

Chapter 361: Houttuynia farm

Harvey ignored the secret jabs made by his companions, and said seriously: "There is no doubt that this is the handwriting of a necromancer, at least in the sanctuary...no, it may even be a necromancer in the legendary realm! This mermaid Houttuynia cordata farm is indeed ingenious, but it has a vicious intention and harsh methods, completely betraying Haagen-Dazs necromantic doctrine... I look down on him."

Sure enough, there is naked hatred in the same company, and the tone of the two-wing necromancer is full of contempt.

"Although necromancers use corpses and souls as casting materials, corpses are generally taken from people who have died, and souls also capture those ghosts struggling from hell. Necromancers like the blood saints are basically Easy chair players, even the corpse has to be sent to the hospital."

"Even if you are a brash man who likes to be fresh and hot, he just kills people and then draws materials on the spot to make the corpses himself."

Ah Xiu and the others suddenly breathed a sigh of relief—the few understatement of the particles, such as 'even if', 'just yes', and 'nothing', are enough to prove that Harvey is still the perverted necromancer.

"But it's different here."

Harvey said: "If we necromancers are cooks and cook all cooked food, then this is a heretical restaurant that produces sashimi raw food. These mermaid houttuynia cordata are all the smell of living people."

Everyone was startled and looked at An Nan.

An Nan touched the earrings, and said noncommittal: "Let's talk while walking."

The funeral crowd walked in the wide square, carefully avoiding the mermaid houuttuynia cordata in various poses. If the previous caution was due to fear, then their actions now have a protective effect, as if they were afraid of breaking these fragile objects.

“Do you still remember the family rebirth dream, the purpose is to suppress the increase in the threshold caused by the family members’ daily inhalation of beauty mist?” An Nan said: “You have also experienced the dream, do you think the threshold is suppressed?”

“Yes.” Igula said affirmatively: “I used the gospel to pay attention to the hormone changes in the body. Every time I leave my dream, the secretion of various hormones becomes normal.”

“So, it can be suppressed for one day, one week, one month, one year.” An Nan said: “Do you think dreams can be suppressed for a hundred years?”

People out of town blinked, and they understood An Nan’s subtext.

“Even if the family reincarnation dream is effective again, the threshold will still be raised little by little, and the physiological changes of the organs will continue to accumulate and cannot be reversed. The progress bar will eventually be full one day.” An Nan explained: “Because of different physical conditions, The progress bars of various races are fast or slow. For example, the progress bar of a human being is about 65 years old when it is full.”

Ya Xiu swallowed, “After the progress bar is full...what will happen?”

“They no longer need to work, but come here to spend the rest of their lives... They are retired forever.”

“That said, the old age of your Vatican and Shepherd is quite good.” Igola sneered, “After all, there is no old age.”

An Nan said calmly: “You have just seen those Van Gogh people who are ‘broken’ because of the reduced concentration of white mist. When the Van Gogh people’s threshold progress bar is full, their physical condition is equivalent to ‘all parts.’ Broken, even if the white mist is condensed into a liquid and injected into their blood vessels, they cannot be ‘fixed’.”

“Beauty Fog is not a miracle. The happiness it brings has a price. For organizations, the happiness brought by Beauty Fog reduces people’s desires and therefore reduces the success rate of practitioners. After all, almost all practitioners are The most greedy creature. If it weren’t for the desire, who would work hard to cultivate and learn?”

“In the whole Gospel, the proportion of Vatican and Mula is the lowest, and there are only three sanctuary magicians, Qinna, which is less than half of Azula’s.”

“For individuals, the mist of beauty has destroyed most of their subjective initiative. Most people are willing to become the **** of the patriarch, living in reality like a cow and horse, and living in a dream like a baby.”

“After enjoying most of their lives, they are like those parts that are overloaded every day, and their bodies will be overwhelmed and scrapped ahead of time.”

“In the beginning, these tribesmen would be broken when they were broken, so they could just be buried as fertilizer. But there was a talented necromancer. I don’t know if it was because he thought it was too wasteful to just bury it, or he really He cared about these broken tribesmen, and he finally worked out the miracle that allowed the Van Mula people to’decently retire’.”

“The white mist emitted by mermaid houttuynia can no longer meet your threshold? Then let you directly convert into mermaid houttuynia cordata, and there is no middleman to make the difference.”

“You can’t work when you’re old? Then just don’t work, so that you will be immersed in your dreams forever, and the extra joy will turn into mist and emit.”

“Always retire, always happy, and always divorced from reality.”

Asia Xiu murmured: “It sounds like it is really good...”

Liz patted Ya Xiu on the back of the head.

“Of course it’s very good. After all, this is a ‘miracle’.” An Nan emphasized his tone, and couldn’t tell whether he was laughing or sighing. The frail people will come to the farm on their own initiative under the reminder of the gospel. When their progress bar is full and their bodies are completely broken, the coat of arms will induce the miracle rituals in the farm and turn them into mermaid houuttuynia cordata. ”

“By the way, the appearance of their mermaid houuttuynia cordata has nothing to do with the body, but the image they most aspire to be, so most of them here are young handsome men and beautiful women.”

Ya Xiu looked around for a week: “No, there are overwhelmingly many beautiful women here, if the ratio of male to female is similar...”

“It is a normal desire to want to be the opposite sex.” Igola said: “Gender replacement surgery in the blood moon has always been very popular.”

Ah Xiu glanced at Igula in shock: “Igula, why do you know this? Are you a veritable innocent veel before?”

Igola gave him a blank look: “There are many people who have changed their genders but have not changed their mindsets. “Revision of self-gender awareness” is a popular item in the psychologist industry. Are you interested in Asia? I can give you a 20% discount. ”

“I’m interested. I have never realized that I am a handsome, kind, friendly, humorous and powerful super invincible guy. Please correct me.”

“Axiu, don’t say anything, the annoying little girl behind you is about to vomit.”

“So can you leave here quickly?”

Harvey is like a cockroach falling into a perfume bottle~www.mtlnovel.com~ feeling very uncomfortable: “Alice told me that he was uncomfortable.”

“Coming.”

An Nan led them into a passage outside the square. Unlike the square, this passage has no traces of artificial repairs, just like a natural cave.

At the moment they stepped in, Liz and Ya Xiu both trembled. After leaving for a while, Ash couldn't help but said, “Where is this place, I feel itchy all over my body.”

An Nan glanced at Ya Xiu unexpectedly: “Are you still proficient in the time faction?”

Igula's eyes flicked, and immediately summoned the gospel to read the time, and his pupils suddenly shrank.

I saw the time stopwatch in the gospels spinning rapidly, Igola felt for a second, and the gospel time passed 30 seconds!

“Forgot to tell you that the Mermaid Houttuynia cordata farm is built in the abyss, and here is the channel between the abyss, time and space will be compressed.” An Nan said: “When we pass through this channel, we will leave. Van Mura, reach the abyss of another city.”

Chapter 362: "Family List"

Abyss, Ya Xiu had heard many rumors about this place before.

Except for a small part of the information about Broken Lake, most of them were complaints made by Jian Ji when chatting with him.

In almost every place where the magicians gather, there will be an abyss nearby, and it may even appear under the city, and it will never be completely wiped out. The monsters appearing in it are endless, and if you are not careful, the abyss monsters will hit the town.

In the previous era when population and civilization were still underdeveloped, the abyss would even become a major concern for the country and an important task for national defense.

However, with the rapid increase in the number of magicians, the civilization of magicians has entered an era of rapid development. Even the abyss will be strengthened with the increase in the number of magicians, but the strength of monsters is far behind the technological explosion speed of the magicians, and the threat of the abyss is declining year by year. .

At the back, the status of the abyss was reduced from a 'confidential' to a 'daily task' level, and it could not even become a national defense task.

The Blood Moon Kingdom chooses to leave the abyss to the adventurers, or the savage adventurers who are not suitable for civilized society to the abyss to solve, and the abyss is regarded as a garbage recycling station; the Gospel Kingdom arranges the bluebeard to suppress each abyss. But Bluebeard is not a national defense force, but a private enterprise. In short, the Gospel Kingdom leases the abyss to the enterprise, and allows the enterprise to operate the abyss trade.

In the past, the abyss was "I am going to enter the human race", but the abyss now is "Don't come here."

Of course, this only refers to the deep abyss, the real deep abyss, which is a dangerous zone where the legendary magician of the sanctuary might fall.

For Jian Ji, a village aunt like her, the best way to earn skills and hone actual combat experience is to enter the abyss.

The materials on the monsters of the abyss are often of great value. In addition to being used as equipment, they can also be made into potions that increase the resonance of a specific magical spirit virtual realm—for example, a bottle of 'wave sword potion' can be greatly improved. Resonance summons the possibility of Wave Sword.

In addition, the abyss monster will even burst out the magic spirit, it is simply a small virtual realm.

But the problem is that the abyss is not a virtual world.

The magician died in the abyss, he really died.

Moreover, the abyss is changeable. In case of bad luck and the abyss is boiling, the deep monster runs to the first and second floors to take a walk and breathe. The sanctuary may also rush to the street. The point is that this is not a small probability event-if the sanctuary is in one It is really possible to attract deep-seated monsters by abuse of food and gold on the second floor.

You kill my little monsters with big bullies, and I also hit your kids with big bullies. It can be said that the two sides exchanged a wave of cubs.

Therefore, to venture into the abyss, it can be said that risks and opportunities coexist. In the past, the society was still underdeveloped. If you want to find more resources for the magician, you can only venture into the abyss. Now that the society is developed, you naturally want to easily stay at home and become a legendary magician before you go out and venture. Who wants to go into the abyss? Fight for life and death?

Jian Ji hadn't played the school game at that time, and was still in a desperate situation. She complained back and forth about the danger of the abyss in Ash's ear. Naturally, she had only one purpose: I am so cute, please support me. Can you bear to watch such a lovely girl like me go on an adventure in the abyss?

Ah Xiu nodded violently every time—of course, bear with me, and it wasn't me who went down into the abyss. Jian Ji, you have to work hard so that I can live a good life.

And it's not that he refuses to take care of it, it is really krypton.

"But I remember, doesn't the terrain of the abyss change frequently?" Ya Xiu asked: "Because of the frequent changes and riots, the magician can't build bases and penetrate the abyss layer by layer."

“Yes, the abyss does change often.” An Nan nodded: “But when the abyss changes, people will not be taken away. Moreover, the abyss will only change the terrain, but the overall style will not change. The dungeon is the underground. In the city, the cave is the cave, and the maze is the maze.”

“The next thing is very simple—because the mermaid hasn’t died yet, it won’t take them away when the abyss changes, and even the ground, buildings, and walls that they directly contact with body will not change. As long as the mermaid is fishy The amount of grass is large enough and distributed widely enough that the terrain of the abyss can be fixed.”

