

Chapter 341: Multiple Preparations

Although she had some suspicions, when Qiao Yanjue admitted it himself, Liu Manhong was still shocked.

He liked Xia Xibei?!

“Wait a minute, is that why you asked me to be her guardian?” Liu Manhong looked at Qiao Yanjue in shock and confusion.

She had wondered. Qiao Yanjue was not a warm person, so why had he suddenly asked her to help out as a guardian? This was out of character for him!

Now she knew. He wanted closer access to her!

“No,” Qiao Yanjue shook his head, “I just wanted to repay her for saving my life.”

“Saving your life?!” Liu Manhong drew back another breath.

Only then did Qiao Yanjue realize that he had said too much and couldn't help but feel a little chagrined.

“Tell me, what happened exactly?”

Liu Manhong did not think too much about it before. When Qiao Yanjue asked her to help, she did. It was not a difficult task.

Why was there a life-saving favor involved here?

Qiao Yanjue's eyes wandered a bit.

"Tell me everything!" Liu Manhong slapped the table, angry and anxious.

"Okay, I will tell you."

Since he had already slipped, he couldn't hold back his words anymore.

When Qiao Yanjue finished with the backstory, Liu Manhong's expression had changed.

"So, you'd have been seriously injured if she didn't save you that time?"

"Yes," Qiao Yanjue nodded.

"So, she saved your life..."

Before Qiao Yanjue could reply, Liu Man Hong's words took a turn, "Then how can you be so cruel, willing to drag her into that fire pit!"

Qiao Yanjue's face darkened, "What do you mean by that! I'm not that bad, am I?"

"It's not a fire pit?" Liu Manhong snorted. "You don't know what the Qiao family is like?"

Although Liu Manhong's older sister was the wife of the Qiao family, that didn't change her ill feelings towards the Qiao family.

Of course, her ill feelings were directed at other members of the Qiao family.

"Beibei is such a nice girl, why should she be dragged down by you? Besides, if she did get together with you, could you guarantee her safety and happiness?"

Those three siblings of the Qiao family were not good people. If Xia Xibei went up against them, it would be difficult to say what would happen.

Qiao Yanjue took a deep breath and replied seriously, "Of course I know what the Qiao family is like, that's why I applied to come work here. And besides this project, I have other ventures of my own."

He sat up straight, his expression solemn and serious.

“I have quite a few projects on hand now, and I have my eye on some more investment projects... I believe that I will get stronger and stronger, and I will definitely be able to protect her.”

These days, in addition to the demolition project of the old city, he had done a lot of other things.

After acquiring the SY company, his enthusiasm did not die down, and he acquired another entertainment and culture company, one which had rights to a number of novels.

He felt that there was a lot of potential for development there.

In addition, he had invested in a game company specializing in the development of handheld games.

Liu Manhong's expression was complicated.

She had thought that Qiao Yanjue had no more than a passing interest in Xia Xibei, not having very deep feelings.

But now it seemed the situation was beyond her expectation.

He was more serious than she had imagined! He was actually thinking of the future?!

Qiao Yanjue had never been this invested in his career before!

Now he was so devoted, all because he would not let Xia Xibei be hurt!

Chapter 342: Answering by Video

Xia Xibei had no idea what Liu Manhong and Qiao Yanjue were talking about as she opened the link to “Million Dollar Wisdom and Courage,” preparing to answer the questions.

After this online video quiz, those who passed would be able to go to a live recording in a week.

The video quiz was available on both days, and if one was ready, they could start answering the questions as soon as 10 in the evening.

However, others generally chose to answer the questions on the last day. After all, one would be more ready with two more days of review.

Some people actually let others test the waters first and figure out the type of questions before they participated.

But Xia Xibei didn't need to do any of this.

The next day was Saturday, and she had to go back to the company for classes.

The other interns were very hardworking, rehearsing at the company all week. Even Xia Qinghan would be tutored by a teacher.

Xia Xibei was the only one who went to the company on Saturdays and holidays. However, it seemed to others that she would have gotten private lessons as well.

In fact, Xia Xibei did not even look for a teacher to take lessons. She would just look up some famous artists' performances online from time to time, learning that way.

If others knew that she was learning to improve through these means, they would be horrified.

Everyone was taught step-by-step by a teacher. Who actually learned from a video? They were not the same!

However, no one knew that she did so, instead deciding that she also spent a lot of money on private tutoring.

Now back to "Million Dollar Wisdom and Courage."

Because she had to go to the company and also work at the milk tea store the next day, Xia Xibei could only answer the questions now.

After she clicked on the link, the logo for "Million Dollar Wisdom and Courage" appeared.

After the logo disappeared, the five-digit countdown began.

, 4, 3, 2, 1!

When the countdown ended, the questions and answer choices appeared in front of Xia Xibei.

Xia Xibei's expression then went from casual to serious.

Her face appeared in the upper right corner of the computer through the camera, not interfering with the answering of the questions.

She moved very quickly. After the question appeared, her wrist moved slightly, clicking the mouse and she immediately selected the answer.

The answer is correct! Please see the next question.

A few seconds later.

The answer is correct! Please see the next question.

Another few seconds.

The answer is correct!

The answer is correct!

...

If someone was watching, they would have been shocked.

Each question had a 30-second answer time. Some of the questions were quite long. It would take at least a little time to read them all, not to mention comprehend them.

If one got overwhelmed, it would take even more time.

Like a robot, Xia Xibei's head moved slightly, her eyes turning from left to right, immediately making a choice.

Even more terrifying, she answered all of these questions correctly!

When the bright red score of 100 jumped out and the screen was sprinkled with confetti, Xia Xibei only moved her head a little. She looked at the time in the lower right corner of the computer and smiled.

It only took her about 15 minutes to answer a hundred questions. On average, a question didn't even take her 10 seconds!

Well, it took a little more time than last time, but it was a little more difficult.

Now that she'd passed, she could go to bed.

After she washed up, did her skin care, and meditated for a while, she soon fell into a deep sleep.

Sleeping extra well, she had no idea how much chaos she'd stirred up!

Inside the crew of "Million Dollar Wisdom and Courage," the staff looked at the backstage data, their eyes, which were a little sleepy, snapping wide open.

"What the...?! Am I seeing things? Old Zhang, get over here!"

Chapter 343: Getting By With Looks

The program staff was stunned when they looked at the backstage data.

"Boss, this Qingqing Hanhan is so impressive! She got 91 points! And she's pretty too, not the usual nerd."

The boss came over to look and was a bit surprised, "She's really beautiful! Is it all the rage now to have both talent and beauty?"

“And she’s only 18 years old! Is she a top scholar from some university?”

“We’ll have to wait for the official recording to find out. But it’s good for our show!”

Their boss, a man in his thirties, laughed loudly and happily.

Who didn’t like a pretty face?

The program team before only wanted to make the show into a knowledge competition, but now it seemed that they could also rely on the players’ looks!

The others followed and laughed. Suddenly, one of them shouted, “Boss, come here! There’s a bug!”

“Bug?”

Everyone’s heart skipped a beat as they rushed over.

Looking at the score of 100, several employees looked at each other.

“Is it cheating or a bug?”

The questions were quite difficult. With 100 questions, to get 90 points was already very incredible, such as this Qingqing Hanhan. She was definitely a top scholar in life.

There were general knowledge questions, questions from different fields, and topics from textbooks... The questions were all over the place, and their difficulty was not high, but not low either.

After seeing the question bank, the unanimous opinion was that no one could get a perfect score.

So what did this 100 mean?

“Check it out!”

“OK.”

After tapping on the contestant’s information and seeing the face, everyone froze.

“This girl is so pretty!”

“She’s even more beautiful than Qingqing Hanhan!”

Although the video was not very clear, one could see what the contestant looked like.

“Could such a pretty girl really get so many points?”

“Wait... Hope’s Little Shell... It’s really her! She’s marked as one to watch!”

They clicked on the previous record and were stunned once again.

