

Chapter 3512

The whole atmosphere can be said to have dropped to freezing point in an instant, George Han can obviously feel a coolness surrounding him from all directions.

“Hiss!”

Immediately after, the monkeys' eyes became gloomy and cold, and at the same time, they opened their mouths and bared their teeth, making a strange sound of clenching their teeth.

George Han frowned slightly, not afraid at all, but looked at the group of monkeys indifferently.

At this moment, six huge monkeys slowly stood up from the monkey group.

Each of them is a tiger and a tiger, and just the sight of it makes people feel fearful.

George Han's pupils are also shrinking, of course he can't remember wrongly, these six monkeys are nothing else, they are the six god monkeys that he saw from the jade monkey when he came in.

George Han was a little depressed. He said that he was going to make fun of him. If he didn't follow him, he turned his face and didn't recognize anyone. Would he even plan to use force?

Turning slightly to the side, George Han shouted softly: “What? If the two words disagree, are we about to do it?”

“It doesn't matter whether they agree or not, the important thing is that I just want to teach you a lesson.

” The monkey has already rushed towards George Han.

The monkey spirit is good at moving. The key is that these monkeys are huge in size, and their strength is still not small. The six sticks seem to have a diameter of no more than the size of a steel pipe, but when each stick is split, the ground shakes and the boulders are broken.

In addition, they attacked fiercely without any defense at all. When the six monkeys joined forces, George Han retreated again and again, unable to withstand it. Occasionally, he wanted to attack, but was completely avoided by their flexible body. Han 3001 is a big brain at the time.

With the passage of time, George Han was immediately surrounded by six monkeys. The six long sticks came and went, and the smashed George Han jumped wildly.

However, jumping back and forth, George Han was still in a hurry to carefully observe the movements of the six monkeys.

But to be honest, the more you look, the more dazzled you become, and the more you look at it, the more you are forced into a blind spot.

“The mouth is so hard, it's useless, and the ability on the body is the real ability.”

The voice appeared appropriately, but although the tone of the voice seemed to be normal, it was too normal. Those who said this felt deeply humiliated.

The same is true for George Han.

However, he knew that the more time this happened, the more reason he needed to be, and the less he could be influenced by emotions.

Suddenly, a gleam of light flashed in George Han's eyes.

Immediately afterwards, George Han suddenly smiled slyly.

Thinking of this, Han 3000 suddenly made a big move, followed by the Seventy-two Road Divine Sword attacking the monkey with the red rope on its head, and at the same time using the protection of the Indestructible Profound Armor and the Frost Jade Armor, he directly attacked it madly. At the same time, he just punched a gap from him.

In the next second, after George Han broke out of the siege, he was no longer idle, nor did he intend to simply defend.

The skills of a whole body are crazy like they don't want money. When the practice method starts, the sky and the moon appear, the seventy-two magic swords plus the Wuxiang magic power and the ten magic skills that I just learned from the ten true god seniors are all rushed to six. The monkey smashed over.

To say that the six monkeys are also fierce, even in the face of George Han's crazy attacks, they are not afraid at all. Seeing that the six monkeys are about to re-encircle, George Han is not afraid.

With the power of burning silence, George Han's jade sword combined with the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel is also very powerful, and he doesn't suffer any loss against the six divine monkeys.

However, in this two-phase stalemate, George Han suddenly withdrew and gave up this reciprocal situation.

This kind of show can't be said to be a show

, but it can only be said that the show has reached the realm of stupidity, which is equivalent to completely giving up his advantages and repositioning the situation as a situation where he is under siege.

Although the six god monkeys didn't say anything, it was obvious that there were already slight smiles on their faces. They knew that George Han's move was simply a foolish move, and it would definitely drag him into a doom. land.

However, laughing after laughing, Six Monkeys would naturally not miss such a good opportunity, and immediately showed the trend of encirclement, pressing towards George Han step by step.

George Han looked at the six people vigilantly, and stepped back cautiously towards the rear.

In just a moment, George Han was forced to a dead end. Obviously, at this time, he had no choice but to retreat.

