

Chapter 3724

I can only hear a ping-pong sound at the scene.

These sounds even startled the white-clothed masters who were running away.

After all, they can definitely expect someone to chase and kill them all the way, but who can predict that the chasing soldiers behind them are not shouting and shouting, but a ton of metal rattling.

However, just when these white-clothed masters turned around in horror, they were almost the same as those who deserved to fall behind them. They only heard the banging of ping bells and pongs, and the weapons in their hands fell collectively.

At the same time, this group of people did not look like a master at all, and they opened their mouths wide, looking at the mid-air in disbelief.

Blood fog filled the air.

But George Han still vomited blood and did not move.

On the contrary, it was Ming Yu, who was opposite him. At this time, he tightly covered his chest with one hand, and the appearance of the blood on his mouth indicated that the blood mist was obviously sprayed .

“How come?” Ming Yu looked at George Han in horror.

“I said it, you miscalculated.” George Han smiled lightly: “I paid the price for underestimating the enemy, and you are the same.” When the words fell, George Han withdrew his confronting hand and raised it slightly, He waved at Mingyu and made a goodbye gesture.

Without the guidance of George Han’s hand, Ming Yu’s entire body fell from the air like a catkin with a broken line.

Ming Yu thought about struggling, but the body was severely damaged by the huge energy of Han 3,000, and dozens of meridians were directly broken.

No matter how she wants to re-stabilize her body, the end is already doomed.

boom!

With a loud bang, Ming Yu’s mysterious body slammed heavily on the ground from the air, and at the same time a muffled sound was heard, it also smashed deeply on the apex of everyone’s heart.

It should be said that it was deeply smashed into the hearts of everyone who should fall.

What is Mingyu?

She is the special envoy of Shenlong, the highest-ranking person here, and at the same time, she is also the highest commander of this group of people. Her fall will not mean his fall, but their leader, their backbone.

Quiet.

Deathly tranquility.

No one even took a breath at this time.

They were stupid, so were the people in Devil's Cloud Ghost City, and even the white-clothed masters were stupid.

All of them thought that George Han had been defeated.

However, who would have thought that at this critical moment, there would be a dramatic reversal in the plot?

Han three thousand won! !

Everyone was stunned, not knowing what to say. Until the next second, a roar suddenly erupted from the entire crowd: "The enemy general has been defeated, brothers, kill me."

"Kill!

More than one grade, they are murderous, they are full of confidence.

On the other hand, the elites who should fall into the city, for a while, the anti-Buddha was beaten into the bottom of the valley. Facing the ferocious attack of Devil Cloud Ghost City and a group of strange beasts, they did not resist. They even forgot that there was an option to resist, and hurriedly hurried. He lost the weapon in his hand and fled in all directions.

Even the main general has been resolved, who still has the mood to fight again, and who still has the confidence to fight?

The situation that was originally a powerful enemy was now tilting in the other direction.

"George Han is also okay?" On the other side of Baiyi, the attendant even took off the hat on his head in surprise, with his eyes narrowed into a slit, trying to see George Han in mid-air clearly.

But he did see clearly that George Han was still standing in the air, not so handsome, but his aura was absolutely like the master of the peak, looking down on the world.

"It's interesting." The female leader smiled clearly. Even she herself had never thought that the plot would turn so dramatically.

Even the storyteller under the bridge would never dare to say that.

"You should really be happy, at least, he explained that you didn't misunderstand, and your decision is not absurd, but this!" After the words were finished, the entourage gave a thumbs up, and there was no need to say more praise.

The female leader smiled slightly: "What are you still doing, why don't you hurry up and help?" The attendant smiled, nodded, and waved their hands, ordering the white-clothed masters to turn back to attack and rush back to the killer.

“Kill!”

Suddenly, the sound of killing sounded again, and in cooperation with Devil Cloud Ghost City, the entire city lord’s mansion sounded like the sky, and a show belonging to George Han officially kicked off...

