

Chapter 3464

As soon as the words fall, these two people seem to be hungry when they see the big white pig, and they both rush towards George Han.

“Our two moves are even weirder and more complicated. You have to see it clearly.”

Liang Han roared, and his body suddenly went crazy.

“Fighting the stars!”

The other person also formed an energy seal in his hand almost at the same time, and his body also quickly transformed, and the whole person was like a ghost.

George Han didn't dare to be careless at all and hurriedly looked back to capture the movements and details of the two.

It is impossible for you to say that George Han is not in a mess at this time, because these two people, including the two people in front, almost came directly without warning, and the people in front have not finished teaching at all.

With this, George Han had to look at the teaching of the seven people at the same time, so he couldn't say panic, it could be said that they were a group of panic.

But just as before, even though

George Han was panicked in his heart, it was his body that was crap, but he was learning very calmly, gesturing all kinds of moves.

Although the frequency is indeed fast and somewhat deformed, if you look closely and split his movements, you will find that this guy is doing seven movements almost at the same time each time. They are almost identical to the movements of the surrounding seven people.

“* it?” Liang Han was stunned.

This mother*er has met a freak, and one person can actually learn the moves of seven people at the same time!

Although they were also concerned about George Han's ability to adapt when they were teaching, each movement was deliberately divided and the movements became relatively slow, but to be able to achieve such a learning seven completely broke him. routine in mind.

“Speed up.” Liang Hanchong whispered to the person next to him

, and the movements in his hands suddenly accelerated.

As soon as he speeded up, the people next to him also speeded up. George Han's movements couldn't help but speed up. From a certain point of view, George Han's twisted and complex movements were mixed together, as if he was dancing a god at this moment.

But for any one of the ten people present, this was by no means funny, but deeply shocking.

“If I wasn’t afraid that I wouldn’t be able to teach you too quickly, I would really like to see where your limits are.” Liang Han smiled bitterly, and the movements in his hands gradually slowed down.

Their purpose is always to teach George Han, so naturally, there is no need to pursue too much speed.

With the passage of time, about ten minutes later, all the basic movements and corresponding mental methods of the seven people were completely taught, and five of them retreated, leaving only Liang Han and that person still in place.

Seeing George Han complete the final fini Shaneng move, Liang Han looked at him with a smile: “I’m really a little weird, if you eat so much food with your body, will you get fat to death.”

Obviously, what he was referring to was not eating. Instead, it means that George Han learned the magic skills of ten people in one breath.

George Han smiled wryly and joked: “It’s not middle age yet. After middle age, getting fat and being bald will always occupy the same place.”

Hearing George Han’s words, Liang Han and the man looked at each other, and then burst out haha laughing out loud.

The man smiled and said, “Then you want to gain weight or be bald.”

“Get fat, at least exercise can save you, but baldness is completely useless.” George Han thought for a while.

The two laughed again, and Liang Han said, “Okay, since you said so, then we really have to satisfy you and add some bricks and tiles to your path to fattening.”

George Han looked puzzled. With the two of them, I don’t know what they mean by that.

Logically speaking, they have already passed on their most powerful magical skills to themselves, so naturally, there is nothing else to teach them, but the two of them are now talking about making themselves more fortunate, which means a little bit. Strange?

Seeing George Han so puzzled, Liang Han smiled: “Why, do you think we two old people have nothing to teach you?”

George Han hesitated, it was true, but he didn’t know whether, to tell the truth, or not.

“If you have something to say, talk about it.”

George Han nodded slightly, but he simply said, “George Han really thinks so.”

Liang Han and the man didn’t mean anything to George Han’s question, they just smiled, not angry.

“Three thousand, you are wrong, and, very wrong..”

Chapter 3465

“Oh?” George Han puzzled.

Liang Han smiled: "Let me ask you, what kind of thing is the most difficult, or what kind of method is the most difficult."

George Han thought for a while, then shook his head: "This point is three Thousands of ignorant and ignorant, but I don't know, and I hope the two seniors can give some pointers." The man chuckled: "I'm not in a hurry to answer us, you're thinking about it, relax your thinking."

Hearing this, Han Three thousand thinks it over again, but there are thousands of techniques in the world, and there is a possibility that the practice of dharma door will be buried in the ground with the death of the creator. Naturally, it is difficult to compare with some other methods. Who is more powerful? , everything is just Guan Gong and Qin Qiong, there is no victory or defeat, so there is no so-called who is more difficult.

However, seeing the faint smiles on the faces of the two, George Han also believed that they were definitely not trying to play the test with a question. Since there is such a question, there must be a corresponding reason.

Therefore, George Han is still thinking seriously.

Suddenly, a strange thought popped up in his head, and the whole person couldn't help but laugh a little. Although he thought this answer was a bit ridiculous, after thinking about it, it seemed to be completely correct. Therefore, George Han tentatively said: "This world is the best A difficult method should naturally be a method that cannot be learned."

Since it is impossible to learn, it naturally proves its difficulty, so this answer is outrageous, but to a certain extent it is indeed the most perfect Answer.

Liang Han and the man smiled at each other again. Obviously, they were very satisfied with George Han's answer.

"You're right. The most difficult spells in this world are actually those methods that you can't learn at all. Things are beyond the scope of your ability and understanding. Naturally, you look at it like reading a book from heaven

." Liang Han said.

The man also said: "Yes, from ancient times to the present, how many talented people have been born in these eight continents, everyone is obsessed with cultivation, and they also have a set of supreme laws that they have researched. Some people brought them into the soil, but there are also some people who hope that their life-long efforts can help future generations, so they are passed down."

Liang Han continued: "There are some things that future generations have the opportunity to learn and inherit, but some things are indeed It's profound and profound, so people can't understand it at all."

"Of course, it's easy to understand, and the more sophisticated something is, the more difficult it will be for people to understand."

George Han nodded, and this was true.

Including himself at present, if it is not for the great gods to teach himself, if he simply leaves a door to himself, he may not dare to say that he can master all ten divine skills

“Ours is easy to say, but what about those great gods who are older than us?” Liang Han said with a smile.

George Han immediately understood: “What the two seniors mean is that what you want to teach is some spells left by some great gods farther away than you even you can’t understand.” The two nodded in unison. , said in unison: “Exactly.”

“Most of them are obtained through our hard work and some coincidences.”

“Some have names and surnames, although I don’t know the details, At least I can know which great god they are, but some are nameless, I don’t know when they were created, and I don’t know what they have experienced and they have been passed down to this day, and even some words are not for me to know.” Liang Han said.

Hearing this, George Han was confused but at the same time very curious, looking at the two of them without concealing these emotions

“How about it, are you interested in learning? Or, do you want to work harder for your prosperity?” Liang Han smiled.

George Han smiled and said helplessly: “George Han naturally wants to learn, but the problem is that even the seniors can’t understand things, so what about George Han...” “Isn’t this a waste of time?”

Liang Han shook his head: “Shane Ye Life is also, some people can’t understand it, it doesn’t mean that other people can’t understand it, sometimes this world itself is wonderful and indescribable.”

“Besides, we have no other use to keep it, but to bring it into annihilation. Forget it, I leave it to you, whether it is enlightenment, or whether it is left to future generations, it can be regarded as another destination for it.”

George Han nodded, and since that was the case, he did not refuse: “Okay, then I also asked the two seniors to teach me, to be honest with the two of them, the three thousand people are really curious, what kind of magic is it, and even the identities of the two seniors can’t be understood.”
