

Chapter 3732

Watching Mingyu's actions, George Han shook his head helplessly: "Actually, you had the opportunity to leave, even if That formation won't sleep me for long, but it still takes time for me to find the prison."

"Take this opportunity, you can take your troops out of the city to escape, I can't say how good you can be, at least the defeated army will still be. If you can have a complete army to escape with you, it's not that there is no chance to make a comeback."

"But Mingyu, you are too greedy. Even if you have been defeated, you still want to bring it with you. Amelia Su and the others should be used as bargaining chips in their hands."

"This is also destined, you will pay your price for greed."

"I can let you live, you let everyone here, and then you can leave." George Han Thousands.

"Just us?"

" Zhu Yanshuo shouted angrily: "George Han, are you talking in your sleep?"

"If that's the case, then Mingyu leaves alone, and everyone else must stay here." George Han was cold Disdain.

"You dare!" Zhu Yanshuo yelled angrily: "George Han, what are you pretending to be with us here? Yes, you have the upper hand now, but so what? Your wife and your brothers are still with us. Under the hands. It's a big deal, the fish will die and the net will be broken."

Ming Yu also said coldly: "George Han, Amelia Su and their group have more than this number of lives."

"For me, Amelia Su is my everything, before this point. It won't change, it won't change now, and it won't change in the future." George Han nodded and said, "For Amelia Su, even if I, George Han, sacrificed my life, I would never blink."

"But..." George Han

Qianhuafeng turned and stared at Mingyu suddenly: "That's Amelia Su and I's son and daughter."

Immediately, George Han shouted angrily: "Today, in the book world that day, thousands of brothers' lives are still alive. Waiting for my report, the eyes of thousands of brothers are staring at me in the sky!"

"What else am I talking about?" After a while, George Han said: "I want to save people, However, if you insist, that's fine. Today, I will kill you first to gain some benefits for the deaths of those brothers. In the future, I will destroy the old nest of your gang of thieves. Qian Zihui will go down to accompany Amelia Su without any worries."

"George Han, my mother**** doesn't believe it." Zhu Yanshuo countered loudly.

George Han didn't ignore him at all, he just stared at Ming Yu coldly. After a while, he smiled slightly:

"You and I have had a lot of contact , do you believe it?"

Ming Yu staggered slightly, and for a while he Trance.

She knew that George Han absolutely loved Amelia Su, but she also knew that George Han was indeed a loving person who treated his subordinates as brothers.

He did what he did to abandon the world for Amelia Su, but it was not impossible for him to abandon the world for his brother!

These are two choices, but Ming Yu's call for a moment doesn't know which side to lean towards.

She didn't dare to speak out, because it was obvious that any wrong direction at this time would bring herself to a point of no return.

She's stepping on a tightrope!

"Three thousand, let go and do it, just because I care about you, so I will not let you fall into the predicament of inhumanity and injustice. You have to avenge your brothers, you know? I will wait for you under Jiuquan. When the words were over, Amelia Su glared at Ming Yu in a cold voice: "Ming Yu, you have used me to make George Han feel sorry for his brothers once, and there will be no second time."

There is still a trace of conscience, I ask you to give me a good time."

Seeing Amelia Su closing her eyes resolutely, Ming Yu was obviously a little panicked.

One was determined to die, and the other was unwilling to let go of the great hatred for the sake of their children. Could it be that George Han would really...

Thinking of this, a trace of surprise flashed in Ming Yu's eyes, and Zhu Yanshuo also panicked in an instant, and hurriedly knelt down. Mingyu begged for mercy: "Elder Shenlong, don't, don't...don't leave me, don't..."

"You have five seconds to think about it." George Han said coldly: "Five, four, three, Two, one!"

"Time is up." As the words fell, George Han raised the jade sword in his hand, and the cold light rose up...

Chapter 3733

"Amelia Su, I can stay, my people, but also take away, otherwise..." Ming Yu's heart is a little bit Imaginary.

Because once it collapses, it is death.

George Han shook his head helplessly: "I'm obsessed with it!"

