

Chapter 3581

The reason why Charlie beat Aman Ramovich, in fact, is to give the Nordic royal family members a sample, so that they will be less pretentious in front of him.

And he is not afraid to reveal what identity, after all, today here are only a dozen or 20 people, as long as he wants, can first press all these people on the ground rubbing hard, and then save the dying Nordic Queen, and then put Helena on the throne.

Immediately after that, let Helena give them any kind of crime scene, and get one by one all of them arrested.

Or, he can also directly give these key people to a psychological implication, let them later go crazy, no one can find out the problem.

However, he never thought that Richard would be so good at brainstorming, and directly brainstormed the Cataclysmic Front as his backer.

Only, the speculation in Richard's mind was diametrically opposed to the reality.

He thought that it was the Cataclysmic Front that integrated the Wade family, but in fact, it was Charlie that integrated the Cataclysmic Front.

After having this thought, he hurriedly got up and took the initiative to help Aman Ramovich up.

Aman Ramovich was beaten and lost face, and was about to get some face back from his mouth, so he took off and yelled in anger:

"Wade, you dare to beat me, believe it or not, I will immediately call for the former KGB elite to kill ummmm... .."

Amanramovich did not finish his words, then Richard covered his mouth, and could only make some whimpering sounds.

Angry, Amanramovich fought to take Richard's hand away, and Richard hastily whispered in his ear, "Amanramovich! My friend! Don't you dare mess with this man!"

"They are now giving half of their family fortune to the Cataclysmic Front, which is equal to half of the Wade family are working for the Cataclysmic Front!"

"In the face of such great interests, the Cataclysmic Front will definitely back up the Wade family! The former KGB agents you know, all of them in a row, are not enough for the Cataclysmic Front!"

When Aman Ramovich heard this, his expression was instantly stunned, his eyes were wide open, but the anger was long gone, and all that was left was panic!

He exclaimed in his heart, "Sh!t! Why the hell didn't I think of this! This is not the same as the Wade family to take out hundreds of billions of euros of family assets, to give the Cataclysmic Front as protection money?"

“The protection fee paid by the Wade family can not be more than ten times all my assets, for the sake of so much money, the Cataclysmic Front will definitely have to stand up for Charlie, I’m really blind, at this time to provoke him

Thinking of this, Aman Ramovich can’t wait to smack himself to death with a big mouth.

As far as he knew that little ex-KGB resources, he was afraid that it was not even a fart in front of the tens of thousands of soldiers of the Cataclysmic Front.

So, he hurriedly said in a panic: “Sorry Mr. Wade, it’s my cheap mouth! You mustn’t take it seriously!”

Charlie naturally heard the content of the whispering between Richard and Aman Ramovich just now, saw their misunderstanding did not say much, but only coldly asked him: “Why did you not finish your sentence? What do you want to do with the KGB elite? To kill me?”

“No, no!” Aman Ramovich shook his head like a rattle and said with a trembling voice: “I don’t know any KGB elites at all, just bragging a bit, please forgive me, Mr. Wade

Charlie said expressionlessly, “Do you think I’m really that easy to fool?”

Chapter 3582

Aman Ramovich panicked and said, “Mr. Wade I I really don’t mean anything else you must not think too much

Charlie waved his hand: “I don’t want to listen to your nonsense, slap your own mouth, when both sides of the face are swollen, then stop, and then carry the chair and get far away from me!”

Aman Ramovich at once do not know what to do, Richard at this time hurriedly said and, smiling, “Mr. Wade, such a little thing, please do not take it to heart, we might as well hurry to turn this page, so as to enter the banquet session

Charlie glanced at him and said coldly: “The face of my Wade family, how can he insult? And you are the same, a nominal royal family. Do you think you are also worthy of being shady and bossy in front of me? Who gave you the courage?”

Richard was also flustered.

The stronger Charlie was, the stronger he was in his judgment and decided that Charlie had the backing of the Cataclysmic Front, so he dared to be so arrogant.

The more this was the case, the more he was afraid that Charlie would really get angry, otherwise, if he really let the Cataclysmic Front come against him, he would not be able to fight.

