

Chapter 3666

When seeing George Han stand up, Ye Shijun couldn't help being surprised.

If an ordinary person said something like this in front of him at this time, he would definitely be swearing at him, and at the same time madly laugh at the other party's stupidity.

But unfortunately, in front of George Han, Ye Shijun couldn't smile.

He couldn't tell why, and he didn't know why.

Perhaps, he knew it was due to his inner fear, but he was unwilling to admit it.

"You... what kind of hero are you trying to be? Do you think I'm a three-year-old child?" Ye Shijun stepped back and pointed at George Han with a guilty conscience but shouted angrily.

George Han smiled slightly: "Someone Han is never stubborn." When the words fell, George Han moved his hand, and a beam of jade light gradually appeared around his body, and at the same time, a faint golden and white light slowly circulated around him.

"Kill him for me." Ye Shijun rang the bell in a hurry.

Suddenly

, Buddha's sound curled up on the eight pillars.

"Similar to the soul curse, these magic sounds are not actually human's facial features, let alone the heart and mind. They are trapped in the soul. Ye Shijun, am I right?" George Han sneered, and a pair of eyes burst into a faint cold. Mang stared at Ye Shijun quietly.

Ye Shijun's shocked pupils stared slightly, this was indeed what he wanted to taunt George Han just now.

But why, I haven't said it yet, but George Han already knows about it? !

"I'm afraid someone didn't tell you, I've experienced these things a long time ago, would I be afraid?" After the words were finished, the devilish energy in George Han was also frantically pouring out!

This person, Ming Yu of course knew that George Han was referring to himself.

Back then, in the mountains of the border town, so many demon monks couldn't trap George Han. It was only by the Holy Master's own actions that he managed to stabilize the battle situation. Now, relying solely on the eight guardians, he wants to get George Han. Rain has never had such extravagant hopes.

Therefore, even when George Han was very uncomfortable and everyone laughed, she kept vigilant and stared at George Han.

She knew very well that with George Han's ability and intelligence, difficulties were temporary, but they would never last.

The reason why she agreed to put this layer on the outer defense was just to contain George Han.

That's all.

"If you want to seal my soul, take my wickedness, as you wish!"

"Roar!"

His blood suddenly flushed red, and his black aura was in chaos. Anyone who stared at him with anger in between did not dare to make eye contact with him.

"Come on!"

Whoosh!

The ghostly shadows move like rabbits, although the real body is still standing there, but several black afterimages have already rushed out .

Before Ye Shijun had almost reacted, the dozen or so soldiers standing beside him were pulled by the black afterimage on the spot. They only moved a few steps in the direction of George Han, and instantly their bodies were completely under the black afterimage. Ashes.

"Shu!"

At the same time, two shadows suddenly rushed towards Ye Shijun.

Ye Shijun's eyes glared in horror, and in a hurry, he grabbed the two soldiers who were still alive beside him, one on the left and one on the left, and closed the door directly in front of him, while the whole person quickly retreated to the rear.

The two unlucky bastards quickly turned into light like the talented people just now, and Ye Shijun, who had already reckoned extremely fast, also suddenly felt wrong when he retreated to a safe place. He looked down, but his abdomen was cut open by black energy. A wound nearly five centimeters long, with blood flowing down the opening, turned out to be a terrifying black solidification

He raised his head in shock and looked at George Han not far away in disbelief. What kind of weird trick is this?

What a *ing terrifying power!

Can you hurt yourself just like someone else? !

Under the shock, Ye Shijun was furious, and the bell in his hand shook even more frantically.

"What the hell are you doing? Give it all to me, give it all to me!"

"Those who violate the order, behead!" Zhu Yanshuo also knew the horror, and in a hurry, he ordered angrily.

Between the eight pillars, the Buddha's sound became more urgent, heavier, and louder. At the same time, following the death order and the encouragement of the Buddha's sound, a large number of people also moved towards George Han.

At this time, George Han smiled coldly, and in the next second, countless phantoms of his body bombarded in all directions.

In other words, harvesting...

Chapter 3667

Surprisingly fast, and more importantly, the movement method is difficult to distinguish, and no one is left behind.

"Boom!"

When he started, the shadow was more like a real energy, but it was really capable of bursting. People around didn't even know what was going on, and the afterimage exploded suddenly, driving huge energy to directly blast the surrounding area. Everyone was blown up.

One afterimage is like this, two afterimages are even more so, three, four...

When dozens of afterimages exploded directly, the scene was like a blood-colored rose blooming, both gorgeous and sad, and full of hell. Breath of death. Almost at the same time, George Han's real body didn't seem to have any intention of staying. One flew up and stopped at the very center of the eight pillars .

, the move is very good."

"Unfortunately, you used the wrong object." When the words fell, George Han moved his hand slightly, and the black energy surging from his body quickly gathered.

"Roar!"

There was a domineering roar, and in the black air, the shadow of a magic dragon roared into the sky!

"Break your position first."

George Han directly slammed his right hand towards the east with a condensed palm.

Suddenly, the powerful black gas turned into a mad dragon and blasted away.

"Amitabha!" The

eight Buddhist sounds suddenly changed the sound of the previous scriptures, and collectively recited the four-character Buddha sound.

The scriptures were troubled, and even George Han was evil in his body. Under the suppression of other forces in the body, George Han felt like he was bound by himself, and his own strength confronted and attacked his own strength, so that George Han was uncomfortable. into madness.

But George Han chose to be completely demonized, making it impossible for him to draw.

Even, to a certain extent, the demonized George Han was ignited by the blood of the demon dragon, and the self-consciousness itself was hidden, becoming bloodthirsty and losing his mind. For George Han, the so-called Buddha sound was formed.

They smoked George Han's own soul, and even the demonized George Han, who had control flaws, made up for the lack of relatively clear consciousness for a while.

So, to George Han, isn't this a real Buddha's sound?

All things are mutually restrained, and there must be their mutual growth. The rules set by God have always been circular and reasonable.

George Han

smiled slightly, and it was obvious that the opponent had switched from attacking to defending.

"It's your move that I'm waiting for."

With a cold snort, the power of chaos in George Han's right hand gathered directly.

Between the reflexes and the other seven directions, there is a set of Youhuang!

With the barrier together, no matter what kind of strange method you have, you have to stop obediently in front of Emperor You.

Obviously, the other party did not expect George Han to make such a move. In a hurry, he was surprised. George Han could clearly hear the voices in the small room on the top of the column.

"Hmph, the trend of gossip, I think you lose your position, what kind of gossip are you still using." George Han said with disdain.

In the next second, the sky fire in his hand turned into a huge fireball in front of his hand, and punched directly at the pillar of the dry position.

I'm afraid the man in the column house has never seen such a big one in his life.

His fist with a fireball attacked, and after a clearly frightened cry, he was destined to only see this once in his life.

With a rumbling sound, the entire small house was directly smashed into slag, and the intense high temperature also caused the undamaged pillar base to completely ignite a raging fire.

"It's up to you seven bastards." George Han laughed coldly, looking back at the other seven pillars.

The seven pillars were completely panicked. Fortunately, at this time, the siege of the soldiers finally came to help, and dozens of masters flew directly to the seven pillars, obviously trying to defend them.

"This is what I want." George Han smiled coldly.

"Take ours, and give it back to me obediently, you dead brothers, you can see clearly."

"The slaughter, start now!"