“She got 100 before too! And it only took her ten minutes!”

“What the-! This is terrifying!”

“Is someone helping her behind the scenes?”

“Crap! She answered each question in less than 10 seconds! What kind of freak is she?”

“Is she a top scholar or a scholar god?”

“She’s just 17 years old?! What a freak of nature!”

“Open the video!”

They clicked on the full answer video.

In the video, the beautiful young woman's movements were controlled, and her expression was calm.

If it weren't for the fact that her eye movements and the timing of her answers matched, and that there was no one else on camera, they would have thought there were several helpers beside her.

Otherwise, how could she be so terrifyingly fast?!

After seeing the video, several people looked at each other with horrified eyes.

"Young people these days!"

They couldn't resist sighing. It was no competition!

"Great!" The boss was now excited, "Good-looking and strong! It's very helpful for our show!"

The others also reacted, "Yeah! It's a great conversation starter!"

The ratings for this kind of knowledge competition program were generally not too high because in everyone's mind, people who were good students were usually unattractive.

In everyone's opinion, the top scholars were only nerds. The good-looking ones were few and far between.

But Hopeful Little Shell and Qingqing Hanhan were good-looking and strong, so they would definitely attract more attention!

Two players whose faces could compete in the entertainment industry... It was something to talk about!

Whether the two girls would become friends or enemies afterwards, their ratings were in the bag!

Chapter 344: Milk Tea Sales Soar

The next morning, Uncle Chen came over early and drove Xia Xibei to the company for class.

When she arrived at the company, Xia Xibei saw many people holding a cup of milk tea in their hands.

She couldn't help but smile when looking at the name of the store on the cup.

These days, business at the milk tea store was particularly good.

Song Jiaren told her that after the previous buy-one-get-one-free event, the sales at the milk tea store jumped instead of dropping, that more customers had come than ever before.

As many people knew, this was a milk tea store where you wouldn't gain weight.

Of course, the most important part was how great the milk tea tasted!

Although their price was much higher than other milk tea stores, it was worth it!

Some people had also experimented, picking a day when they ate their meals normally, and then drank several cups of milk tea.

They didn't gain weight!

In other words, the store's claim was true!

If that was the case, how could business at the store be bad?

Now there was a line every day, and if it was late, the line went past the next few stores!

In the past few days, Fang Yongxin was very happy, calling Xia Xibei to discuss opening another branch.

With such sales, it would be a waste not to open another branch!

Only Song Tianqin was a little depressed. His wife was so busy with the milk tea store, she had almost forgotten about him!

Unfortunately, his wife ruled the family, and he simply did not dare to have an opinion. He could only call Xia Xibei in secret and ask her to persuade Fang Yongxin to leave the work to others.

Xia Xibei could only say that she could not help.

The store could be left to the store manager, but Fang Yongxin liked the work. Since Fang Yongxin was obsessed, she couldn't do anything about it.

In addition to random customers, many companies ordered their afternoon tea from the store.

Jiabei Sweet had become an internet famous milk tea store and attracted many fans.

These fans included SY's employees and artists.

It wasn't just the staff, who only cared about the taste, not the calories. After all, they didn't have to be on camera.

The artists became a little crazy for the milk tea too, as they hadn't had proper milk tea in a long, long time.

Everyone knew that milk tea was good, but they didn't dare to drink it!

Now that Jiabei Sweet came out of nowhere, it immediately became their favorite!

When they had drunk this milk tea for the first time, they dared not let loose. Who knows if they would mess up? They'd cry if they got fat!

So, some people actually made their friends test the tea's claim first, so as not to make a mistake.

Although the milk tea checked out, they were still worried about gaining weight. After all, each person's physique was different!

However, lured by the milk tea, they could not resist and chose to let go! They could always lose weight like crazy after gaining a pound!

However, after two days of drinking, they really did not gain weight!

So, the crowd was simply overjoyed! This was a treasure sent from heaven!

Since Xia Xibei had been in school during this time and not the company, she did not know that everyone at the company had a cup of milk tea nowadays.

Looking at the cups of milk tea in everyone's hands, Xia Xibei's mood became even brighter.

This was money!

When she almost reached the practice room, Xia Xibei's leisurely pace stopped when she saw Xia Qinghan.

Xia Qinghan was also holding a cup of the same milk tea, smiling and talking to Little Shi and Nini.

After seeing Xia Xibei, Xia Qinghan's smile froze and she turned her head as if nothing had happened.

Little Shi and Nini didn't notice Xia Xibei, continuing, "Qinghan, you're fantastic! You have become the most beautiful school beauty on the Internet! Your popularity is exploding!"

Chapter 345: Traveling for Work

These days, photos of Xia Qinghan circulated online on a small scale, and she was hailed by many people as "the most beautiful schoolgirl."

Her popularity was not exactly exploding, but compared to them, interns who were not yet popular, such attention was enviable.

Although Little Shi and Nini had not yet debuted, they could see that this was more than a random online following. There must be some marketing techniques involved.

However, given Xia Qinghan's status, that was normal.

So, the two of them were more enthusiastic than ever toward Xia Qinghan.

Although Xia Qinghan had a shy smile on her face when she listened to their praises, she was actually very proud of herself.

After noticing Xia Xibei, she even gave her a proud look.

These days, looking at her online publicity, Xia Qinghan was very smug.

She felt that she was already a super star, with countless fans who followed her.

This feeling was amazing and made one feel incredible.

Plus, she had participated in the competition "Million Dollar Wisdom and Courage" yesterday and scored a very good result.

When she got on the show and achieved better results, Bai Meixue and Qiao Haoming would help her out, taking her popularity to the next level.

By then, could Xia Xibei compare to her?

As she was thinking this, her gaze toward Xia Xibei became even more dismissive.

But soon, her mood turned gloomy.

It was Lao Sha's dance class again.

Listening to Lao Sha's unabashed praise for Xia Xibei, Xia Qinghan couldn't keep the smile on her face.

Looking at the taciturn smile on Xia Xibei's face, she wanted to strip off her smile!

Only after a few deep breaths did Xia Qinghan push down the frustration in her heart and regain her pride.

Even if she performed well, so what? She still wouldn't have a chance to appear on camera.

Even if Xia Xibei got the role of the Queen of Animals, so what? Nothing was certain until filming officially began.

Xia Qinghan's smile came back upon thinking of the despair and sadness Xia Xibei would face.

Of course, Xia Xibei knew of Xia Qinghan's resentment towards her, but she didn't care.

She was not stupid. She knew that Xia Qinghan did not harbor good intentions, and she had long been prepared.

She hadn't started anything for the time being, but if Xia Qinghan dared to try anything... Xia Xibei guaranteed that she would regret it.

After classes were finished for the day, Xia Xibei went to the milk tea shop.

She was very satisfied when looking at the huge number of customers at the milk tea store.

Fang Yongxin and Song Jiaren were also satisfied. However, this was only the beginning, and there was still much work to be done.

After she was finished at the milk tea store, Uncle Chen came over to pick her up and go home.

"Miss Xia, here's your car," Uncle Chen opened the car door.

Xia Xibei, however, stood motionless at the car door.

"Where's Brother Qiao?"

Just now, she was in a trance and saw a figure in the back seat. Originally, she thought it was Qiao Yanjue, but to her surprise, it was just an illusion caused by light and shadow.

“Boss has something to take care of. He asked me to pick you up.”

“Ok,” Xia Xibei nodded. Her eyes flickered for a moment, and she bent over to get into the car.

After she got home and washed up, she sat on the sofa and flipped through a book for a while but couldn't help but look at the balcony.

The two balconies were connected. If the lights were on at one side, the other side would also have some light.

After reading for a while, she glanced at the balcony once again.

However, there was no movement there, even by bedtime.

Qiao Yanjue didn't appear the next day either.

Xia Xibei sent a few messages, only receiving a reply after half a day.

'Traveling for work.'

A work trip?!

Chapter 346: Absent-Minded

“Beibei, Beibei?”