"At most 30 places are given to you, and everyone else has to stay." Mo Yang said.

"Okay!" In a hurry, Ming Yu hurriedly agreed without even thinking about who said it.

She was shocked by George Han's eyes, and she had no doubt that if she didn't agree at this time, George Han would immediately take action.

So, she subconsciously agreed.

However, when she regained consciousness, she suddenly noticed something was wrong, and when she looked up at George Han, George Han sneered and looked at him: "Okay, for the sake of our acquaintance. Come on, I'll give you 30 places."

"You can go out and choose someone, I'll give you a stick of incense ." When the words were finished, George Han turned sideways and gave way to the prison.

Ming Yu knew that he had been tricked.

George Han was simply playing himself, and at the most critical moment, Mo Yang instantly read what George Han meant, so he chose to help.

But myself...

"George Han, it's yours." After suffering from the dull loss, Ming Yu was really depressed, glared at George Han viciously, waved his hand, and after letting the soldiers let go of the crowd, he led his men out of the sky. prison.

After the group left, the remaining Mo Yang, Amelia Su and the others could not help but let out a sigh of relief, and greeted them with joyful expressions.

"From the first day the war broke out outside, we knew that you would definitely come to save us, but how could we know that it would take several days."

"Yes, but no matter what, he always came."

"Hey, hey, I said that you are happy and happy, but you shouldn't make a way at this time because you should know the fun. What kind of monsters and snakes are you? Amelia Su is the heroine at this time."

Accompanied by Liu Fang's teasing , everyone just gave up a way.

George Han and Amelia Su stared at each other affectionately, but at this moment speechless is better than ten thousand words.

"Kiss one, kiss one." Liu Fang coaxed.

Along with her coaxing, other people in the prison also coaxed.

Amelia Su's face blushed suddenly, and George Han was a little embarrassed for a while, but she couldn't help but get closer.

Amelia Su put her finger lightly on George Han's mouth and said with a smile: "Kissing or not kissing is also a private matter of our husband and wife. Do they want to see how to buy tickets?"

"Hahahaha."

Everyone laughed. Immediately afterwards, Liu Fang said: "Amelia Su, what you said is wrong, the three thousand kisses are to thank you, that is his business, how can it be related to us."

“Thank me?” Su

Amelia Su Full of question marks.

“If it weren’t for you to turn the tide this time and support you, I’m afraid that the three thousand people would not have to rush to the prison. Our bodies would have been seen in the Bafang World.”

Liu Fang finished the words, and everyone nodded in unison.

Amelia Su smiled bitterly: “Actually, the biggest credit this time is Zi ***.” After the words were finished, Amelia Su took Zi Qing’s hand and brought her to George Han.

Zi Qing’s face was pale, but she still couldn’t help being a little shy at this time: “I don’t have any credit, usually everyone takes care of me, and when everyone needs my help, I will try my best to do what I can.

” Qing, you are being humble. Although Amelia Su is powerful, she has always been invincible with both fists and four hands. If it weren’t for you, how could it be possible to deal with hundreds of masters and elite soldiers in one go.”

“Sister Amelia Su was just unconscious with her back on her back . If you don’t, she alone is enough, this time, it’s all the credit of Sister Amelia Su, and it has nothing to do with me.” Ziqing shook her head.

“You two, played a group of masters?” George Han looked at Ziqing and Amelia Su with a little surprise. In his impression, these two should be...

“Don’t talk about this, Senior Sister Qin Shuang and Mo Beitian The situation is not very good, let’s leave here first and talk about it later.” Amelia Su interrupted George Han’s curiosity in time.

After a glance, everyone was tired and haggard. George Han nodded: “Okay, let’s get out of here first.” After that, George Han led everyone out of the cell quickly.

At this time, the fall city also seems to have ushered in a big change.

Divine dragons hovered in the sky, strange beasts lined up on the ground, and in the center, a wailing rain led the people who should fall into the city to wait depressedly.

After the war subsided, countless heads of civilians also protruded from the high walls of the city lord’s mansion. They quietly watched the scene...
