Just like a madman.

“It’s rare to see you so happy. Any interesting stories to share?”

The palace disappeared quietly, she opened her eyes and found that she had returned to the initial dream state.

The witch stood beside her head, looking down at her with interest.

“...Nothing interesting.”

“Well, then you go back quickly.” The witch said: “The short and pleasant game is about to end.”

Snapped.

One hand grabbed the witch’s ankle.

The witch turned her head and saw the black dress girl still lying on the ground, but she reached out and grabbed her foot.

When the black dress girl raised her head, the witch saw familiar and unfamiliar eyes from her pupils.

Dark, clear, and bright.

There is no blood and ink fainting, and there is no crazy turbidity.

“...Black?” There was a hint of disbelief in the witch’s voice: “Are you awake?”

Hei didn’t speak, she just stared at the witch like this. This is what the sisters hate the most. Even if there is no word, eye contact is enough to complete all the communication.

The only way for her to express her attitude was to grasp the witch’s ankle, humble and firm.

However, the witch did not look at her, but cast her gaze to the other side.

It’s the peak time for work, and the White Witch is also off work.

She was wearing a pure white dress that she hadn't worn for a long time, lying weakly on the ground, light and light without any weight, like a lost snowflake.

"Have you all played until they are completely dry?" The witch said, "In this way, I am more cautious?"

Hearing the voice of the witch, the pure white girl also opened her eyes, struggling to climb to the witch's feet, and grabbed her other ankle. She didn't speak either, just staring at the witch quietly, with pleading tears pouring out of her pure eyes.

"He wakes up, and White is back?"

The witch squatted down and looked at the two of them with a bewildered face, as if a child found a toy that had not been seen before suddenly appeared on the desk.

Soon, she clapped her hands suddenly.

"I see!"

"No wonder the viewer is so generous this time, allowing us to deeply interfere with reality!"

"It is impossible for him to predict the level of confusion in our behavior. According to his cautious action style, we are not qualified to take on this task. I thought he wanted to take advantage of our numbers. With the secret avatar, the two-pronged approach can make Asia Xiu a super invincible scum man."

"It now appears that his goal is not the gospel at all, but us!"

"Or it's you!"

"He predicted the impact of dreams on you, so he deliberately let us out. You two are his achievements. With a two-eighth chance, he won the bet."

The witch was full of emotion at the spectator's calculations, and looked down at the sisters who were lying on the ground: "However, he also lost the bet."

"Even if you are willing to sacrifice yourself." The witch said every word: "I don't necessarily allow it."

"I'm not the same as Jian Ji, she can watch Sonia lead a better life, but when I see Lisdiya get the happiness I haven't had, I will only feel sick and take sour water."

"I actually want to like her too. After all, she is the me who used to be. But I saw Ah Xiu treats her so well, saw her comfortably through all the difficulties, and saw her smile all the time... in my heart All that is left is anger and jealousy."

"It's like there are countless voices torturing me in my mind—"

"Why her? Why not me?"

"Why can she avoid suffering? Why do I have to endure everything?"

"What did she do right and why does it have everything? How bad is it that I can't get anything?"

The witch tilted her head and stared at the two of them: "Speaking of which, are those voices my heart's voice or yours?"

"I want her to double enjoy the fate I have experienced, and then be tortured and twisted into a monster that is uglier and more unbearable than me." The beautiful face of the witch is full of cruel and viciousness: "Only in this way can I be a little bit comforted. "

"It's too late for me to cause her, how can I help her?"

The boiling malice passed along the skin to the black and white hearts, but they knew that they were only in contact with bubbles that emerged after boiling. Underneath were the bottomless, pitch-black sea abyss, which was huge, turbid, and could not evaporate. Despair.

And this is already the result of being shared by the seventeen sisters.

Because the witch has assumed the most despair, she also has the greatest authority-although this is not voluntary.

The witch and Hei were both stunned. They looked at Bai, as if trying to find traces of the latter’s joking.

“Although it’s a little bit late... it may be a lot late, but I’m sorry.” Bai tried to suppress the cry in her voice, but failed completely. Choking interrupted her words repeatedly: “So, I hope, I can at least help ...”

“Do you think that after so long, I still care about your belated apology?”

The witch stood up: “Yes, I care.”

Snapped!

The witch kicked Bai’s abdomen and kicked her more than ten meters away. The white mist on the crowd cleared away and made a tumbling road for her.

Then the witch bent over and picked him up: “What about you? Do you have anything you want to say to me?”

“No.” Hei calmly said, “I have never been sorry for you.”

“You really dare to say...” The witch sneered: “But why? Forget the white, black you are not a self-sacrificing person, I thought you are like me, you are not a good type to see others. UURed www.uukanshu.com”

She glanced at Bai who was struggling to get up in the distance: “No matter how much you give, you are not protecting your queen. Your past will not change at all, and the suffering will not be reduced.”

“At the end of the day, the term ‘make up for regrets’ is no different from ‘self-comfort.’ It is a trick of self-deception. Like making up for past regrets, previous sufferings can be wiped out...never existed!”

“Hei, be good, go to sleep.” The witch stared at the black pupils, her voice turned softly, and she was charming: “You are free from reality, so don’t come back.”

Hei shook his head.

“But I am dreaming now.”

The corners of her mouth were upturned and she showed a sincere smile: “So, don’t wake me up this time, just let me drown in my dream, okay?”

The witch was startled slightly, let go of her hand, and let Hei sit on the ground.

The dark deacon hugged the witch’s waist, like a koala haunting his mother, and like a younger sister who acted like a baby to her elder sister.

“You are there, viewer.”

Chapter 342: White mist disappeared

Triple reverberation...Water splashing...Yuguanglong poem...

I'm overpaying! It's the final rage mechanism!

In the Deep Sea Jiao Palace, the impossibility of the king carp tyrant roared his final roar. There were seven holes on the ground that were about to rupture, and the holes would rupture one by one. If you don't try to block the holes, the water from the outside will pour in. Come, drown all the eight magicians who are fighting!

Therefore, players must use their lives as the price to seal the cave entrance, but if the seven cave entrances are blocked but they have not been able to kill the Jizhanyu, the Jizhanyu who is singing a violent miracle will still overthrow the Jiao Palace, which is the same as the ending. !

[Cut the Carp Sacrifice], this is the rage detection mechanism that every extreme fantasy book of "Epic" will have, the ultimate test for the player group! Once it fails, it falls short!

Yaxiu didn't expect that a wild team he added casually would hit the violent stage and would soon pass the bill. Almost all members made zero mistakes in the middle, and it was so smooth and smooth that it was grateful!

This kind of feeling is like being unable to pay for public food at home, and going out to cheat, it becomes more and more hearty!

As the medical practitioner with the lowest output efficiency, Ya Xiu would naturally be the first sacrifice. When his character was miraculously fixed in the cave entrance to withstand 10,000 tons of water pressure, his dungeon mission was completely ended, and the next output mission was handed over to other teammates.

Now there is still 12% of the blood of Jizhan Carp. As long as Ya Xiu does not withdraw from the dungeon in advance, causing the game character to break away from the mechanism and cause violent destruction of the group, then this has basically stabilized.

"Finally passed the book...With this resume, then I am qualified to challenge the fantasy book..."

Just as Ya Xiu imagined which fantasy book to play next, he suddenly felt his heart beat violently.

Boom!

The skull knocked the bulky pulse into the brain through the ear canal, and the heartbeat detonated at its peak, and the consciousness was instantly exploded into fragments, and it took a long time to slowly converge into ear-piercing tinnitus.

The game cabin detected that Ya Xiu had an abnormal condition, and directly bounced him out, but the light and air could not massage the convulsive nerves. Ah Xiu felt as if his spine had been pulled out, and his life, vitality and even willpower were all taken away with him, leaving an empty and painful body.

Boom!

Boom!

The heart loyally pumps vitality into the blood vessels, trying to restart the poisoned central system. The right hemisphere happily analyzes the frantic notes sent by the low energy player. The temporal lobe is shouting and cheering beside to act as a cheerleader, everything is to stuff consciousness back into the body—

It's useless! That is a nerve shock that overrides willpower. A community animal in its twenties is still too young to resist physiological impulses. At least it will have to wait until the impotence of 40 or 50 years old to not look at the color map before there is such a possibility of revolution—call.

With a long spit of turbid air, the metaphysical self-consciousness strongly dominates all the underlying organs, the neurons that were still going crazy just now shivered in fear, the loosened nuts tightened again, and the body restarted steadily.

Ya Xiu sat up straight and glanced at the picture of the game cabin.

“Oh, exiting the dungeon in advance leads to violent violent actions. Now, he will definitely be scolded by his teammates on the forum.” He calmly recounted what would happen next, as if it were someone else’s experience.

It was the first time that Ya Xiu had entered a state of “flash of inspiration” in reality.

In the virtual realm, whenever he encounters a major crisis, he will enter the state of “a flash of light”. For example, when he was racing with Commander Demiro, he was in the state of “a flash of light” almost the entire time, and all operations were like scalpels. So accurate, and finally got the chance to beat De Miro.

In this state, Ah Xiu almost pulled the self-consciousness of ‘I’ away from his body, and observed everything calmly from a third-person perspective.

At the same time, because “I” and “self” are untied, “I” can completely ignore all the physical reactions and psychological emotions of “self” such as pain, anger, sadness, joy, fear, etc., just like playing chess, let’ You’ll only need to play the best part of this chess piece.

Speaking of it, this state is quite commensurate with the code name of the operator, and we will call this state “viewer form” in the future.

To be honest, the viewer’s form is quite good, and Ya Xiu also wants to maintain this form. Apart from other things, if he can take the initiative to enter the spectator form when he plays the book, he can run with zero errors even if he does not use a wheelchair. Not to mention the phantom book, it will be easy.

It is a pity that he can passively enter the viewer form only at critical moments of danger, and the duration is uncontrollable.

Once out of the dangerous state, the tight “watcher thread” in Ya Xiu’s mind will relax, and the overclocking mind will quickly reduce the frequency to the power saving mode—

For example now.

“Um!”

A Xiu snorted, and as soon as he exited the viewer’s form, the strong sense of emptiness was like a lump of lead that made him breathless. He even felt that he was drowning in the deep sea, every cell and every organ being squeezed by 10,000 tons of water pressure, and he was so uncomfortable that he wanted to faint to death.

Climbing out of the game cabin with difficulty, Ya Xiu could hardly maintain his cerebellum balance. The whole world was like an undried oil painting, with heavy smears in every color. The disorder of the visual center caused the stomach pressure to cross the threshold, and Ya Xiu vomited all the dinner tonight.

But while the stomach acid burned his throat, it also slightly stimulated his will. Ah Xiu took a deep breath for a few seconds, and finally successfully restarted the operating system. He connected all peripherals and barely restored basic mobility. However, the virus still severely slowed down the running speed. Ah Xiu suspects that his operational efficiency can only beat the 1% of the whole Gospel peer.