Xia Xibei came back to her senses after her hand was pulled for a moment, gazing into Tang Luo’s worried eyes.

“What’s wrong? Are you feeling okay?” Tang Luo was a little concerned.

Xia Xibei hadn’t been very energetic these last two days, and today she even became absent-minded!

Despite her listlessness, she led the team in the basketball tournament, defeating the other classes and making it all the way to the finals.

She also made it into the finals for the talent competition!

However, Tang Luo had never seen Xia Xibei without energy before, so he was worried.

“Nothing,” Xia Xibei smiled, “Just thinking about something.”

Qiao Yanjue had been gone for a few days and there wasn't much information, which made her a little concerned.

Thinking carefully about Qiao Yanjue's first life, she suddenly realized that it seemed as if...

Qiao Yanjue's fiancée had been decided at this time.

Could Qiao Yanjue be going back to get engaged?!

If she hadn't saved Qiao Yanjue earlier, he would have been seriously injured. After being injured, he would have recuperated at home, not coming to G City at all.

And during that recuperation period, he would have gotten engaged with the Lai family's daughter, who took care of him...

Thinking about it, Xia Xibei couldn't help but frown.

She would not interfere with Qiao Yanjue's life and choices, but if Qiao Yanjue had a fiancée, they would have to keep their distance. After all, his fiancée was not a kind person.

Although she hadn't spent much time with Qiao Yanjue, Xia Xibei's heart had softened quite a bit and she no longer rejected him as much as she did before.

Moreover, if she asked herself, she'd have to admit that Qiao Yanjue was quite good to her, much like a big brother.

Still, Qiao Yanjue had gone back. Although he had said it was a business trip, the home next to her was empty and it felt really awkward.

"Beibei?" Seeing Xia Xibei start contemplating again, Tang Luo frowned and jolted her awake, "Are you okay? Do you want to see a doctor?"

"No need." Xia Xibei shook her head and smiled, "Just thinking of something, it's okay."

She shook the bread and milk in her hand and changed the subject.

"How come they always give the same things?"

For the past few days, every morning, there were two portions of bread and milk on Tang Luo's table, the brand not changing.

Although the taste was quite good and it was also very expensive, one got tired of the same thing every day.

"Since they don't really pay attention."

Tang Luo was also very frank when speaking of this matter.

He was too stupid to find out the problem in advance before, but now, he was not so stupid.

“Not much attention indeed.” Xia Xibei shrugged, then tore open the bag and stuffed the bread into her mouth.

The two of them were chatting when a slightly plump body appeared in the doorway, rushing towards them.

“Beibei, do you have the clothes ready?”

After a long time, Song Jiaren had lost a lot of weight. She wasn’t totally transformed, but she already had the shape of a beauty.

Her words and actions, however, were still... Domineering.

“Clothes?” Xia Xibei froze for a moment. “What clothes?”

“Come on, the talent final is tomorrow night!” Song Jiaren wanted to pinch her neck and shake her. “Didn’t I remind you before?!”

Xia Xibei blinked, her face unchanging, “Of course I’m ready!”

“Really?” Song Jiaren looked at her questioningly.

“Of course! I’ve been ready for a long time!” Xia Xibei nodded and changed the subject, “Okay, let’s go!”

As they were about to leave, Tang Luo’s cell phone rang.

Checking the phone, Tang Luo revealed a cold smile, asking them, “Want to see a good show?”

“A good show? Of course!”

Chapter 347: I Am the Proof

On a desolate path behind the back door of Qing Ye High School, a girl looked around with apprehension. She couldn’t help but kick her right foot around on the ground in an attempt to ease her nerves.

As time passed and the person she was waiting for did not appear, she became increasingly anxious and nervous.

When the thin figure came at last, her eyes glinted with happiness.

“You’re here!” she exclaimed in surprise.

Tang Luo looked at the girl in front of him, a cold light crossing his eyes.

“Did you send those bread?”

“Yes! I- I like you!”

After boldly shouting this, the girl clasped her hands together and shyly bowed her head.

“What do you like about me?” Tang Luo’s voice was calm, sounding neither happy nor unhappy.

The girl was prepared and immediately looked up at him, “I’ve liked you since I first saw you! Whether it’s your looks or your inner self, I like it all!”

“Oh? Really?” Tang Luo’s voice was a bit cold.

“Of course!” the girl nodded emphatically.

“But I don’t like you.”

The girl’s expression froze.

“If there’s nothing else, then I’m leaving. Besides, this kind of place is dangerous. You’d better hurry back.” Tang Luo’s expression was impeccable.

Seeing that he was about to go, the girl was anxious and took a big step forward, trying to pull his hand.

But Tang Luo’s reaction was quick, and he cast her hand away.

“I don’t like people touching me,” he said in a cold voice, then turned around to continue on his way.

You can’t go!”

The girl rushed in front of him, blocking his path as she spoke loudly, “If you dare to leave, I will tell others that you molested me!”

Tang Luo’s face fell.

“Molested you?” He sneered, looked her up and down, and then said nonchalantly, “What makes you worthy of being molested? Your flat as an airport body? Or your unattractive face?”

The girl froze for a moment before turning red.

“You bastard!”

“I’m a bastard?” Tang Luo snorted, “It seems like you threatened me first, right?”

The girl also reacted. Right, that’s not what she came here for.

“If you dare to leave, I will immediately call the police and tell them you tried to rape me!” she said while tugging at her clothes.

Tang Luo sneered, “Are you planning to slander me? Who do you think will believe you?”

“Hah!” The girl also laughed coldly, the sweet shyness she pretended to have before now gone. “Who asked you to come here? It’s just the two of us here, and others will believe whatever I say!”

The girl was very smug. If Tang Luo hadn’t come, she would have had to spend more time. However, since Tang Luo came here, things would be easy.

“You’re going to use your reputation to smear me?” Tang Luo asked with a frown.

“Why won’t you go the easier way?” The girl shook her head proudly, “Anyway, you will definitely be worse off than me when the time comes!”

Since she dared to do such a thing, naturally she was ready to bear everything.

“Really?”

“Of course!” The girl looked at him with a wicked smile, “With just the two of us here, plus the proof I can give, who do you think they will believe?”

Even if nothing was found in the end, Tang Luo’s reputation would be ruined.

“Proof?”

“Uh huh!” The girl nodded triumphantly, “I am the proof.”

“Is that so?” Tang Luo suddenly laughed. “Well, I’m really sorry, but my evidence is much stronger than yours.”

The girl’s heart jumped. She followed his line of sight and suddenly blushed!

Chapter 348: This Doesn’t Make Sense

Several heads and hands popped up above the tall wall.

That wasn’t the point.

The point was this: these hands were all clutching cell phones, with the cameras pointing down at them!

The girl's face went white and she almost passed out.

The prettiest girl spoke up, "It looks like you're going to have to call the police, Ah Luo."

"That's right!" The slightly chubby girl nodded her head in righteous indignation, "I didn't think there were such disgusting skanks!"

She was so angry.

If they hadn't recorded this incident with their cell phones, Tang Luo would have been slandered, wouldn't he?

The boy in the trio also looked terrified, exclaiming, "This is so scary!"

In his simple and shallow experience, this was the first time he had seen such a thing.

How could anyone willingly use their innocence to smear another person's innocence? If she had succeeded in slandering him, what would have happened to Tang Luo?

This was too much! She was despicable!

Tang Luo looked at the girl and smiled coldly, "I'm really sorry. I have more evidence on my side than you do!"

They had three cell phones! And they had recorded the whole thing unfolding.

Even if one phone didn't work, there were still two more!

The girl's face was white, and she looked at them incredulously, her hands and feet tingling.

Why would they do this?!

Her earlier smugness had disappeared at this moment, only terror remaining.

Panicking and not knowing what to say, she turned around to run.

"Stop!"

Song Jiaren immediately jumped down from the table she had used earlier and rushed out.

However, she was a bit of a distance away from the back door, and by the time she got there, the girl was getting away.

