

Chapter 3432

Pause for a while to try not to make any noise.

George Han's eyes were deep, like a cheetah in the dark night, swept the surroundings tightly.

The surrounding peace is unusual, and it even makes people feel a little scary.

Evil Taotie didn't say a word, quietly opened its one eye, and seemed to be sensing something just like George Han.

"Strange!"

George Han hummed slightly, and couldn't help but feel puzzled.

Under the consciousness, it seems that there are all kinds of grass but not all things around, but George Han's intuition seems to be telling George Han that there seems to be something around him.

Which is true and which is false, George Han is also difficult to distinguish.

However, it's obviously not a good idea to be so anxious right now, you can't just stand here until you don't know when.

With a move in Wei Wei's hand, after pulling out the jade sword, one person and one beast walked forward again.

And almost not long after the person and the beast left, the place where they stayed suddenly fell to the ground and moved slightly, and the roots and tendons of some plants also moved slowly like a person stretching their arms.

In the jungle, you can even hear a few smiles.

On the other side, the man and the beast had already moved forward a distance of several hundred meters, but the further he went, the more strange George Han felt. He always felt that someone seemed to be following him all the time, but when he looked back, In addition to the boundless jungle, what else is there?

The stream in front is vertical and horizontal. In the jungle, such branches are not uncommon. George Han patted the gluttonous eater on the shoulder and suddenly changed the route. Compared with the upper and lower streams, George Han did not choose the rapids. Between the small canyons that gushed through, instead, they took big strides toward the large rivers and chose to go straight through.

The speed of the stream here is relatively slow, and the water surface tends to be calm, but the stream is very wide. George Han has to wade through the water, but fortunately, the stream is not deep, and one person and one animal can cross the river with little effort. .

Then, just a few steps ashore, George Han suddenly stopped.

Behind him, there was still the gurgling sound of running water, as if nothing had happened.

It's just that George Han smiled softly at this time: "Come out."

Evil Taotie heard the sound and looked back, the space behind him was extremely empty, as if there was nothing.

Only George Han turned around with a faint smile at this time, but he did not put his eyes flat like the gluttonous glutton, but nodded slightly and looked at the ground.

On the ground, there are slight traces of water at this time.

“Do you still want to hide?” George Han sneered, then raised his eyes to look to his left and right sides.

The reason why George Han chose such a stream to cross the stream was not without his own considerations.

He has always suspected that something is following him, but the situation in the jungle is too complicated, with many roots and many leaves and branches, these things will affect people’s judgment.

But streams are different.

Although it is very turbulent, the advantage is that it is very pure, and there are not too many impurities involved.

Therefore, George Han came up with a plan. After he crossed the stream, he would definitely leave footprints with the gluttons and water stains on his body when he came ashore, and it was these water stains that became the The key clue to George Han’s “solving the case”.

According to the routine, there will be corresponding water stains on the body next to the footprints of the two people, but it must have a certain regularity, but if another person or thing flows from the stream and then comes ashore, once it cannot match its own footprints Completely overlapping, it must be different from George Han on the water stains.

Moreover, George Han is a thief, he even considered this aspect, so after crossing the stream, this guy has been going ashore closely with the gluttonous gluttonous, such a body, even if he wants to deliberately step on George Han’s footsteps will inevitably produce new and different traces due to the lack of a beast.

Obviously, the water stains on the shore at this time are obviously different.

Following the direction of the water stain, George Han could basically be sure that there was something else around him at this time.

In his hand, the Skyfire Moon Wheel was wrapped around the jade sword, and when he raised his hand, the jade sword was swayed, and the Skyfire Moon Wheel instantly turned into two long dragons, rushing to the left and right.

And almost at the same time, in the jungle that was very peaceful next to it, there was a sudden burst of movement...

Chapter 3433

“Wow!

It also began to roll, as if a huge earthquake suddenly occurred here.

At the same time, all kinds of Guikulanghao were inundated, and in a short while, the entire jungle was already in great motion.

“Roar!”

Evil Taotie suddenly roared, his limbs slightly fell to the ground, he opened his bloody mouth and glared with one eye.

George Han didn't dare to be careless at all. He clenched the jade sword in his right hand and looked around with extreme vigilance.

The tree roared, the forest moved, and the gloomy wind came.

“Escape, escape, escape!”

A low roar suddenly struck, and at the same time, the branches of the tree on the left of George Han suddenly slashed, and all of them attacked George Han directly.

George Han drank abruptly, the jade sword twitched, his body stood still, and the branch that came to him was cut off by the sword.

“Boom!”

Almost at the same time, there was a huge explosion, the leaves rose violently, the ground exploded, and the countless boulders buried under the leaves hit the sky like missiles.

“Roar!”

The gluttonous glutton of evil roared angrily and rushed directly to the face, using his incomparably powerful body, under the four claws, the boulder was shattered crazily.

Faced with two sides of the attack, one person and one beast are all madly resolved one by one with their own stunts.

“boom!”

The stream also exploded abruptly, and they, who were originally flowing obediently on the ground, lifted their bodies like a long dragon, and fell from the sky while roaring, leaving only the extremely dry riverbed to prove the existence of the stream.

“Be careful!”

Seeing that the gluttonous glutton of evil was completely attracted by the rocks, and faced with the dragon of the giant waves attacking behind him, he was unaware. Waving the jade sword to resist the branches, condensing the strength of the left hand to support the sky fire moon wheel, and directly facing the dragon of the giant waves.

“Roar!”

He heard another roar, but what was completely different from the previous one was that there was no previous explosion in the jungle at this time. Instead, the jungle was relatively quiet, only the sound of rustling was heard.

“Om!”

“Wow!”

“Hey!”

But suddenly, just when George Han was dazzling, in the distant jungle, a group of dense and almost tingling things was going crazy and big. Areas approached them.

“*!”

George Han couldn't help but grit his teeth when he saw what was coming. It was a super swarm composed of millions or even tens of millions of various mosquitoes, bees and other small flying insects.

There are 3,000 strong Hans among them, I don't know for the time being, but this huge number that can cover the ground is enough to make anyone daunted.

“Wow!”

One person and one beast are all busy, and facing the attack of this group of flying insects at this time, they can only be in a hurry and reluctantly cope.

“Damn, what the hell is this?”

George Han roared in agony and panic as soon as the flying insect passed by.

The gluttonous glutton over there was also obviously twisting, obviously like George Han, he felt incomparable pain when these flying insects passed by.

George Han lowered his eyes and saw that at this time, his body had been pierced by thousands of arrows, and there were bloody openings all over his body. In the hole, you can see the body being bitten open.

“*.” George Han scolded lowly, what kind of flying insect is this, this is a deadly flying knife.

Now it's just passing through. If these guys stay on the body for a few seconds, wouldn't that elephant also become a skeleton alive? !

But at the moment, George Han's hands are not empty, and it is obviously difficult for the gluttonous glutton to withdraw. Looking at the large group of flying insects that are going to turn back after passing through, George Han gritted his teeth. Forcibly, let the sky fire separate from it, and barely face the flying insects directly.

However, the moon wheel, which lacked the support of the sky, quickly fell into a disadvantage when facing the dragon transformed by the stream. As soon as it was tight, the branches that George Han could resist at will also began to fall into the disadvantage. Of course, the sky fire The swarm of flying insects they faced also began to become far away due to the lack of the support of George Han's strength.

At this time, George Han was obviously extremely difficult.

But even so, he had no choice but to bite the bullet and support him.

Of course, at this time, in that big tree, among those flying insects, among those boulders, among those water dragons, four figures slowly began to appear...
