

Chapter 3716

“George Han, we are back.”

Hong Luan shouted loudly, and sure enough, she brought the gang of Devil Cloud Ghost City Hit, go and return.

It’s just that all the people at this time have bloodstains on their bodies.

As for the source of the bloodstain, it was obvious that they were all the soldiers who should be in charge of guarding the gate.

“Damn!” Zhu Yanshuo was instantly angry, and he stood up abruptly. The anger in his eyes was almost raging, and he couldn’t wait to swallow Hongluan and his group on the spot.

“You gang of pariahs, even the city was beaten, and you didn’t go to take revenge, but instead helped the enemy, is your * eaten by dogs?”

“As a demon, now you are fighting for a human being The same clan took action, and your three views were also eaten by dogs?”

“Finally, after all, you are considered as ambitious people who have fought with us, but you played this sneak attack while the city defense was empty . Are your morals eaten by dogs again? ?”

When he opened his mouth, he asked angrily three times, which was enough to show how angry Zhu Yanshuo was at this moment.

Hongluan smiled lightly: “Zhu, don’t tell us these hypocritical tricks by standing tall as if you can look down on people. I didn’t want to respond to you, but I’m so disgusted by your hypocritical sanctimonious appearance. It looks like it.” When the words were finished, Hong Luan sneered and said: “First, George Han helped us destroy the Demon Cloud Ghost City, but he is not our enemy, but our benefactor.”

“Gui Zun The rule is brutal, anyone under his command is under high pressure to survive, and the terrain of Devil Cloud Ghost City is bad, we have long wanted to do it, so let’s make it clear that George Hanzhi actually helped us get rid of it, and it is too late for us to be grateful. Well. Secondly, I, we are

As Guizun’s subordinates, since Guizun is dead, our little brothers can’t escape death. “

George Han didn’t kill us, but instead gave us enough money to start our life again. This is equivalent to the grace of re-creation. We are returning it now. Is there any problem?” “

“As for your second point, that’s easy to handle. It’s true that we are demons, but what is George Han?” Isn’t that the goddess Zhu Chengzhu himself admitted? Why, if you allow City Lord Zhu to hold a banquet to thank you, won’t you allow me to express respect? “

As for the last point, this is even more funny. On the battlefield, what we pay attention to is the formation of troops, and we play with the change of reality and reality. As a city lord, you have made huge mistakes in your own formation, but you should blame it on The enemy is too smart, I said something ugly, City Lord Zhu, you are probably too irresponsible, right? With such a wave of counterattacks, not only did the gang of Demon Cloud

Ghost City shout on the spot, but also said that Zhu Yanshuo's face was blue and purple, and his lungs contracted rapidly because of anger.

Originally wanted to stand on the moral high ground and attacked The other side tried to disintegrate the other side's military heart. But I didn't expect that the woman in front of me had sharp teeth and sharp mouths, and her mind was so flexible that she would not be able to be sent to the army by stealing chickens, but she would eat a handful of rice.

"You..." Zhu Yanshuo He was about to scold in a cold voice.

But just when he was about to say it, Ming Yu reached out his hand to stop Zhu Yanshuo.

Zhu Yanshuo was unwilling and looked at Ming Yu incomprehensibly . He lost in words, why not let him refute?

But when he put his eyes on Ming Yu, he saw that Ming Yu had been staring straight ahead at this time, and the expression on his face was also very vigilant.

It seemed that , As if facing a great enemy. Following

Ming

Yu's gaze, at this time, behind the Demon Cloud Ghost City, and outside the gate of the City Lord's Mansion, another group of people walked in slowly.

Wearing white clothes, this group of people covered almost all the troops while being extremely clean, and they also wore uniform hats on their heads.

The hats are pulled very low, and when viewed from a normal angle, let alone want to see their appearance, they can't even see a nose at all.

Seeing this group of people come in, Zhu Yanshuo also immediately shut up, because it is obvious that the other party's group of people is not simple.