Tang Luo rushed forward and tried to catch the girl.

Since she was here, she shouldn't leave.

However, in a frenzy of shock and panic, the girl exploded with more power than ever before, pushing Tang Luo away.

A rock blocked his path, making Tang Luo stagger a bit.

Seeing that the girl was about to run away, Xia Xibei gave her phone to Yu Ziqi, pushed off the wall with her hands, stomped on both feet, and went into the air.

Yu Ziqi just felt an extra phone in his hand, a gust of wind around him, and then, his eyes becoming blurry, Xia Xibei was gone.

When he blinked, Xia Xibei had landed on the ground.

“What the-?!”

Yu Ziqi was so scared, he even started cursing.

What had just happened?!

This wall was three meters tall!

Even though they were standing on a table, this still didn't make any sense!

Xia Xibei bent her knees and landed on the ground, offsetting the impact, then quickly rushed forward.

“Damn, damn, damn!”

Yu Ziqi was high above the ground, so he could see the situation very clearly.

The girl had rushed away a short distance, but Xia Xibei was fast. Within the blink of an eye, she had closed the distance between them.

Yu Ziqi stared dumbfounded as Xia Xibei rushed up, yanked the girl back, and then threw her to the ground.

When Song Jiaren rushed out and saw this scene in front of her, she was equally stunned.

“What the hell!” Where did Xia Xibei come from?!

Xia Xibei pulled back on the girl, who was wailing and screaming, without any mercy. "Come on, let's go to the teaching office and have a cup of tea."

The head teacher and the principal were surprised to see the girl, who was crying miserably.

When they figured out everything, they were even more furious.

"This is outrageous! Inexcusable!" The head teacher slapped the table and cursed, "It's too vicious! She must be expelled! Expelled!"

Chapter 349: The Birth of a Saint

The head teacher and principal were livid.

How much damage would it bring to Tang Luo if she had succeeded in slandering him?!

Tang Luo was number one in his grade! If such a good student with a bright future was slandered, how could there be any justice?

However, this tactic could have easily succeeded.

After all, there was no one there at the back door. If the girl said that Tang Luo molested her, others would easily believe it and condemn Tang Luo.

In everyone's mind, how could a girl say that if it wasn't true?

So, once the girl got her way, Tang Luo would have to carry this disgusting charge afterwards!

It was good that they had recorded the incident. With the evidence, the girl couldn't claim otherwise.

"Principal, head teacher, I want to ask why she wanted to harm me like this," Tang Luo stated seriously.

The head teacher slammed the table and glared at her, "Say it!"

The girl almost shrunk into a ball. She could only shake her head desperately, tears flowing wildly, "I just got confused for a moment! I'm sorry!"

If she gave up the mastermind behind this whole thing, it would be the end of her. That person could offer her a better life or destroy her.

"Confused?! What kind of confusion is this?!"

Even the mildly tempered principal was angry.

How would this incident impact the school? If the media found out about this, the whole school would be humiliated!

Faced with their anger, the girl gritted her teeth and stuck to her story.

“Okay, since you won’t say it, let’s forget it.” Tang Luo also did not insist. “Since you’re a girl, I won’t trouble you.”

“Tang Luo!” Song Jiaren and Yu Ziqi stared at him in shock and disbelief. “How could you let her go like that?!”

The girl had done something this despicable, yet he just let it go?

“Student Tang Luo...”

Both the principal and the head teacher froze.

“You’re...”

They were also shocked. How could Tang Luo be this generous? While they were peace-oriented, they found Tang Luo’s tolerance incredible. If they had encountered this kind of thing, it would be a miracle if they didn’t kill this girl, never mind forgiving her.

In the face of everyone’s uncertainty, Tang Luo shook his head and sighed, “I believe that she really was confused for a moment, that’s why she did such a thing. I also believe that she knows that she is wrong.”

What?!

Everyone was dumbfounded, as if they had seen the birth of a saint.

However, Xia Xibei also spoke up, "Yes, there is nothing better than to know your mistakes and be able to correct them. I believe that she must understand her mistake."

What?!

Everyone's jaws dropped and they looked back and forth between the two, thinking that they were hallucinating.

Why would Xia Xibei say the same thing otherwise? Did both of their brains have water in them?!

Tang Luo nodded approvingly, then looked at the girl.

"I just want to know, do you know that you have made a mistake?"

The girl snapped out of her shock and nodded her head vigorously, "I know I made a mistake! I was really just confused for a moment!"

“Okay,” Tang Luo nodded, “Since you know you’re wrong, then we won’t call the police. However, I don’t want to see you continue to stay at this school.”

Hearing this, everyone was slightly relieved. Fortunately, he wasn’t stupid enough to be hopeless. At least his brain was somewhat normal.

“Yes, I will transfer to another school!” The girl nodded her head repeatedly.

“Remember what you said.”

Tang Luo turned his head to look at Xia Xibei and the others.

“Let’s delete the video.”

“What?!”

Song Jiaren and Yu Ziqi stood up in shock.

Chapter 350: Deleting the Video

“Are you crazy?!”

Song Jiaren and Yu Ziqi were both stunned.

They thought that Tang Luo was already enough of a saint, but they didn't expect him to be even crazier!

What if the girl did not want to go? If the evidence was deleted, what would they do?

But what shocked them even more was that Xia Xibei took out her phone and said seriously, "Since she knows she's wrong, it's useless to keep these videos."

Song Jiaren and Yu Ziqi looked at the two as if they were dim-witted.

What was wrong with them today? Why would they do something so stupid?!

"Aren't you afraid that she'll change her story later?!" Song Jiaren wanted to pinch the two people awake. They weren't so intellectually challenged before!

"I'm not," Tang Luo shook his head. "She knows her mistake."

If it weren't for the principal and head teacher in front of her, Song Jiaren would have cursed.

She knows nothing! If she knew the error of her ways so easily, she wouldn't have done something like this in the first place!

The girl was overjoyed and knelt down with a plop, "I swear! I really know I'm wrong!"

Xia Xibei rushed forward to help her up, "You don't need to kneel."

The girl got up using her help, forgetting all about the horror she had just felt.

Song Jiaren just stared at Xia Xibei with wide eyes, wishing she could kick her out! Was she poisoned?!

After making the girl sit down, Xia Xibei looked at them. "Why are you guys worried that she will go back on her word? The principal and the head teacher are here! Even if she did, would it work?"

Song Jiaren and Yu Ziqi couldn't help but frown.

That sounded reasonable, but somehow, it still didn't seem right?

"Principal, head teacher." Tang Luo looked at the two men, "You will testify for me, right?"

"Of course!" The two men nodded in unison. "We've all seen the video, of course we know who is right and who is wrong."

"That's good." Tang Luo was relieved and looked at Song Jiaren and Yu Ziqi. "Delete the video."

“Yes, let’s delete it,” Xia Xibei said while deleting the video and also shredded the file.

“If you shred it, it can’t be retrieved.”

Xia Xibei even turned the screen around.

Looking at the empty video page, Song Jiaren almost couldn’t help shouting to the sky.

What was wrong with these two today?

Xia Xibei didn’t care what Song Jiaren was thinking. She took her phone and tapped on it, finding and deleting the video.

After doing all this, she looked towards Yu Ziqi.

Yu Ziqi then obediently deleted the video.

“Well, it’s getting late. It’s time to go back.” Tang Luo politely bowed to the principal and head teacher, “Sorry to trouble you.”

The two men looked at each other with conflicted expressions.

They didn't expect things to be resolved so anticlimactically either.

"Alright. Go back."

What could they do? The parties involved had already made their decision.

Finally, Tang Luo looked at the girl, "Remember what you said."

"Of course, of course!" The girl nodded repeatedly.

"OK. Let's go."

As soon as Tang Luo said those words Song Jiaren turned around angrily and left the office.

Tang Luo and Xia Xibei looked at each other and followed her out, with Yu Ziqi following close behind.