“How to solve the monster in the abyss?”

“Now the white mist is suppressed by the miracle, but you shouldn’t forget that this is the source of the beauty mist, right?” An Nan laughed softly: “Even our magicians will be affected by the white mist, can those monsters be able to Spared?”

“People and beasts affected by the white mist will be filled with joy and happiness all the time, and they lose their desire to fight physically. Also, because they are constantly exposed to high-concentration beauty mist, the monster’s threshold is quickly raised to the level of collapse of consciousness. Probably every other month, a recovery technician will come over to take away the monster corpse—the protective clothing we are wearing now is the recovery technician’s work clothes.”

“Handling redundant population, producing strategic resources, defending against invasions from the abyss, and efficiently killing monsters... What a practical building facility.” Igola said: “I wouldn’t be surprised if you say that the Mermaid Houttuynia farm integrates sewer and hospital functions. .”

“What’s the matter with the abyss channel?” Ya Xiu asked, “This is the first time I have heard of this mechanism.”

“Simply speaking, the abyss does not exist independently.” An Nan said: “At least the abyss of each country is connected to each other. The channel between the abyss and the abyss is a special channel that compresses space and time, and can quickly cross space and time. Reaching another abyss thousands of miles away. It is a convenient way to move quickly when needed.”

“Since there is such a convenient way, then—”

“The only drawback is that the abyss channel will often change.” An Nan said: “A stable abyss like the Mermaid Houttuynia cordata farm is the only thing in the whole gospel. Other abysses don’t have so many living people sitting in town, and the terrain is often complicated and changeable. , It is destined that the Abyss Channel cannot be used as a regular mode of transportation.”

“The other thing is that when the magicians hadn’t completely suppressed the abyss before, they couldn’t use the abyss channel at will; when the magicians could freely enter and exit the abyss, they had invented a vehicle that was not inferior to the abyss channel.”

“Many people can’t accept the time compression feature of the abyss channel. Like we walk here for a few minutes, the outside world will pass a few hours. Overall, walking the abyss channel does not save real time, but our body feels really real. A few hours are missing.”

“Wait, isn’t this time travel?” Ah Xiu’s eyes lit up: “I have been here for a year, and decades have passed outside—”

“Let’s not mention the danger, but your body follows the outside time, which means that you have only experienced a year, but your body will age rapidly for dozens of years.” An Nan said: “If you just want to travel to the future, the surgeon has more alternatives to delay aging, and there is no need to come to the abyss at all.”

“Here I solemnly recommend the coffin dormancy method.” After leaving the Mermaid Houttuynia cordata farm, Harvey became more energetic: “Converting you into a corpse for preservation, waiting a hundred years later and then converting back to a normal person will only cause 30% of the current life to be lost, are you interested in trying it?”

Asia Xiu: “Has anyone tried it?”

“Yes, many rich people who are about to die have tried this plan, but when they wake up, they all become poor.” Harvey smiled: “There is a department in the Blood Saints Research Institute that runs this business, called The Hibernation Department, specializes in harvesting money for rich short-term seeds. Customers who hibernate seem to think that the future social medical insurance will allow them to live forever for free.”

“Those who dare not face time will also be abandoned by time.” Igola said calmly: “The synonym for ‘looking forward to the future’ is ‘abandoning the present’.”

The Panji walking in front suddenly said: “Here.”

Like passing through an invisible curtain, they left the natural dark cave and suddenly came to the brightly lit underground ruins.

Dilapidated but not old brick buildings, ten steps with a torch on the wall, and a narrow passage that only accommodates four people. They seem to have traveled from a modern city to the feudal Middle Ages.

“This is another abyss?” Ya Xiu looked at the two ends of the passage. “Why are there no monsters?”

“It means that the blue beard here has completed the daily tasks.” An Nan took off his protective clothing and mask, and said: “Even if the abyss is able to regenerate, she will have to rest and raise her baby...Since we have left Van Mula, we will perform a demon removal operation first. Completely remove the influence of beauty mist.”

Demon removal surgery can completely eradicate the addiction caused by Beauty Fog, but it is only an addiction. It can only prevent the subject from physically craving Beauty Fog related products, and the threshold that has been raised will not drop.

Theoretically, the Van Mura people can get out of this white fog city after the demon removal operation. However, for the Van Mula people who are immersed in dreams, it is easy to pull out the devil in the body and the difficulty in the heart. Except for necessary business trips, they almost Will not leave Van Mula to travel.

Panji took out six white cups from the suitcase, then he exposed the back of his left hand with the coat of arms, stuffed the white cup with flames, and slammed the back of his hand!

Because the flame burns the air, the force of the atmospheric pressure makes the white cup tightly **** the back of the hand. At the same time, spots like insect eggs appear everywhere on the pansy’s body, flowing to the white cup like a student flushing into the dining room, looking like being The white cup sucked away!

“Instrumental spirit and demon.” An Nan introduced: “In addition to eradicating addiction, it also has the effects of clearing away heat and detoxification, beautifying the face, refreshing and refreshing, sleepless sleep, aphrodisiac and nourishing yin, etc. The price of this gadget is high. The main technological products exported by Vamura are used to eradicate addiction, which is actually a waste. Ordinary people go to hospitals on the edge of cities to find ordinary medical doctors to perform exorcism.”

Now that the surroundings are safe, they will rest here temporarily to complete the exorcism operation. The Demon White Cup seems to **** the skin very painfully, but Ya Xiu found that the body feels very comfortable, and the skin is a little itchy, as if there are hundreds of mosquitoes sucking in it, messing up fat, blackheads, pimples, etc. Sucked all the dirty stuff...

“Hahaha, daddy, you’re so dirty!” Liz laughed loudly, pointing to the spots that appeared on Ya Xiu’s body.

A Xiu glanced at Liss and found that she was actually very clean. The white cup could not **** out as much as she could, and there were a lot of dirty spots on his body. It is very difficult to go to the construction site to get ash every day without taking a bath. The effect is as if there are hundreds of cockroaches crawling on the body.

“Oh...?”

Seeing a strange arc at the corner of Ya Xiu’s mouth, Liz felt bad and backed back again and again: “You, what are you laughing at... ah, don’t come over!”

“Look at me with a secret terrorist attack!”

I saw Ya Xiu hugged Lisy directly, rubbing around like a cat. Lisy was frightened by the aesthetic terrorist and failed her sanity test. She rolled her eyes and foamed, and finally took out her hand mirror: “Help, help. ...”

Feeling the trembling of Lisi in her arms suddenly stopped, Ya Xiu blinked and carefully let go of her.

Is it too much to stun her? Isn't it the equivalent of throwing a cockroach box with hundreds of cockroaches in it, so that it won't faint...

However, 'Lisi' broke free of his embrace, turned around and looked at him quietly: "Is it interesting?"

"If it's boring, it must be interesting, but if it's interesting, it's not so interesting..."

"Lisi" frowned and said with her hips akimbo, "Do you think I'm sick of it's fun?"

For some reason, Ya Xiu felt that Lisi's figure swelled and grew taller, as if she had become a big sister next door who likes to be reasonable, and he himself has become a kid who likes pranks, and sneered: "It's not very fun either..."

"Don't do this in the future, but I will hate you." Liz looked at his frozen right hand: "Does the hand still hurt? Obviously your whole body is hurt, I want you to carry me..."

Ah Xiu was taken aback by Liz. He just wanted to stretch out his hand and then retracted, turning his head and shouting to Igola: "Igola, Liz has a mental problem because of my nausea. Come on... Igola, you are here. what?"

Unlike them waiting quietly for the end of the plucking operation, the fraudster is now hiding in a blanket and nothing is leaked. You don't need to ask to know that it must have been taken from the panji.

An Nan also covered a blanket and hid on the side, and the two seemed out of place with the team.

"Children have mental problems and fight to the death. Anyway, the problem and the person who raised the problem can definitely solve one." Igola's voice came from the blanket: "You only need to pull out your belt as a tool for the crime."

Ah Xiu walked over curiously: “What are you doing in hiding, let me see—”

“Look at you dead head!”

A fist stretched out from the blanket and he hit Ya Xiu directly on the ground. Ya Xiu really didn't expect that this psychic would be a minor in the fist faction, so he couldn't avoid it!

Lying on the cold ground, Ya Xiu felt his arms and abdomen start to hurt again, so he patted himself “Le Sword”, and sat up and saw “Lisi” beside him. Without waiting for him to say anything, Liz stretched out her hand to hug his neck, put her chin on his shoulder, and took the initiative to nudge him: “Stop making trouble, I will occasionally be less naughty, but no matter which one I am , I like you all the same.”

Ah Xiu, who was held by Lisi, had goose bumps all over her body, and she felt a very strong sense of disobedience. Talking like this will make others doubt my usual way of education!

Forget An Nan and Panji, UU Reading www.uukanshu.com now even Harvey looks at me with perverted eyes, I feel that my social class in the funeral office is going to be downgraded to the inaccessible level!

I see, is this your method of revenge?

Liz, you are so mean!

Chuck.

Suddenly, everyone's gospels popped up, with shining bookmarks in the gospels. Everyone was startled, and immediately realized something.

“We walked in the abyss channel for a few minutes. In reality, more than two hours have passed.” Panji said: “It's past 0 o'clock... It's May 20!”

“The second list is updated immediately at 0:00?”

“What list will it be?”

“Is An Nan’s plan really useful?”

With all kinds of thoughts in my heart, everyone opened the bookmark together, and the title of the second list came into view—

“Family List”.

Chapter 363: Ah Xiu 1 will definitely...

Van Mura, Sennheiser Building, 72 floors.

The Red Hats were already scarred at this time, and Wright, Red Riding Hood, and Clios, Crying Red Riding Hood, were even more panting, and even the sanctuary was difficult to condense, which meant that their mana was nearly exhausted.

The battle was actually over a long time ago. Under the suppression of absolute points, the sanctuary magician was unable to break through the blockade of the six-signal patriarch at all.

Even if the patriarch of the six coats of arms can only borrow the fur of the omniscience weaver power, it is not a mere mortal who can break through.

It is precisely because of the great effect of the Gospel Points that the six-signal patriarchs will unreservedly grow and extend the family. Even the sanctuary magicians are willing to divide their souls as family insurance, and the legendary magicians are willing to devote their efforts to designing mermaids for the family. Xuancao Farm—not only a problem of family centripetal force, but also because of the family’s prosperity, it has a powerful effect on the patriarch’s personal strength. The points of the whole clan can be directly converted into the patriarch’s personal strength.

Not to mention other countries, even if you change cities, this kind of family system won't work. How can ordinary people voluntarily hand over their gospel points? Only the clansmen who have been stunned by the mist of the beauty will hand over themselves to the clan without reservation.