So he hurriedly said, “Mr. Wade, just now it was my attitude that was problematic, I apologize to you, and I also hope that the adults are generous and do not see eye to eye with me in general

Olivia did not expect her father to give in to Charlie, and said with anger, “Dad! How can you apologize to him?!”

Richard scolded in anger, “Shut up!”

Olivia did not expect her father's attitude to change so quickly and was about to ask what was going on when Aman Ramovich, who was beside Richard, started to whip his own cheeks left and right.

He was really frightened by Charlie, afraid that Charlie was not satisfied and directly let the Cataclysmic Front to deal with him.

Olivia froze, really can't understand why dad and Amanramovich would be so afraid of Charlie.

And Amanramovich, after slapping himself hard dozens of slaps, indeed swelling both cheeks, only then asked Charlie vaguely: "Wade Mr. Wade, now you are satisfied with it" "

Charlie looked at him, impatiently waved his hand, indicating that he hurriedly get out.

Aman Ramovich as amnesty, hurriedly moved a chair, far away to the farthest side of the long table, and honestly sit down.

At this time, he did not have half a thought of revenge in his heart, but only silently prayed, hoping that Charlie would not find him in trouble again.

As for Helena, if he can't get married, forget it, he can't offend the Wade family for her.

Who would have thought that the reigning European oligarch Aman Ramovich, now in front of a Chinese, was reduced to constantly slapping himself to get forgiveness?

Olivia could not understand, lowered her voice, and asked her fiancé William: "What the hell is going on here? Why can't I see it?"

William shook his head, amazed, and said, "I don't know, can't figure it out."

William's parents were both human beings, and they instantly thought together with Richard, so his father George Ruthschild hurriedly whispered, "William, at this kind of time, you have to talk less and not to provoke that guy named Wade."

George knew very well in his heart that although his surname was Ruthschild, he was very far away from the real core family, so far that he had been trying to find ways and could draw a little closer.

In this case, the energy that his own family can mobilize, then Charlie is naturally much worse.

What's more, people are likely to have the backing of the Cataclysmic Front behind them.

So, if you can't afford to mess with people, don't try to be a hero, otherwise, it will definitely not end well.

William could not understand why his parents were also afraid of Charlie and wanted to ask what was going on, but he was reprimanded by his father's stern eyes, so he had to give up.

Olivia was even more confused and thought to herself, "Why are my father and William's father both a little afraid of Charlie? This is Northern Europe, is it necessary to be so afraid of him?"

Chapter 3583

Richard, because of his own inner brain, at this moment has regarded Charlie as a plague.

Right now, he only wanted to stabilize the current situation and not have any new conflicts with him.

So, he quietly gave Olivia a warning look before he opened his mouth and asked Charlie, “Mr. Wade, then we officially begin?”

Charlie nodded slightly and did not speak.

Richard breathed a sigh of relief and only then hurriedly announced that this pre-wedding banquet for family and friends officially began.

During the meeting, Richard put down the previous so-called royal stature, frequently toasted to Charlie, look and speech are all respectful.

Olivia really can't understand, so she called her father aside on the pretext of asking him in a low voice: “Dad, what's wrong with you this half-day? Why do you have to be so humble to that man?”

Richard warned, “I'm afraid that the Wade family and the Cataclysmic Front are working closely together, so you should not touch Charlie's eyebrows for the time being.”

Olivia then thought about it and hurriedly asked, “Dad, what about Helena's marriage?”

Richard said, “Let's hold off on this matter, for the time being, look at that obsequious look of Aman Ramovich, even if you ask him to take Helena away, he may not dare to do so.”

Olivia gritted her teeth and said with resignation, “If Helena marries into the Wade family, won't she have the backing of the Cataclysmic Front?”

Richard said comfortingly, “Don't think about that now, hurry up and finish the wedding, then hurry up and ascend the throne, nothing is more important than that!”

“As for Helena, you don't have to worry too much, she herself is seriously ill, even if she marries into the Wade family and has the backing of the Cataclysmic Front, how many years can she live?”

When Olivia heard this, her complexion finally eased a little.

However, her mind could not help but think of her fiancé William's previous intention to pit Charlie for a sum of money, and wanted to open her mouth to seek her father's opinion.

But after thinking about it, she thought that her father was now a bit too scrupulous about Charlie, and if he knew about it, he would definitely not agree, so she did not say anything more.