"You... You!" The director pointed at the girl in frustration, "If it weren't for Tang Luo's kindness, you...!"

The girl bowed her head and carefully backed out of the room.

Only after she reached an empty place did she look up, a vicious smile on her lips.

Later that night, a post appeared online.

“Top student molested a girl! The school forced her to withdraw from school instead!”

Chapter 351: Blaming the Victim

The post immediately sparked intense interest.

A class representative highlighted the key points.

[A high school girl liked a top student from her school. She confessed her love but was molested by the guy. Then, the school principal and the head teacher threatened her to keep her mouth shut, kicking her out of school in order to keep things quiet!]

People were in an uproar online.

[Crap! How can such scum exist! How can a thief cry to catch a thief!]

[Damn, why blur the faces! It's disgusting! Can't believe this kind of thing happens on campus!]

[The school is too shameless! Protecting the top student for the sake of promotion rate! This is ruining the girl's life!]

[Damn! Creep!]

[Call the police! We must bring this scum to justice! What do you mean by molestation? That's rape! So what if you're a good student? You're still the dregs of society!]

[This principal and head teacher are also scum for helping scum!]

[I have reason to suspect that this principal and head teacher have done unforgivable things to other students as well!]

[Animal! Scum! Creep! Their whole family should go to hell!]

Everyone was extremely angry.

How dare the school cover up for the criminal when something like this had happened? It's really shameless!

Who would dare to stay at this kind of school?!

The reporter worked fast and immediately contacted the girl, named Li Yulin.

Quickly, news articles appeared.

In the video, Li Yulin's face was blurred and her voice was camouflaged.

On camera, she cried pitifully.

"I was very attracted to this guy, so I was very excited when he was willing to come meet me. But I didn't expect..." She cried for a while, her voice choked up as she continued, "But I never thought that he would be such an animal! If I hadn't fought back, I could have been..."

"I went to the principal and the head teacher, but they told me to shut up and said that the boy couldn't have done such a thing because he had good grades and could have gotten into a top school. They also said that I should not slander him without evidence.

"The boy had a few friends who testified along with him! And he actually slandered me and said that I molested him! Finally, they threatened me, saying that if I dared to say anything, they won't let me continue my studies!"

People online were angrier than ever after seeing this video.

[How can a girl molest a guy? Are they crazy?!]

[What kind of leadership is this? Is it so important to have good grades? Even if you have good grades, you'll still be scum when the time comes!]

[The leaders are also monsters! They must have done a lot of these kinds of things to be able to handle it so "properly"! If you can't fix the problem, then fix the person who made the problem!]

[Which school is this? I want to drag out these leaders and beat them up!]

Soon, more information came out.

The incident happened at G City's Qing Ye High School. The top student was a certain boy in the 11th grade.

After knowing this, everyone wanted to rush to Qing Ye High School, pull this scum out, and beat the crap out of him!

With the manipulation of people who had certain intentions, in just a day, this incident had become bigger and bigger. Almost all Internet users knew about it!

Moreover, the identity of the "leading man" had been established.

Other than the people directly involved and his classmates, everyone in Qing Ye High School condemned Tang Luo.

They never thought that he would have such a despicable side!

Moreover, those who could be best friends with such scum were not good people either.

On the night of the talent competition, things festered once again.

Chapter 352: Changed A Lot

“Whoa! These people really want to see a show!”

Ren Juncheng looked at his phone, his expression all over the place.

He tugged on Tang Luo, “You’re letting them curse you like this?”

Looking at the online cursing and ranting about Tang Luo, Ren Juncheng’s face was a bit unpleasant.

“It’s okay. Let them curse.”

Tang Luo was not worried. He was actually quite calm; it was as if those vicious words did not affect him at all.

“Bro, are you alright?” Ren Juncheng looked Tang Luo up and down, his face suspicious. “Why do I feel that you have changed a lot?”

He used to be quite weak and somewhat soft in his dealings, but now he seemed to have a big change in character. He went from being weak to strong. Also, he was very mentally tough!

“Totally. I also think that Ah Luo has changed a lot.” Yu Ziqi, who was nearby, also spoke up, “Yesterday, we were so exasperated because of him and Beibei!”

Yu Ziqi couldn’t help but shake his head thinking about yesterday.

He and Song Jiaren didn’t expect that Tang Luo and Xia Xibei would have such a tacit understanding. They couldn’t even react to it!

Facing the two people’s questions, Tang Luo raised his eyebrows.

“It’s nothing. It’s just that these words don’t mean anything to me.”

Since what had happened last time, he understood one thing: as long as he didn’t care, he would not get hurt.

These people, no matter what they said, no matter how vicious, wouldn’t hurt him. In fact, they made him stronger.

Moreover, he was winning. When the time came, it was others who would lose face, so what did he have to worry about?

Ren Juncheng tsked and gave a thumbs up, "Awesome!"

As Tang Luo's friend, he was about to be killed by others' stares.

If it wasn't for Tang Luo's assurance to him that things would be resolved soon, he really wouldn't dare to sit with them.

He changed the subject once again.

"How's Beibei? She's ready to go, right?" He stretched his neck to look at the stage, "The competition is about to start, right? My little Honey is coming out soon!"

Xia Xibei had borrowed Honey as a supporting act for this talent competition.

"Hmm," Tang Luo nodded, "She's up early."

"She is the seventh one to appear and... Xia Qinghan is right in front of her," Yu Ziqi said while checking his phone.

After seeing the information on the phone, he almost cursed.

“Damn! These people are gross!” He handed the phone to Tang Luo, his face gloomy, “Someone has pulled Beibei down as well.”

Someone had revealed online that Tang Luo had an equally evil girlfriend, and after the incident, his girlfriend was still brazenly attending the competition.

In this online photo, Xia Xibei’s face was blurred.

The people online cursed furiously, saying that she was equally repulsive.

The three of them twitched their mouths. How could they tell that she was repulsive with the blurring present? Did they have x-ray vision?

“If you guys don’t come out and explain, we’re all going to get dragged down,” Ren Junsheng shook his head.

“When the competition is over, it will be time,” Tang Luo explained.

At that time, things would be at a fever pitch and when they came out to explain, they would have more advantages.

This was also the result of his discussion with Xia Xibei.

“Okay.”

Ren Juncheng looked around carefully, afraid that everyone's eggs would hit him in the face. That would be so wrong!

"Okay, the competition is starting."

The lights came on and the host came out.

Chapter 353: Shameless

This incident had become so huge that the school could not be calm.

The students had not yet been baptized and crushed by society, still possessing a very strong sense of justice.

Now, the sudden appearance of such a scum in the school really shamed the whole school!

If it weren't for Song Jiaren, the famous school bully, being by Tang Luo's side, they would have wanted to kick him out of the school.

Why should Li Yulin be forced to leave, not even daring to come to school, while the perpetrator stayed in school?

It's what the leaders did that angered them the most.

Things had come to a head the night before, and in the morning, the principal had sternly stated over the loudspeaker that Li Yulin was the real bad guy, and that she was the one slandering everyone else and slandering the school!

Moreover, the principal also said that they had evidence, and when the time came, they would also pursue Li Yulin's legal responsibility!

If that was true, where was the evidence?

Without proof, who would believe the school's version?

And it's just as Li Yulin had said! The school leaders, Tang Luo, and the others had ganged up to bully her!

As a result, the students did not believe the school's story, even though the leaders and teachers sternly insisted upon it.

Why didn't they show the evidence if they had it?

Wasn't it the lack of evidence that made them react like that?

The leaders' statements were then passed on by other students, once again sparking suspicion and contempt for Qing Ye High School.

What really made the students speechless was that Tang Luo didn't seem to be very nervous or sheepish. He was actually quite calm.

Such a mental quality was impressive to everyone.

How could he be so calm after doing such a thing! He really wasn't an ordinary person! Well, an ordinary person wouldn't be able to do anything this gross!