It can be seen from this that the first generation of six heraldry masters who operated the Mermaid Houttuynia cordata industry did not have any good thoughts. It can be said to be 'selfish to the point that I hope everyone is selfless'.

However, as time changes and dreams grow, the patriarch is inevitably trapped by the family when leading the family. The dream condenses the centripetal force of the family members and replaces the personal will of the patriarch.

Every six-signal patriarch has been immersed in the blessings of his tribe since he was a child, coupled with the subtle influence of family rebirth dreams, whether they are surly or lazy, hardworking or playful, but the most important thing in their hearts must be the family. It can be called being 'selfless to the point that they can't be selfish'.

Although it is very strange, although it seems that there are many loopholes and problems, because of the existence of these selfless patriarchs and selfless people, it really makes this weird system of Vatican and Shepherd circulate virtuously, and can even represent the advanced productive forces of the Gospel Kingdom.

The six-armed patriarch didn't use any force at all. They just made the giant Van Mula move his fingers a little, and its heavy breath was enough to crush the red hat.

But it is precisely because the patriarch takes the family first in everything, so they will not kill the red cap even if they are reborn.

As the official department of the empire, the red hat represents the dignity of Yisu and the Gospel. Even Qin Na, who was angry because of the killing of her clansmen, only severely injured Wright, and did not kill him. As for the other red hats, they were just skin wounds. After all, once the red hats were killed by themselves, they would not want to be on any list in the future.

The patriarch of the six coats of arms just wanted to drag the red hat to exhaustion. Coincidentally, Wright and the others thought so too.

When he saw Ah Xiu leaving, Wright knew that he couldn't catch up with this doomsday criminal.

But he still has to lead the red cap to entangle with the six-armed patriarch.

Because the death sniper also wanted to hold the masters of these Vatican Mula.

It was impossible for the exposed Ashiu to stay in Van Mura anymore, otherwise Sennheiser would definitely not be able to keep Ash after the Yisu royal family's order. Qin Na dared to be so arrogant, it was just a time difference.

Once Ya Xiu wanted to drive away, then the Jiahaoyueyuan office outside Van Mula could come in handy. At this time, instead, they wanted to prevent these patriarchs from snatching people back, so even if they couldn't beat them, Wright had to hold them back.

but.....

"Oh." Wright sat down on the ground, and put down the sniper gun that weighed a few kilograms: "Stop hitting."

"Yes." Qin Na said coldly: "I will lock you up and ask for sin—"

"No." Wright took out a handcuff and handcuffed himself to Clios: "I have been caught by Clios the Red Hat. If you want to transfer the prisoner, please apply to Azura Red Hat."

"She can't keep you either." Qin Na said, "You murdered two civilians in front of us. Even if we let you go, the gospel will pronounce you a criminal-this is not a royal wanted, but a hatred of the gospel. You Since then, the society has been insulated, Red Riding Hood chases and kills, the gospel is abhorrent, and there is no more place to stand and listen to the gospel."

Clios looked at Wright and stopped talking. She didn't understand why Wright had handcuffed herself to her. The patriarch of the six heraldic patriarch thought Clios would let him go privately, but the two of them were actually number one today. See you again!

Release the prisoner privately will lower the evaluation of the gospel. How could Clios do this?

In fact, Clios was full of doubts more than two hours ago.

Why would Wright prefer to shoot down innocent civilians and hunt down Ya Xiu? Didn't he know that this would make him lose his red hat, or even make himself detested by the gospel? Are you here to hunt down Ah Xiu or do you kill yourself?

Clios didn't understand what was going on. She hunted down Ash for the Gospel points, for the ranking of the list, and for the rewards of the empire. However, Wright's actions were completely useless, and she fell into the mud. .

Compared to Kia Xiu, Wright made Clios more panic-she couldn't understand the reason for Wright's actions at all, and Wright's image in her heart suddenly became abstract.

"It's not that serious," Wright said lightly, "As a sanctuary magician, there is still some way to survive."

"But why?" Qin Na asked Clios also wanted to ask: "I really can't understand why you are doing this."

"Didn't I just say it, for the gospel."

"Isn't this a slogan?"

"For you family brains, this is really just a slogan." Wright said: "However, I actually want to ask Patriarch Qinna, why do you want to protect Asia?"

At this time, the other five patriarchs also looked at Qin Na.

Although they believed that what the heraldic patriarch did was for the benefit of the family, they didn't want to understand why Qin Na wanted to protect a criminal who was wanted by the royal family, and it was definitely a bad idea to fight against the empire.

Qin Na said: "All of this starts with my daughter An Nan. Twenty years ago..."

The man with glasses said, "Please fast forward to now, Sennheiser."

"In short, An Nan has mastered the inheritance of the Duolan family. She has the ability to influence the knitting ceremony. At the same time, she knows that the second list has a lot to do with the family. In order to get her companions on the list, she decided to use Sennheiser. Er's family reincarnated in a dream to help their companions to deceive and influence the judgment of the gospel."

Qin Na said: "If there is no accident, Ashiu and others will appear in the second list, but we will also appear in the weaving ceremony with them, because Ashiu and them will become Senhai. One of Thrall."

Wright said: "Are you so sure that Ash Heath will join Sennheiser?"

"Of course, Ah Xiu's fiancée is my daughter An Nan." Qin Na raised her eyebrows: "And even if there is an accident, I have a backup plan. In short, Ya Xiu will definitely appear in Sennheiser's account. Originally."

Everyone now understands Qin Na's attempt to continue the family!

In the past, the six-herald family actually did not attach much importance to the weaving ceremony.

After all, for the six emblems that have accumulated for thousands of years, the reward of the weaving ceremony can only be regarded as icing on the cake. It is good to have it, but it does not affect life.

But now it's different. The "Art List" foretells that the future will fall into apocalyptic times, and even the gospel kingdom can't resist the catastrophe. Van Mula can only sit and wait to die.

How to protect the family, this question has been lingering in the head of the patriarch since the appearance of "Art List", and now Qin Na has given the answer-she does not know how to continue, and she does not need to know, let the knitting ceremony Wouldn't it be better to speak up?

The gospel is the omniscient and omnipotent wishing machine. The weaving ceremony is an inevitable future. As long as the Sennheiser family appears on the future list, it means that Sennheiser can survive the disaster of the end and last for fifty years. Rear.

Therefore, Qin Na must protect Ash and the others. These aliens are the ticket to the future, and bind them to escape the Ark of Doom!

The other heraldic patriarchs nodded one after another, approving Qin Na's plan very much.

If Sennheiser is really on the list of the future, and is recognized by the Gospel as being able to last 50 years later, then the six coats of arms will become one coat of arms tomorrow, and Van Mula will only be left with Sennheiser. Surname.

"But don't you think it would be better to kill Ash now first?" Wright said, "Maybe this will prevent future disasters..."

"How is it possible!" The man in the windbreaker immediately retorted, "That is the future of the weaving ceremony~www.mtlnovel.com~ how can it change? And it is impossible for a magician to create a terrible disaster that will destroy the gospel kingdom, even if it's impossible to be a legendary magician!"

"Rather than murdering Ash Heath, it is better to let him be our cursor to the future." The glasses man nodded and said, "Sennheiser did it right."

Wright lowered his eyelids and chuckled softly, not knowing what he was laughing at.

As soon as the Bell Tower of Van Mula rang, the gospels popped up in front of everyone, and there were shining bookmarks on the gospels.

They immediately realized what had happened-the knitting festival was updated on time!

The man with glasses turned it over, his facial paralyzed face couldn't help but his eyebrows rose: "It's really the "Family List"!"

The man in the windbreaker glanced at it and couldn't help sighing: "It seems that the surname is really going to be changed to Sennheiser this time..."

"Family List"

"10th in the Family List: Wuling Clan Sennheiser"

Chapter 364: Master of Sennheiser

The Wuling family.

This name looks weird, and why Sennheiser is only 10th, at least there should be a top 3...Although I complained in my heart, the joy on Qinna's face was beyond words.

Because Sennheiser successfully made the list, he was recognized by the knitting ceremony as having the ability to continue into the future!

As for ranking rewards, they are not as valuable as this certain future!

However, when they took a closer look, their faces changed.

The background of the picture can be vaguely seen to be Fan Mula, but it is different from the current steel jungle. It is a Fan Mula that is fresher and closer to nature-broken walls, ruins, benches, streets are full of tenacity The flowers, plants, and grasses, the thick white mist is like a river flowing on the ground, under the caress of the shining sunlight, the whole Fanmu La is in a “heaven”-like dream.

In heaven, there are naturally angels.

In the center of the picture, there are a large group of extremely pure and beautiful people who can walk in the sky without wings, and behave gracefully as if they are having a dance party. Their style of clothing is mainly green and white, which is the main color of Sennheiser; they don't need to mention their looks, they are hard to describe with meticulous craftsmanship. If you have to describe it, it's “I can't imagine this person at all. The appearance of shit”, the binary gender division method completely loses its meaning here.

Judging from the picture, everyone felt that the angels named Sennheiser were guarding the paradise of Van Mula.

Until they see the introduction below.

“10th in the Family List: Wuling Clan Sennheiser”

“The Wuling Clan: The new necromancers transformed with the Sennheiser tribe as the main target. They generally have basic characteristics such as [Van Mula Grazing], [Mist Healing], and [The Longest Dream].”

[Van Mula grazing: When Wu Ling is in the Fan Mula area, the white mist will transform into any form according to the Wu Ling's will, and is used to catch any intelligent creatures that set foot in the Fan Mula. ]

【Mist Healing: When there is white mist nearby, the mist spirit will not die and will heal the spirit body with the help of white mist at any time. 】

[The longest dream: The mist spirit can drag the creature into the rebirth dream. Once the creature is confused by the rebirth dream, it will be reborn into a new mist spirit by the dream. ]

“Lord of the Family: Genna Sennheiser, Nona Sennheiser”

“...New Necromancer units?”

Qin Na murmured: “Sennheiser... have all the members become dead?”

Wright sneered and said, “This is the fate of your initiative to have a relationship with Ya Xiu——”

There was a whistling in the air, whiplashing malicious ripples on the outer wall of the sanctuary that Clios condensed in an instant. Jinna, who was in a bad mood and exploded, looked at Wright coldly, and Wright immediately made a zipper movement to show that she would never smell bad again.

“Look carefully at the flowers and plants in the background.” The man in glasses said suddenly.

Clios and Lay looked at them, but they didn’t see anything special. Clios tilted his head: “Hey? The green grass on this bench...combined as if it were a human figure, or a woman.”

Naturally, these outsiders can’t see the clues, only the patriarch of the six heraldry understands what this scene means—the mermaid houத்துynia cordata has grown to the ground!