Seeing this, the six god monkeys couldn't help sneering. However, almost at this moment, George Han, who had been driven to a desperate situation, also showed a terrifying smile...

Chapter 3513

Seeing George Han with such a smile, the six monkeys are obviously stunned, each has some doubts, obviously they do not know, George Han is this Why would the guy still laugh at such a time.

However, while George Han's smile made them puzzled, it also made them even more annoyed.

Because it is obvious that George Han is in a desperate situation, and he doesn't need to kneel down and kowtow to admit his mistake, but he dares to be incompetent and furious here, it's just damn.

Looking at each other, the six god monkeys were furious, and they attacked George Han directly. George Han was also at this moment, with a fierce look in his eyes, and he snorted coldly: "Do you think that there are too many of you?"

"Six hits one!"

"Sorry, I have eight!"

Qian suddenly drank it and pulled Dao Jin's body straight out.

In the face of George Han's sudden appearance of eight huge figures, the six divine monkeys were also taken aback for a moment.

But almost as soon as they were stunned, seven of the eight golden bodies rushed towards the six divine monkeys.

The six god monkeys hurriedly picked up their long sticks and beat each other.

For a time, the sound of bang bang was heard.

However, what surprised the six god monkeys was that these seven golden bodies did not retreat in the face of their long stick beatings. They were like seven stone men who guarded Buddha, and they did not suffer any pain. close.

That appearance is to guard against the masters of Buddha and the others. Suddenly, they meet a newcomer who is completely incapable of martial arts.

This was a bit of a break from the norm, and even in the face of the approach of George Hanjin, the six monkeys suddenly retreated in unison.

Han's 3,008 golden body itself is a common enemy, building a wall of defense together. It has a certain effect on the direct physical attack of a long stick. Coupled with the inextinguishable mysterious armor and frost jade armor that are fully motivated, Han Three thousand is indeed qualified to use this stupid method to directly rampage.

It is reasonable for the six great monkeys to be overwhelmed by this brute force for a while.

Seeing the vigilance in the eyes of the six great monkeys at this time, but also the slightest bit of puzzlement and doubt, George Han's eyes even showed a smile.

"That's right, I'm afraid, it's right, and it's right if I don't know what the situation is." With a sneer in my heart, the seven golden bodies not only did not restrain in the slightest, but roared in unison, and rushed towards the six divine monkeys. past.

In fact, the six monkeys were fighting and their legs had been prepared for a long time, and the long sticks in their hands had already been charged and turned round.

Bang bang bang!

The six sticks smashed together, and the smashed Han 3,800 golden body suddenly swayed and vomited blood.

But George Han not only didn't show any pain, he didn't even take a step back.

Instead, he was angry and a tiger rushed for food. The seven golden bodies directly helped each other, and each god monkey spent a gold Body hug directly.

If there is a friend of George Han present at the scene at this time, whether he knows martial arts or not, whether he will practice or not, then it is estimated that he will be full of shame, and then wipe his face into his pocket and put it in his pocket. a net.

This is just too hot for the eyes.

This is completely reckless by people who don't know how to practice.

You can indeed hold it, but the body has been beaten continuously in the process. After the person relaxes a little and breaks free from the bondage, that is a completely overwhelming advantage to carry out a new fight against him. round of attacks.

If you can't beat others, it's okay, if you come to a stalker, it's okay, after all, as the saying goes, don't expect happiness if I can't get better.

But to do so in an evenly matched situation would seem bizarre and completely unreasonable.

You are slashing with others, but suddenly put down the kitchen knife.

Although he left a golden body, this attack obviously cannot pose any great threat to the six god monkeys, and, even if it can threaten one, what about the other five?

However, for George Han, he felt that it was normal. Otherwise, if he wanted to control them suddenly while being evenly matched, wouldn't this be the same as bullshitting and dreaming? !

Yes, George Han certainly knew better than anyone that making such a huge sacrifice in exchange for hugging the six great monkeys was almost too short to ignore this value.

But this is enough.

“Those who do deals don’t want their own deals to suffer, do they? I’m no exception.” George Han smiled at the six monkeys.

The next second, following George Han suddenly, six monkeys and twelve monkey eyes suddenly stared...
