

Chapter 36: He Spent His Money With Someone Else

“Yang Xuan!” Teacher Zhang shouted, staring at Yang Xuan with a cold, hard face. “Are you still trying to deny the reality of the situation, even now that things have turned out this way?”

He had denied having borrowed Xia Xibei’s money, even going so far as to accuse her of hitting him.

Great! Now that the evidence had been thrown right into his face, he couldn’t deny it anymore. However, he claimed to have borrowed only 10,000 dollars, giving himself a steep discount!

People like him were absolutely unbelievable!

Yang Xuan was anxious, mad, and aggrieved, all at the same time!

“I really just borrowed 10,000...”

“Stop!” Teacher Liu said indignantly. “Previously you said you hadn’t borrowed any money! What changed?”

“Yang Xuan,” Teacher Zhang interrupted with a straight face, “stop denying everything, don’t embarrass yourself any further!”

“Teachers, our Xuan Xuan really wouldn’t borrow so much money! He’s only a student, so there isn’t much for him to spend on. How would he be able to borrow that amount?” Yang Xuan’s mother had stopped wreaking havoc, but she still didn’t believe that her son would do such a thing.

“He told me that his grandfather was sick, so I lent him 3,000. Then he said that his father had gotten into a car crash and had to get a limb amputated, so I lent him another 4,000. After that, he claimed that his mother broke her arm...” Xia Xibei listed out, simply making up some excuses as she went along.

Yang Xuan’s pretexts for borrowing the money were similar to what she had just stated, the only difference being that the victim was always his deceased grandfather.

Regardless, Xia Xibei’s words stupefied Yang Xuan’s parents.

He really came up with just about any excuse to borrow money!

“Mister Yang, your leg looks fine to me,” Teacher Yang remarked sarcastically.

Yang Xuan’s father shot him an angry, irritated glare. He was cursing him, wasn’t he!

He was beyond healthy!

“When did I ever say that? I never even mentioned it!” Yang Xuan fought back with all his might.

However, his argument wasn't accepted by anyone.

His words had lost all credibility.

Even his parents thought he was lying at this point!

"What did you borrow so much money for? Why would you even need that much?" Yang Xuan's father was very mad, not bothering to defend his son anymore.

"I- I really didn't..."

"Are you going to tell me or not!" Yang Xuan's father raged, so angry that he swung his arm forward and gave his son a harsh slap.

Yang Xuan had gone overboard today. If all he had done was lie, he could be forgiven, but he even went so far as to curse his family!

Yang Xuan's mother panicked and exclaimed, "What are you doing?!" Going to stand in front of her son, she continued in a shrill voice, "Can't we just talk things out nicely!"

As she watched the ongoing drama among the three members of the Yang family, Xia Xibei's eyes gleamed with a certain shrewdness.

“I know what he spent his money on,” she announced.

“You know?”

“Yes!” Xia Xibei nodded. “Didn’t I just say I did? I’m not his girlfriend, but Jin Yazhen is. They hang out together often, shopping, watching movies, and buying clothes. I’m assuming that’s how he blew all that money.”

Her words put a dark look on everyone’s face. Who wasn’t aware of what a fortune dating cost?

Especially the teachers, who were looking at Yang Xuan with even more disgust in their eyes.

Essentially, Yang Xuan had fabricated the stories of accidents or illnesses befalling his family in order to borrow money from Xia Xibei, spending that same money on Jin Yazhen.

And when Xia Xibei needed that money to be paid back, she came looking for him. He couldn’t afford to pay back his debt, so he made up a lie and accused Xia Xibei of hitting him!

— — This was beyond despicable!

Qing Ye High School was the most prestigious school of the district. Although not every student was noble and virtuous, there wasn’t anyone as bad as him either!

Xia Xibei's allegation had ignited a fury-filled fire within Yang Xuan's mother.

"Which shameless b*tch did you spend the money with? It must be her who brainwashed you, that's why you turned out this way!"