The Mermaid Houத்துynia cordata farm is a miracle ritual facility arranged by a legendary necromancer. The mermaid houத்துynia cordata will never grow outside the farm. However, in the screen, the mermaid houத்துynia not only invades thousands of households, but also almost can be spread from flowers and plants. In terms of land density, at least tens of millions of people who will die may create such a grand ostentation.

Coupled with the fact that all the Sennheisers have been transformed into evil spirits, the six-herald patriarch can easily come to a conclusion: in the future, the entire city of Van Mula will fall into extinction, and all living people will be transformed into mermaid houத்துynia, the only surviving one. Sennheiser also failed to maintain the posture of a living person, they transformed themselves into Wuling, relying on the home court advantage of Mermaid Houத்துynia to survive.

It's just that there is a small problem here-it is normal for millions of people to die because of the catastrophe, but it is very abnormal for millions of people to convert into mermaid houthuynia!

The patriarch of the six heraldry is not an ornament. If the miracle ritual of the Mermaid Houthuynia cordata farm fails, or someone tries to sacrifice to Van Mura, they will definitely stop it, and they will never watch the people turn into mermaid fish. Grass.

Moreover, that is millions of people!

Even a legendary magician has to kill millions of pigs!

Soon, a terrible but correct only answer quietly appeared in their minds.

It was no one else who converted the tribe into a mermaid houthuynia cordata, but the patriarch himself!

Only they have this ability!

And only they can make millions of Vatican and Shepherd people willingly turn into flowers!

If the clansmen had a chance of surviving, the patriarch of the six coats of arms would never make such a decision. But if the whole clan is destined to die, in order to avoid the pain of the clan as much as possible, the mermaid houthuynia cordata will naturally become the first choice of the six-armed patriarch.

Rather than drowning in pain in reality, it is better to die with a smile in a dream. This is the survival rule of the six heraldry.

In the six-herald family system, the reason why the old people with the full value of the progress bar are allowed to go to the farm to turn into flowers and grass is not without good intentions except for economic factors. Take the initiative to enter the farm and turn it into spring mud to protect the next generation of tribesmen-in the understanding of the Van Mula, it is not shameful to escape from reality. It is the best life to spend every second happily.

But what happened in the future that the patriarch of the six coats of arms would make up his mind to euthanize millions of Vatican and Shepherds?

“Jinna Sennheiser and Nona Sennheiser received the reward “Mist Spirit Ring”.”

“Mist Spirit Ring: Allows the magician to freely switch between the misty spirit and the real state, and no matter where the magician is, he can mobilize the power of the white mist of Van Mura from a distance.”

Qin Na’s finger has a ring of silver and silver streamer, but it is not so much a reward as a death declaration.

But this was not Qinna’s reward, but Nona’s reward-Qinna’s body was still sleeping, Qinna was using Nona’s body now.

It’s also a bit weird here: Sennheiser’s patriarch has always been only one person, and even if something goes wrong with Jinna, she will directly transfer power to her sister Nona, and will not continue to be attached to the position of patriarch.

Under normal circumstances, there will be no two patriarchs at all, and I don’t know what caused it.

However, compared with the fact that the whole clan becomes a necromantic creature, Nona’s recognition as the second patriarch by the weaving ceremony is really not worth mentioning, so Qinna did not think deeply.

Originally, the ranking process should end here, but for some reason, “Family List” actually popped up a video about the “Mist Spirit Ring”.

“” ended? So fast? “”

“Thanks to the reincarnation rites of the dead from Brahma and Mula, my ritual was able to be completed so quickly. Although I look down on Pangbo Ediffel’s behavior, he did leave an amazing legacy as a legendary necromancer. ””

In the video, two mysterious people are standing on the roof of the Sennheiser Building, overlooking Van Mula, which has become a paradise of flowers and plants, with white mist flowing on the ground, like a milky white river.

With their backs to the camera, one of them was wearing a dark red windbreaker and tapping on the edge of the roof. It seemed that it would take this life-hanging play to vent their inner excitement; the other was wearing a dark green cloak with chains tied to both hands and legs. , Even if the sunlight in the image is right, there is a lifeless gloom around him, as if even warmth actively avoided him.

No one knew the latter, but the man in the dark red trench coat in front was unknown to no one in the entire Gospel Kingdom.

The gospels did not intend to make them guess either—the mysterious man frolicking on the edge of the rooftop suddenly stepped on the air, and the whole person fell from the tall building, which made many people happy.

At this moment, two misty clouds sprang out from the White River on the ground, and they quickly turned into two female elves in green and white dresses. They flew up to catch the fallen mysterious person, and carefully sent him back to the rooftop. They looked similar, a mature and charming, a clever and beautiful, but without exception, they all stared at the mysterious person with fanatical eyes, just like they were Cats eager to pet and pet.

Everyone who was watching the list was shocked, and their eyes were about to stare out, even if they were the heraldic patriarch who had seen strong winds and waves.

They still think about what life they have never seen... Damn, they really haven’t seen it!

Because these two female elves are the patriarch of Sennheiser and the number two characters, Qinna and Nona!

“I just want to experience the thrill of falling, and I don’t have wings, why are you eager to catch me?”

“” But we have to protect the master...”

“Forget it, I happen to be looking for you. Kneel down and stretch out your hand. ”

“The female elves cleverly knelt in front of the mysterious man on one knee, and the mysterious man took out two rings and put them on by herself.”

“From today, you are the commander of the Wuling Legion, and these two rings are the miracle tokens I gave you. When I sound the horn and declare war on eternity, Sennheiser will be my vanguard. ”

“” Yes, master! “The female elf raised her head and looked at the mysterious man, her slightly trembling ears seemed to be expecting something. The mysterious man bent down slightly, stretched out her hand to caress their faces, and showed her profile.”

“The female elf nuzzled his palm in attachment, swearing feverishly: “Follow Ash Heath to the death!”

The image ends.

The 72nd floor of the Sennheiser Building was silent.

The heraldic patriarchs were hesitant to speak.

Clios looked at his fellow elves with strange eyes.

Wright originally wanted to say something, but in the end he closed his mouth—he had a hunch that if he still talked nonsense, he would really not be able to get out of Brahma Mura.

Qin Na, who was the client, was very calm. She glanced at the Wuling ring on her hand and pulled it out.

Can't pull it out.

She paused, drew a dagger from the loop of her thigh, and pointed her finger at—

“Sennheiser, calm down!”

“This is your sister's body!”

The heraldic patriarch hurriedly prevented Qin Na from harming herself~www.mtlnovel.com~ Qin Na also calmed down quickly, threw away the dagger, rushed to the window, and jumped into the night sky!

She didn't gather wings or open the gospel, but directly used the mist ring that had just gotten into her hands, turning into a cloud of mist and flying in Van Mura!

“Where are you going to Sennheiser!?”

“Go find our sister's master!”

Qin Na gritted her teeth, flushed with shame, and Xiafei cheeks with anger. Thinking of the condescending image of Ria Xiu and his fanatical attachment to Ash, the Sanctuary magician felt a fire burning in his heart, and his breathing became shallow, rapid and rapid.

I treat you as a pet, you want to be my owner?

You actually want me to kneel in front of you?

You actually want to touch my face?

Actually want our sisters...

When I lock you up, I will show you who is the master!

Chapter 365: Ah Xiu's revenge, it's not too late for 50 years

“Ash Heath can actually be on the list consecutively... Is this the secret of the Dolan family's inheritance?”

Azura, in Jiahaoyueyuan's office, Aina Aldor, 'the Lady of the Cicada', is also reading the real-time updates of the gospel.

She did not participate in the arrest of An Nan and others.

She is too old.

Although she is a sanctuary magician, the Countess is also an old woman. The increase of the magician's strength will not directly increase the life span, and the sanctuary magician and ordinary people will not widen the difference in the length of life. In a peaceful age like this, the magician may die prematurely because of too much soul loss, but normal people can live in peace and stability.

Although the Countess's mana is still at its peak, the aging body not only affects energy, but also affects will. Compared with decades ago, the Countess has not had the courage to become a magician at the beginning, and she has no curiosity and yearning for the Void Realm. She goes to the Void Realm like a grave every night.

Tired.

Even if Xujing is a beautiful man, the lady should vomit for so many years.

Just like a middle-aged man with impotence, he develops hobbies such as addiction to fishing, charging heads, virtual games, researching philosophy, etc. After getting tired of the virtual world, the lady puts all her heart on the business of the office.

Together with each other, friendship, network... The more wine she drinks as a magician, the less blood she sees.

Stability, career, strength, you have to sacrifice to life.

In recent years, the Countess has rarely performed tasks herself. After all, she runs the office to let her subordinates do things for her. If she opens the office and has to work on her own, wouldn't it be for nothing?

And this time there are two Sanctuary Red Hats participating in the capture operation. If there is an accident that cannot be solved by the two Sanctuary Mages, then the three Sanctuary Mages will not be able to solve it.

But unlike Red Hat, the number one target of Jiahao Yueyuan Office is An Nan, followed by others. After all, it is better to teach people how to fish than to teach people how to fish. If you can get An Nan's way of predicting the future, it will be more valuable than the weaving ceremony itself.

Yes, the Countess has been certain that An Nan has the method to predict the future!

Originally, after knowing the news that An Nan and others fled to Fanmu La, the queen vaguely suspected that the second list might have something to do with the family.

Just like putting a crab in a bath in a famous lake to double its value, An Nan puts her "tool man" in a large dyeing vat of the Fan Mula family, and it is likely to misjudge the "tool man" in the knitting ceremony. The proportion of bubbles in the value of the price, thereby impulsive consumption!

As a practitioner in the office, the Countess knows too much about the working ideas of people like them. Although the gospel has been evolving and perfecting, it still follows a rigid operating mechanism after all, and there are too many loopholes that can be exploited.

In fact, the loophole of the weaving ceremony is not a big secret. If the gospel is a beautiful girl who has the intelligence of all the locals, then An Nan's approach is to find outsiders like Ashiu and let them act as super wealthy and elegant. The son, who caused a misjudgment in the gospel, was deceived by these scumbags.

But there is a difficult point-how does An Nan know the content of the list that will be released in the future, so that her "tool man" can target the gospel?

That term almost popped out of my mind: predict the future.

But it is absolutely impossible that An Nan has mastered the prophecy faction. After all, the weaving ceremony is a miracle of the All-Knowing Weaver. Not to mention that she is a two-wing wizard, even a legendary prophetist, it is impossible to snoop on the graceful profile of the gospel.

So only one possibility remains.

"Now everyone knows that the Duolan family has the loopholes in the gospel and can use the gospels to foresee the future..." The Countess sighed, "Now there will be more competitors."

When the first list came out, most firms actually had doubts about An Nan's ability.

Just because of the distance, the only ones who really made the move were Jiahaoyueyuan Office and Xingfu Anle Office.

