

Chapter 3652

When one person and one beast rushed to the bamboo house frantically, they couldn't help but froze in the air.

Under the staring eyes, what flashed in his eyes was a world of purgatory.

The corpses piled up like mountains, the blood flowed into rivers, and in some places, the bones were piled high into mausoleums.

Countless Mysterious Man Alliance disciples died tragically on the ground, either with broken arms or stumps, or soldiers in costumes that should have fallen into the city.

George Han staggered in the air, his eyes filled with extremely complicated emotions.

it is true!

All the tragedies that I saw in the last life in the gossip at that time were not illusions, but were most likely what was happening here at that time.

George Han was completely stunned.

His emotions were complicated for a while.

He didn't know what to say.

He didn't know what to do either.

Long time, long time...

hoo!!!

George Han's anger conquered everything, and the demonic energy also suppressed all .

His eyes were blood red, and his whole body was full of black energy, like an angry god who came out of hell.

The strong demonic energy suddenly spread from his body with anger. With George Han as the center, flying sand and rocks were blown by the wind within a few miles, and the trees were shattered.

"Huh!" On the edge of the jungle, in the bushes, because of the huge wind, the entire bushes could not help but slightly tilted.

The inside was also moving because of the bushes, and it seemed that something was moving.

"Bang bang bang bang!"

Almost at the same time, the ground around George Han also exploded with vigour, and several deep pits were blasted out at once. It slowly returned to calm.

But the ground is level, the wind has not stopped, and the sky has not been quiet.

The black clouds are surging, the wind is blowing, and the thunder is rolling!

In the sky at this time, Anti-Buddha also trembled slightly .

“Come out to me!”

With a roar, George Han directly concentrated his strength with one hand. The next second, the power of yin and yang gathered directly in his hand, and then he suddenly pushed towards the ground angrily.

boom! !

The ground exploded!

The anti-Buddha meteorite hit the ground thousands of miles away, and at the same time as the smashed deep pits on the ground, it shook the mountains for a while.

From the bushes, it seemed that something could no longer bear it, and a head suddenly appeared from the center, using the bushes as cover, and looked out quietly.

It seems to be watching something.

Soon, his eyes were placed on George Han who was high in the sky.

When he saw the devilish George Han, he was obviously startled, and even the entire bush couldn't help shaking slightly.

Although this movement is very light and unusually subtle, under the induction of George Han's consciousness, what is this?

The blood-red eyes suddenly stared, and in the next second, Han

George Han directly accelerated and dived away.

In the bushes, he seemed to feel the killing intent coming towards him, and he heard a fight with him. In the next second, dozens of people stood up with knives on the spot!

However, just when the two sides were about to touch, they suddenly heard someone in the crowd shout in confusion and surprise: “Alliance Lord!”

At the same time, George Han, who came quickly, also found the clue and hurriedly stopped. After taking a closer look, the blood-red eyes regained a trace of brightness and tenderness.

“Ningyue?”

Ningyue was overjoyed. After a brief moment of stunned, she shouted towards the surroundings: “Come out, come out, it's the leader of the alliance, the leader of the alliance is back.”

As soon as the voice fell, among the other small shrubs around, Groups of people slowly and difficultly stood out from the inside.

Although their faces were smiling after seeing George Han, when George Han saw them, he couldn't help but feel sad.

Almost all of them were painted and covered in blood, and most of them lacked arms or legs. Some simply used weapons as crutches, and some simply needed the help of healthy people to support them.

And some people can only barely crawl on the ground.

George Han clenched his teeth and raised his head slightly, trying not to let the tears fall.

"Leader!"

At the same time, the people present knelt down collectively and buried their heads deeply: "I am incompetent, I failed to protect the wife of the leader." After the words fell, Ningyue took the lead and handed the sword to George Han gently. It goes without saying that they seek punishment.

George Han smiled bitterly, glanced at the sword in Ningyue's hand, hesitated for a moment, and finally picked up the sword in his backhand.

"Someone should be responsible for this matter." George Han clenched his teeth, and the words fell on the sword. The black energy on the sword appeared, killing intent Taotian!

Chapter 3653

All the people present felt a sudden chill, and many people even shivered.

That terrifying aura, that terrifyingly high pressure, made people breathless at all.

"I am willing to apologize with death."

Despite this, the crowd still shouted in unison.

George Han gave a bitter smile and looked at the brothers: "You don't even want your life for me, George Han. You are the only one who is sorry for you, so why are you sorry for me?"

"I have nothing but endless gratitude to all of you brothers."

After saying that, George Han raised his eyes and glanced at the sky: "It's not you who need to be responsible." With an acceleration, George Han flew straight for nine days.

Standing under the sky, George Han's hands were not polite at all, and the yin and yang energy between the left and right hands directly bombarded wildly, and the sky exploded, and the light was endless.

The Book of Eight Desolations , get out of here!"

"What? You have the guts to let me in, but you don't have the guts to show up in front of me?"

You absorb all the light!" As the words fell, George Han raised his sword, and bombarded several times in a row. Suddenly, the river burst, the jungle collapsed, and the heaven and earth shook.

And these, obviously, are not over yet.

A beam of energy gathered directly in his hand, and with one hand he took out the heart of the dragon clan. George Han was not even in the mood to meditate in his rage, directly urging the heart of the dragon clan to absorb the energy around him crazily.

And with the rotation of the dragon's heart, the surrounding aura also quickly converged here, and because of George Han's huge power now, the speed of the dragon's heart's absorption is also increasing wildly.

Ningyue and the others looked down from below, and saw that the breath in the sky was a dragon and a snake, and it was very fast.

"It seems that if I don't come out, you must destroy me." A helpless voice came out at this time.

Almost as soon as the voice came out, George Han's murderous eyes were already staring in that direction, and he was extremely terrified under the rage.

"You can't come out, there is no reasonable explanation today, and I want you to perish completely here." George Han said coldly.

"You and I are already masters and servants, what good will it do for you if I destroy it? Besides, why use me as a tool to get angry? Isn't I very innocent?" Tian Shu said helplessly.

"Innocent?" George Han snorted coldly: "Since you know the master and servant, then I ask you, why did the scumbags who should be in the city get in here without my order?"

"George Han, you I buried my body at a depth of 100 meters and others can still find it, can you blame me?"

"I can't help it." The words ended, seeing that George Han didn't speak, Bahuangtianshu sighed Tone: "When you went out, they found my body and punished me with the five elements. Tell me, what can I do?"

"If I don't agree to them, they will torture me. Death, all the people who live here, including you and me, will be completely wiped out."

"Compared to now, do you think it will be better?"

George Han was speechless.

"And, if it wasn't for me, you probably wouldn't even see those people just now."

"After they captured Amelia Su, I saw that they had a plan, so I forcibly sent them away, and made an excuse to say that they were too noisy and damaged too much. I have suffered internal injuries, so I can only send them temporarily. Otherwise, can these people still be alive?" After the words were finished, the Eight Desolate Book of Heaven was still a little aggrieved and didn't want TaliGeorge Han.

"So, I have to thank you for your help?" George Han said coldly, but obviously his anger had dropped a lot.

"Thanks can't be said, you and I are masters and servants, I will naturally help those who can help you." The Eight Wilderness Tianshu finished, and continued: "You get ready, after they went out, they brought my body back to their base camp. , My excuse for temporary cultivation won't delay much time, they will attack again soon."

George Han condensed slightly: "How long did you want?"

"One day!" Bahuang Tianshu said.

Hearing this, George Han suddenly gave a grim smile: "What day do you want? I will kill them now." After the words were finished, George Han dived directly towards the ground...