Looking at Xia Xibei, who showed no sign of weakness and unease, walking alongside Tang Luo, Liu Zhijing and Tao Yueying could not help but snort coldly.

"They're really used to doing this kind of thing! Scum!" Tao Yueying spat, looking at them with a strong look of contempt.

Liu Zhijing also nodded, "Yes! Did you see how close Xia Xibei was with him? The two of them are a den of snakes and rats!"

"That's right!" Tao Yueying agreed. "After Tang Luo did such a thing, Xia Xibei did not stay away from him. They're still so close! They're really shameless!"

"Right. How else could they be good friends?"

“Such people are a disgrace to the school! I really don’t know why the head teacher and the others are helping them!”

“Good grades?”

“Bah! So what if he has good grades? There’s plenty of good grades in our school, right?”

“Did they do something?”

Liu Zhijing and Tao Yueying glanced at each other, then smiled bitchily.

Xia Qinghan gently patted them, “Okay, stop it. Let’s just mind our own business.”

However, Liu Zhijing was reluctant.

“I’m just upset for you,” she said seriously. “Now everyone is saying that Xia Xibei is better than you!”

In the previous round, Xia Xibei sang a song and did exceptionally well!

The worst part was that Xia Qinghan also sang a song.

Now a lot of people thought Xia Xibei was more talented than Xia Qinghan.

How could they let these comments go?

Xia Qinghan's expression stiffened for a moment before Liu Zhijing continued, "But a bitch like her, how is she qualified to be compared to you?!"

Speaking of which, she pulled out her phone.

"No, I have to expose her!"

"Ahhh, don't you do that," Xia Qinghan said softly

"It's okay, I know what to do!" Liu Zhijing sent a post, her eyes shining. "I'd feel sorry for them if I don't add fuel to their fire!"

Chapter 354: Playing the Piano

Xia Qinghan's heart pounded as she listened to the sounds outside.

Today, her performance was playing the piano.

She started piano lessons when she was just a few years old and took exams for it too.

It could be said that she was very good at piano-playing.

Last year, it was due to her piano-playing that she gained the attention of the entire school.

In this year's preliminary round, she didn't want to repeat her previous performance, which was why she chose to sing.

She didn't think Xia Xibei would choose to sing too!

What was even more annoying was that Xia Xibei did better than her!

Thinking about what everyone had said earlier, she got depressed.

Luckily, Xia Xibei was ruining her own life.

After Tang Luo did that kind of thing, she did not separate from Tang Luo but actually stood by him. It was so stupid!

Xia Qinghan's mood got better as she listened to the whispers of others.

Even if Xia Xibei got a good score today, so what? She was definitely going to be dragged down.

After she performed, it would be Xia Xibei's turn.

When the time came, she would let Xia Xibei know what it meant to be crushed!

She would show Xia Xibei that the piano was not easy to play!

"Next, we invite contestant number six, Xia Qinghan, to the stage. She is bringing us..."

The host's voice brought Xia Qinghan back.

She tidied up and made sure that there was no problem before she walked out with a smile.

Listening to the loud applause that rang out from outside, Song Jiaren pursed her lips and hummed, "She won't be able to laugh when you come on!"

Before, Song Jiaren had also thought Xia Xibei could not play the piano, but after hearing her play, she was stunned.

Her piano skills were stunning!

Xia Xibei stroked Honey in her lap and smiled, "So, we'll let her laugh a little more now."

"Meow!" Honey purred. Her eyes squinted comfortably, and her tail wrapped around Xia Xibei's wrist.

"So cute!"

Song Jiaren's eyes were mesmerized, and she couldn't help but reach out and touch Honey.

Her clean, fluffy fur was so intoxicating, she wanted to bury her face in it.

Song Jiaren wanted a cat of her own. If she could stroke her cat whenever, it would be so relaxing!

"Meow!"

Honey was very content on Xia Xibei's lap. Even when Song Jiaren touched her, she gave very little reaction.

Other people looked at the cute cat from afar with a torn expression.

Many of them had read the rumors on the Internet and had a poor impression of Xia Xibei.

Yes, she was pretty, but with her poor character, who would want to befriend her? Who knew if she was as evil as Tang Luo?

Too bad. The cat was so adorable. Why was the cat hers?

Soon, Xia Qinghan's performance had ended.

Listening to the thunderous applause outside, Xia Xibei stood up with Honey in her arms.

"Okay, it's our turn."

Outside, the host called out Xia Xibei's name.

When Xia Xibei's name was announced, the sound outside was a little lighter, and the applause was a lot weaker. Many people couldn't help but show their disgusted expressions.

"Go for it!" Song Jiaren clenched her hands into fists and cheered.

Xia Xibei nodded and walked out with Honey.

Outside, everyone was whispering when they saw a stunningly beautiful young woman walking out with a cat in her arms.

The young woman was tall and shapely, wearing a long white dress. She looked like a fairy under the lights.

The cat in her arms was even more adorable.

The cat and person combination made one tremble.

Wasn't she going to play the piano? What was the cat for?

Was she going to perform cat-training?

Chapter 355: Where Did the Heavenly Music Come From

"Oooh! My little Honey!" Ren Juncheng pulled Yu Ziqi's hand and shouted in a low voice.

The corners of Yu Ziqi's mouth twitched and he wanted to chop Ren Junsheng's paws off.

Of course, he would never admit to being jealous! Why didn't Xia Xibei get his Asura?! Asura is so cute!

Everyone looked at the stage with bewildered expressions.

What was Xia Xibei doing?

With the crowd watching, Xia Xibei walked to the piano and placed Honey on top. Then, she sat in the chair in a natural manner.

After sitting down, she snapped her fingers.

Everyone saw Honey stand up straight with her tail up, looking like she was on standby.

Before anyone had a chance to discuss it, Xia Xibei's hands fell on the keys.

Deng!

With the first note, everyone seemed to be taken by surprise, staring intently at her movements.

The smooth and beautiful music sounded like a clear spring, flowing like water from Xia Xibei's fingertips. The sound was winding like a mountain stream, flowing down from the jagged rocks, into the wide and deep river, and then converging into the vast and boundless sea.

To their shock, this beautiful cat moved along with the music!

She stepped to the sound of music, landing lightly on top of the piano with her paws, tail twitching and body swaying nimbly.

They seemed to see, in the pure and beautiful forest, next to a tinkling stream, in the moonlight, a beautiful and animated elf dancing to the spirit of the moonlight song...

When the piano-playing stopped, there was a moment of silence.

Not much sound could be heard in a venue, which was full of several thousand people.

After a “meow” sound, all the people suddenly came back to their senses, their expressions horrified.

What the...?! What kind of magical sound was this? Or rather, what kind of heavenly music was this?!

It was stunning!

They were just transported into a beautiful dream by the music, which was so captivating that they couldn't bear to wake up.

As for Xia Qinghan... She was strong and good at piano-playing, but compared to Xia Xibei, she was no match!

Many people didn't know about piano-playing, but they could tell the difference between good and bad.

One was conventional music; one was heavenly music. They couldn't be compared!

"Wow!" Ren Juncheng and several people shouted and applauded intensely.

Led by them, other people also followed in giving a warm applause.

"Fantastic!"

"Amazing!"

Even if they were unhappy with Xia Xibei before, this performance was enough to make them marvel and cancel any previous bad impressions!

A person who could play such beautiful music could not be that bad, right?

And she was so beautiful!

Talented and beautiful, this phrase was tailor-made for her!

Tang Luo and the others' palms were sore from clapping.

Although they knew that Xia Xibei was powerful, they didn't expect her to be so awesome!

Originally, everyone's attention should have been taken away by Honey and not her performance. After all, a cat who could step and dance was very rare!

However, after one performance, although everyone noticed Honey, they didn't overlook her playing!

This was too magical! Their Sister Bei was fierce!

"Sister Bei! Sister Bei!"

"School beauty! School beauty!"

The boys in the third class, especially the boys who played with Xia Xibei, couldn't help but cheer.

Others cheered along with them!