Almost everyone is a good player in their own way, and what is even more terrifying is that dozens of them are absolutely top super masters, even if they are compared with the four masters of the Black Mountain Demon Girl who should fall into the city, they are not inferior. But the number is far more than the four masters.

Who are these people?

never seen before.

Even though the Luocheng is located at an important gorge, and there are so many strange people passing by, this kind of white clothes and such a tightly wrapped dress is almost never seen.

Where exactly these people came from is a huge question.

In the white-clothed group, similar to Devil Cloud Ghost City, the person headed by them is also a person with a graceful figure, she took a step forward under the protection of a few followers, looked at Ming Yu, and said softly: "We don't want to if there is a conflict with you, as long as you hand over George Han, we can leave immediately."

She finished, but the attendant next to her said in a rude voice: "Of course, if you don't, don't blame us for being rude. "

Joke, do you think you are amazing when you break a city? Don't you open your eyes and take a good look, no matter how many elites we have in this city lord's mansion, even a few hundred of you dare to stand tall in front of us. Angry?"

"That's right, if you are acquainted, you can leave as soon as possible, and we don't need to hold you accountable for your rude behavior, otherwise..." The commanders said in a cold voice without showing weakness.

"Otherwise what?" The entourage said in a cold voice.

"Otherwise we will treat you as an act of war, and what does an act of war mean, I'm afraid I don't need to say more?" said a commander.

The entourage smiled lightly: "War act? Don't you think that you threaten us with such words, is it actually no different from a fool?"

"Since we dare to attack the city, are we still afraid that you will meet?"

After the words fell, the dozen or so masters suddenly stood up from the rear, almost all of them were already in a state of magic, ready to fight at any time.

Ming Yu raised her hand lightly, preventing the conflict of subordinates' words, smiled slightly, and looked at the woman in white: "I see that although your Excellency is plain clothes, the materials are all first-class and first-class goods, presumably, yours The family background must be rich or not."

"Since this is the case, I have to remind you that the more powerful the family, the more careful it is to handle external relations, otherwise, it will easily damage the foundation and move the foundation.

" The forces behind the fall of the city must have been thoroughly investigated based on your family background, and are they going against us?"

Although the situation is very bad, at least it may not be a real dead end. Ming Yu had been observing carefully while they were talking, and finally let her find some flaws.

That's what the other person is wearing.

Obviously, the other party should know the details of the Luocheng, and they are not willing to face it directly to have any conflict with the Luocheng, so they will deliberately dress like this.

What Ming Yu has to do is naturally not to miss such a detail.

Sure enough, after hitting the snake and hitting seven inches, when Ming Yu said these words, the other party obviously did not immediately fight back like he did just now.

Instead, it fell into silence.

After a long time, the woman in the lead opened her mouth and smiled softly: "Your observation is very subtle, and your mind is flexible. Yes, we do not want to have a head-on conflict with you."

"That's why I persuade me."

"You don't have to test my bottom line, my bottom line is very simple, that is to take George Han out of here safely, there is no room for negotiation."

Zhu Yanshuo roared angrily: "Damn, how dare you talk to our special envoy of Shenlong like this. Well, since you said the bottom line, we might as well make our bottom line clear to you."

"We can discuss anything, but don't be foolish about George Han." As soon as

Zhu Yanshuo's voice fell

, the woman in white looked at Mingyu and said, "Is what he said also what you meant??"

Ming Yu thought for a while, that George Han was their goal, and it was the only opportunity of this magnitude, obviously, it must not be missed.

Therefore, she nodded: "Exactly." The woman in white was silent for a moment, then nodded: "Since you have your bottom line and I have mine, it means that there is no talk between us."

"I'm sorry then. That's it." As the words fell, a few entourages gently supported them and took a few steps back. At the same time, a dozen or so top masters also led hundreds of masters to rush out.

They dispersed the two teams, attacked Ming Yu and others all the way, and went straight to help George Han all the way.

"*, what are we still doing? Killing them." Hong Luan also sneered and led his troops to charge directly toward the group of soldiers.

A bigger melee begins now..
