

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3624

"Yes..." Charlie smiled lightly: "He must be very angry, otherwise he wouldn't be hostile to me."

Helena looked at Charlie and asked, "MR. Wade, how did you convince yourself to accept these gifts from the Wade Family?"

Charlie laughed at himself: "I was penniless at the time. The savior was waiting for money to cure the illness. My wife has been humiliated by others in the family. Even if I have the ambition of a poor boy, reality does not allow me to refuse."

After speaking, Charlie sighed and said with emotion: "I thought, even if it's not for myself, even if it's for savior and wife, I will accept the gift from the Wade Family. Therefore, I took over the group. , And used the Wade Family's 10 billion cash to pay the medical expenses to the life-saver, and then step by step to today, and I can have it today, thanks to the original gift of the Wade Family."

Helena said seriously: "MR. Wade, the Wade Family only gave you a group and 10 billion in cash, but your current strength is far beyond the ability of this asset. So I think, whether you have the Wade Family or not, You can succeed with this gift!"

"It's not necessarily." Charlie shook his head and said solemnly: "Helena, destiny is sometimes very magical and subtle. Although I can't see how destiny exists, then I I feel that the fate of everyone in this world is inextricably linked, and it is the so-called one that moves the whole body..."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "Have you ever thought about it, your usual trivial decision might change yourself or other people's lives subtly?"

Helena said blankly: "MR. Wade, I don't know much about fate and fate..."

Charlie said calmly: "If you see a person crossing the road and being hit and killed by a taxi, you can try to push the life trajectory of the person who was hit to death and the driver who caused the accident forward for ten seconds or ten minutes. Ten hours, or ten days."

Helena asked puzzledly: "MR. Wade, what does it mean to push the trajectory of life forward?"

Charlie said calmly: "That's what they were doing before the incident."

After a pause, Charlie said again: "It is possible that ten seconds before the accident, you passed by the roadside. The driver was attracted by your beauty, so he was distracted and caused the accident."

"It's also possible that ten minutes ago, you took a taxi with another person, and the driver chose to park in front of you because he saw you look more beautiful, and after you got in the car, let him drive the car to the place where the incident occurred. Nearby, so he had that car accident."

"It's also possible that ten hours ago, you uploaded a video of yours on the short video platform. This pedestrian's friend saw it and forwarded the video to him. After watching it, he thought you were very beautiful, so he thought I have been thinking about you, even when crossing the road, I was still thinking about your short video, which caused him to be distracted and killed by a car."

Speaking of this, Charlie shrugged and said: "This is the fate I said, but the actual situation may be far more complicated than what I said. Maybe I can afford to buy a BMW for my wife. If I didn't buy that car, my father-in-law would not take that car. If he didn't take that car, neither would he. Let me be his driver, let me drive him to see an expensive antique vase..."

Speaking of this, Charlie shook his head and smiled, naturally omitting the incident of getting the "Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures" by chance in Jiqingtang, and continued: "Without these, you and me would never have any intersection in this life, moreover. It is impossible to sit in the same car at this moment."

In his opinion, fate is so magical.

Everything affects each other in the dark, and no one knows how one of their decisions will affect their own future.

Helena naturally did not understand the relationship behind Charlie's words.

She said blankly: "MR. Wade, I don't understand why you want to associate your destiny with a BMW car or even an antique vase..."

Charlie smiled slightly: "You just need to know that if we didn't have the BMW car, if we didn't have the antique vase, we wouldn't know each other in this life."

Helena was confused, but looked at Charlie a little embarrassed, and plucked up the courage to ask him: "MR. Wade, the three analogies you just made, each of them seems to have caused the car accident because of my appearance... ...Do you really think I am beautiful?"

Charlie didn't think much, and said casually: "It's very beautiful, no matter from the aesthetics of Westerners or the aesthetics of Easterners, you should be considered very beautiful."

Helena turned to her side and stared at Charlie closely, her big eyes wafting in the night, she mustered up the courage to ask him softly: "MR. Wade... if you really think I'm beautiful, then you... ...Willing...kiss me?"