Back at the dinner table, William asked her in a low voice: “Olivia, do we still want to do that thing we discussed?”

“Yes!” Olivia responded in a low voice: “As long as that man you mentioned is a good player and don't get found out, it's just right and no one is afraid.”

In Olivia's opinion, although the Cataclysmic Front is powerful, but it does not dare to do everything, if Charlie loses money here today, then he will have to be willing to gamble.

The Cataclysmic Front is after all a mercenary organization, not an evil organization, if they dare to come forward, then naturally it will trigger a boycott of the whole society.

Therefore, this time say what can not easily let Charlie go, at least that Concorde must also stay.

For these two people, the Concorde, a top luxury for top players, has an unparalleled appeal, and since they have already moved, they will definitely not be easily dispelled.

Sure enough, when the dinner was almost underway, a young man around thirty years old at the dinner table said with a smile, "Gentlemen, it's still early, do you want to play two games of poker?"

Hearing this, Charlie raised his eyebrows gently and said, "Finally, it's coming."

Chapter 3584

As soon as he heard that he wanted to play poker, several other young people at the table got excited and raised their hands one by one, one of them said with a smile, "Yes! How about playing a couple of hands of Texas Hold'em?"

"I'm in!"

"That's on me too!"

In the blink of an eye, there were five people raising their hands.

William deliberately did not raise his hand first, but waited for these people to leap forward before speaking, "Then count me in too."

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you want to do.

William was so excited he almost didn't cheer.

"I was trying to find the entry point to invite Charlie into the pit as naturally as possible, but I didn't expect him to jump in himself."

"Perfect!"

Then, he said in a polite manner, "I really didn't expect you, Mr. Wade, to also like playing Texas Hold'em, in that case, then let's all play a couple of games and have some fun together."

Charlie also said with the same friendly face, "Haha, Mr. William is right! Entertainment! I have no other hobbies, I like to play cards, although poker skills are very bad, but just like to play!"

"Basically, I have to lose two or three billion dollars every year just in playing cards."

William's heart is crazy happy, but the mouth said with a smile: "It seems that we are all the same! I am also very bad at poker, but especially love to play! Every year, I lose a lot of money too."

Charlie said without concern: "We are all young people, of course, the main thing is to have fun! What's the point of worrying if losing a little money?"

Olivia, smiling, said: "Since we all want to play, then I will also accompany you to play two games!"

After saying that, Olivia added: "So, let's move to the second floor, there is a leisure center, there just happens to be a card table."

Naturally, the crowd agreed with great joy.

Olivia's father Richard breathed a sigh of relief and thought in his heart, "It seems that Olivia and I, the future son-in-law, are taking the initiative to mingle with Charlie,"

"These two children were able to put aside their previous bad feelings so quickly, they are indeed young talents with extraordinary eyesight."

Thinking of this, Richard also put down his heart, then laughed: "You young people who love to play cards, go up and play together,"

"I will have a few more drinks and chat with Mr. Ruthschild, so I won't follow you young people over."

William's father, George Ruthschild at this time, and Richard thought the same, also feel that the two children have recognized the reality, and are equally pleased with the maturity of the children.

So also did not think much, and said with a smile, "Yes! You, youngsters, go and play, we two old men will have a few more drinks."

With that, a group of people stood up and prepared to go to the second floor.

Charlie then said to Helena beside him, "Helena, you come with me."

Helena nodded gently and went up to the second floor with him.

The royal family has a leisure center of nearly 1,000 square meters on the second floor of the ancient castle, where there are not only gymnasiums, pool halls as well as audio-visual halls, KTV, and other facilities.

But also exclusive areas such as Finnish baths, spas, and even special rooms for playing Texas Hold 'Em.

Texas Hold'em is very prevalent in Europe and America, and after the efforts of the major casinos in Las Vegas, this style of play has almost become the most popular poker game in the entire Western world, and has even begun to take the world by storm.

Although Charlie seldom plays poker, he also knows how Texas Hold'em is played. He guessed that today William and Olivia wanted to play a pig killing game for him, so he planned to take the bait and directly slaughter them both as fat pigs.