Chapter 3725

Dog, is a very ferocious animal.

It can bite you like crazy at any time.

They are flexible, have a pair of steel teeth, and like to fight in groups. Even in the wild, even in the face of beasts that are more ferocious than them, they are often not timid at all, but will be cheap.

But in one case, it was an accident.

Fall into the water!

Usually, the dog will panic, and this is the best time to attack them.

Therefore, since ancient times there is a saying called beat down dogs.

This kind of thing is happening in the mansion of the city’s main mansion.

As the morale of George Hanyi was booming, the morale of the fallen city completely changed and fell to a new height.

They fled, throwing away their helmets and armor, not to mention the fact that their positions were in chaos, even the entire army had completely collapsed.

Not to mention them, even those experts know that the situation is over, and no one wants to besiege George Han again at this time. They just want to get out of here quickly and flee for their lives.

Even at this time, there are still some tenacious and loyal people who are still reluctantly resisting, but for the overall situation, it is no different from a grain of sand in the ocean. Not only does it have no effect or significance, but it is even more bitter and miserable. .

And the strange beasts without restraint began to rampage. The dragons were like runaway horses, and they killed countless people when they flew up.

There is no need to say more about the white-clothed masters. The masters who are unstoppable penetrate into the crowd, and it is as easy as chopping melons and vegetables to prevent Buddha. The soldiers and masters who should have fallen into the city have completely become living targets in their eyes.

Zhu Yanshuo was pale and in a trance, his eyes were full of despair and unwillingness.

“Why is this happening? Why is this happening?” He shook his head weakly, as if talking to himself, but also like a roar of an incompetent waste of himself.

He doesn't understand, and he doesn't understand, why is such a sophisticated deployment, why such a strong defense and delay, but in the end it will be such an unacceptable result?

He shouldn't!

“It's all like this, and it's all such a good soldier, but I still don't understand how he, George Han, can persist until now.”

“Also, he can still be brought down even now . Our special envoy of Shenlong.”

“Could it be that George Han is really what we said? He is not human at all.”

He is a god, and only gods can do these things that mortals are impossible to do.

“Yes, he is really a god. We should have known this when he destroyed Demon Cloud Ghost City. What kind of existence is Demon Cloud Ghost City

? The years have not been shaken. However, these have completely disappeared in the long river of history because of his George Han.”

“How can we provoke such a monster?”

“We were wrong, really It's wrong, it's ridiculous.”

“Yeah, George Han is invincible.”

A group of commanders muttered, and their bodies began to retreat slowly and continuously.

As the commanders of the various departments that should fall into the city, even they no longer have any will to fight, they just want to evacuate here quickly, and they just want to save their own lives.

They don't need to mess with people they shouldn't, and they don't need to fight an invincible enemy.

A more loyal commander pulled Zhu Yanshuo's arm: “City Lord, our defeat is already decided. Take advantage of the fact that there are still troops to resist reluctantly. Let's withdraw.”

“If you don't withdraw, it will be too late.”

Zhu Yanshuo slammed away the The man's hand glared angrily: “Don't talk nonsense any more, as a general, you deliberately ruin our army's heart, what is your intention?”

The man was also speechless, and sighed helplessly: “City Lord, recognize the reality. “

No, no, no, it's impossible. He George Han can't win, and I will never lose to him if I should be the elite. Kill, kill, kill me.”

He roared incompetently. , but looking back at the battlefield, in fact, there is no need for others to say more, a large number of the elites of the deceased are falling, and a large number of masters of the deceased are also being annihilated...

the army of the deceased is being defeated.

“City Lord, bring the special envoy of Shenlong, let’s... let’s withdraw.” Several commanders looked at Zhu Yanshuo earnestly.

Zhu Yanshuo was silent for a while, looking back at George Han in midair.

Suddenly, his entire body trembled suddenly, and he was stunned to find that George Han was staring at him coldly...
