

Chapter 3436

Hearing George Han's words, seeing the smile George Han showed at this time, the four people suddenly burst into anger.

It's an incredibly strong taunt that doesn't require too many words or too many actions, but it achieves the best effect.

"Afraid?" The

four of them stared angrily, who are they? How could they be afraid? More importantly, are you still afraid of a guy who can no longer be the bottom in their eyes? !

"Waste, do you know what you're talking about?"

"What's the matter? You trash juniors, you don't have the skills in your hands, and you start to grind your lips, right?"

"Just a junior like you, whether it's age or seniority. , we can be your ancestors, what qualifications do you have to make us afraid?"

"If you want to talk nonsense again, don't blame me for cutting your tongue now." Of course, the four of them would not be angry because of fear, And obviously because of such a provocation of a junior, he fell into madness.

George Han smiled helplessly: "How can I compare to you guys when it comes to talking shit? Now everyone is so majestic, I hope you can keep it up and don't stay speechless like a fool. , after all, if this is the case, then the kung fu of your mouth is really the level of a true god."

"I can live here, of course, is different from you, in other words, I passed the test of the tower." Han Three thousand smiled softly.

Hearing this, the four of them looked at each other immediately, with both shock and shock in their eyes, but most of them still didn't believe it.

The worm drank coldly on the spot and said, "Stinky boy, are you bragging with us here? You think we are stupid? Some of us have entered the tower before, and you want to fool us here?"

"Since some of you have entered Linglong Tower, isn't that more certain that I have lied?" George Han sneered.

Immediately afterwards, George Han smiled slightly and explained the situation in the tower indifferently, even including the most difficult final test.

After the four of them listened to this, the disdain on their faces began to change collectively, from frowning to disbelief, and from disbelief to complete shock, until after that, the three collectively turned their eyes to tree man.

The tree man was silent, frowning tightly. After a long time, he didn't speak, just nodded indifferently.

Among the four, he was the only one who had come into contact with Linglong Pagoda, and naturally he could best distinguish the descriptions of George Han.

But from George Han's description, he can be sure that he is almost completely right, and there is no slightest mistake. If a person has not experienced this, even if he will lie again, it is absolutely impossible to make it so perfect.

Therefore, there is only one ending, and that is that he has indeed experienced the trial of Linglong Tower.

Secondly, some of the tests he described later that they have not seen, it is difficult to distinguish the true from the false in fact, but from a man who has also experienced a lot of tests, those he has not seen can also stand up to scrutiny .

Moreover, the most important point is that if this guy didn't pass the trial, how could he survive the trial?

Some things are really hard to believe, but have to admit.

"So, this kid has really passed the test?" The bugman lost his previous arrogance and opened his mouth wide and his eyes wide, obviously it was difficult for him to completely accept this fact for a while.

The stone man, who had been in a state of berserk, was like an eggplant hit by frost. He lowered his eyes and looked at George Han lightly, without making any unnecessary movements. It goes without saying what a trial means to Even trapped here, they have also seen countless guys who came here to report like them. Obviously, they have the same ending as them, otherwise how could they meet again here. But now, George Han... is an exception.

It should be said that is the only exception. Looking at the four people who were looking at each other, George Han smiled: "What's the matter, just shut up with these things? I just said what I said, but don't be scared after hearing what I said. You have spoken, let me get it right?"

"Unfortunately, I haven't finished speaking yet, tsk tsk, I don't know whether to say it or not, after all, looking at you now, I am really afraid that you will be scared to death."

Hearing this, several people looked at George Han in a collective dumbfounded manner...

Chapter 3437

hear it?

Tell them in their hearts that they not only want to hear, but are extremely urgent!

But as George Han said, in this urgency, they are really scared now, afraid of hearing things that make them feel weird and impossible.

Or to put it another way, the voices that make their hearts cool, the voices that make them understand that others are better than them and can do what they can't.

But they all paid the price with their lives, and even their souls were forever imprisoned here and suffered all kinds of hardships. If they didn't know anything, it would be difficult to calm down their regrets.

The bug man dazzled his eyes and glanced at his three companions again, and seeing that they were all sinking into a low state, he suddenly smiled: "If you have something to say, just say it, hehe, do you really think that you will be shocked by passing the test?"

"Maybe, Over the years, countless, so it is overcrowded, and the jungle can't hold more ghosts, so this deliberately lowered the standard so that a lucky person just happened to pass!"

"In other words, that guy needs to publicize this place. After all, how many people are willing to come here when there is no life but death? This kid is just a propaganda tool in the hands of others, but he is regarded as a show off by his self-righteousness. Capital, thinking about it is also funny."

After listening to the insect man's words, the tree man was obviously lost in thought for a while, the water man thought for a while, suddenly smiled, looked at the tree man, and said, "It's not that he said nothing. It makes sense, obviously, this guy can't even reach the level of a true god, so what qualifications does he have to rely on his true ability to break through the trial?"

"It is indeed possible to be used as a propaganda tool, or it is just a simple of Just want him to get out of here. In short, there are thousands of possibilities, but it is absolutely impossible to be stronger than us. "

George Han smiled and said: "The analysis is indeed very exciting, and the truth is right. In fact, even I almost believed your words." "

It's a pity, it's very exciting, but it's too far from the truth. Hearing the words, the insect man said in a hurry: "Brother, don't listen to what he said. According to me, kill him first, no matter what. Even if this kid really came out of the trial, so what? "

Let's kill him, no one will pass Linglong Tower in this place!" The water man also smiled and said: "That's right, according to the third brother's inference, this kid is very likely to be the spokesperson for that guy. If we kill him, it can be regarded as our revenge for what happened in the first place. "

"Roar!" The stone man also slammed his chest and roared loudly. Anti-Buddha was venting his emotions in this way, and also expressed his agreement.

The tree man thought for a while, then nodded: "That's right, that guy was thinking How come, we just don't like his intentions. He wants someone to walk out of the Linglong Tower, but we really don't let them go out. As soon as the words fell, the four of them re-arranged their situation, and they were ready to attack George Han in time. However,

George Han smiled and shook his head: "The guy in your mouth, if I guess correctly, you should be referring to the Book of Eight Desolations, right?"

Hehe, you puppet, tool man, don't you fucking know about your own boss?" Or are you pretending to be pure in front of us, deliberately not knowing that guy, in order to cover up the fact that you stole the Linglong Tower through the back door?"

George Han smiled and shook his head: "That's not true, I just guessed it casually, you can think of so many things, I don't know whether to cry or laugh."

Actually, the reason why I ask this is mainly to tell you that you have misunderstood. "George Han said.

"Misunderstanding?"

"Of course, I, George Han, am by no means a tool person, let alone a puppet."

"Hehe, I'm still not admitting it here. How dare you say that you have nothing to do with him?" The insect man said coldly.

George Han thought for a moment, shook his head, and nodded again: "I don't dare, because I do have a relationship with him." The bug man sneered, but George Han continued to speak: "However, my relationship with him is not the same. It's not what you think, forget it, I was afraid to scare you, but now to clarify, I have to say it."

"That guy in the book of the Eight Wildernesses is not my boss, but...my little brother!"

"What!"