The man who had been the first to open the table said, "Let's do it this way, everyone is financially strong, so it must be fair and enjoyable to play."

"So today you all play, I will be the dealer for everyone, and those who win, just give me a little bonus at the end of the day."

It is very common in the West to give a bonus to a lot of people, and not everyone has to give it, but only the winner needs to take out a few percentage points from his winnings, so everyone is fine with it.

So the man brought a brand new deck of cards and said with a smile, "Come on, let's check if there are any problems with this deck of cards, if there are no problems I'll start dealing!"

Chapter 3585

The reason is that the card game was improvised, and the person who organized the card game, voluntarily gave up direct participation in the card game, and volunteered to be a dealer.

So in addition to Charlie and Olivia, several other participants did not think about the aspect of cheating.

The real problem lies in this dealer.

The actual problem is that the dealer is an expert in gambling, and he has made a fortune from it, and even if he plays cards with professionals, he can cheat unnoticed, not to mention facing a group of amateurs.

This person has a very fast hand, a very good memory, and superb finger dexterity, comparable to a close-up magician, so when he shuffled the cards, no one knew that he had already memorized the position of each card in his mind.

Then, he cut and inserted the cards seemingly at random, and had already arranged the cards according to his predetermined rules.

And at this time, Olivia also gave each person a pile of chips, said: "Gentlemen, each of our chips are 100 million euros, we first take the use, who first lost, from the hands of others to buy all the 100 million chips of euros to continue to play."

"And finally do not play, we take stock, who has not enough chips 100 million euros, take out the missing part of the money, the winner According to the amount of their respective winnings to share, what do you all think?"

The crowd naturally had no opinion.

After all, Olivia here is not a real casino manager, playing in the casino, we will first spend money to buy chips from the casino, and then go back to the money.

But this kind of private gambling between friends, generally will not buy chips from a person's hand, but first issued chips, the first to lose money out to buy, so it is also more convenient statistics.

However, just as the others nodded, Charlie spoke: "Let me interject, the chips are only 100 million euros, is it not a little less?"

"This is still less?" A kid whom Charlie did not know said offhand: "Just for fun, one hundred million is quite a lot!"

Charlie waved his hand and said with a look of disdain: "One hundred million euros is not enough, if there are not enough chips, I can't bet fast enough!"

Olivia asked, "Then what does Mr. Wade mean?"

Charlie laughed: "Simple, all the chips face value multiplied by ten times."

Saying that, he picked up a 100,000 chips and said, "Look, this 100,000 chips, it represents one million euros, next to this one million, it will be 10 million euros."

The others couldn't help but suck in a cold breath.

One of them thought to himself, "Damn, really rich! Entertainment poker games are going to be played to a billion euros, this is too fcuking scary."

Most of the other people also mean the same thing.

Playing too big is beyond their capacity.

These people can at most lose a few million or a few tens of millions, really lose a hundred million on this occasion, it is absolutely to collapse.

However, William was excited to the extreme.

He knows very well in his heart that he has the secret help of the dealer, absolutely to the death to eat Charlie.

Not to mention a maximum of one billion euros, damn ten billion euros, and counting chicken hair? The good thing is that the winning rate is 100%, so it's over.

So he opened his mouth and said: "Gentlemen, Mr. Wade is a guest, we must not let Mr. Wade spoil the fun, if you really think the bet is too big, don't force to press heavy bets."

Once the people heard this, they could only nod their heads and agree.

After all, here, William is considered half the host, and is a Ruthschild family, face than others, as for Charlie, behind the Wade family is indeed worth more than 100 billion euros, and with the Cataclysmic Front inextricably linked, everyone can only go along with the two of them.

When the dealer saw this, he smiled and said, "Good, since everyone has discussed the rules, then I will now deal the cards."

Immediately after that, he dealt the first card to the first person on his right hand side, and then kept dealing the cards in order.

After the cards were dealt, the bets began to be placed.

Chapter 3586

Charlie did not pay any attention to exactly what card he was dealt, as soon as it came to him, he immediately dropped a one million euro chip, and after a few rounds, he threw in four million euro chips, but it actually represented a 70 million.

The others were unable to adapt to the large bets for a while, so they folded and watched.

Immediately afterward, the dealer opened his mouth and said, "Please show your cards!"