There are not many people on the game floor, and most of the people on this floor are in the game cabin. The night sky outside the window was clear, and Van Mula tonight was also peaceful and quiet, and Ya Xiu looked around for a week, but couldn’t find the suspicious person cursing him.

He struggled to reach the front desk to ask for help, but found that the young lady at the front desk was also paralyzed on the chair.

Her eyes were hollow and her face was expressionless. Her lips that once greeted Ya Xiu enthusiastically turned blue. If she hadn’t seen her trembling eyelashes and regularly undulating breasts, Ya Xiu would have thought she would become a Harvey customer.

“Miss Petillo?” Ya Xiu greeted tentatively.

The young lady seemed to try to focus on Ya Xiu, but it seemed that the movement of controlling her eyes used up her little energy. She couldn’t say a word, there was no light in her eyes, it was like...a broken puppet.

It is not the first time that Ash has seen this state.

On the first day they arrived at Van Mula, he had seen a broken man like a carriage.

But Sennheiser is located in the city center of Van Mulla, not on the edge of the city with thin white mist—white mist?

Ya Xiu suddenly turned his head and looked out the window, rubbing his eyes to confirm that he really saw a clear night sky.

He ran over and opened the window, and the refreshing roar of the night breeze hugged his face and gave him a mess.

The moon is high and the stars are twinkling. Located in the second-floor city of Yaxiu in Sennheiser District, you can clearly overlook the lights of Van Mula.

The air is clean and sweet, and the visibility is so high that people want to take out the infrared light and aim at the distant buildings.

“White mist,” he murmured, “disappeared?”

.....

“I never thought that one day I would come to Van Mullah to perform a mission, and I never thought that the white fog of Van Mullah would one day disappear.”

Several floating vehicles flew across the chaotic intersection, even with the assistance of an unmanned driving system, but under the terrifying impact of the entire city paralyzed, Van Mula’s traffic naturally came to an unavoidable standstill. The fallen citizens seem to have pressed a mysterious button, making the city fall asleep.

“But is this too trivial?”

In the floating car, a young man with Red Riding Hood chewing gum sighed: “Just to catch a few people, the entire Van Mula was paralyzed. If Van Mula is a beautiful girl, then our current behavior is equivalent to that. Forcibly stripped her clothes, took off her underwear, pulled out the straps of her underwear, and made a slingshot to hit her.”

“Shut up, Wright.” Clios said with a red eye, and a sniffed nose: “If we get a bargain, don’t behave well, and quickly complete the task and leave, and return Van Mula to them.”

The two of them were the second of the top ten Red Riding Hood captains in the country, “Crying Red Riding Hood” Clios and “Dead Sniper Red Riding Hood” Wright.

Wright is the Red Hat captain of Modola, and the two first-tier cities adjacent to Azura are Modola and Van Mula, so Wright caught up with the arrest of Yaxiu.

Clios had always wanted to monopolize the credit of Asia Xiu, and repeatedly stated in the internal communication system that he would be able to catch Asia Xiu soon, so other Red Hat Captains who were a little further away did not even think about it. Only Wright is the closest, he has to run over to share some of his achievements, Clios has nothing to do.

In addition to the two Red Hat teams, there are also two offices accompanying tonight.

No need to mention Jiahaoyueyuan Office, their ability to control smart homes is very practical everywhere, and the other one—

“Until now, no one has come out to intercept us. It seems that Sennheiser is really unprepared.” Wright exhaled the light curtain: “The final payment has passed. Happy cooperation.”

“Happy cooperation.” A voice came from the light curtain: “The Time Difference Office” is determined to provide customers with the most comprehensive concealment service. Welcome to the next entrustment. Since the task is over, our employees will also retire first. ”

The time difference firm ranked No. 1 in Modola and No. 10 in the country is the guarantee for the success of their action tonight.

Because of its nature, their surprise attack tonight is equivalent to a conspiracy, and they caught Sennheiser by surprise.

The most fearful of conspiracies and tricks is to be seen through in advance.

But in the Gospel Kingdom, it is too simple to see through the conspiracy against yourself first.

Among other things, as long as the patriarch Sennheiser asks the Gospel regularly every day, "Are there any major incidents of dangerous family safety happening today", then the raid plan tonight will go bankrupt.

The time difference office provides the business of concealing conspiracy to deceive the gospel.

Although the gospels will truthfully record all the reality that has happened, there is still room for questioning about the conspiracies and tricks that have not yet been implemented in the mind. For example, if they plan to launch a raid on the 19th, the Time Lapse Office can help them and make the Gospel mistakenly think that the planned time is 22. As a result, Patriarch Sennheiser cannot find the correct answer from the Gospel.

The cost of doing so is naturally very high. Once the Gospel makes a mistake, it will return ten times or even a hundred times the point compensation. The specific price depends on the loss of the consultant. But the gospel will not be lost in vain, it will learn a lesson every time it makes a mistake, and the next time it is difficult to deceive the gospel is almost doubled.

The time difference firm that sat firmly in the top five decades ago has fallen to tenth in these years, which is enough to reflect the evolutionary speed of the gospel.

But before the time difference firm is completely eliminated, every service they provide means that a group of people will encounter unexpected blows.

“Determine the mission goal.” Clios picked up the walkie-talkie and said, “Ash Heath, no matter who catches him, the merits will be divided into seventy-three, and seventy-three will go to me.”

“Then Annan Dolan and Panji Dolan. Although they still don’t have a criminal record, they are very close to Ya Xiu, and they may also appear as criminals in future knitting festivals. It happens that tomorrow is the day when the second list is announced. We will detain them for 48 hours in the name of assisting in the investigation, and we can arrest them directly if there is any trouble.”

“This is not the same as promised!” In the floating car next to it, a commissioner exclaimed: “Axiu will return to Red Hat, and An Nan to the office!”

“After the second list comes out, if Nabistine does not issue a reward for An Nan and Panji, I will let them out, and then the dispute between your firm will be resolved by itself.”

The Commissioner murmured, but after all, he did not have the courage to confront the red hat.

When Clios turned off the walkie-talkie, ‘Red Riding Hood’ Wright glanced at her: “Do you want to protect the purple moth?”

“My goal is Ash Heath.” Clios said, “It’s not An Nan.”

“But she can create chaotic fanatics who influence the weaving festival, just in case—”

“Isn’t that better?”

Clios twitched his nose and said with a smile: “Originally, catching an Ash will make me the No. 1 Red Riding Hood, but it’s a pity that you, a bastard, will be more profitable... As long as there is another Ash, then I will be in the next fifty years. The first Red Riding Hood!”

“The world will be destroyed in the future, do you still care about that ranking?”

Clios was taken aback, and said: “But...I am a red cap...I definitely care about my ranking...”

Wright was silent for a moment and waved his hand: “Forget what I said just now...but it’s not easy for you to keep An Nan.”

“An Nan is still a law-abiding citizen, who dares to hurt her?”

“There is one in the car behind.” Wright said lightly: “Don’t forget, who is dispelling the white fog that has entangled Van Mulla for hundreds of years. The secret guard from Nabistine is a judicial disaster that cannot be restrained by the Gospels. .”

Through the rearview mirror, Clios could see the armored guard sitting in the back car. It was wearing a full-covering black knight costume, barely an inch of skin was exposed to the outside, even the eyes were hidden by the face mask.

It sits in the back seat, like an ancient tombstone.

Since gunsmiths became the mainstream faction of fighting, armors have been kicked into the garbage dump of history. Almost no magicians would wear such heavy armors, unless it is a stubborn ancient tradition.

The secret guard is an ancient tradition that has been passed down for hundreds of years. They are the most loyal shields and sharpest blades of the royal family of Isu. From the day they appeared, they walked in the gospel kingdom in the form of guards of darkness. No one knows who they are, and no one even knows whether they are human or not. -In view of their characteristics of neither eating nor drinking nor excreting nor entertaining, many magicians feel that the secret guards are actually a group of activated armors.

However, this group of walking armors represents the highest authority of the Yisu royal family.

Not only are representatives of status, they can even directly mobilize royal family resources to achieve any purpose—for example, to disperse the fog of Van Mula.

Neither the office nor the Red Hat has the ability to disperse the fog at all.

A few days ago, Wright and Clios were still waiting outside Fan Mula, waiting for Ash and others to take the initiative to leave Fan Mula. At that time, the secret guard approached them and said that he would disperse the fog and help them catch Ash Heath.

It is no ordinary miracle to disperse the white fog of the entire city without harming the city. It can only be a miracle of praying for the gospel.

In fact, it was indeed the case. After the Red Hat and the office were ready, the secret guard summoned the Gospel. After some manipulation, the white fog of Van Mura disappeared.

Clios couldn't imagine how many gospel points this miracle would cost. Maybe she could afford the points even if she exhausted her hundred years of savings, but she would definitely not waste it like this.

Sanctuary magicians may not be able to earn points in their lifetime, but they are so easily used for urban environmental protection. The whole gospel can only be squandered by the wealthy royal family.

Clios thought that the secret guard was arresting Ashiu and An Nan on behalf of the Yisu royal family, but the secret guard shook his head and said that he would not interfere in the arrest.

It has another task this time.

"To be honest, the Secret Guard really helped a lot." Clios said: "Dispelling the white mist not only paralyzed all the Vatican and Shepherds, but the patriarch of Sennheiser should be still in a dream at this time. There is no white. As the medium of Mist, she can't return from the dream at all. At least for an hour, we only need to face Sennheiser who doesn't even have a commander."

"In return to the secret guard, we made as much noise as possible, and focused all of Brahma's eyes on us. In this way..."

"The secret guard should also be able to find its quest object more easily."

Chapter 342: Wushuang Secret Sword 5 Spirits Random Luxury Gift Box

“Why is Van Mulla’s fog...”

Ashura paused, crossed out the question, and rewritten in the Gospel: “Am I in danger tonight?”

Gospel: “Yes (consumption of 1 gospel point).”

Axiu pondered for a moment, hid in the front desk, turned the gospel book to the page of “Ollora’s Handbook for Magicians”, and then opened “Sennheiser Dreamland”-“Dreamland Fragment Exchange.”

Tonight’s dream expedition is over, and now such a big thing has happened—it’s almost like a terrorist attack—Axiu feels that their trip to Van Mura may end here, so can the harvest of Sennheiser’s dream. Settled in advance.

No matter what is about to happen, it’s the right thing to convert idle resources into combat power as soon as possible!

Ah Xiu looked at him. After these days of hard work, he has accumulated 1553 dream fragments. Although it looks like a lot, as soon as he sees the rich rewards of the exchange office, he will It must be as careful as when I was a child with 50 bills to go to a snack shop to buy spring outing snacks.

However, Asia Xiu had nothing to do when he was forming a game team these days, and he had already figured out which prizes he would redeem. For him, the act of thinking about what to buy with the bonus before he won the prize is simply a kind of spiritual entertainment.