But now it's different-as long as everyone investigates An Nan's journey a little bit, it is easy to think of An Nan's ability to predict the list in advance. Now the offices, companies and even the royal family in other places will definitely be interested in An Nan.

Not to mention that Jiahaoyueyuan Office could not get An Nan, even if they got An Nan, I am afraid they would not be able to keep the spoils.

Time to exit.

The Countess retired, so she called her subordinates and told them to retreat. At this time, the Gospel updated another ranking.

“No. 9 in the Family List: Armor Spirit Clan·Aldor”

“The Countess” Aina Aldor was startled-Aldor?

“Machine Spirit Clan: The new necromancer unit after combining the members of Jiahao Yueyuan Office with liquid metal. It is not a complete machine, but it is not a complete necromancer. It generally has [Cloud Computing Miracle], [Electric Healing], [Automatic operation] and other basic features.”

[Cloud computing miracle: The core of Xie Ling is the soul chip, which can produce the purest thinking power. The magician with the highest level of authority of the weapon spirit can let the weapon spirit be responsible for calculating the pre-loaded miracle, and can use the miracle immediately when needed. ]

【Electric Healing: Mechanical Spirit can recover the spiritual body injury by absorbing a certain intensity of electricity. 】

[Automatic operation: Xianling is the best worker and can perform repetitive work all day long. ]

“The Lord of the Family: Aina Aldor”

In the picture, a group of silver-white robots with exactly the same appearance are working, in order, their hands are robotic arms, the lower body is a crawler that can move quickly, and the background is the mechanical barrier they are building.

The countess was dumbfounded.

What do you mean by “New Necromancers after combining members of Jiahaoyueyuan Office with Liquid Metal”? How do people combine with liquid metal? Put people in the molten iron to take a bath?

Moreover, Wuling still has some combat power, but isn't this mechanical spirit just a production worker?

But let's not say it, the Countess looked at the skills of Xie Ling very excited.

The first skill is pre-loaded miracles. Many miracles need to link multiple magic spirits. Therefore, the length of the miracle casting time can make a big difference. The fast is instant, and the slow takes tens of minutes to activate. !

If the weapon spirit can be preloaded with miracles in advance, the warfare and productivity of the magician will have a qualitative leap. It goes without saying that all miracles can be instantaneous, and even some complex miracles with high difficulty can be used at the risk; production can not only reduce the preparation time, but also avoid the cost of practice. After all, it takes dozens of wastes to use production miracles skillfully. Even hundreds of supplies!

The second skill, electric healing, means that there is no feeding cost for the mechanical spirit. Electricity is the cheapest energy source in the Gospel Kingdom. The mechanical spirit that can live by eating electricity is better to raise than a robot—the robot still has the cost of wear and tear!

The three skills automatically operate, which means that even if all the computing power of the Mechanical Spirit Soul Chip is used to preload miracles for the magician, they can still perform labor production on their own, squeezing the productivity to the extreme!

Such a pure beast-and-horse unit, who is not impressed by it!

It's cool to think about having such a powerful weapon!

But if you are also a member of the beast and horse, then you may not be very happy.

“Aina Aldor received the reward “Liquid Metal Chip”.”

“Liquid metal chip: Allows the magician to freely switch between the state of the mechanical spirit and the real person, and can still use the magician’s ability in the state of the mechanical spirit.”

Aina felt a slight cold in the back of her neck, as if something had been inserted. She closed her eyes for a moment, and countless mercury came out of the back of her neck and covered her whole body.

A few seconds later, a young Aina Aldo appeared in the mirror.

Like the Wuling ring, the liquid metal chip also has its own image—

“” Your idea is really good, UU reading www.uukanshu.com. The combination of com steel and necromancers, the interweaving of coldness and death, and the prosperous mechanical factions of the times can be used...Can you tell me the source of creativity? “”

“” Um? Because you said that you want to come to Azura to make the Necromancer, I think of Jiahaoyueyuan Office, and when I think of Jiahaoyueyuan Office, I remember that they have manipulated intelligent machines to hunt us down. They like to play with machinery so much, so let them become machinery-it’s nothing more than worthless revenge. “”

“Thank you, I will accept your compliments. So... Lady Red Cicada, or Mechanical Spirit No. 001, I appoint you as the person in charge of the Aldor Production Corps. I remember to work hard every minute and every second so that I can live a better life. ”

“” Yes. “Aina in the state of the silver robot replied: “Your command is the destiny of Mechanical Spirit. “”

Aina fell silent as she watched this scene.

At this moment, the communication she had previously dialed was connected, and the voice of her subordinates came from inside: "Mistress, what's your order?"

"Have you caught An Nan, Ya Xiu and others?"

"No, I didn't see any traffic leaving the Gospel in the Gospel. It is estimated that they have already left the Brahma by other means... Are you going to retreat?"

"No." The Countess stood up: "You are on standby, I will come to meet you now."

"What?" The group was surprised: "The lady, do you want to lead the team to perform the task yourself?"

"Yes." The Countess snapped her fingers, and a floating car flew outside to her balcony parking pad: "Since you have offended people, you should not have the luxury of retreating. After drinking for so many years, it is also time. Let others bleed."

Chapter 366: I want this dad too

From the moment the gospel popped up, Igola began to think about how to appease the angry An Nan.

After all, in his opinion, it is a foregone conclusion that the funeral affairs will have no harvest in the second list.

The assessment content of the second list is 'Love and Family'. Among the four of them, Liz is not even qualified to enter the exam. Harvey cannot answer a question correctly except for the name. One day after I met the invigilator who almost let him fall, he skipped class and didn't do his homework every day, and his score was definitely zero.

The only thing with a little hope is that Asia Xiu is the only one left.

But it's not that Igola looked down on him, it's that no matter how you look at him, this person looks like "this test has a good experience, the focus is on participating, and I will come again next time."

Although Igola hadn't been in contact with Yaxiu in the past few days, as a psychic, he wanted to understand a person's mental state without close contact at all, just seeing, hearing and inquiring was enough. Judging from the eyes, smell, voice, walking speed and other aspects of Ashiu's eyes, Igola judged that he should still be a virgin, which can be described as terrifying.

From the first meeting to the present, Igola has always felt that Asia is the leader of the cult who has not been wronged. This is the reason.

Adult males in their twenties can actually show the characteristics of a virgin behavior. The deceiver thinks about it and thinks that it may only be due to religious reasons, and it is also an extremely evil and extreme anti-social sect.

In the blood moon, there is nothing more abnormal than "no sex."

Of the four candidates, one was not qualified for the exam, one was able to avoid all correct answers, one skipped class and abandoned the exam, and one typical poor student, Igola felt tired for An Nan.

To be fair, this exam is really very simple. After all, "Love and Family" is not a difficult exam site in itself. Normal people will love love. Not to mention that An Nan also brought them to Van Mu La. The dream of family rebirth is simply a hormonal steam bath. You can reap the "Enthusiastic and Sweet Dog Series" by throwing the 'Iceberg Frosty Cat Series' into it. An Nan definitely thinks the second share. The list is stable.

However, there is a slight gap between them.

But when the future list was released, Igola knew that all the reasons he prepared would be useless.

But it doesn't matter, they still have a high probability to face an angry An Nan.

"10th in the Family List: Wuling Clan Sennheiser"

“No. 9 in the Family List: Armor Spirit Clan·Aldor”

“No. 8 on the Family List: Vastino, the Clan of the Spirits”

“The Shroud Clan: The new necromancer units transformed with the Vastino clan as the main target generally have basic characteristics such as [life intake], [sniffing memory], and [weak sight].”

“No. 7 in the Family List: Shadow Spirit Clan Mercury”

“Shadow Spirit Clan: The new necromancer units transformed with Mercury tribes as their main targets generally have basic characteristics such as [Shadow Latent], [Shadow Bound], and [Shadow Real Transformation].”

“No. 3 in the family list: Roland, a clan of the rider”

“The Haunted Clan: The new necromancers after the transformation of the main objects of the Roland tribe and the Nightmare Horse generally have basic characteristics such as [Nightmare Horse Summon], [Death Kill], [Terror Aura], and [Life Capture]. ”

“No. 2 in the Family List: The Dragon Lich Clan·Kathri”

“The Dragon Lich Clan: The new necromancers after transformation with the Keithri tribe and the Glyphed Dragon as the main objects, generally have [Dragon Lich Transformation], [Dragon Lich Cloak], [Aging Breath], [Terror Halo] and other basic features.”

How to put it, although they are indeed the same as Igola guessed, they are indeed not on the list alone. But in terms of the results, it can also be said that they rounded the entire list...

Because in the image data of each family's reward item, Ash Heath appears!

""Mercury, hunt down those who are in the dark. ""

""Roland, prepare to draw a blood line for me. ""

""Kathrie, clean up this world. ""

awesomeness!

Evil and mad!

Can't be a world!

Liz, who was staying in Ash's arms and watching the list, raised her head, pointed to the gospel picture and said, "Dad, I want this dad."

"I want this dad too." Ah Xiu said.

An Nan asked: "Axiu, do you have a legendary magician father, a legendary magician brother, or a legendary magician mother who has been missing for many years?"

"Miss, we Blood Moon people are all orphans, but I will accept your blessing."

"Do you think I'm joking?" An Nan slammed his fist against the wall, and then breathlessly said to his fist, "It would be fine if you can be on the list, but why do you keep appearing in the list? There is not a single place!"

“I want to know too!” Ah Xiu said, “I am the one who has been prostituted by the gospel! It is obvious that I am not rewarded, so why do I appear on the stage every time? I have no racial discrimination and no abuse. Animals, I didn’t write a script to be a scalper. As for framed me like this?”

An Nan beckoned to him, “Come here.”

Ya Xiu walked over obediently, and was immediately locked by An Nan.

Purple Moth sneered and said, “Don’t mention anything else, why do you want Qinna and Nona to call your master? Say ~www.mtnovel.com~Do you want my mother and aunt to be your exclusive maid!”

“Ahem, Miss, listen to my sophistry.” Axiu struggled desperately and motioned Lisy to come and help. My daughter understood her heart, and hurried over to press down on Ah Xiu’s legs, and she asked, “Quickly, dad, do you want to find two stepmothers!”

Gan, you should have been holding you directly to show the lotus blossom and hit the ground!

“That’s all the gospel wronged me, don’t you believe me?”

“The gospel will not be wronged, only speculation.” An Nan said: “You must have intimate contact with Qinna in private, so the gospel will be deduced!”

Liz also said: “I believe in what Dad is, so Dad must have done something bad!”

“Please stand on my side and think about it. If I really like Missy’s mother and aunt, would I admit it?” Ashiu explained sincerely to everyone.

Igola blinked at hearing.

No, you are no longer a quibble, and it is no different from surrendering yourself?