The first thing you need to do is turn over your bottom card, and your card is only a pair and three miscellaneous cards, which is a very small hand in Texas Hold'em.

The first hand was a bomb hand, with four jacks and a miscellaneous card, which was much bigger than Charlie's hand.

The dealer immediately announced, "This game, William wins."

William was a little excited and took all the chips in front of him, smiling and saying, "Mr. Wade, sorry about that!"

Charlie did not care and said, "Hey, it's only tens of millions of dollars, why be so polite? Besides, there is a saying at our poker table: the first one to win is the paper, the second one is the money, and the winner will not be known until the last moment."

William couldn't help but give a thumbs up to Charlie and praised, "Mr. Wade is really a man of extraordinary grace! Then let's continue?"

Charlie nodded his head and smiled, "Come on!"

William quietly gave a wink to the dealer.

Just now, Charlie's cards were too small, and this game, he wanted to make Charlie's cards bigger, so that he could also make him bet bigger.

Sure enough.

This time, the dealer gave him a bomb hand, and then gave William a flush hand.

Charlie also really fell for it, seeing that the cards were big, he threw 20 million chips in a row, which, according to the agreement, is equivalent to betting 200 million euros.

The only person left in the board was him and William, and when it came time to open the cards, William threw out a straight flush, and several other people at the scene looked stunned, one after the other sighing that William was too lucky.

The dealer announced again, "This hand is still William's."

While collecting his chips, William sighed, "Mr. Wade's hand is really big, but my hand is still bigger, please forgive me!"

Charlie waved his hand unconcernedly: "Take it, take it all, it's just a little, to me, it's just a sprinkle of water, it's not even a hair."

Olivia looked at Charlie's look of carelessness and could not help but sigh in her heart: "What a money-burning dude! If you look at it this way, you can definitely win him a Concorde tonight!"

"After I am crowned, I will be able to visit all over the world in a Concorde, and I will be the only one in the world's royal family!"

William was also equally excited, seeing that he had won more than 240 million euros from Charlie in two hands, so he spoke: "That, Mr. Wade, according to our previous rules, you have now lost more than 100 million euros and will have to spend money to buy back this batch of chips."

Charlie frowned: "This is the time to start buying back? I thought it was only after all the chips were lost? I still have more here."

William said awkwardly: "But what we just said is 100 million euros to settle once after losing, you have more than 200 million, the actual amount of chips at ten times their face value, this is what you just proposed"

Charlie said disdainfully: "I have to lose two hundred million in one hand, according to you, do I have to pay you twice in one hand? Don't you get tired of it?"

William said: "Oh, Mr. Wade, or we can settle the bill one game at a time"

Charlie disgustedly said: "I see you look like a man, I thought you should also be a quick person, I did not expect you to play poker slow like a woman?"

"How can I play happily when it's such a hassle to settle the bill one game at a time? Since the 100 million chips represent one billion euros, just wait until I lose all these chips and give you one billion euros a hand."

Saying that, Charlie saw that he wanted to talk again, immediately said with a disdainful face: "You also do not give me more nonsense, or I will give you the money now, do not fcuking play with you!"

Chapter 3587

William saw Charlie a bit angry, immediately nervous, and hurriedly explained: "Mr. Wade you do not misunderstand, I do not mean that"

Then said: "I thought we still have the same rules as just set, 100 million euros a settlement, but since you have said so, then I will not be nonsense, only when losing enough one billion euros, only then to settle once."

"If you wait until the end of the game also did not lose so much, we wait for the end of the game, and then according to the actual amount lost to pay What do you think?"

Charlie nodded with satisfaction and laughed: "Right! This is what a man fcuking says! Otherwise I thought you are the kind of poor hangers-on who have never seen money, just won a little money, can't wait to put it in your pocket."

Speaking of which, Charlie said seriously, "I'll tell you from the bottom of my heart, what I despise most is such a silly bird!"

"Yes, yes, yes! Right, right, right!" Hearing these words, William knew that Charlie was scolding him, but still nodded like a garlic, full of flattery, and said: "Mr. Wade is right, out to play, the pattern is indeed to be larger!"

After saying that, he hurriedly said: "Come, let's continue!"