Fortunately, Yaxiu has been studying the cost-effectiveness of each prize, so he doesn’t need to think too much now, he just packs the best package combination away!

The first is “Wu Shuang Secret Sword and Five Spirits Random Luxury Gift Box”!

Compared with the ordinary gift box, the deluxe gift box is only 100 pieces more expensive, but there are two more gifts: an exclusive miracle orb for the Wushuang secret sword and five spirits (master immediately after use), and the key ordinary magic spirit required to combine this miracle .

Asia Xiu is different from Jian Ji, Jian Ji can almost immediately grasp the new swordsmanship spirit, but Ya Xiu needs to train for a day or two before he can barely reach the actual combat state. Even if it can be used in actual combat, but unless the basic effect of Shu Ling is very good, then Asia would rather use miracles.

Don't forget, the number of magic spirits that a magician can use at the same time is limited. For example, Ya Xiu can use four magic spirits at the same time at most.

For example, manipulating Shu Ling is like playing RTS (real-time strategy game). A powerful man can precisely control each unit for tactical micro-management, while Ya Xiu can only play strategy—select all units, and then directly Pushed over in a wave.

So after coming to Time Continent, Ya Xiu's magic spirit system has not been updated much. It is still the long-range support style of “sword barrier”, because he is only proficient in the miracle of “sword barrier”. As for His creation of the miracle of “run to” movement and the miracle of “cut me” to get rid of the negative state, are usually useless.

As for the “Heart Sword” and “Sword Mark”, they are basically ordinary attacks for scraping.

He needed an explosive damage miracle too much, so he locked this luxurious gift box at first glance.

Redeem! Change!

“You opened the ‘Wu Shuang Secret Sword and Five Spirits Random Luxury Gift Box’.”

“You got the “Love Sword” of the Second Wing Shuling.”

“You got the “Love” of the Second Wing Shuling.”

“You have obtained the Miracle Orb, “A soft spot”.”

Although Ah Xiu was very happy that the gift boxes were all the two-winged magic spirits that were most suitable for him, but the names of these magic spirits made him feel that his burst output dream had failed again.

“Love Sword”

“Two Wing Shu Ling”

“Restriction: The magician must be able to generate emotions.”

“Basic effect: Consume the current emotions and summon a love sword that can be freely controlled.”

“Passive effect: Your emotions are more vigorous, and the external performance is to strengthen your character traits.”

“You have to be as happy as me to share; you have to be as sad as me to apologize.”

....

“Love”

“Restriction: The magician must be able to generate emotions.”

“Basic effect: Turn all your current emotions into a single emotion you specify. The current convertible emotions are anger, love, happiness, and sadness.”

“Passive effect: You will be more dedicated to everything, reducing your chances of double-heartedness, and reducing your chances of empathy.”

“In the world of the magician, the mood can be fake.”

“Miracle-Love has a liking: Through love changing emotions, a specific single love sword is regenerated. According to different emotions, the effects of love swords are also different—

Rage sword, the attack speed is extremely fast, the armor-breaking power is extremely strong;

Le Sword has a healing effect on the body and soul;

Sorrow sword, the attack speed is average, each hit gives the target various negative states such as slowing down, blinding, tinnitus, dizziness, etc.;

Love the sword, strengthen the target physical fitness in all aspects. ”

How to put it...Although it is not without outbreak, although it is very practical, although the scope of application is very comprehensive...

But this miracle is of auxiliary type! I still have to stand in the back row to play auxiliary play consumption!

I just want to pretend to be forceful in front of the witch and Jian Ji, can't such a simple wish be satisfied! ?

After purchasing the luxurious gift box, the Dreamland Fragment changed from a four-digit number to a three-digit number, and Ya Xiu had few choices left. However, the miracle of “a soft spot” did help a lot. Originally, Ya Xiu wanted to purchase a medical magic spirit for emergency use, and now there is a “Le Sword” that can save a lot of money.

Now that there are so many dream fragments left, Ash couldn't help but focus on the top prizes with the highest price in “Sennheiser Dreamland”:

“One Wing Shu Ling-Secret Poison Diary”, “Random Shu Ling Summon Card”, “Crew Possession Card”.

Among them, the “Random Shu Ling Summoning Card” Yaxiu has drawn before, it is a golden legendary function card, and the actual effect is worthy of its rarity-the operator will summon a Shu Ling of her current mana level within a week. When Sword Princess was still a winged wizard, she summoned a winged psychic spirit, and even her psychic faction reached the silver rank.

Now they are two-winged magicians. As long as they use this function card, they will naturally summon a random two-winged magician, and the corresponding magic faction of the magical will also be upgraded to the gold level.

The prices of these three prizes are the same, indicating that the other two prizes are also at the Golden Legend level. However, Ya Xiu did not take these prizes into consideration at the beginning. After all, the empress lover in the Void Realm would dismantle their family of three at any time, and these prizes could not immediately improve their strength. It would be better to buy Shu Ling. The gift box lottery will give priority to filling the flaws of Ya Xiu in attack, defense, weakening, and healing.

But the love sword is too practical. It is as if Ya Xiu wanted to buy a lot of entertainment equipment, but he bought a mobile phone and found that it could barely meet all the entertainment needs. The old saying goes well, but it's not unusable, Ya Xiu doesn't need to pursue a little improvement in performance and spend more money.

Among the top prizes, the “Random Spell Summon Card” is the first to be excluded. Although its practicality has been recognized by everyone, its cheating nature has also been resisted by Jian Ji, because the summoning ritual is also completely random, like Jian Ji's random ritual request of “can only speak from the heart”. Her interpersonal relationship has changed drastically.

Although the result was good, if Ya Xiu dared to come again, Jian Ji would definitely fight him desperately.

Since it can't be used by Sword Fairy, naturally it can't be used by Witch. After all, the state of Witch is worse than Sword Fairy in various senses.

Ya Xiu himself didn't need it even more. This card was actually a training course for a specific spell faction, but it was only trained for employees, not for bosses.

The effect of the "Chairman Possession Card" is also more subtle, UU reading www.uukanshu.com In short, Ya Xiu can temporarily summon a cadre to possess him, and the cadre can control his body to fight.

Because it was possessed by the soul, the operator's magic spirit was also brought over, and the operator could exert 100% combat power on the "Axiu Fighter".

To be fair, this card is indeed worth the golden legend, as long as it is used well, it can even turn the tide of battle and subvert the situation.

But the problem is, Jian Ji and the witch, Bia Xiu's strength is limited...

If they were the four-winged legendary magician, assisted by the master of Asiu, attacked by the master of the sword, and controlled by the master of the witch, then the difference in combat power between them would indeed be widened. A mighty enemy that Yaxiu could not resist, the sword might One sword can kill in seconds. At that time, this operator possessed card could become Asia's turnaround card.

But now they are only two-winged golden mage. Sword Fairy can defeat Ya Xiu, but it has not reached the level of crushing. Ya Xiu can extend his defeat time through defense, escape, harassment and other tactics. If it was an enemy that Ya Xiu couldn't defeat at all, there might not be any hope for changing the sword girl.

The card is a good card, but unfortunately it came too early and the time was wrong.

Therefore, Asia Xiu chose to purchase the first top prize.

Chapter 344: Axiu run

“Secret Poison Diary”

“One Wing Shu Ling”

“Restrictions: The technician must have the ability to write.”

“Basic effect: Summon a diary, you can write on it at will. When you write down a complete secret poison information, you will be immune to all the effects of secret poison. Currently the number of secret poisons that can be recorded: 01. ”

“Passive effect: A copy of your notebook will appear in the virtual realm. When the number of readings of the copy exceeds 500 times, the magic spirit will automatically be promoted to Second Wing. Current number of readings: 0500.”

“What you write for yourself is called a diary; what you write for others is called a biography.”

With surplus food, it is difficult for Ya Xiu not to buy this diary—this is the only magic spirit he knows that can resist the effects of secret poison!

To the magician, the secret poison is like staying up late, smoking, or going to work. You know that it will seriously affect your physical and mental health, but because the consequences will only become apparent in the far future, so even if you are very worried, you will only Can continue to bear it for a living, let it lie flat and get beaten.

Although the secret poison diary can only record one secret poison at present, it at least gives the sub-healthy people like Ya Xiu who have several chronic diseases a hope of recovery.

And if Yaxiu guessed correctly, he should be able to modify the secret poison information he recorded at any time. That is to say, if the number of people infected with a secret poison increases sharply, he can record the secret poison outbreak in time, so that other things After the infected person is dying to death, the destructive power of the secret poison will drop to a normal level that can be tolerated.

As long as several secret poisons did not explode at the same time, Ya Xiu was basically in no danger of life.

This thing requires every operator to have a copy, but I don't know what activity to change to next, but this is a long-term virus prevention, and I can't come in a hurry.

Another thing that surprised Ya Xiu was that the 'Secret Poison Diary' was actually a Shu Ling, but its effect was far beyond the scope of a Wing Shu Ling, and its functional orientation was very unpopular.

If a magician who doesn't know the secret poison gets it, it's basically trash.

However, it was not the first time that Ya Xiu saw such a low-level magic spirit with comprehensive capabilities and tricky functions. Compared with Zero Wing Shuling's Soul Calling, the Secret Poison Diary has paid a little attention to its influence, and it hasn't been opened too far.

After purchasing the "Secret Poison Diary", Ya Xiu didn't have many dream fragments, but there were still many weird prizes to buy.

For example, "shuling relationship information" can obtain an unknown Shuling relationship. Using this relationship, Shuling's truth gate will designate a safe virtual area of about 50 square meters. To put it simply, this information allows the surgeon to obtain a mobile storage space of 50 square meters.

It sounds good, but the Void Realm only allows souls to enter. If you want to stuff things into the Void Realm to save, you need another special wonder or auxiliary miracle. These two more important things are not available in Asia, which is equivalent to buying a wife's cake. Eat with no wife.

Finally, Ya Xiu chose to buy a “Swordsmanship Orb” and a “Fisting Claw Orb”. These two experience orbs are naturally not for Ya Xiu’s own use. In order to maximize the use of the experience sharing of the bond relationship, the experience orbs have to be fed to the witch and the sword girl.

Just when Ah Xiu was about to close the exchange office, he suddenly noticed that there was an unseen prize at the bottom of the exchange list.

“Witch’s Dream: 10 Dream Shards. Use them immediately after exchange. Within 24 hours, your mind faction level will temporarily increase to the Gold level, and you can only exchange them once.”

Witch’s dream? Ah Xiu blinked. He chose the Witch for the way he acted in the Dream Expedition, so is this extra reward?

If he chooses Jian Ji, then the exchange office will have more Jian Ji’s dreams, raising the swordsmanship faction to the gold level within 24 hours?

While thinking wildly, Ya Xiu exchanged “Witch’s Dream.” Anyway, there are only 10 dream fragments, don’t want it for nothing.