"School beauty! School beauty!"

Backstage, everyone's faces dimmed.

Chapter 356: Targeting Her

Other than Song Jiaren, who was clapping like crazy, everyone else's expressions were ugly backstage.

If the audience had already started shouting "school beauty," there was no need for them to continue performing.

Unless you wanted to compete to be someone ordinary, of course.

They were backstage and couldn't see Xia Xibei's performance, but they were able to hear her and were pretty surprised.

How did she get so good at it?! And this song... It was so strange!

Xia Qinghan's face was as hard as it could be.

She had thought her performance would make people ignore Xia Xibei's performance. After all, they were not comparable.

Yet she was the one who got crushed!

"Oops, I'm so sorry!" Song Jiaren showed her teeth and smiled, "Our Beibei is doing very well today!"

Xia Qinghan's face became even more ugly, and after holding back a while, she turned around and walked away.

Looking at Xia Qinghan's departing back, Song Jiaren almost didn't hum a tune.

When Xia Xibei returned with Honey in her arms, she immediately ran up to them and praised her, "Beibei, you're amazing! You sounded so good!"

After praising Xia Xibei, she touched Honey once again, "Honey you were also awesome!"

She could see very clearly from behind the curtain, and she knew that Honey had moved beautifully, almost as if she was a human!

"Meow!"

Honey squinted her eyes in triumph. She also thought she did really well!

Xia Xibei looked around, "Where is Xia Qinghan?"

"She thought it was embarrassing and left," Song Jiaren said proudly.

Xia Xibei gave a non-committal smile.

Xia Qinghan had already left the auditorium and was ready to find a place to vent.

There was no need to wait, she already knew the result.

Before, during the preliminary rounds, she had figured out the strength of the other players.

There were not many strong competitors in the rest of the pack.

Of course, even if someone else that was good showed up, it wouldn't mean much because she had already been crushed by Xia Xibei!

Xia Qinghan hated it so much that she gnashed her teeth.

“Qinghan?”

Xia Qinghan looked up.

“Qiqi?”

Zhang Yiqi came over, “Why are you outside? You finished the competition, right?”

Xia Qinghan's tone was not very happy, questioning, "The competition was done long ago! Why did you come just now?"

Zhang Yiqi was a bit apologetic, "I had some things to take care of. I'm sorry for the delay!"

Looking at her expression, Xia Qinghan almost couldn't help but roll her eyes. It must be for a man again!

"How did you do? You were number one, right?"

Just after saying this, she saw Xia Qinghan's demoralized expression and couldn't help but be shocked.

"No way?!"

Tears rolling down her face, Xia Qinghan exclaimed, "It's all because of that damned Xia Xibei!"

Zhang Yiqi was even more surprised, "Xia Xibei again?"

Why was it that damn girl again?

Sure enough, those who were friends with Tang Luo were no good!

“I just don’t understand that bitch... Why does she like to fight me so much?! I play the piano, she plays the piano! I sing, she sings too!”

While speaking, Xia Qinghan became more and more upset. She just couldn’t figure out why Xia Xibei was targeting her.

“What a bitch?!” Zhang Yiqi was surprised, then declared with a face of righteous indignation, “We can’t let her win!”

At that point, she showed a wicked smile.

“But who made her close to Tang Luo? It would be too easy to make her lose face!”

Zhang Yiqi became even more smug thinking about what she had done.

“What do you mean?” Xia Qinghan asked, puzzled.

“Just wait for the show!” Zhang Yiqi smiled with satisfaction.

Soon, a microblog update appeared online.

[“Top Scholar” unaffected by the molestation incident, focused on cheering for his girlfriend!]

Chapter 357: The Right Way to Ruin Someone

Online attention about this matter was at a fever pitch, even taking away a lot of attention from “Legend of Qinghe” and Nie Zehai.

Such vicious incidents made everyone very angry. Even if someone was good at school, without a good moral character, they were still a great danger to society!

Plus, no one could guarantee that these creeps wouldn't hurt them too.

So people like this scum needed to be punished!

After seeing this post, everyone was speechless, then they became even more angry.

How dare this guy support his girlfriend's performance at this time! Was he not affected at all?

His mental state must be good, to be so calm after doing something bad!

Wouldn't he evolve to a killer with this kind of mental state? This was outrageous!

People became angry online.

[Are cops useless? Why aren't they arresting him at this point?!]

[This kind of person is so terrible! I feel like he'd kill someone eventually!]

[This kind of scum has a girlfriend? This girlfriend is also scum, right?]

[If a normal person encountered this kind of thing, shouldn't they just dump the guy? Is she being threatened?]

[Hah! So this is a top school?! They can date this openly? I really doubt the identity of this man! When I was in school, I couldn't even talk to girls, but here they can date?!]

[This "top scholar" is not the son of the principal, right? Or the son of some government leader? Otherwise, how can he still be so arrogant after what happened?]

As people were making a ruckus, some said they wanted to fight violence with violence, and others said they wanted to go to the school to make trouble. Then, a video caught everyone's attention.

The video featured a beautiful young woman playing the piano as a cat danced along.

The photographer's skills were excellent, using good angles and light, expertly capturing the interaction between the girl and the cat.

[This song is so beautiful! I feel like I can see a forest in the moonlight!]

[I've never heard of this song before. Is it an original?]

[If it's an original, it's incredible! It sounds amazing!]

[The cat is cute too! It can dance! Did it become human?]

[The cooperation between the human and the cat is superb! This girl is so pretty! Mom! I think I saw a fairy maiden!]

[Isn't this the school beauty contest at Qing Ye High School?]

[She's the top school beauty to me! Beautiful and talented!]

Many people were enchanted by this video.

The pretty girl and the adorable cat together were too cute!

This video was quickly forwarded over ten thousand times, with many comments and likes, ninety-nine percent of which were positive. After all, how many people could say bad things about such a heart-warming picture?

Zhang Yiqi and Xia Qinghan were stunned by the overwhelming praise online.

“What is this?” Xia Qinghan looked at Zhang Yiqi in shock and annoyance, “Are you making her popular, or are you trying to ruin her?”

Based on the quality of the video and the angle of filming, it was simply the perfect presentation of Xia Xibei’s beauty and talent!

Was this the right way to ruin someone?

They were obviously making Xia Xibei hotter than ever!

Zhang Yiqi was also confused, “I- I did not ask them to do it like this!”

The marketing accounts she hired knew the difference between good and bad, right?

“Hurry and make them change it!” Xia Qinghan stomped her feet, “I’ll let them add a fire on my side too.”

They could take advantage of this matter to crush Xia Xibei!

Soon, the online comments changed once again.

Chapter 358: Who is the Real School Beauty

While everyone was praising Xia Xibei in the video, another account broke the news.

[Don't you know that the "fairy maiden" you guys like is the top scholar's girlfriend?]

What?!

People were stunned.

This beautiful fairy sister was the girlfriend of the "top scholar"? Damn! How blind must she be!

[Impossible! How can such a beautiful girl be the girlfriend of a scum?]

[There must be a mistake! How can a top scholar have such a girlfriend?]

[Hah! Just take a look!]

This account posted a photo.

The photo showed a teenage boy and girl sitting together with an intimate manner, a smile on their faces.

[Wait, this is the top scholar? What the- He's pretty good looking!]

[Could it be a mistake? How can such a good-looking guy be a bad person?]

[Please! You guys are so disgusting! So you can't be bad if you're good-looking? Do you even have a bottom line?]

[This kind of person is scary, okay? Didn't the victim say that before? She was the one who confessed her love first. If the top scholar was not good-looking, she wouldn't have confessed, right? But good looks don't mean a good heart!]

[God! The girl is so good looking, why would she want to be with this kind of scum? Could it be that she was threatened?]

[What do you mean by threatened? She did it willingly! Who doesn't know about their relationship in the school? Besides, they have a best friend who is the school bully! She likes to play school bully, and many people are afraid to speak up when they are bullied!]