Charlie nodded: "Come on."

This game, William got a hand of three aces, and Charlie also got three, but it was three kings.

However, William had an ace that was the bottom card, and Charlie could only see two aces, so he deliberately threw down 20 million in chips and said with a determined face, "I bet you can't be three aces!"

William smiled faintly, also dropped 20 million chips, and said with a smile, "Since Mr. Wade is so confident, why don't you raise the bet a little more?"

Charlie shrugged his shoulders: "Just add, I'm not afraid of your excitement."

After saying that, another 20 million chips were thrown in.

This time and again, Charlie is equal to bet 400 million euros.

The next time, it was time for a showdown.

William turned out an ace from the bottom card and said with a smile, "Sorry, Mr. Wade, I really have an ace in here!"

When Olivia saw this, she jumped up with excitement.

And everyone else was looking horrified.

Charlie has now lost almost seven hundred million euros to William, and only less than twenty minutes have passed!

Chapter 3588

However, Charlie did not care at all, he shook his head gently and laughed: "William, it seems that you, the groom-to-be, are lucky tonight!"

"I still don't believe that my luck can't overwhelm you! Come on, let's continue!"

The others found that they were completely running along.

Because of such a big bet, they didn't dare to play even if they started with a good hand, so it was soon time for another straight face-off between Charlie and William.

This hand, Charlie intentionally controls the pace of betting, one after another, almost 20 million euros when the face value of the chips left in the hands of 7 or 8 million, the table is equal to 70 or 80 million.

If Charlie lost this hand, then he would have lost more than nine hundred million, and would have to buy chips from William with real money as required.

The company is also very excited at this time, not even half an hour, won nearly a fucking billion, this feeling is just like a dream.

The company's main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

The company's main goal was to force Charlie to hurry up and pay out a sum of money, so he immediately threw in 10 million chips and said, "Mr. Wade, I'll bet 100 million, you seem to be out of chips."

Charlie shrugged his shoulders, threw a hand of large miscellaneous cards directly to the side, and opened his mouth, "I fold."

The crowd burst into an uproar.

"This is a fold?"

“Throwing one or two hundred million dollars, only to fold when he said he would, does this guy know how to play or not?”

“If I had known he was so stupid, I would have had to take a hand from him just now! I can’t let all the money go to William!”

William was laughing at this moment, but he couldn’t control his emotions, so he could only slow down for half a day before saying, “Mr. Wade, you have no more chips for the next game, do you think you should settle the money first?”

Charlie frowned and spoke with an unhappy face: “This is really fcuking evil! How come my hand is so bad today

After saying that, he looked at William and asked, “I am going to spend money to redeem the chips right?”

“Yes, yes, yes!” William’s whole face smiled like chrysanthemum and narrowed his eyes, “Mr. Wade, I’ll give you my Swiss bank account number?”

“OK.” Charlie nodded and said, “You give me the account number first, I will arrange for the finance to make the payment later.”

“I can’t let everyone wait here for my money to arrive, how about this, I’ll put my Concorde in your place first, write you a mortgage agreement, sign and pledge it for 300 million euros,”

“You only need to give me 30 million chips, enough for me to play another game. What do you think?”

William was laughing madly in his heart, but his face pretended to be very difficult and said, “Mr. Wade, your Concorde is indeed very rare, but this Concorde is really an old plane, isn’t a discount of 300 million euros a bit too much?”

Charlie looked at William, a look of disdain for him, shook his head and said: “So I say you people do things on the fretful, like a pu55y! First of all, not to mention that my plane is originally out of production, and spent a lot of money to renovate the decoration, then just say you won me today almost one billion euros,”

“Even if the Concorde discounted 300 million euros mortgage to you, to say that it is not just a hand of cards? A hand of cards you win back, the plane will be yours by then, two hundred million and three hundred million, what’s the difference?”

Olivia understood this and hurriedly said, “William! Mr. Wade is right, you are too unlike a man! You are still calculating over such a small matter, hurry up and promise Mr. Wade, take another 30 million chips to him!”

Only then did William came back to his senses and said, “Da*n right! Anyway, Charlie is to mortgage the plane to me, no matter how much I discount chips, eventually, it will still fall into my pocket,”

“Then not only the plane returns to me, Charlie will also give me a billion euros, I really am fcuking lucky today!

