

Chapter 3434

the big tree, the figure is about two meters high.

Its body has a human head, but its limbs are tree trunks, and all kinds of thorns are wrapped around its body. However, its upper body is almost completely invisible, and it is completely transformed by various kinds of tree trunks.

Among the flying insects, there is also a person who is about 1.7 meters tall, with a thin body, a human body, a human head, and healthy limbs. The human-shaped head, but half of it is incomplete, only the remaining part is also constructed like a worm's egg.

The second is a man of boulders. He is as solid as a rock and stable as Mount Tai. He is about 2.5 meters tall. His whole body is made of mud and stone. The eyes are huge.

In the end, there is the man in the water. He is in a phantom shape, and the anti-Buddha is a ghost in the water. He has no limbs, but has a water arm, a water leg, a crab arm, and a shrimp retreat.

The brain is not human, but like a fish, but not a fish's eye, but a bull's eye.

The four walked out, each laughing hideously, George Han, who was guarding the Buddha at this time, was already in their pockets.

"Little man, you dare to break into the jungle of death. It seems that you really don't know whether to live or die." The tree man sneered softly and spoke first.

"I don't know how many ghost years have passed in this place. We are all *ing bored. I didn't expect it, but today suddenly there is a lot of fun." Shuiren also laughed softly.

The bug man put his head halfway up, like a smile, but his incomplete mouth didn't seem to be smiling: "Everyone, what are you going to do?" The stone man made a burly voice: "Kill, kill, kill!"

"The man and the water man looked at each other and smiled, and the tree man said with a smile: "This kid has a good brain, and he only knows how to kill him all day long."

"Hehe, who wouldn't be crazy staying in this ghost place? I'll be the master, first torture and then kill, at least we can have fun." The insect man nodded coldly: "I completely agree."

"I agree too . ." The tree man also nodded. Immediately afterwards, his eyes swept to George Han at this time: "Tsk tsk, has the current Bafang world degenerated into this? Can this kid be called a true god?"

." The worm scolded disdainfully.

"Speaking of which, it's our fault, if we weren't trapped here by this damn thing, where would we get these rubbish juniors to be the king of the lamp base." The tree man said angrily.

The stone man patted his chest, and roared again in anger: "kill, kill."

Although he was still shouting, but it was obvious that this guy's real intention was to vent the same as the tree man. anger.

"Hey, as the saying goes, the tiger is not at home, this monkey is the king, what can I do if I give birth to such a monkey?" Shuren said coldly.

"Listen to your tone, you are the original dead true gods, right?" George Han looked at the four of them while insisting on resistance, and couldn't help sneering.

Hearing George Han's words, the four of them looked at each other, proud, and with deep disdain for George Han, the tree man snorted coldly: "When we talk, is it your turn to interrupt?"

"Shut up?" What qualifications do you have to interject with your stinky mouth?" The water man was also dissatisfied.

The bug man was even more bitter and mean: "If you dare to say another word, I will tear your mouth off now."

"Humph!" George Han heard the sound, not only did not do it, but sneered from his nose.

The insect man was furious. Even if he wanted to fulfill his promise, the tree man opened his mouth first, looked at George Han, and said disdainfully, "What are you humming? What qualifications do you have to humming in front of us?"

"What qualifications do I have?" Han 3000 smiled and said, "One bite, one qualification, I would like to ask you, what do you look like now when you come? People are not like people, and ghosts are not like ghosts. But I am not in your mouth. The qualified people are still living people, so what qualifications do you have to talk to me?"

In a word, the four of them were suddenly choked to silence on the spot!

The stone man was about to explode on the spot, but at this moment, the tree man held a big hand, and countless branches immediately stopped the stone man...

Chapter 3435

"Interesting!" The tree man moved again, withdrawing his branches, looking at George Han, he smiled leisurely: "It's really interesting to say, well, give you a chance to speak."

"I ask you, why are you not dead now, and you are still alive?" The tree man's question is obviously for the bug and the water man, even including the stone man, is a very curious place.

In this place, only the living have come in and become the dead, but now, there is an upright living person who is still safe and sound.

"That guy will never be kind, and no one can pass those heavy institutions. Over the years, we have witnessed how many offspring are like us, the soul returns to the jungle, this kid..." The water man shook his head, as if a pair of The bull-eyed eyes want to see George Han alive: "How did this kid do it? Could it be that he passed those trials?"

"It's hard to crack, even compared to our ancestors, it will die in it, this kid is a *ing ass, how can he be qualified?" The worm scolded disdainfully.

As he said, in his world, since he can't pass, then naturally those descendants can't pass, they don't have that qualification.

They are absolutely impossible to compare to themselves.

The tree man didn't speak, just looked at George Han coldly. Obviously, he agreed with this kind of bug man's view.

George Han smiled slightly, but did not speak.

"Stinky boy, what the hell do you mean by this? Let your goddamn say that, you goddamny deaf?" Seeing this, the insect man roared angrily.

George Han still smiled, but this time he opened his mouth: "I'm deaf or not, can you be stupid and can't tell? Besides, if you ask me, I will say it? I just don't say it?"

"He was so angry that the bugs flew on his body, and he was obviously in a state of rage: "*, brat, what did you say? If you have something, say it again?"

"You can say it ten times, I won't say it, you bite me?" George Han said in a cold voice.

The insect man was about to start immediately, but the tree man stopped him again, looked at George Han, but smiled and said: "It seems that you should not come out of the trial."

George Han laughed, wanting to use backwardness to advance?

This trick, George Han had already played to the point that he didn't want to play when he was on Earth. If this thing could work for him, that would be Tai Niang's breaking the wasteland and seeing a ghost.

Seeing that George Han still didn't say anything, the bug man roared, "I see, I'm talking nonsense with this bastard. Anyway, whether he is a human or a ghost, as long as he gets here, the final result will be the same." The tree man looked Glancing at Shuiren, Shuiren thought for a while, and nodded: "Since I can't ask why, there is really no need to waste time."

Seeing that both of them agreed, although they were confused and curious, but now it is true There was no better way, he nodded, and the tree man agreed.

After reaching an agreement, the four of them looked at each other at the same time, and their figures were about to disappear. When they were about to attack together, George Han said at this moment: "Wait a minute." After hearing this, the four of them appeared at the same time. His shape, they all looked at George Han, and the tree man was the first to say: "What's wrong with you?"

"Think, I want to talk again."

"*, are you kidding us?" The trapeze roared, posing for a fight.

George Han just smiled: "Fight, no one will tell you how I survived."

Hearing this, the tree man glanced at the bug man, indicating that he should not be too impulsive. After looking at each other with the water man and reaching an agreement again, he looked at George Han: "Can you talk now?"

George Han He smiled and shook his head: "I said it can be said at any time, but I'm a little afraid..."

"Afraid?" The worm snorted coldly: "If you know you're afraid, hurry up and stop talking nonsense."

"No, no, no . , it's not that I'm afraid, it's that I'm afraid... I'm afraid that you are afraid!" After the words were finished, George Han smiled evilly...