I don’t know if it was an illusion. After redeeming the “Witch’s Dream”, he felt that his spiritual faction seemed to have really risen. If you could only see a small composition of no more than 140 words in the eyes, now Ya Xiu feels that he can complete a essay defense with only his eyes.

Close the “Aurora’s Handbook for Magicians”, Ash opens the gospel and asks: “Open the funeral office chat group.”

Because these days are all free activities, An Nan spent some gospel points and opened their exclusive chat group, so he could just say anything in the group. Although there are civilian substitutes, in terms of immediacy and privacy, the communication services provided by the gospel are naturally unmatched.

There are not many records in the chat group. Basically, they are all notifications from An Nan and neatly ‘received’ replies. After all, there is a chat group with a boss, and many things are hard to say, and it is natural to be deserted.

However, the chat group is quite lively at this time—

“Mr. Borkin: I’m going to find Yaxiu Confluence, where are you?”

“Death Artist: I am also going to Ash’s side.”

“Steward: Same.”

“Housekeeper: Miss? Miss?”

“Housekeeper: Why didn’t the lady watch the group?”

“Mr. Borkin: Missy can’t solve her addiction alone?”

“Steward: Impossible.”

“Mr. Bokin: Why didn’t Asia Xiu watch the group?”

“Death Artist: Axiu, run away.”

Ya Xiu was taken aback, and he suddenly reacted. If the enemy who caused Vanm and Mulla’s mutation is really directed at them, then their first goal must be to be wanted by the empire, and is suspected of causing the end in the “Art List” ranking. The murderer, slaughtered directly will not lead to his own red name—

Snapped! Snapped! Snapped! Snapped!

The windows on the game floor shattered one after another, and the red hat representing the armed violence organization of the Gospel rammed into the room with his imperial boots. Clios, who was walking in the front, held a short gun in his left hand, and held up a document in his right hand: “A cross-region search Let’s conduct a raid now!”

“I have found it.”

Wright raised the bolt sniper blaster with one hand and aimed at the black-robed Ashiu who was hiding in the front desk: “I am Wright Rex, the captain of the Red Hat of Modola. Now I suspect that you are a suspect in the 69-165th wanted order. You are required to raise your hands up and face the wall immediately for inspection.”

“How do you know that I am here?” Ah Xiu took out his mask and put it on: “The “twisted mask” should be able to block the Gospel’s positioning of me.”

In the knitting rewards of “Art List”, the evil spirit windbreaker can cause a mental shock, and the twisted mask is to improve the concentration and the effect of twisting exploration. UU reading www.uukanshu.com

An Nan and the others have tried it. As long as they try to determine the position of Ash in any way, the result of the gospel feedback must be outrageous.

This is also the reason why Ya Xiu has not been abandoned. After all, he will definitely carry a demon windbreaker and a twisting mask. If he can easily determine his location through special items, then An Nan carrying Ya Xiu is almost the same as surrendering.

“The Gospel did not give you your position.” Wright laughed: “But we found your game account from An Nan’s home. Although you didn’t use that account here, use the Gospel to search for two players with the same behavioral rules. It’s not that difficult—after all, I’m searching only for your player account, not yourself. The Twisted Mask doesn’t seem to be that smart.”

“Then determine your login address, join your game team, determine your play time, and naturally know that you must be here at this point in time.”

Asia was taken aback: “You...”

“Didn’t I tell you, do I have a job tonight?”

Wright's sniper aimed at Ah Xiu's chest: "Captain, you should feel honored. I'm an absolute player. It's really uncomfortable to accompany you in this game."

Chapter 345: Fight back

Latest URL:

Run away? The escape is certain, Wright doesn't mention it, Clios is a real three-wing sanctuary, and I don't have any chance of winning.

Hijacked? The only hostage around me is the young lady at the front desk. I can't live without mentioning my conscience. The problem is that the young lady is broken and can't even move.

If it is said that holding a normal person with mobility is equivalent to riding a horse, then holding a person without mobility is equivalent to being rode by a horse, and has no effect other than increasing the red hat's rage value.

Ah Xiu knew that he couldn't escape from the battle. His current position was the front desk, some distance from the stairs. He had to fight to get the chance to escape.

So how do you fight? Generally speaking, at this time, Ya Xiu would choose to use a substitute to send a wave of death to attract the enemy's attention...

But now the double should still be with Liz...

After a moment of silence, Ya Xiu raised his hands and stood up, and walked towards the red cap on his own initiative: "I surrender."

“No surrender!” Wright and Clios yelled in unison, and the red caps raised their guns to Ai Xiu together—as the T0-level magic faction of this generation, the red caps are almost all gunsmiths, even if they are not the major faction, they are also minors. Faction.

Ah Xiu was taken aback when he heard it, “Don’t you even surrender? Then why didn’t you just kill me? Is it so savage?”

The two Red Hat captains were also helpless. They all knew what * was in Ash’s stomach, but they really couldn’t take the lead in illegally killing criminals who surrendered themselves. In fact, they didn’t even dare to hurt Ash—unless Ash was clear. If they resist arrest, even if Ash is a wanted criminal, as long as they attack first, the Gospel will identify them as guilty of intentional harm.

Civilization is the shackles of violence. The more civilized the country, the more cautious the use of violence.

Putting it in the blood moon country may be able to secretly violate the law enforcement, but the most powerful aspect of the gospel kingdom is that supervision is everywhere and all the time. As long as the red hat still wants to stay on the list, he will definitely not take the lead in breaking the law.

Clios motioned a red hat to shackle Ya Xiu, and said with red eyes: “Keep your hands high, as long as you move a little bit, we will attack your vitals. If you try, we will kill you.”

“I’m a little second-wing magician, how can I dare to make trouble in front of the sanctuary magician?” Ya Xiu shrugged, and honestly waited for the red cap to come over and subdue himself.

However, when the red hat came to Ya Xiu’s body, Ya Xiu’s black robe suddenly split from the middle—he slashed his clothes with his heart sword!

boom! boom!

“Close your eyes!”

While Wright roared, Ya Xiu immediately dodged in the direction of the game cabin.

Because he deliberately waited until the red cap came in front of him before trying to see him, he could hide behind the red cap a little sideways, so other people didn't dare to risk shooting their colleagues with precision shooting, and all the bullets hit the ground.

All the red hats immediately closed their eyes and scattered. However, several red hats aimed their guns at the stairs and windows. The last bit of luck in Ya Xiu's heart was gone, and he honestly ran into the aisle between the game cabins. It's a pity—

Almost all of Red Hat escaped the shock of his "Evil Windbreaker"!

As soon as he cut the black robe, they all closed their eyes, and they didn't even witness the appearance of the evil demon of Ya Xiu!

It is only natural to want to come. The "Art List" put his rewards there brightly, and in addition, Ashura also used "evil windbreakers" to scare away the two commissioners of the Haoyueyuan office in Azura. How could the red hat be possible? No defense?

But that's okay, since they closed their eyes and abolished their most important visual senses, Ya Xiu could escape more easily. Although it is very despicable, but under the cover of the dense game cabin, the red hat absolutely dare not attack him indiscriminately. In case it hurts innocent Vamura citizens, just wait to take off the hat——

However—

Suddenly, Ya Xiu froze, his scalp was numb with fear, and his cells were madly preventing him from going into death. Without time to think about it, he instantly spit out his honey-belly sword straight into the ground, and the warm yellow sword body barrier was formed instantly!

"Sword Body Barrier"!

Happiness!

Three explosions echoed in the space, and Ya Xiu didn't see anything clearly. The sword barrier just exploded, and then his abdomen seemed to be flicked with a heavy hammer. Ya Xiu just felt like he was flying, his stomach was like it exploded like a water bag, and the strong shock turned into a thousand red and burned out Ya Xiu's vision——

Snapped!

After hitting his back on the cold and hard ground, Ya Xiu spit out a mouthful of blood, and the cold air he inhaled was like a knife inserted into his lungs. Pain occupies too much of his thinking resources, and only a little fighting intuition is still working effectively——

That is a ricochet!

There are game bays on the front and back of Ya Xiu. The Red Hat can't shoot it, but the ricochet jumped twice between the ceiling and the wall. It shot at Ya Xiu from above at an incredible angle, and its power was not diminished. , Not only smashed the second-wing defensive miracle "sword body barrier" in an instant, but also had spare power to shoot through his abdomen-no, not through, it was a miraculous shock bomb, which converted all the kinetic energy into a large area of hammering. Turn the shot that can cause fatal injuries into shock injuries that are harder to heal!

Sword Ji said that the Gunshu faction generally has two directions. Either mortal kills, or headshots, to ensure that the enemy will die instantly; or high-intensity extreme destructive power, to ensure that the enemy cannot defend and heal.

If it is a penetrating injury that does not have a headshot, it is actually very good for the surgeon. After all, the area of the injured area is small, and various medical miracles can be completed in one shot; and those heavy blow injuries that specifically damage the body in a large area can not only instantly destroying various organs of the surgeon caused his strength to drop sharply, and the surgeon has not been able to treat it quickly.

Ah Xiu felt that his abdomen had almost become pasty, his intestines were tangled up more messy than shoe laces, and his ribs should have been shattered a few times, just in a state of dying and loss of strength-crying to death. The red hat bullet is really gentle, and Ya Xiu doesn't have to think about how to resist now, he has to breathe as hard as he can now.

If there is still the sun-against magic spirit sent by Jian Ji, he can be healed immediately.

It's a pity that I answered the wrong question in the wooden house and the output went.

Sword Princess...

"No need to surrender, no need to resist, you will be in shock in 10 seconds, we wait for you to fall asleep and then take you away." Wright's voice gradually approached, and there were footsteps approaching him: "You don't have to be reconciled. I am a three-winged blunderbussman. Even if you are a weak man, if I want you to shock for a few seconds, you will have to shock for a few seconds."

It is a three-winged magician again, and also the most violent gunsmith. Coupled with the Cleos next to me, that means there are two Sanctuary magicians who arrested me...

The first time he was arrested, he was a sacred magician.

The second time they were arrested, they were two sacred magicians.

Ash can only pray that this is an arithmetic sequence rather than a geometric sequence.

But this time he should not be able to escape. As a professional prison evaluator, Ah Xiu is finally going to return to his old line.

However, when Ash barely recovered from the concussion, he saw Igola on the ceiling as soon as he opened his eyes.

The fraudster uncovered a lattice on the ceiling and leaned out half of his head to look at him, his eyes cold as if he was looking at a piece of pork.

Igola pointed to himself, then to the ground, and finally waved to Ah Xiu, motioning him to stand up quickly.

Ah Xiu didn't actually understand Igola's tactical sign language, but he understood his mission-to stand up as a taunting follower.

As long as he stands up, the shock detection of the "Evil Demon Windbreaker" will continue to take effect, and the red cap will definitely not dare to open his eyes easily, and must fight without seeing sight!