Thinking of this, William hurriedly took out 30 million from his pile of chips, respectfully pushed his hands to Charlie, and said with a smile, "Mr. Wade, 30 million chips, please accept it."

Charlie reached out and took the 30 million chips, nodded gently, then looked at Olivia and said seriously, "Ms. Olivia, to be honest, you found such a person, it's really a waste of your talents!"

Olivia also feels that William, this guy, is a bit on the stage, but after all, the two of them are playing today is a couple, William today won over Charlie, and whatever he has at the end, there is her half in it.

Charlie stacked the chips in front of himself, took the initiative to ask for a pen and paper, wrote a simple mortgage agreement by hand, then signed and pressed his handprint.

After that, he handed the mortgage agreement to William, and glanced at the dealer, and said with a smile, "I say you, buddy, for this game you have to give me a good deal, you see I lost so much, should also let me win a game, right?"

The dealer was about to make a few polite remarks when he suddenly felt an invisible energy surge into his brain, and immediately afterward, he nodded respectfully.

However, this change in him, except for Charlie, no one noticed

Chapter 3589

The hand that immediately followed had a little new meaning.

When four cards were dealt, Charlie quickly got three aces, two of which were on the bright side.

And William was bullish, his cards were 10, J, Q, K, and still a clear spade.

Seeing this card, William knew in his heart that his dealer buddy, should be planning to give him a flush and then give Charlie four aces.

The biggest card in Texas Hold'em is the straight flush, which kills all others.

And Charlie has exposed two Aces at this time, the best card type is also four Aces.

Even if he had four aces, it would be impossible to win a flush.

Therefore, William has no doubt that Charlie will lose this hand, while he will win.

But Charlie seemed to be unbelieving, and in a few rounds of betting, he put almost all of his chips into it.

Seeing the last card dealt, Charlie smiled and said, "Mr. William, if I lose this hand, the plane will be yours, and one billion euros will be paid to the finance immediately."

William was so excited that his heart rate went haywire and he said, "Sorry, Mr. Wade, look at the cards, I've broken your bank today!"

"Ha!" Charlie did not care about a big hand, said lightly: "This money is nothing? The Cataclysmic Front asked our family to dole out billions of euros, we did we not give?"

Saying that, Charlie laughed and said in a tone of promoting his younger brother: "Today is your God of Wealth kind to you, I come all the way here, just to give you some pocket money, how much you can win, all depends on your ability!"

The cards are dealt.

The dealer immediately began to deal out the last card.

The card that was given to Charlie was an Ace of Spades.

Seeing Charlie get the Ace of Spades, William wasn't surprised at all.

It seemed that his friend was going to give Charlie a hand of four aces of spades, which was second only to a straight flush.

However, William believed that the card his friend made for himself must be a flush of 9, 10, J, Q, and K.

As long as he got the flush, he would win steadily against Charlie's four aces.

Therefore, he was very determined that his last card must be the 9 of spades!

At this time, Charlie directly turned over his bottom card as well and said indifferently: "Mr. William, I am the four aces, it seems that you can only win me with a straight flush, which is not so easy to get."

William smiled confidently, "Mr. Wade, I am particularly lucky today, so I am sure that my last card will be the nine of spades!"

Charlie skimmed his mouth: "Don't come with me, I don't believe you at all!"

William raised his eyebrows and asked with a smile, "Since Mr. Wade doesn't believe in it, let the dealer deal the cards directly, and let's hurry up and decide a winner!"

"No!" Charlie reached out to stop it and laughed: "Since we're playing, let's play bigger, how about this hand, let's add another two billion euros each, and have an exciting game?"

Everyone at the scene went crazy.

One person blurted out, "An additional two billion euros per person? This is going to play with life!"

Another person chimed in, "I've never seen such a big gamble in all my fcuking life"

"Yeah too too fcuking exciting!"

William was also dumbfounded.

To say that Charlie's previous performance, is a qualified scattered money boy, then now Charlie's performance, in his opinion has almost become a scattered money Jesus.

He has seen the ones who give away money but has never seen such a giver of a large gift of money.

Directly additional two billion?