At this time, Harvey clapped his hands suddenly, attracting everyone's attention: "I understand why the gospel is woven in this way, so that Qinna and the others recognize Adam as masters!"

An Nan asked: "Why?"

"Because we talked about you, An Nan, when we were chatting the other day."

"I am me, Qinna is Qinna." With the force of the purple moth's wrist, Ya Xiu was about to roll his eyes: "I am not calling his master in the image."

"That's the case. At that time, Ya Xiu said that you didn't give out points and didn't give you money. You didn't ask for much but a lot of benefits. It was just a good street lamp, and then he said something that had something to do with your mother." The spiritualist meditated: "That sentence seems to be—"

Chapter 367: No. 1 in "Family List" Harvey!

Liz and An Nan only felt a gust of wind passing by, and then they saw Ya Xiu rushing to cover Harvey's mouth.

"This kid Harvey likes to talk nonsense, I will help everyone to stop his mouth..." Ah Xiu quickly changed the subject: "All in all, the future list must be wrong. After all, I have a relationship with Sennheiser. Why am I still involved in so many families?"

"Yes."

Ikola also helped Ash out: "The Sennheiser family has a relationship with us, and the Aldo family has an enmity with us. But we haven't even heard of other families. Why does the gospel link them with Ash?"

An Nan let out a long sigh, grabbed Liz in her arms and rubbed her white-haired cat's head, full of irritability: "Don't ask me, I don't know... The only thing I know is that except Aldo, all other families are the gospel. The famous consortium family, Red Riding Hood family, and political family in the country! Even if the size is not as large as Sennheiser, their influence is more than that!"

“Compared to the crime of ‘suspected making the end of the day’ in the ‘Art List’, the influence of the ‘Family List’ will be even worse this time—after all, ‘making the end’ is like you cursing at a large group of people, everyone may wait for others. If you retort, you won’t take the initiative to quarrel with you; but this time, you are naming all these powerful families into your necromantic army. As long as they want to escape this fate, they will definitely want to try to pinch you to death. !”

“It’s not me, it’s me in the future.” Ya Xiu defended: “You can’t plant everything I haven’t done on me.”

“Sorry, this is the traditional culture of the Gospel Kingdom, please get out if you are unhappy.” An Nan said in a bad mood.

In fact, An Nan also knew that this had nothing to do with Ya Xiu. After all, Ya Xiu had been with her in the Dreamland Amusement Park these days, but she was really angry.

An Nan actually expected that they would become targets of public criticism after the second list came out. After all, ‘deceiving the gospel’ and ‘foreseeing list’ would attract countless attentions, but she did not expect that the ridicule of the public targets would be so powerful—directly across the country. All the well-known consortium families are offended!

An Nan couldn’t help but get a headache when he thought of a future where all arrows would be fired.

Now her tightrope-walking adventure plan must also be revised. If it was a tightrope walking before, then the next step is to walk a tightrope while doing acupuncture push-ups—it might be a good choice to find Harvey in advance to book a few coffins.

And the person who caused this situation is that damned man!

Liz, who was rubbing her dog’s head angrily by An Nan, was stunned, feeling that she had suffered from her surrogate father.

However, Liz, who can vaguely perceive other people’s inner emotions, is a little strange. She feels that An Nan is not actually angry at Ashiu, and the relationship between the two of them seems to have become very close. An Nan plays and fights with Ash very naturally. Nao, the intensity of this interaction is almost the same as that of Aunt Bojin.

And An Nan gets angry, as if focusing on why Ya Xiu has a relationship with Qin Na and others...

Sister An Nan...No, Aunt An Nan shouldn't be thinking...

"Speak up." Panji said suddenly: "The man who appeared in the video file with Ya Xiu..."

Everyone fell silent for an instant, and looked at the man who was most suspicious here, even Ya Xiu was no exception.

"It can't be me."

Unexpectedly, Harvey left Ah Xiu's hand and shook his head calmly: "I can't do that kind of thing."

"But don't you like the necromancer faction?" Ash asked.

"I am willing to dedicate my life's work to the Necromancer faction, but it does not mean that I will transform the living into the necromancer." Harvey frowned, as if he was really angry: "Do you think the Necromancer faction is for killing Is it anti-social spells?"

Everyone looked at each other, trying to find different opinions from others.

Harvey actually doesn't mind others misunderstanding him, but at this time there is no need to say a few words: "The necromantic faction is not to create death, but to use death, obey death, and finally conquer death."

"For me, living beings and dead are equally important, and there is an insurmountable boundary between the two. Creatures struggled to survive to the last second, and finally turned into a corpse engraved with a lifetime experience. This is Necromancer's favorite gift of nature."

"Although I hate the Blood Saint Clan Research Institute, it is only because they monopolize the supply of corpses. I actually like the respect of the research institute model-the research institute will not interfere with the lives of living people. They watch the birth of life and watch life. Grow, watch life burn, watch life pass, and then take away the remaining ashes of life.”

“This is what an authentic necromancer does. The corpse obtained in this way is the best material.”

“And transforming a living person into a dead spirit is equivalent to cutting off the half of other people’s lives, ending the shining glory of life ahead of time, and destroying all the possibilities of this life... This is the behavior I hate the most. It’s better to just kill people.”

“All the magic factions are to make people live better, and the necromancer faction is no exception. The dead should serve the living, not the other way around.”

Harvey said: “I respect life, including myself and those I don’t know. I will readily plan the deaths of myself and others, but I will not blaspheme my lives and the lives of others.”

Although it sounds understandable but not too understandable, everyone who is a magician understands what Harvey means.

The faction of magicians learning magic not only learns knowledge, but also shapes the world outlook, outlook on life, and values.

Just as Igola believes that playing with rules is a necessary skill for a civilized society, Harvey also believes that only by using corpses can he lead a better life.

The technicians will try their own knowledge system to explain the world and deconstruct the environment. Although Harvey will do a lot of things that have no bottom line to the corpse, this does not mean that he has no bottom line to other lives. Even on the contrary, what he pursued in his years as a ‘controller’ was efficient and quiet. The way of killing.

The biggest characteristic of him and ordinary people is that they distinguish life and corpse very clearly. Life is life and needs respect; corpse is corpse, just material. This is difficult for ordinary people to do, but Harvey has this kind of consciousness, so he can advance the necromantic faction to the gold level.

So Harvey's speech is serious, he really doesn't think he will do such a thing.

Asking him to transform a living person into a necromancer is equivalent to making Igula become fully minded and considerate only for the sake of others. It is simply a fairy tale-level blackening and depravity.

At this time, the "Family List" is finally about to announce the luckiest award-winning guest tonight.

Asia Xiu sighed, "Come on, let's see which big family I want to offend—"

"No. 1 in the Family List: Harvey, the Blood Moon Corpse King Clan"

"Blood Moon Corpse King Clan: Archibald Harvey's most ferocious undead unit created by the fusion and interweaving of a large number of creatures, and extracted the Blood Saint Clan Moon Shadow Clan into it, each Blood Moon Corpse King has success Thousands of tortured souls generally have basic characteristics such as [Blood Devouring Aura], [Hungry Wolf Giant Corpse], [Immortal], [Gravestone Lock Soul], [Immune Miracle Weaving] and so on."

"Lord of the Family: Archibald Harvey"

Ya Xiu looked at Harvey and blinked, and everyone looked at Harvey.

Say yes, you will never blaspheme life? The gospel does not seem to believe in you.

Harvey pondered for a moment, then suddenly walked away a few steps away from Ash.

"Why, are you afraid of me hitting you?"

"I'm afraid the gospel will hurt me when it strikes you with thunder." Harvey pointed to the gospel and said, "Look, this is the end close to you. Even I was wronged by the gospel."

Chapter 368: Angel

The joke is a joke, after the return of sanity, everyone—including Harvey himself—has the idea of ‘is the gospel broken’.

You said that the Heath family, the Borgin family, and the Dolan family are acceptable to everyone. After all, although these people are still single at this time or may even be single forever, they still have the concept of ‘love and family’ in their hearts.

But the Harvey family, this phrase sounds like a corpse cooking study group.

It’s not that corpses can’t learn cooking, but that corpses don’t need to eat food such as lalafa.

Harvey doesn’t need love or family.

The other nine necromancer families in “Family List”, although they are necromancers, they still have love in their hearts, and they also know that they will continue to protect their families and barely meet the criteria for being on the family list.

And Harvey... if the Necromancer family is like the dead, then Harvey himself is the dead like the living.

If Harvey tells them “why is my heart not beating”, everyone will only think that the heart is okay. It is purely because he doesn’t want to live to cause the heart to absent from work. Harvey should in turn compensate the heart with 2N compensation.

Because Harvey was crazy.

It may be crazy in Broken Lake.

He has strong symptoms of paranoia and auditory hallucinations.

Although everyone doesn't care, Harvey often chats with Alice. Harvey can talk to them so naturally, purely because he has endless topics when he is alone with Alice.

When Ah Xiu looked for him occasionally, he could hear Harvey's laugh from outside the door. It's not the jealous smile of the cold villain, but the hearty laughter that is very sunny, reminiscent of a handsome guy with blond hair, curly hair and black skin in beach pants.

It was really terrifying, and Ya Xiu was so scared that he almost turned and ran away.

He was certain that everyone must have asked "Can Alice chat with Harvey" in the gospel, and then got a creepy answer.

But Harvey was able to lock his sickness in the coffin, so everyone ignored it. Neither Igola nor Ash did bother him, Igola didn't care, and Ash was incapable.

Therefore, Harvey may create a legion, a force, or even a sect, but it is absolutely impossible to create a family. Love and family are the opposite of Archibald Harvey.

Harvey thought so too, so he said that he was involved in Ash, but it was not a joke—he strongly suspected that the hormonal breath of Ash in estrus got on him.

At this time, Panji took out a pile of emergency biscuits from the suitcase and asked them to eat supper while watching the list.

After they watched the characteristics of the Blood Moon Corpse King clan, their first reaction was-now Harvey is about to turn over the zombie!

[Blood Devouring Halo: All living creatures within the halo range are not tortured by the blood countercurrent at all times, and even actively break blood vessels to converge on the Blood Moon Corpse King to treat the Corpse King's injuries. ]

[Hungry Wolf Giant Corpse Transformation: The Blood Moon Corpse King can transform into a werewolf form, and its attack speed and movement speed are greatly increased. ]

[Immortality: The Blood Moon Corpse King can consume the soul in his body to heal himself. The Corpse King's skin is tough and immortal, immune to most damages. ]

[Tombstone Locking Soul: Blood Moon Corpse King can create a huge tombstone. Within the scope of the tombstone, all corpses will be randomly transformed into necromancers, such as fog spirit, weapon spirit, spirit spirit, shadow spirit... Continue until the tombstone collapses. ]

【Immune miracle weaving: Immune to the negative effects of miracle weaving. 】

Almost each of these five characteristics is extremely practical, coupled with the huge body of the Blood Moon Corpse King, this is simply a war machine of the legendary magician level!