But the risk factor for standing up is extremely high, and Ya Xiu is not a good citizen. He is now a legitimate wanted criminal. After being killed by the red hat, he is not only fine, but he also has a bonus!

But now, how could Ah Xiu not believe in Igola?

He condensed his sword fingers, spurred Love Shu Ling, and turned all the pain, fear, and fighting spirit in his heart into happiness, and then urged the Love Sword Skill Ling to condense a 'Le Sword' and stab it into his abdomen!

Miracle, a special fondness, Le sword!

The warmth moisturizes the whole body along the abdomen, and the happiness penetrates from the outside to the inside. Ah Xiu was surprised to find that his pain was also suppressed by the "Le Sword". At least it did not occupy much thinking resources, and the gears of the body could barely be driven.

Although there is a high probability that the pain will come back after the "Le Sword" fails, but at least he can persist until Ya Xiu completes his tactical mission!

"Um!"

Ya Xiu helped the game cabin to stand up, and saw Clios appearing in the aisle. He snorted and summoned the heart sword to shoot at the holy domain magician!

"It is confirmed that Yaxiu Heath has clearly resisted arrest." Even with his eyes closed, Clios still shot the Heartburst Sword casually: "Unlock the kill restriction!"

Boom!

The floor shook suddenly, and a huge green circle suddenly appeared in the area where the red hats were. The faint green smoke penetrated into their bodies and quickly chemically reacted with their souls.

Even if the red hats closed their eyes, they seemed to be able to see an unmanned street in the rain. The clothes on my body were wet, and the cold wind blew my face and made me feel pain. Distress, sadness, self-pity, fear, coldness, various negative emotions hit my heart, and even Clio and Wright trembled slightly. For a moment~www.mtlnovel.com~ is just below the red hat. A coffin is placed upside down on the ceiling. Several emerald green chains emerging from the coffin tightly lock the ceiling. The eight chains just describe an octagon. Law circle. Harvey lay on the ground, looking away from the coffin, folded his hands in prayer.

Miracle · Immortal Coffin Cold Rainy Night!

Deduct the effects of the illusion system and the mind system with the necromantic system, and make the enemy hallucinate by dumping the negative energy!

After a few breaths of loss in the red cap, Igola jumped down and pulled Ash to the blind spot of the red cap's line of sight, letting go of his voice and said loudly, "I will release the scream of the soul next. Ordinary people ten meters away will cause sudden death if they listen directly. Sudden death, three, two, one!"

The face of the red hats who broke free from the negative energy changed drastically, but the scream of the soul was imminent, and they had no time to kill the culprit Igola!

At first, Ah Xiu was wondering how Igola got the bad habit of explaining before the magnification move, but just before Igola made a silent scream, the red hats attacked the ground, ceiling and walls of the game floor at a long distance. Cast the miracle of earth magic to create a temporary soundproof wall!

At the moment Igola uttered a silent scream, a petite blue phantom also climbed from the outer wall to the game layer-it was Panji·Duolan.

The funeral office currently has the strongest ice gunsmith.

At this time, in front of the young housekeeper, there were a group of red hats with their backs facing him.

Bingguo double guns emptied the magazine in one second, and 62 miracle guns hit the law enforcement officers like a shower. Once hit, these blunderbuss will draw blood from the enemy's body to create sharp frost flowers that cause secondary damage and freeze death into a brilliant and brilliant artwork!

The perfect combination of blizzard and ice, efficiency and magnificence complement each other!

Miracle, blooming and freezing!

Chapter 346: Give up Ashiu

Latest URL:

Igola discovered that in dreams, as long as your imagination is rich and delicate enough, even without the assistance of a 'real person', you can create an illusion that can interact with you normally.

So he created an illusion of a cow and horse, and traveled with the cow and horse to various dangerous sites and mysterious places. Some cows and horses died, and the cows and horses were okay to work. The past few days have been very happy.

As for the love task arranged by An Nan, he intends to go on like this, and wait for the second list to come out and explain to the lady: "I'm sorry, I can't distinguish between my love and murder. Kill the opponent."

After finishing tonight's dream journey, Igola crawled out from under the bed, and just about to take a bath to soothe his nerves, his heart suddenly beat.

“The first heartbeat is the last warning.”

The enlightenment gained from brushing his teeth in the morning is vivid. Before the onset of other sense organs, Igola immediately imposed the ‘heart of rock’ and the ‘will of steel’ on himself, and endured the hormonal disorder caused by the addiction with absolute calmness.

There is no need to look at the window at all, Igola can guess that the concentration of white fog outside has been reduced to an unsuitable level. Even if it wasn’t the entire Van Mula, at least Sennheiser area had suffered, otherwise he would not suddenly fall into a withdrawal reaction, living in the core area of Sennheiser.

At this sensitive point in time, Van Mula suddenly had a city-level disaster, and naturally it was inseparable from the few outsiders.

If I were an attacker, then my first target...

Igola tied the straps of his nightgown tightly, walked two steps in slippers, kicked off the slippers, took out the emergency escape bag that he had prepared, and left the room barefoot, calling out the gospel to open the funeral chat group while acting.

“Mr. Borkin: I’m going to find Yaxiu Confluence, where are you?”

“Death Artist: I’m also going to Ash’s side.”

“Steward: Same.”

“Housekeeper: Miss? Miss?”

“Housekeeper: Why didn’t the lady watch the group?”

“Mr. Borkin: Missy can’t solve her addiction alone?”

“Steward: Impossible.”

Igola squinted, thinking that Panji and An Nan were really ready to leave Van Mura at any time.

He himself temporarily suppressed the withdrawal reaction with mental miracles. If Igola was right, the necromancer did not suppress the withdrawal reaction, but directly smoked and added sugar to satisfy the addiction. I heard that he was quitting smoking recently.

And Panji and An Nan are neither majoring in the psychic faction, nor do they usually have the habit of smoking, but they can immediately recover from the withdrawal reaction, which only proves that they are well prepared.

Along the way to the elevator shaft, several Sennheiser people lay quietly on the road, their eyes fixed and their consciousness empty, like a low-quality toy with a sudden spring break. Igola glanced at them and hurriedly walked by. Fortunately, there was no such panting body in the elevator.

However, until this time, the three of An Nan, Liss, and Ya Xiu hadn't spoken, and Igola's heart sank. Could it be that Ya Xiu was overwhelmed by the addiction?

“Mr. Bokin: Why didn't Asia Xiu watch the group?”

“Death artist: Ashiu run.”

The fraudster madly pressed the elevator button instantly, cancelled the 72nd floor where the game floor was located, and chose to go to the 73rd floor. Harvey's warning is definitely not indiscriminate. Going to the game layer where Ash is now is purely a snare. Igola asked the gospel: “Personnel activities within a 100-meter radius, and a three-dimensional perspective view is shown for real-time monitoring for 10 seconds.”

The gospel book turned into a real-time monitoring map: 50 Gospel Points consumed) please see the picture.”

I saw many green dots representing creatures in the game layer. Most of the green dots are neatly arranged. They should be Sennheiser people lying dead in the game cabin. In the open area near the window, there is a group of green dots. The green dots that still maintain their mobility, obviously they are the outsiders who invaded after the white mist dispersed.

From the map, this group of green dots are facing another shaking green dot. The latter is obviously their dear Mr. Primitive who doesn't know to watch the group chat in time.

"Mr. Borkin: Ash was caught on the 72nd floor. I'm going to the 73rd floor. Where are you?"

"Death Artist: I will go to the 71st floor."

"Steward: I have slipped through the outer wall to the 72nd floor. Inside there is a group of red hats with a number of 8 people. Among them are two triplanetologists, "Crying Red Riding Hood" Clios and "Dead Sniper Red Riding Hood" Wright. Ah Xiu is not saved."

Two sanctuary magicians! ?

Igula is like a falling ice cave-they can't even beat a sanctuary, how can they be able to fight the two now? In order to catch the infant-level criminals like Ah Xiu, are two sanctuary magicians dispatched? This extravagant and extravagant behavior should be banned by legislation!

If Sennheiser can still operate normally, Qinna will definitely help them escape due to contract restrictions. Whether it's official or violent, Qinna, as a local snake, will surely make these red hats unable to eat.

However, now that the white fog is gone, Sennheiser is almost paralyzed, and Qinna can't count on it! Igula even suspected that Qinna had become a broken toy now. The strength of the sanctuary magician just made her toy more advanced-the broken sanctuary/patriarch/elven toy.

Don't forget, Igula and others just came to Brahma and Mura just a few days ago, UU reading www.uukanshu.com, but the withdrawal reaction caused by the white mist quickly made them incapacitated, leaving them with a protection time of one or two seconds of power failure at most.

If Lamei is used as the standard, these outsiders have not actually pickled it.

And those local people who have been in the Fanmu for decades, from the body pores to the soul wrinkles inside and out, are thoroughly salted, they may be an instant 'pop', the fuse blows and the switch is turned off, and the power is cut off. There is no protection time.

In other words, the Vatican and Mura people did not die suddenly, but only a black screen collapsed and waited for the restart, which has shown that the family reincarnation dreams did maintain their original flavor as humans, and they did not completely degenerate into a living who can only rely on the white fog. Odd line species.

"Steward: Give up on Ash, Miss has lost contact now, let's protect Miss first."

"Mr. Borkin: No."

"Steward: Do you have a way to * back Ash from the red cap?"

The elevator stopped on the 73rd floor, which was the warehouse floor, and Igola suddenly shook his mind and let out a sigh of relief.

"Mr. Borkin: Yes. Harvey, do you have a way to interfere with them below? Don't pursue killing."

"Death Artist: If you target a sanctuary, the interference time can only be calculated by breathing."

"Mr. Borkin: That's enough. Panji, you stand on the outer wall, and when you receive my signal, you will break into the game floor and shoot these red hats."

"Steward: The other party is a sacred magician far above us. We have no chance of winning anything. On the contrary, attacking the red hat will make us arrested together! Now the situation of the lady is unknown, we should protect the lady first. After safety, Miss will find a way to rescue Asia from the Red Hat!"

“Steward: Mr. Borkin, Mr. Harvey, now we can only give up Ashiu.”

Chapter 347: Sanctuary

Panji's refusal was expected by Igola.

Among the three people who have lost contact now, Panji cares most and only cares about An Nan, and everything that will affect him to rescue An Nan will not be recognized. Panji rushed to the game layer at first, just because he felt that An Nan would also meet with Ya Xiu, but now that An Nan has not appeared, and Ya Xiu is under siege, Panji has no reason to take risks.

If Ya Xiu and An Nan fall into the water together, Panji will definitely make An Nan step on Ya Xiu and jump ashore.

The reason why the steward boy said so much to his group of friends was because he wanted to persuade the two new employees to accompany him to find An Nan. After all, An Nan's current situation is unclear, and there is a high probability of encountering an enemy, so naturally the more reinforcements the better.