Looking at the agitated woman, the teachers suddenly understood the entire situation.

It was all because of his family that Yang Xuan had turned out to be the way he was!

Chapter 37: Returning the Money

In the eyes of Yang Xuan's mom, her son could do no wrong. Only other people were capable of such a crime! Even if Yang Xuan had borrowed money, it was only because he had been fooled by others and made to do so.

"Who is this Jin Yazhen?" she demanded angrily, "I will find her and settle the account!"

The money was all spent on that little b*tch, so of course she should be the one to pay it back!

Xia Xibei showed a frightened expression, scrambling to think of a proper response. "You can fix your own problem later, but you have to pay me back! I really need that money now!"

She looked at the two teachers again, pleading with them, "Teachers, please help me!"

Teacher Liu nodded, relenting, "Okay, don't worry."

After agreeing to come to her aid, he turned to Yang Xuan's parents and said, "Since the matter has been clarified, you should pay back that debt."

Yang Xuan's mom stomped her feet, stubbornly refusing. "Our Xuan Xuan didn't borrow all this money. If you want it back, go find that Jin Yazhen!"

Teacher Zhang's face darkened, "Yang Xuan borrowed the money, so of course he should be the one to pay it back! As for whom it was spent on afterwards, that's nobody's business but your own."

Teacher Zhang's impression of Yang Xuan had truly sunk to the bottom. Thinking about how Yang Xuan was a student in his class, he felt even more disgusted. Someone like this was going to ruin all those around him!

Seeing the dark look on the head teacher's face, Yang Xuan couldn't help but quake in fear. Most of the teachers at Qing Ye High School had strong personalities, and the two teachers in front of him were especially tough. If this matter really went all the way up to the principal, it would truly be very troublesome.

Yang Xuan's father understood the consequences and what was at stake, so he hurriedly nodded, "We'll pay back the money!"

Even though he was still very angry, this was his son, his own flesh and blood. How could he not pay back the money?

Yang Xuan's face took on an ugly look, repeating once again, "But I really didn't borrow twenty thousand from her!"

"Yang Xuan!"

Yang Xuan's father felt as if he had lost face. He was still denying everything, even now!

Yang Xuan was almost crying, acting as if he really had only borrowed ten thousand yuan!

"Well, since we're all here today, let's resolve this matter. After that, everything will be done and over with, meaning that they can focus on their studies," Teacher Liu said. "What do you think?"

What did they think? What could they think? Yang Xuan's father could only nod in agreement. They would be high school seniors in a few months, so they couldn't possibly let this matter drag on any longer.

Yang Xuan's mom was upset, but she was forced to bitterly nod in assent under her husband's angry gaze.

Yang Xuan had even more unspeakable miseries.

He looked at Xia Xibei hatefully, already thinking of other plans in his heart. He was so mad, he could die after being scammed like this by her!

Now that it had all been decided, they acted very fast.

There was a bank right next to the school, and Yang Xuan's father quickly withdrew the money.

Before handing it over to Xia Xibei, he gave Yang Xuan a fierce look. He'd wait until they returned home to deal with Yang Xuan!

After receiving the twenty thousand yuan, Xia Xibei finally showed a bright smile.

"Thank you, uncle! Thank you, teachers!"

"Okay, the matter is over at last. Go back to class now!"

"Okay, thanks teachers!" After Xia Xibei expressed her thanks once again, she gave one final glance to Yang Xuan and turned to leave.

When Yang Xuan met Xia Xibei's mocking eyes, he became so angry, almost going up to kick her!

Xia Xibei didn't care how resentful he was. She returned to the classroom, happily and with all that money. Even the pain from her menstrual cramps had lessened by then.

Jin Yazhen felt complicated emotions when she saw that Xia Xibei had returned safely.

She was so relaxed. Didn't something happen just now?

Xia Xibei turned around and met Jin Yazhen's eyes, revealing a wicked smile.

Yang Xuan's mom would not let Jin Yazhen get away with all of this just yet.

She would wait for the show to start!