According to the previous reward situation, Harvey should be able to get an item that can freely transform himself into the Blood Moon Corpse King, which means that Harvey can already be regarded as a legendary combat power!

The gospel continues to be updated, but Harvey's rewards should have been updated here, but I don't know why the following video materials were played first.

“” Is this the real tomb of Beldette? As a magician, he actually took all his inheritance into the grave, which was too stingy, anyway, he left some for his family. “”

“” Don't try to use your weak thoughts to speculate on the thoughts of the necromancer. His descendants can't even find his true tomb, so what qualifications do they have to inherit an angel's legacy? However, they provided clues to the inheritance. In return, I will give the Beldette family a permanent rest. “”

“I dare you to say that the Beldette family will surely be moved to tears when they hear your return. “”

“In the picture, the two are walking in the passage of the magnificent golden palace. On both sides of the passage, there are statues of silver knights more than ten meters high, like huge tombstones, and like pilgrims. The golden ground is covered with splendid flowers. The patterns, but when you look closely, they are all patterns arranged by bones. They are both sacred and frightening, both bright and eerie.”

“Angel!?”

An Nan stared at the gospel in shock, Liz took the opportunity to escape and got back into the arms of Ash, and asked curiously: “Angel? Is it the kind in fairy tales?”

Yaxiu, Ikola, and Harvey also looked at them curiously. An Nan glanced at Harvey with a complicated expression, and said: “It’s not a fairy tale...I actually don’t know much about it, but the Duolan family once had a The ancestor of the legendary magician, the information he left behind mentioned angels.”

“The gospel book about the magician will only give you four-winged legends at most, and no more on it. Even if you know the term angel, the gospel will only find you a lot of fairy tales. If you look up the five-winged, gospel book I won’t reply to you at all.”

“And the angels are the existence above the legend, the family members below the divine lord. They are completely separated from the commonplace, only one step away from the sacred, and successfully condensed the fifth wing-the demi-magic!”

“Angel, the original meaning is the messenger of the Lord. This term is not a realm name, but a position name, but just like the three-winged wizard will be a sanctuary, the sanctuary will become a universal name, and the demi-theo will usually be the Lord. Messenger, so angel has also become the common name for demi-magic.”

Demi-magic!

Five-winged angel!

Ah Xiu hugged Lisy and heard it in a dream. But Igola and Harvey didn’t say anything, just nodded to remember these secrets.

Their reaction is normal. After all, they are only Second Wing Mage. They don't even know if Three Wing Sanctuary can climb up. There are Four Wing Legends behind them—although they have never seen a Demi-Wing Mage, but in the blood moon There is a legendary magician with four wings, UU reading www.uukanshu. Without exception, those comrades are big people that they can't even see. They are not the top scientific researchers of the research institute or the cardinals in the church. They can be called monsters on the social level.

Both Ikola and Harvey are extremely pragmatic people, and their greatest expectation of themselves is to climb the sanctuary in their lifetime. As for the achievement of legends and standing on the top of the world, from the time they became magicians and no longer needed to sleep, they would never dream of such good things anymore.

As for the existence of the five-winged demigods, they would not be included in their goal plan at all, and they dare not even dream of such a dream.

After all, normal people fantasize about winning a lottery, and they will only fantasize about tens of millions of billions instead of trillions, right? Tiandi Bank would not write such a big one.

Although An Nan said that this is not a fairy tale, to them, it is actually no different from a fairy tale.

and many more...

Everyone looks at the gospel—that is, these two people are going to gain the angelic heritage?

Fairy tales come to me?

Although it is a future that hasn't happened yet, if a clue can be found, wouldn't it be possible to inherit this treasure now! ?

Chapter 369: Pre-prison education

""Wow, an angel, this is a really big show. ""

“At the end of the passage, there is a magnificent underground palace. The continuous murals that flashed past I don’t know the mythology of the era. The shining dome is made up of huge golden bones. I don’t know what the remains of mythological creatures.”

“In the center of the palace, there is a huge stone coffin that can lie down in a giant. The two of them are not even tall enough to reach the coffin lid.”

“I remember that Beldit was a bunch of short men. “Axiu sighed: “Although I know that the gospel has long eliminated reproductive isolation, can giants have children with humans?” Software is allowed, but hardware is not allowed? ””

“The man in the cloak ignored Ash. He stared at the sarcophagus. His hands didn’t know what he was gesturing. Soon a huge dark green shadow rose from the sarcophagus, and it stretched out the void chains all over the body, firmly connected to the palace. It’s like being imprisoned in a palace, and it’s like relying on the palace to protect yourself.”

“You Ying: “Are you the sorcerers who have passed the test set by me and are qualified to inherit the path of my ghost? ””

“Axiu: “It’s just him. Compared to dead bodies, I still prefer warm ones. ””

“Man of the Cloak: “Great forerunner, Ghost Angel Beldit, I will inherit your glory and carry forward, give me everything you have. ””

“You Ying: “In order to determine your qualifications, my inheritance will invade your soul in an extremely cruel way, and even cause your soul to collapse. Are you sure you still want to inherit this path? ””

“Man in the cloak: “I haven’t tried the soul collapse yet, come on. ””

“The shadow laughed and got into the cloaked man. The cloaked man shook his body, and black smoke emerged from his body. If the smoke was in substance, it quickly changed into an abomination monster, with their big, hideous fangs and sharp mouths, tearing them fiercely. Bite the soul of the man in the cloak.”

“Ghost: “My ghastr path is a very fierce soul created by referring to the billions of evil ghosts in hell. Being bitten by a ghastr is equivalent to going through **** in person. While the ghastr swallows you, you can also directly absorb the knowledge in the ghastr, relax and don’t resist. ””

“Man in the cloak: “So, is this the feeling of death? ””

“Ghost: “Yes, just like a person who is dead and falling into **** will wash away all emotions, ghastrs will also swallow the target’s soul to pure knowledge and memory, which can then be easily inherited by me. With the power of ghastrs, I killed an unknown number of foreign angels and robbed them of their lifetime wealth. ””

“Man in the cloak: “In other words, my emotions have also been eaten? ””

“You Ying: “Yes, you should feel it, the soul is torn apart, the feelings are being peeled off little by little, and the huge pain drowns the reason, but you become more and more strange...If you can’t hold on, The soul will be completely torn apart! ”

“The man in the cloak was trembling, kneeling on the ground suddenly, as if he could not bear it. The black mist monsters swallowed his body little by little, first fingers, then arms, torso, internal organs, neck... In the end, the black mist monsters were already It is completely wrapped around the man in the cloak, only one human figure remains.”

“However, at this moment, the cloak man laughed wildly.”

“”Hahaha, what a fool, he really persisted until the end, but he didn’t know that this was not an inheritance ceremony at all, but an erosion ceremony! The arrangements in front of me are just to filter out the strong souls that can withstand the erosion ritual! Now I have completely eroded his soul and successfully reborn! I finally got rid of **** completely! ””

“”And you. “The man in the black mist cloak pointed at Ya Xiu and said, “Become my first ghastr after resurrection!” ””

""Wow, it's terrible. "Axiu shrugged: "Harvey, save me." ""

"The man in the black mist cloak was stunned, and another voice came out of his mouth in the next second: "Sure enough, when I saw your remnant soul emerging from the sarcophagus, I knew that Beldette, your inheritance, must have problem. ""

""How can a necromancer like you, who would rather struggle and linger, leave a true inheritance? Even if you refuse to face death, you are not an authentic necromancer at all. ""

""presumptuous! "Hei Wu gritted his teeth and said: "Why are you still alive?" Your feelings should have been swallowed up by ghosts, and your consciousness should disappear. How can you resist? ! ""

"Harvey: "Because I am a necromancer and you are a necromancer. ""

"Although I respect you very much, ghost angel, you are an antique 900 years ago. You actually want to use the necromantic miracle 900 years ago to deal with me. I don't know if you look down on time or the necromantic faction. ""

""Your necromantic miracle is certainly the best for a while, but now it has become an outdated old thing. Since you said that you would invade my soul, I began to transform my flesh and blood into a corpse cage, but you couldn't find it. "

""You think you can erode my soul, but you don't know that you are actively crawling into the coffin I prepared for you. ""

""The dead should serve the living, not the other way around. Angels who should have fallen into **** 900 years ago, please rest in my body. ""

"The black mist slammed into the cloak, and then burst out a dark green flame. The green flame didn't light anything, and finally condensed into a pair of handcuffs to wrap the cloaked person's hands."

""How is the harvest? ""

""all. Harvey reached out and pressed his hand against the sarcophagus: "This is the most precious treasure among them. ""

"The heavy and huge sarcophagus suddenly dispersed into a cloud of light smoke, and then condensed into a gray-haired old housekeeper in a black dress standing behind Harvey. It looked illusory, with a thin face, dull pupils, and cracked skin. Mark of."

"Axiu exclaimed, "After so many years of death, how can Beldette still preserve a god?" ""

""But this **** is the only one left. "Harvey said: "But if there are more gods, I can't afford it. Even this one is a great test for me. It's not that simple to control the gods with a mortal body." ""

"With this **** and ghastr path, we can finally move forward with the plan. ""

"Axiu raised his eyebrows: "Really good? It's too late for you to quit now. ""

"Harvey asked back: "If I quit now, would you let me go? You have invested so much in me and helped me through the many tests of Beldit. It's not your style not to bring back the benefits. ""

"Axiu: "Haha, you now have the ghastr path passed down by angels, I may not be able to beat you. ""

""Don't engage in this kind of boring temptation, Ash Heath. "Harvey strode back along the passage, and the palace collapsed inch by inch as he left: "On the contrary, you, don't stop me at the last moment. I don't want to do it with you. You are very troublesome, and... I am really too. In no mood. ""

"Axiu: "According to our plan, you need to manufacture half-dead Necromancers in large quantities. I remember this is your most annoying business project. Are you ready to break through your bottom line and change your principles? ""

"Harvey shook his head: "No, I won't break the bottom line, let alone change my principles. I have never wavered the idea that the dead should serve the living. ""

“It is because I love life so deeply that I joined your plan. But in order to avenge this half-dead world, we can only become half-dead corpses.”

“I will not provide you with an insensitive necromantic legion. The necromancer faction is not to create death, but to welcome the new life, so I will provide you with a group of necromancers struggling for survival, including myself—I am their banner.”

“Harvey walked up to Ash and said, “Let’s go, it’s time to burn the gospel kingdom to ashes.””

This is the end of the image data.

The crowd couldn’t recover for a long time.

Countless doubts popped up in their minds like bubbles. For a while, everyone didn’t know which one to ask first, or Liz took the lead: “What is a god? Is it the kind of goddess in the lake in fairy tales?”