Even if they get along well in the ordinary time, even if Ash and Panji have learned gunshots, even if Ash, Liz, and Panji have played the classic game of “I will play with the children in the future” together, but once they face a decision moment, life The weight will still be divided into high and low in an instant.

The things that people value are different from person to person.

This is the case with the steward, and the same is the case with the fraudster.

Igola knew that he had to convince Panji. Among the three of them, Igola could only be used as a support. Harvey needed too much preparation beforehand. Only Panjim could fill up the burst output anytime and anywhere.

Panjim has been at the level of the Second Wing Sorcerer for decades, and he also majored in the two magical factions of bludgeoning and ice. God knows how much he has polished his combat power.

Although Panji has not been promoted to Three Wing Sanctuary in his entire life, it can only show that his talent ends here, not that he is not working hard enough. In the world of the magician, hard work is the basic quality of every Void Walker, and the industrious magician will basically become stronger after being eaten by the fish-splitting dragon a few times.

However, the ceiling of the realm of the magic faction is invisible and intangible. If you can't break through, you can't break through. The orb of experience is extremely precious. But it is impossible for a person to hang himself on a tree. Since this faction cannot be pushed up, the magician will practice other factions and bet on luck.

Over time, every older wizard basically mastered several schools of magic, and integrated several schools to create new miracles and even new magical spirits. This point is particularly prominent in the elf wizard. As long as he is a few hundred years old, as long as he continues to update his knowledge system, his background is basically deep enough to easily crush the same level and only a few dozen. Year-old human wizard.

Even if the magical power does not increase anymore, the magician can still convert time into all aspects of his own strength.

The magical powers like pancakes have stopped growing, the magicians who have been immersed in techniques for decades, and have the guidance of the gospel, must have built a flawless magical system. Among them, the only person who can shake the sanctuary magician is the pan halberd!

"Mr. Borkin: Don't forget, Ya Xiu is an employee of An Nan. Red Cap will definitely arrest An Nan on the grounds of shielding. We will not stop Red Cap here. Even if we wait to find An Nan, we still have to face the sanctuary. The pursuit of the magician."

“Mr. Borkin: Now the red hats are on the game layer. They are showing that we are in the dark. If we can take the opportunity to severely inflict them on them, then it will be easier to escape later. Or, you would rather live and die with the red hats in the vast night sky. Are you unwilling to take advantage of the terrain to defeat the enemy aircraft first?”

Three seconds.

Two seconds.

One second.

“Steward: Is there a chance?”

“Mr. Bokin: Yes.”

.....

...

Sure enough, without the conspiracies and tricks that Asia Xiu mixed, they generally proceeded very smoothly.

“Next, I will release the scream of the soul. Direct listening by ordinary people ten meters away will lead to sudden death! Three, two, one.”

Igola drew Ashura to the blind spot surrounded by the game cabin and calmly counted down loudly.

The countdown is not only to put pressure on the red hat, but also to remind Panji’s entry time.

The key to breaking this game is not themselves, but the red hat.

Red Hat has the right to legally use violence, but at the same time it is also caught in countless shackles.

①They are not allowed to attack the wanted criminal first, unless the latter has a clear behavior of resisting arrest;

②They are not allowed to harm innocent citizens at any time;

③When the offender makes a clear declaration of crime, if they have the ability to provide relief, they must give priority to relief!

Igola has watched so many days of documentaries and TV series, it's not just for entertainment. These three red hat rules and regulations can be said to have been played by screenwriters in TV dramas, creating a lot of dilemma plots to torture the human nature of red hats.

Upon learning that the attacker was the Red Hat, Igola immediately realized that he had the opportunity to grab the shackles on the Red Hat body, creating a ray of life for Ya Xiu to escape—

Use Yaxiu to seal their vision, use Harvey to frighten their minds, and then Igola appears to issue a criminal declaration, forcing them to quickly build a soundproof wall to protect other Vamura citizens on the game layer, emptying their magazines and attention, and finally The scream of Igola's soul will cover the deadly blast of the pan's halberd, and annihilate the red hats of the men who robbed them at night!

But as a price, Igula's clean gospel civic resume, UU reading www.uukanshu.com only lasted for less than twenty days, and finally he was about to add a rich criminal record.

If Harvey can still explain his actions with pranks, and there is a possibility that Ah Xiu's wanted order may be cancelled, then Igola's attempt to release a large-scale destructive miracle in a densely populated area is a foretaste of the crime. There is little room for defense. No, if a lot of broken Sennheisers are killed for this, the gospel will even offer him a reward.

Too shameful, Igola did not expect that his first criminal record in the Gospel was not fraud, illegal fund-raising or even blasphemy, but a crime that only fools could commit, such as endangering public safety.

It's always like this every time. It's no good to be with Ya Xiu, who is the best?

But Igola is not lonely either. Panji, who attacked the Red Hat, will join him on the list of the hottest criminals of the day.

Igola sighed and let out a heart-piercing tenor from his throat.

At the same time, Panji also broke into the game layer, Bing Gu double guns spit out 62 miraculous bullets in one second!

Seeing that Red Hat was about to drink hatred in the conspiracy and tricks of criminals, the two sanctuary magicians suddenly unfolded their virtual wings!

Silver Wings!

Golden wings!

And... Colorful Wings!

The virtual wing collapsed at the moment it was revealed, transforming into two transparent barriers to protect all the red hat players!

Happiness!

The scream of the soul made shallow ripples on the outer wall of the transparent barrier, and 62 gunshots stuck in the outer wall of the barrier, bursting into 62 small ice flowers!

The red hat inside the barrier was not affected at all!

In the face of absolute strength, conspiracy and intrigue are not much stronger than bubbles.

“Very good tactical coordination.” Wright commented: “I just underestimate the Sanctuary Mage.”

Chapter 348: 6 lines

Igola did not expect them to be able to siege the sanctuary magicians, but hoped to cause red cap downsizing. It is best to have all body injuries other than sanctuary magicians, forcing the two sanctuary magicians to stay and take care of the team members-in the red caps. According to the rules and regulations, taking care of the team members is given priority over chasing prisoners-so that they can escape smoothly.

But let alone attrition, the Red Hat is totally unscathed.

Igola took out the hand mirror from his shoulder bag, and with the help of reflection, he saw the transparent barrier that protected all the red hats for an instant, and muttered, “What is that?”

Ah Xiu called out the Gospel: “What is that?”

Gospel: Consume 5 Gospel Points) Sanctuary.”

Without waiting for Ashiu to continue to inquire, the Gospel of the strategic cooperation with the funeral office consciously added:

“Sanctuary, the general ability of the three-winged warlock, has been used as a name for the three-winged warlock over time. The sanctuary is not the ability that a warlock will immediately gain when he is promoted to the three-winged warlock, but because the three-winged warlock is exploring the airspace far away. , You must master the sanctuary to move forward, so every three-winged magician must be a sanctuary magician.”

“The sanctuary does not require any magical spirit as the basis for casting (but it can be assisted by the magical spirit). The magician only needs to diffuse the mixed mana of silver, gold, and colorful to his body to generate the magician’s exclusive sanctuary.”

“Sanctuary is generally a spherical transparent force field with the magician body as the center and the radius can be adjusted freely. The discrete reorganization of the virtual wings is the most common way to summon the sanctuary.”

“The sanctuary consumes mixed mana for every second of existence, and according to the different spell schools, the exclusive sanctuary of each magician is also different, but all sanctuary has two basic effects—”

“①The sanctuary is generated instantly, and the size of the area can be controlled at will.”

“②The sanctuary can be used as a defensive barrier, directly using its mana to resist all external attacks. According to the different attributes of the sanctuary, the mana consumption varies greatly, but there are almost no attacks that cannot be defended.”

“Based on the two effects of the sanctuary, it can generally be considered that exhausting all the mana of the sanctuary is a necessary and insufficient condition for killing the sanctuary.”

Ash showed Igola to see the two basic effects of Sanctuary, and the latter blinked.

“The lack of key information, it turns out that my plan has no possibility of success from the beginning.”

“Don’t you know the sanctuary?” Ah Xiu was very surprised. He was illiterate and he didn’t know it, but how could Igula not know?

“The sanctuary I’ve inquired about before is a miracle ritual set in a fixed location, and the Triwingman is almost invincible within the range of this ritual...”

“The fraudster will also be deceived.” Igola spread his hands. “Tonight came too fast and too fast. I didn’t have time to find the Gospel to check my information. After all, I didn’t think I would really want to talk to Triwing Technique. Teachers are confronted head-to-head, which is not in my memo of “A Hundred Things to Do in This Life”.”

“I’m sorry.” The fraudster glanced at the cult leader: “This time we are going to be arrested again.”

“It’s okay.” Ya Xiu said, “If it’s a big deal, I’ll repeat Broken Lake again.”

While they were chatting, Clios gently dropped to the top of the game pod behind them, and the sound of soft footsteps interrupted their unnutritious conversation. Her eyes were closed tightly, and the righteous and kind-hearted double guns watched the red-named targets that would add glory to them, and the elf’s crimson lips exclaimed indifferently: “Kill if you move.”

As if to increase the persuasiveness of the warning, she half squeezed the trigger, and the ingenious metal mechanism made a grit that made the intelligent creatures fearful.

“Attention, in the Red Hat rules and regulations, as long as she gives a clear warning, even if the suspect is killed on the spot, her Red Hat ranking will not be lowered.” Igola raised his hands to express surrender, and did not forget to give the red hat to Yaxukop. common sense.

“It sounds like the purpose of her sentence is not to warn me, but to explain to the gospel.” Ah Xiu also raised his hands obediently: “Just like when a student said to go to pee in class, it wasn’t to say to the bladder.”

On the other side, Panji also put down the ice double guns, but he couldn’t ask him too much. After all, anyone who was targeted by the sanctuary magician would be unable to lift their hands.

Harvey escaped, but he was carrying a coffin that was almost impossible to hide. It was no different from a snail, and it was only a matter of time before he was caught.

The three were captured, with no external reinforcements and no internal preparations, and Asia Xiu felt that they could only honestly make an indelible contribution to the cause of public security in the Gospel Kingdom.

Ding.

At this moment, the elevator lights turned on.

The reminder horn replaces the incoming guests and sends a cordial greeting to everyone.

All the Red Hats looked at the elevator, as they turned, and their guns.

However, when the elevator doors opened, everyone would not open their mouths—because they were their colleagues in the elevator.

An elf with a red hat.

But the moment Panji saw her, the whole person was relieved. The sixty-year-old butler boy showed a reassuring posture of “meeting his parents when being bullied.”

“Don’t use guns at him.”

This sentence instantly crossed half of the game layer. Although Clios had been prepared for a long time, her body showed multiple miracle glows—unless it was too late, the price of defense miracle was much higher than that of the sanctuary—but she was still one. Kick flying!

boom!