[What? A school bully?! I guess birds of a feather flock together?]

People discussed it feverishly online, their impression of Xia Xibei falling drastically.

No matter how beautiful they were, if they weren't good hearted, they were a danger to society.

As online opinion changed, more people came out with posts.

[I'll show you the real beauty of our school! Good grades, great talent, and most importantly, she has a good heart!]

Photos of Xia Qinghan performing were shown below.

In the photo, she looked beautiful while sitting in front of the piano with a dignified and elegant face, a smile at the corners of her mouth.

[This is the real school beauty! She's not from the same world as those shady people!]

[I'd like to say as her classmate that she is the real winner of life. She is a real princess from a good family, but she is not a bit arrogant! Everyone likes to be friends with her!]

[Wow! There are people this perfect? I can't even envy her!]

[Although she is not as good-looking as the girl before, she is also fairy maiden-worthy! Considering all the conditions, she is the real school beauty, right!]

[The girl before was also surnamed Xia, but I heard that she had broken off her relationship with her parents. Can this kind of person be any good? There's no harm without comparison!]

[Here's a series of photos I've collected for a long time. P.S: I'm a girl. These are all random photos and not taken without permission.]

The following nine-photo grid was a variety of beautiful photos of Xia Qinghan, where each posture of hers showed good upbringing.

[She really is a lady, and a top student! She is the real goddess of learning!]

[No matter how someone looked on the outside, isn't she just covering up her ugly heart?]

Looking at the online comments, Xia Qinghan could feel the depression in her heart lifting, and her mood improved.

So what if Xia Xibei won a competition? She would still crush her!

Zhang Yiqi was also very proud. She was just about to make those people put out more news when she saw a message suddenly pop up online.

[The amazing reversal! Thief cries out to catch a thief! Where is the conscience?!]

Chapter 359: Video Exposes All

The video was both clear and loud, so everyone could see the whole thing very easily.

The video wasn't long, just a few minutes. However, everyone was stunned after viewing it.

[What the- Damn! Is this photoshopped?!]

[What kind of reversal is this? I feel like my face is puffy from being slapped!]

[The girl said before that the guy molested her! Is this what she meant by molested?!]

[What kind of gross person is this?! She's the bad guy here!]

[This world is too crazy!]

[I've said it before, there's definitely something wrong here! Feel your face, is it puffy?]

[The reversal video is out! Woah, the face-slapping is too brutal!]

This video dumbfounded everyone.

One second they were condemning the “top scholar,” and the next second they were being slapped in the face.

The person claiming to be molested was actually the perpetrator!

[So we were all swindled by this girl?!]

[I’m actually an accessory to this crime?!]

While everyone was in a state of shock and anger, Qing Ye High School’s official blog posted an update too.

[In response to what student Li said before, we can now provide an explanation. As you can see, student Li bullied student Tang, and after finding out what she did had been recorded, she begged for forgiveness from student Tang. After that, student Tang and the others chose to forgive her and deleted the video. But we never thought that things would go this far! We didn’t respond before because we had to recover the video and come up with the evidence to explain ourselves! Based on what student Li has done, we have called the police and left it to their discretion!]

Links to two videos were posted below.

One was a video they had seen before, but from a slightly different angle.

There was also a video of several people in the principal's office.

Although the second video did not have any sound, they could clearly see Li Yulin suddenly kneeling and crying. Then, Tang Luo and several people took out their phones, supposedly deleting the video.

If one had seen the image of Li Yulin kneeling before this occurrence, they would think that this was when the school leaders and Tang Luo had bullied her together.

But now, who didn't know what really went on?

This blog update annoyed everyone.

They were manipulated by a girl, and they almost became her accomplices!

They were just as angry now as they had been outraged by injustice before.

The previous anger was directed at Tang Luo and Xia Xibei, but now, that anger had backfired directly on Li Yulin.

[This is how everyone's compassion is ruined by these scumbags!]

[With online things, it really takes only a few days to judge. With this reversal and then another reversal, I do not dare to speak!]

[Damn! This girl is so disgusting. When her confession of love didn't work out, she accused the guy of assaulting her? Doesn't she see her own face? Who would want her?]

[She is really too vicious! If he didn't have evidence, wouldn't he have to carry this charge for the rest of his life?]

Everyone knew that if Tang Luo didn't produce evidence, even if the police had no evidence that he did something bad, no one online would believe he was innocent.

That way, his life would be ruined!

With this conclusion, people hated Li Yulin more than ever.

Looking at the outrage that quickly erupted online, both Zhang Yiqi and Xia Qinghan were bewildered.

Zhang Yiqi was even more angry. She dialed Li Yulin's phone, cursing, "Are you a moron? Why didn't you tell me about the video they took before?!"

She would have done things differently if she had known that there was a video taken!

Chapter 360: Shut Your Mouth

Looking at the onslaught of rage and curses aimed towards her on the Internet, Li Yulin's body became cold and the taste in her mouth was bitter.

When everything that happened to Tang Luo before happened to her, she realized that she didn't have the same strong mental capacity as him.

Listening to Zhang Yiqi's angry tirade, she also had a bitter expression.

"I- I didn't think..."

Zhang Yiqi was livid, "You didn't think? Why didn't you tell me before that they took a video?"

Before, Li Yulin did not tell her that Tang Luo and others had taken any videos.

"He- They deleted- Deleted the video before!" And they had shredded it too!

"Are you pig-brained?!" Zhang Yiqi became even angrier and shouted, "If they really deleted the video, what is this now?! And don't you know that these things can be recovered?!"

Even if the phone was smashed, the files inside could be restored, regardless of whether or not they were simply deleted.

Zhang Yiqi finally understood why Tang Luo did not say anything while being attacked before: he was busy recovering the video!

Li Yulin was also at a loss.

"I... I don't know..." She was about to cry, asking, "Miss Zhang, what do we do now?"

"What do we do?!" Zhang Yiqi was furious, "Shut up, of course! If you f—ing dare to talk nonsense, you can just die!"

"Can't you send me abroad?" Li Yulin begged, panicking.

If Tang Luo and others retaliated, what could she do to protect herself? She didn't want to go to jail!

"Send you abroad?" Zhang Yiqi coldly snorted, "We agreed before that I would send you out of the country only when you finished the task. But look at what you've done now?!"

The charges on Tang Luo had been cleared by this video! Now everyone was feeling terrible for him!

She was going to die of anger and Li Yulin was thinking of going abroad? Hah!

“I’m warning you, think about what you can and can’t say!”

After Zhang Yiqi said those threatening words, she hung up the phone.

Li Yulin looked at the angry comments on the Internet, her body was like it was in the ice cellar.

Zhang Yiqi grinded her teeth. She had Li Yulin frame Tang Luo so he would bear a sexual assault charge. If that was the case, Mo Bonan would definitely hate him.

In order to make this happen, she also made Li Yulin send him several days of breakfast as a pretext!

But she never thought that Li Yulin would hide something so important, now putting her in such an embarrassing situation!

“Now what do we do?”

Xia Qinghan looked very worried too.

“What else can we do? Make Li Yulin admit to all the charges!”

Zhang Yiqi's face was grim. If Li Yulin was in front of her, she would slap her!

"Would this work?" Xia Qinghan frowned, "Would she do it?"

"Would she dare to refuse?" Zhang Yiqi snorted, "Would she dare to reveal me?"

She had used Li Yulin because Li Yulin was easy to control!

When Zhang Yiqi said this, Xia Qinghan breathed a sigh of relief.

But soon, she wasn't as calm.

Her eyes widened in disbelief, and after reading the text, she tapped the accompanying audio file with trembling hands.

Zhang Yiqi frowned, "What's wrong with you?"

Why was she so scared?

"Are you a moron? Why didn't you tell me about the video they took before?!"

A somewhat distorted, but familiar voice rang out, leaving Zhang Yiqi dazed.

She snatched up Xia Qinghan's phone and stared at the screen, her heart beating wildly.

"What's this?!"