“Don’t ask me, I don’t know either!”

An Nan touched her amethyst earrings to calm her mind, and she was also overwhelmed by this massive amount of information: “How can I know the details of the heritage treasure that even angels value—”

“Oh, gods are the advancement of Shuling.”

Everyone looked at Ash, and Ash pointed to the Gospel: “I just asked about the Gospel, and it replied, “There are countless four-winged magic spirits, and only five-winged gods.” It seems that when Shu Ling gathers the five wings, it will grow into a wise god, like the **** in the image, and will take the initiative to follow Harvey.”

The gospels actually answer this kind of question?

The others fell, An Nan was very surprised—after all, the Dulan family tried to extract more knowledge from the gospels, but they never unearthed the secrets on the five wings... Could it be that the Dulan family's questioning method was wrong? ? Asia is so lucky?

But everyone immediately believed this statement.

Not only because of the endorsement of the gospel, but also because they recalled many supporting materials!

“Speaking of it, the Beloved Church once said that there are countless gods under the Blood Moon Supreme Lord...” Igola murmured: “I was still wondering if the Blood Moon Supreme Lord would be afraid of being conspired by the gods in tandem, between the gods. Will there be a faction struggle... But if the gods are the sublimation and evolution of Shuling, then it makes sense.”

“The Lord of God is not the Lord of the Gods, but the Lord of the Spirits.” An Nan clapped his hands lightly and suddenly realized: “It turns out that this sentence in the ancestral literature meant this! I used to think this was a nonsense!”

Liz looked down at the hand mirror and whispered blankly, “God incarnate...”

Ya Xiu also looked down at Liss: “Huh? Did you find the foreshadowing that you didn't notice before? Let's just listen?”

“No.” Liz shook her head, pointing to the gospel and said: “Dad, you and Uncle Harvey seem to have issued a terrible crime declaration in it. You won't bother me, will you?”

Ah Xiu was silent for a moment, and said, “Liz, I want to teach you a secret.”

“Huh? What's the secret?” Liz blinked.

“Listen well, according to my experience, the first thing after going to prison is to find someone similar to your Aunt Bogin, and you will be able to integrate into the prison smoothly by beating him.”

Liz was confused: “Pre-prison education!?”

Igola snorted softly: “If I didn’t find you to strike up a conversation...”

“Then you can only continue to stay in Broken Lake Prison and eat a stable national meal.”

Igola chuckled and said, “Well, you are right. How can Lala Fatty, which is eaten safely in Broken Lake, compare to the emergency biscuits that I ate when I was wandering around the world with you?”

Ah Xiu kept nodding, with an expression of ‘you earned’, but Igola ignored his ridicule. The fraudster lowered his head and ate the biscuits, staring at the gospel picture, his eyebrows were pressed by inexplicable sadness, and he didn’t know what he was thinking.

Panji suddenly said: “However, although this image material will drop our reputation in the gospel kingdom, it is not necessarily a purely bad thing.”

An Nan’s eyes sparkled: “You mean...”

“The future list, Harvey’s rewards have not been announced yet.” Igola said calmly: “Harvey’s rewards must appear in this video, that is to say...”

When everyone looked at the gospel, their eyes were full of hot expectations.

Is the gospel to reward Harvey a god! ?

Chapter 370: Ghost King Shackles

“It’s actually... a god!?”

While the murderers who slaughtered the common people were hiding in the tunnel to watch the rankings, countless people outside were also paying attention to their own destiny.

Memphila, one of the top ten cities of the Gospel.

Like Azura, Memphis has completed a two-story city expansion with upside-down buildings. But unlike other cities, above the second floor of Memphis, it is not the public space of the city, but the private domain of the family.

A family owns nearly half a million hectares of private land!

With the help of miraculous power, this private garden has forests, swimming pools, winter snow, lava, cemeteries, sea of clouds and even hells. The most outrageous even created the 'Monferra's sea of knowledge'-in the center of the garden. A piece of white mist-shrouded sea area is really breeding ichthyosaurs and other intellectual creatures. However, these knowledge creatures will not explode the loot if they are killed, and will disappear immediately after leaving the sea of white mist. It can be said that they are purely toys for viewing and entertainment.

Just maintaining the operation of the private garden requires 80,000 servants, but the family members who live in this garden can be counted in one slap.

In the main mansion in the center of the territory, where you can see the entire garden, the girl Falyin is lying on the bed in her pajamas, her legs dangling. With one eye open, she stared at the gospel closely, her mouth pursed solemnly.

It's fine if you don't know, but because of the huge information revealed in this video, many people find it difficult to calm down at this moment.

Eharin is no exception. Even if her family owns the wealth of the entire city, in front of the legendary gods, it is nothing but dust that can be wiped out. According to the information left by the ancestors, gods and Shulings are completely different existences. If Shulings are the embodiment of 'technology', then gods are the manifestation of 'truth'.

Every **** has the great power to distort reality, subvert the laws, and rewrite physical parameters. Even they are the laws of nature themselves. Injury will cause natural disasters, and damage will make reality turbulent!

The power of the gods has long been beyond the control of the legendary magicians, and the souls of mortals cannot contain the authority of the gods!

Therefore, only when the life form evolves to a higher level, successfully ignites the soul's sacred fire, and climbs to the highest level of the virtual realm, the angels and even the gods are qualified to use the gods and hold the truth!

Seeing that the future list is about to announce the rewards, Ehalin is very nervous.

If the Gospel really rewards Archibald Harvey with that 'god', Earlyn dare to say that the whole gospel will give up hunting Harvey and others, the Red Hat will die, and even the royal family will revoke the wanted order!

Ordinary people may think that the gods are nothing more than that. As long as there are enough guns and enough people, even gods can kill you. This kind of thinking is especially strong in the magician group-the most professional and high-end magician discussion group in the Gospel Veil, its name is [All-knowing Weaver Murder Association].

This is actually quite normal. After all, under the glory of the gospel, mortals have no chance to see the power of miracles, and magicians cannot understand the gap between themselves and the gods. Even legendary magicians will have a contempt for the gods.

After all, in their opinion, if they can destroy a city, then no matter how powerful the God Lord is, he can only destroy a country, right?

Only the magician in the family who has the inheritance of angels understands that the sublimation of life level brings not quantitative change but qualitative change. The most powerful miracle of a legendary magician cannot break the protection of an angel, and the weakest miracle of an angel can easily crush the dignity of a legendary magician.

If you have to use a metaphor, the legendary magician is like the person in the painting, who can use various paint correction fluids to attack the enemy; and the angel is already an outsider in the painting, he only needs to touch the whole painting Draw torn off.

The shadow in the image is not an angel, but just the embers left by the angel, whose strength is not even one ten thousandth of his lifetime. But even so, the methods used by the shadow are far beyond miracles, and the ordinary legendary magician can't resist the encroachment and encroachment of the shadow at all.

That is to say, Harvey happens to be a necromancer and has the means to restrain the shadows, so he can stage such an epic wonderful counter-kill, completely ruining the hope of rebirth of the ancient angel.

Once Harvey has the gods, even if he can only exert one percent of the gods' power, it will be enough to overturn the entire gospel kingdom. If the **** has a defensive effect, then the legendary magician will definitely not be able to penetrate his defenses, and blasting, shelling, and map artillery washing the ground are just tickling for him;

If the **** has the power to kill, the legendary magician would just add a few layers of paper to himself, no matter how strong the high wall was like a building block.

Unless you can fully understand all the effects and weaknesses of the gods, no one wants to offend a near god.

Perhaps after hearing the prayers of countless people, the Gospel has finally been updated:

"Archibald Harvey was awarded the "Ghost King Shackles"."

"Ghost King Shackles: Allows the magician to freely switch among the 10 necromantic units, such as the fog, the weapon, the spirit, the shadow... The knowledge of the necromancers can unlock the next necromancer. The first one to unlock the necromancer: Wuling."

call.

Eharin seemed to be able to hear the whole gospel kingdom breathe a sigh of relief.

As long as it is not a god, everyone can accept it, not to mention the value of this reward is not high at all. According to Falin's vision, with the exception of Dark Knight, Dragon Lich, and Blood Moon Corpse King, although the previous necromantic units have their own characteristics, at most they are second-wing combat power, and they can even threaten the three-winged magician.

This also means that for a long time in the future, this necromancer who is trying to bury the entire gospel kingdom will not break through the sanctuary magician in combat power.

In fact, if you think about it, you will know that the gospel cannot reward gods. Although I don't know the specific reason, the records of the ancestors make it very clear that every **** is unique. As long as the sarcophagus **** in the path of the ghastr is still there, no matter how powerful the gospel is, it is impossible to produce a second sarcophagus god.

However, Eharin felt that the other families couldn't sleep anymore.

If the gospel directly rewards the gods, then it goes without saying that everyone eats and drinks well to survive the remaining few years.

If the Gospel rewards the Blood Moon Corpse King, then most of the people will die. After all, the Blood Moon Corpse King is a legendary combat power from the information.

Although it is not impossible to siege the legend, the cost is too great, so large that a single family cannot afford it. The consortiums and families who are inside the civil war and outside the war will definitely look on the sidelines and let the royal family and the red hats solve this problem.

However, the gospel rewards "Blood Moon Corpse King who takes a long time to unlock~www.mtlnovel.com~ Now the consortium families will definitely feel that they have a great advantage.

The knitting ceremony will not deceive people. As long as you catch Harvey, you will have the key to inheriting the angel's inheritance. Who can resist this temptation?

But if you can't catch Harvey and offend him to death, congratulations on becoming one of the top ten families in the next fifty years.

I want to rush but can't sleep.

If you don't rush, you can't sleep.

I heard other people rushing and couldn't sleep.

Make up your mind and finally rush, and then you will never sleep.

But... Eharin sighed, other families still have opportunities to hesitate, but her family has only one choice from beginning to end.

"Allow me to be an old role this night, allow me to happily repeat a certain beautiful story master~"

The communication ring rang, and the number is a contact from Blue Beard's headquarters.

Falin felt a little strange, so she connected and asked, "What happened?"

"Six people suddenly appeared in the Abyss Zone 3." The opposite quickly replied: "There is no moving track, it should have come through the abyss channel."

"Abyss Pass? At this point in time?"

If it hadn't been for the cultivating in the abyss just a few days ago, even Farin might not have remembered what the abyss channel was.

Normal people would not use the Abyss as an alternative way of travel. The entire Gospel abyss is unstable, and the only abyss with constant terrain is Van Mula...

Van Mula...The Abyss Channel...At this point in time...

Falyin opened the gospel and inquired about the situation of Vatican and Shepherd, and immediately understood the origin of these little mice.

“Suppress this news, block all the information channels of Red Hat, and let Blue Beard gather to block the abyss!”