Along with the discrete miracle fragments, Clios retreated to the Red Hat array. She immediately summoned the gospel to search for enemy intelligence, frowned and said, “Nona Sennheiser?”

Ash and Igola raised their heads and saw a tall elf red riding hood standing in front of them. She looks a bit similar to Qinna, but she is less mature and charming, more pure and cute, with short hair and akimbo. In front of the two rescued, she is as handsome as a god.

“Miss Nona?” Igola exhaled, “According to the contract between An Nan and your sister—”

Snapped!

‘Nona’ punched Igola in the abdomen, waited until the fraudster arched her waist like Xiami, then elbowed him on the back, slapped him on the ground with a slap.

“Next time you take my tribe as a hostage, remember your three ribs that I broke.” She turned to look at Ah Xiu: “Do you want to call me Nona?”

Noting the familiar indifference and arrogance in her eyes, Ya Xiu suddenly recalled the elevator encounter a few days ago: “Are you Qinna?”

“Is it Patriarch Qinna?” Wright also said over there: “According to the data, Red Riding Hood’s deputy captain Nona is just a two-wing wizard. Even if she has a deep foundation, she has no ability to repel Clios. The whole Sen. Heysel, and only Patriarch Qinna has the sanctuary combat power.”

“It stands to reason that when the white mist dissipates so rapidly, the ordinary Brahma and Shepherd should instantly lose all abilities, and at this point in time, Patriarch Qinna, you should still be in a dream. You can’t even immediately after the white mist dissipates. Back to reality. However, the six emblems of Vatican and Mura have been in business for many years, and as the patriarch, he should have mastered some hidden tricks that no one knows.”

“Do you people from other places like to talk around? Are you sure you want to show off your poor eloquence in front of an elf several times your age?” Qinna said indifferently: “The patriarch of the heraldic family controls the resources and resources of the family. The trust of the whole clan naturally requires standing by at all times and must not be in desperation.”

Ah Xiu couldn’t help nodding. For example, the Sennheiser family, because the tribe’s realistic desires are extremely low, Qin Na has actually reached absolute dictatorship, but the price is that the tribe has almost no subjective initiative when encountering emergencies. Rely on the patriarch at the helm at all times.

If you have to compare it, the Sennheiser family is like sister Jinna with a large group of kindergarten children.

If the patriarch suddenly disappears, Ash will doubt whether Sennheiser has the ability to choose another patriarch.

“As early as many years ago, the ancestors considered the various situations in which the patriarch was killed. Sudden situations such as the disappearance of the white mist and the blockade of dreams are also considered. In order to ensure the continuation of the family, the patriarch will have ‘Spare body’.” Qin Na said: “The spare body has the soul of the main body, and there is more than one spare body. In the event of an emergency, the spare body will be activated one by one in order of priority, and there will always be one that can temporarily lead the family.”

“Soul split?!” Clios said in shock: “This should affect your future as a magician? And this is not an ordinary miracle... No, isn’t this reincarnation, rebirth, and rebirth? Those spares —”

Cleos suddenly got stuck.

“It’s not as dark as you think. Normally, the backup body is at most affected by my soul separation. Even if the soul separation is activated, the body will return after the end. As for the future, compared with the family continuity guarantee, it is completely worthless. Mention.” Qin Na said calmly: “It’s a simple matter to separate souls. Family reincarnation dreams are not just for entertainment.”

“Let’s end the chat.”

Wright said: “Patriarch Qinna, please hand over those two prisoners. One of them is an imperial criminal on the 69th-165th wanted order, and the other has just tried to endanger public safety. As for your act of assaulting Captain Clio Division just now. , Believe that the gospel will make a fair judgment—”

“wrong.”

“What’s wrong?”

“The position is wrong.” Qin Na said coldly: “The one who can say ‘please’ now is me.”

“Please leave Van Mulla immediately. Please inform the Van Mulla Red Hat through official channels for any raids. We will try our best to cooperate with your reasonable actions. As for you, you will raid the Sennheiser private territory without informing the Patriarch Sennheiser. I believe that the gospel will make a fair judgment. As for this white fog, I won’t ask you to settle accounts. You little people, you don’t have the financial resources to pray for such a miracle.”

Klios was shocked: “Miss Qinna, although you have the three-wing realm, Nona... only has the second-wing strength, right?”

“Even if Qinna, you can use your sister’s body to play the sanctuary combat power, but we have two sanctuary magicians, and six elite Red Riding Hoods.” Wright raised his bolt and sniper, unabashedly threatened: “8 to 1, a very simple arithmetic problem, right? You really want to protect the wanted criminals in the empire?”

“I repeat, first, I just ask you to apply for cross-city raids in accordance with regular channels; second...”

“The enemy you are going to face is not a two-winged magician.”

An unfamiliar male voice came from outside the window: “It is the six heraldic patriarchs who can represent the eight million citizens of Van Mulla.”

The red caps turned their heads and saw five uninvited guests climb through the broken windows and enter the 72nd floor. Tonight, the portal has lost its favor, and the window has become the first choice for everyone to enter and exit.

“The white mist is gone.”

“The clansmen are all down, I have to use the spare body.”

“Outsiders invaded our homes in an open manner.”

“Still making a big fuss in Sennheiser.”

“Even trying to get past us and arrest the heraldic people.”

“Since the establishment of Van Mula, I have not suffered such a shame.” Qin Na said coldly: “8764502 to 8, a very simple arithmetic problem, right?”

Chapter 349: That's weird, take another look

Latest URL:

At 9:30 pm on May 19th, there are still 150 minutes left on the 20th.

The 72nd floor of the Sennheiser Building, a virtual entertainment area usually only visited by autistic gamers, is now crowded with a large group of social monsters.

“Edifel, Philip, Bosh, Bills, Thoroughly...”

Wright lifted his red hat, revealing messy red hair and his miraculous eyes inscribed with the magic circle. There was a hint of madness in his laughter: “I can actually meet with the six patriarchs of the Brahma and Mura at the same time. I’m afraid the legendary magician doesn’t have this kind of treatment, right?”

“Indeed.” The man in the windbreaker said: “The last time the six patriarchs met was the last time.”

“That should have happened hundreds of years ago, right?” The ponytail woman said: “Why did nothing happen to the previous patriarchs when they were in power, but it was my turn to have such a big event?”

“Isn’t that good?” The lazy man wearing a fisherman hat smiled: “Bills, you should have just been the patriarch not long, right? I have been the patriarch for decades, but I look forward to this kind of immutability. An episode that brings changes in life.”

“It may be just pure noise.” The man in glasses took out a comb and straightened his bangs: “Be careful not to hurt Sennheiser’s family, and solve them as soon as possible.”

Panji looked at the men and women in front of him, and his complaint against Igola was temporarily suppressed, and instead he witnessed the shock of the legend.

The six heraldic patriarchs!

The helmsman of Van Mula, the spokesperson of eight million people, and the successor of the thousand-year-old family! Even in the entire gospel kingdom, they are big figures that should not be underestimated, the overlord of one side!

Among the outsiders who have seen the status quo of Van Mula with their own eyes, the six-armed patriarch will even be regarded as a powerful archon second only to Empress Yisu. Although the influence of the six coats of arms after being separated from Van Mulla is almost zero, Van Mulla is the largest producer of mermaid cordata in the gospel. Van Mulla is almost among the top in the list of various city organizations, and its annual urban GDP Never dropped the top five!

If the six families of Van Mula are separated, the gross product value of each family far exceeds that of ordinary second-tier cities, and it can even break the wrist with first-tier cities! And because the resources of the heraldic family are uniformly deployed, the patriarch can arbitrarily mobilize the production resources of the whole family. In a practical sense, ‘one is all, and all is one’!

Therefore, these patriarchs in front of Panji are not only patriarchs, they are simply the incarnation of the family, the human body of the city, every gesture, has the weight of millions of people. This is not an adjective, they do have the ability to turn the resources of the tribe into power—

Wow—

With the sound of page turning, five gospel books appeared in front of the patriarchs. For small households like An Nan, the gospels are naturally a cold and conservative consulting platform, but in front of the heraldic patriarchs whose gospel points are measured in units of 'million', the openness of the gospels is beyond ordinary people's imagination. Arrived.

Sanctuary!

The two sanctuary opened in an instant to protect the red hat players. Although they did not see any actual attacks, no matter who saw the dense rainstorm ripples on the sanctuary barrier, they knew that the magician is hard to beat the gospel. Money is really big. show.

Clios's face became extremely ugly, tears came out of the corners of his eyes, and he bit his lip aggrievedly: "Wright, it looks like he will fail this time..."

"Can't fail."

Wright also summoned the gospel: "I repeat, this time we are only for arresting the imperial wanted man Ashiu Heath, and we have no intention of infringing upon the Vatican. After arresting Ash Heath, we will leave immediately. White fog is not what we did. Afterwards, we will apologize to Fan Mula Red Hat for the non-compliance of the process... No, I am very sorry, patriarchs, I ask your forgiveness for our recklessness."

Suddenly he bowed heavily to the patriarchs, lowered his head and said: "According to the information revealed by the knitting ceremony, Ash Heath is closely related to the end of the next fifty years. He must not be allowed to stay outside! I am willing to All of my income in this matter is given to the Six Emblems of Vatican and Shepherd, and we can ignore the others, but Ah Xiu Heath, let us take it back for interrogation!"

Windbreaker man: "Do you think Van Mula is a toilet? Come and go if you want—"

"Wait." The spectacle man said: "Sennheiser, what do you mean? The six coats of Vamura are mutually dependent on the outside and retreat together, but if you fight against a sanctuary for a foreigner, you may even offend Yi The Su royal family, this does not conform to our family view."

Ya Xiu looked at Qin Na nervously, Qin Na glanced at him with a pensive expression.

That's it!

To be honest, if he changes places, Ash will definitely not save an imperial wanted man, not to mention that the wanted man seems to be the culprit of the doomsday.

Although Qin Na signed a contract with An Nan, theoretically she was obliged to protect them, otherwise she would be titled from the Void Realm. But first of all, it's "Nona" instead of "Qinna" standing in front of them. Ah Xiu is not sure whether the contract can identify Qinna logging into other accounts in a different place; second, Qinna values her family more than herself, if She really thought that she would harm Sennheiser, and that so-called contract was just a sunk cost that had to be borne.

Threatening Jinna with a contract? Absolutely not, Qin Na is arrogant and will never be threatened. It will only be counterproductive. A Xiu still remembers that Qin Na used a bludgeon to trace the side just because she said an offensive thing.

Use An Nan to persuade Qinna? Said that he was very important to An Nan, which caused Qin Na's compassion? This doesn't seem to work either...

Suddenly, Ya Xiu felt his trousers being pulled, and glanced down from the corner of his eyes, and saw Igurabi, who was lying on the ground, mouthed.

'Annan and Nona'.