Chapter 3590

The money mentioned is so big, so big that he, William, did not dare to ask for it!

So, he said somewhat nervously: "Wade Mr. Wade according to my opinion, we do not add this game two billion euros is really too big, even if you don't take money seriously anymore, you can't throw away money like that"

Charlie laughed: "You have not opened this card yet, how do you know it must be me who is throwing money?"

William said awkwardly, "Mr. Wade, I'm not joking with you, I really think the chances of me winning this game are much greater than you, how about we just open the cards, on the table these chips, whoever wins, do not add more, okay?"

Charlie smiled and sneered, "I told you you were like a woman! Not a single word has been wronged! You've already won a fucking billion, what are you afraid of?"

Then he said to Olivia: "You advise your fiancé, when it's time to be tough, he must be tough! How can you be the Queen's husband if you are weak at critical moments?"

Olivia also panicked.

She knew that William would win, but she also knew that if William won too much, something would probably go terribly wrong.

Counting the previous one, if Charlie lost in another two billion euros in this hand, it would be three billion euros in cash plus a Concorde.

With this hand alone, Charlie has lost more assets than her entire royal family owns.

Seriously, how could she not be afraid?

What she was thinking was: "What if Charlie gets desperate when he loses and has to take revenge on William? What if he involves the Cataclysmic Front?"

But what Olivia didn't know was that Charlie wasn't anxious about losing at all, but William was anxious about being scolded by Charlie at this moment.

He said with some exasperation, "Mr. Wade, I hope you're clear, I don't want to follow through with this two billion bet, not because I'm not man enough,"

"But I don't want to win too much from you! I am leaving you a way out, but why do you have to be aggressive over and over again?"

Charlie laughed: "William, I'm not saying you, this kind of thinking of yours is typical of poor hanging thinking!"

Said, Charlie despised mockingly: "You, like those who bought a Rolls-Royce, came to tell me that Rolls-Royce fuel consumption is high, advised me not to drive Rolls-Royce poor cranes,"

"You say this poor cranes also do not move their poor cranes brain to think about, I can spend millions of euros to buy a Rolls-Royce, can not afford to fill a hundred euros tank of gasoline?"

The surrounding crowd heard, have a burst of a dark laugh.

Although Charlie has been losing money in large sums, in their eyes he is silly to the extreme.

But they also had to admit that Charlie had a point.

People have plenty of money, do they need someone who is much poorer than him to teach him how to save money?

When William heard these words, he was really angry and confused.

He really did not expect that Charlie would take the initiative to beg for death.

And he also took his good intentions for a fool's lungs and publicly humiliated him as a poor man!

He couldn't help but curse in his heart: "Good for you, Wade! I wanted to keep you alive with good intentions, but you just don't appreciate it!"

"Fine, I'll win a big one today! Let you cry without tears!"

With this in mind, he slapped the table and said in a stern voice, "Good! Two billion, two billion!"

Charlie nodded in satisfaction and laughed: "Come on, before the last card is opened, just like I just gave you a mortgage agreement,"

"Let's each write a two billion dollar note, sign it, and put it on the table, whoever wants to win will take the other one away, how about it?"

William sneered, "Just write it! Do you think I will be afraid of you?"

Charlie laughed: "Okay, then hurry up and write it, so many people are witnessing, no one can be a scoundrel."

"Okay!"

William, who was already angry, immediately wrote down a two billion dollar note as Charlie said.

And Charlie is not ambiguous, immediately on the paper clearly wrote down that he owed William two billion euros, but also reminded William said:

"Right, the payment method should be written clearly, within 24 hours, it must be paid in full, otherwise it is considered a breach of contract, breach of contract, one hundred percent a day!"

William at this time so emotional that he did not care to think, sneered: "I will be afraid of you? Come on! I'll write it up!"

Charlie nodded and also wrote the same content on his own note.

Subsequently, the two signed and drew on their respective IOUs in the presence of all witnesses and the recording of everyone's cell phone videos.

Charlie put the two IOUs in the chip pile at the same time, looked at the card dealer, and said with a slight smile, "Come on, open the cards!"

William's eyes, like a Komodo lizard, stared dead at Charlie and sneered, "Mr. Wade, today I will let you die a painful death!"