Suddenly, Ya Xiu remembered that An Nan had always said that she had a very good relationship with her aunt Nona. This time she came to Van Mura because she was convinced that she could get Nona's support, so she brought the whole family to join her aunt. .

It is a pity that Qin Na grabbed the handle, so they were forced to cooperate with Qin Na, otherwise they would have sneaked into Van Mura long ago.

In An Nan's narrative, Nona is a good aunt who will contradict her sister for her niece, is the only relative she can talk to in Sennheiser, and is the brightest light in the little girl's childhood.

However, the real situation is that there is the separation soul of her sister Qinna in Nona. When Qinna is trapped in the Void Realm, the first backup body to activate is Nona—the relationship between Qinna and Nona is definitely better than Qinna's. An Nan is even closer to the mother and daughter.

Ah Xiu now recognizes that the only two characters appearing in the "Sennheiser Dreamland" event are Qinna and Nona! Qinna sat on a chair overlooking Van Mura, and Nona whispered to her next to her. She seemed to be the classic sister group of the 'sister of the armed forces and the intellectual's sister'!

In other words, the 'good aunt Nona' in An Nan's cognition is probably a white face specially arranged by Qinna. According to the educational theory, Qin Na sings red face and Nona sings white face is indeed a very correct way of education.

Qin Na may not necessarily love An Nan, but she definitely cares about An Nan.

Yaxiu once again remembered the encounter between him and Qin Na in the elevator. He felt that Qin Na should be a kinder and kinder person in nature.

So my correct response strategy here should be...

Ya Xiu put his heart to the side and reached out and hugged Qinna!

"Patriarch Qinna, I am An Nan's fiancé, and I will be in Zaosenheiser in the future!" Ya Xiu lowered his head and buried his chest, and did not dare to look at the matriarch: "Help me!"

He is not yet proficient in the skill of opening his eyes and telling lies. His expression will only deduct points, and he can only use his body movements to enhance his persuasiveness.

Igola on the ground coughed out a mouthful of turbid blood, UU reading www.uukanshu.com's eyes were full of shock, and the atmosphere did not dare to breathe, for fear of disturbing Ah Xiu's performance.

This is definitely a risky move. They haven't been able to fully analyze the complex relationship between the mother and daughter. In case the password is wrong, this move by Ya Xiu will only arouse Qin Na's disgust!

There was no sound in the air, and everyone was waiting for Patriarch Sennheiser's response.

"You said you are An Nan's fiancée?"

Is she doubting? Does she think I'm lying? Is the password wrong?

However, until now, Ah Xiu can only bite the bullet: "Yes... don't you agree?"

"No, I agree. Rather, it's simply awesome."

Ah Xiu's jaw was picked up, and he had to look at Patriarch Sennheiser. Qin Na's golden eyes were full of playfulness and anticipation, which reminded Ya Xiu that a half-full fox was watching the next prey.

"However, you will still call me sister Qinna from now on."

Ya Xiu blinked: "...Sister Qinna?"

"Good." Qin Na saw a drop of blood on Ya Xiu's left face, and pointed to her face, "There is blood."

Ya Xiu touched her right cheek subconsciously, Qin Na shook her head and bowed her head towards her.

Just when Ah Xiu thought Qin Na was going to wipe off the blood stains for herself, she felt that her face was licked by her greasy tongue.

His whole body was agitated, and his body almost turned into ooze and fell in Qin Na's arms, gently hugged by Qin Na.

Igola next to him can see the interaction between the two clearly. Compared with the pain of a broken rib, this scene can shake the heart of the fraudster.

Ah Xiu, what password did you lose!

Qin Na's attitude towards you is not like treating her daughter's partner at all!

Although I am a blood moon person, I have watched many family ethics movies here, and I have never seen such a picture!

That's weird, take another look.

Chapter 350: Each has its own value

"All right."

Qin Na pushed away the dizzy Asiu, her nails lightly scratched her lips, and she said loudly: "I don't know any Asiu Heath, I only know that I will not allow you to take away my tribe, Asiu. Sennheiser!"

Wright turned to look at the other patriarchs, "Is that what you mean?"

“The six coats of arms advance and retreat together, and the interests are the same.” The spectacle man repeated: “Sennheiser will never take actions that endanger the six coats of arms. She means that the eight million people of Vatican and Mula mean.”

“Good.” Wright said, “Clios, our contract is torn.”

“Huh?” Clios couldn’t help but open his eyes and glanced at ‘Red Riding Hood’, but saw Wright take off his Red Riding Hood uniform. “What do you mean?”

“Meaning, I don’t need that share of income. As long as you catch Ash Heath, you will be number one on the national Red Hat list.”

“But why don’t you—”

Before Clios had finished asking, Wright had already given the answer with action. The sanctuary sniper aimed directly at Ya Xiu who was hiding behind the sequence of game cabins, and multiple magic spirits appeared on the gun tube.

On the sighting line, Ya Xiu only felt a chill seeping from his spinal cord into his body. However, even if his body was full of wild intuition and 120% of his wild intuition was running, his body was still unable to move. The air seemed to become a wall of oppression, trapping him in the piano. In Na’s arms!

Miracle Target Killer!

Fix the target as an inactive target and shoot again, which is called target killing!

boom!

Even though the patriarch of the Six Emblems reacted extremely quickly, the Sanctuary blunderbuss still exploded two game compartments, and the Sennheiser tribe inside was punched out of a big hole. The blunderbuss stayed before the third game cabin, rotating in the six-layer invisible gas wall to release all the kinetic energy.

If it hadn't been for the six-herald patriarch to pray for the gospel barrier in time, everyone on the line of sight would not be able to escape the bad luck of being penetrated.

"Do you know what you did?"

After regaining his mobility, Ya Xiu raised his head and saw that Qin Na had no smile in his eyes. She walked forward with the gospel book, her indifferent voice couldn't conceal her anger, and she said every word: "You actually murdered ordinary Sennheiser people in front of us?"

"There will be more deaths next." Wright said calmly, without any mood swings after the murder: "Axiu must take it away, I will do whatever it takes-in fact, there is no cost, after all, I have now lost the qualification to become a popular hat. , Will soon become the hunting target of the Red Hat."

"Clios, and you, even if it's for the ranking of the gospel, give me all my strength to fight." The sanctuary sniper said the danger that the red hat must not say: "I will help you to block the innocent people in front of you. solve."

When Ash looked over, Wright closed his eyes immediately. Although he could not make eye contact with the sanctuary magician, Ya Xiu knew that there was only determination left in the opponent's pupils.

Although he became someone's mortal target for no reason, Ya Xiu didn't feel much wronged in his heart. At any rate, he is also the leader of the cult at the beginning of the prison, and he has long been accustomed to the ups and downs of fate.

From the beginning of the weaving ceremony, the 'Eternal Calamity Walker' began to show off his power. First, he was confused on the art chart and became notorious, and then he encountered the murderous queen's heroic soul in the virtual realm. Compared with the previous two, being stared at by the sanctuary can only be regarded as dessert at best.

It's strange to say that if a normal person encounters this kind of malice continuously, even if he doesn't become a resentful person, he will at least swear by the sky, 'I'd rather teach me to bear the world's people'. However, Ya Xiu didn't feel anything, he just silently helped Igola and patted him on the chest with a 'Le Sword' to heal his broken ribs.

Igola coughed out a mouthful of old blood: "Take it lightly!"

"Do you want my princess to hug you?" Ya Xiu said grimly, "Sister Qinna, let's leave first and not hinder you! Panji, let's go!"

"Don't think about it!"

With a scream from Wright, the red caps quickly dispersed to find cover to attack the indigenous patriarchs, but they were all blocked by an invisible barrier.

Clios's double guns played an aria, and all the guns fell to the ground. In an instant, all the patriarchs were scattered into particles, causing the group of squandering family assets to fall into the night sky along with the rubble!

At the same time, Wright once again aimed at Ya Xiu, another miracle bullet!

boom!

The blaster was stuck in the air less than one meter away from the blaster's mouth, and the blaster spun in the air purringly, as if it was incompetent and furious.

The five patriarchs did not fall. Although the ground was gone, they were still able to walk on the ground. This is perhaps the most practice of gospel points-they step on the gospel points and use money to build a ladder to the sky.

"Do you have any grudges against him?" Qin Na walked out with the gospel and asked calmly.

"No, I am quite familiar with him. Although he is not good at game skills, he has a good character." Wright said.

"Then what are you doing?" Qin Na said: "You can't even be a red hat now."

“For the gospel.”

...

Ash, Ikola, and Panji ran to the 71st floor and saw Harvey lying in the coffin, and Alice was about to cover him.

“Are you... forget it, when I didn’t ask.”

“This is another miracle of mine.” In terms of the necromantic faction, Harvey still expresses his desire: “It can make me corpse for a short period of time, so that most of my miracles can also affect him, and the combat power is at least Can soar twice.”

“Then why were you useless before?” Igola asked.

“It takes a certain amount of preparation time, and there are a little side effects. If you don’t need it, you don’t need it.”

“What side effects?”

“If you use it for too long, a short-term corpse may become a permanent corpse.”

“Alright.” Panji exhaled a deep breath, and resisted the anxiety in his heart: “We should go save the lady.”

Igola opened the gospel chat group: “An Nan hasn’t spoken yet. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com should be more ill-fortuned, not as good as—”

Click.

The young housekeeper pointed at the fraudster with Bing Gu Shuang Chong and removed the insurance.

“—Why don’t we go find her quickly.” Perhaps because of a broken rib, Igola’s face was a little pale: “Otherwise it will be too late!”

“That’s what I meant.” Panji retracted the double guns.

Harvey shrugged and crawled out of the coffin, “Then I won’t change the corpse.”

“and many more.”

Ah Xiu raised his hand, glanced at them, and asked strangely:

“Where is Liz?”

.....

...

There was a knock on the door in the dark room on the 56th floor 5603 of the Sennheiser Building.

Knocking, knocking, knocking.

After three times, the automatic door suddenly lit up with a green light, and the door shrank into the mezzanine with a clatter.

despair.

The steel boots step into the room, touch the soles of your feet to the toes, move your weight forward, and repeat with the other foot.

The step distance is uniform and the step sound is clear.

despair. despair. despair.

The owner of the steel boots stopped when he reached the center of the room without turning on the lights, let alone talking.

In the closet, the avatar held Liz's mouth tightly, hugged Liz like concrete, and suppressed her trembling to a minimum.

After an unknown period of time, the footsteps of steel boots and the sound of automatic doors closing. The substitute let go of Liz, and the white-haired girl lay on her clothes and panted heavily, releasing all the tension in her body just now.

After finally getting over, Liz realized that her legs were already weak: "Hold me out and look in the mirror."

The avatar held Lis and left the closet to the dressing table. The little witch turned on the lamp next to her, and couldn't wait to talk to her sisters about countermeasures—

When the light was on, Liz saw herself, her double, and the black knight standing in the shadow in the mirror.
