

Chapter 3750

George Han nodded slightly.

He didn't talk nonsense, and said slightly: "I also heard Silong mention that the heart of the dragon family has been obtained by you?"

George Han did not deny: "Yes."

"The heart of the dragon family must be used for the dragon family. I don't need to say more, with it, the dragon clan can rise, but without it, the dragon clan will inevitably wither."

"Since the last time we experienced the battle of gods and demons in Xuanyuan world, the leader of our clan and it completely disappeared in Xuanyuan world. We also sent people to communicate with the top of the Blue Mountains, and went down to Xuanyuan World several times to look for it, but to no avail."

"After that, the dragon clan gradually withered away, and finally had to lead the clan and gradually hide in this world. "

It's ironic. Back then, the dragon clan stood on the right side, and they were incompatible with the demon clan, but who would have thought that after the war between gods and demons, the final was the land of the demon clan. Somewhere."

"We killed demons and eliminated demons, but in the end, we became demons and became the character we hate the most."

At this point, the old man sighed endlessly.

"Back then, I once tried to prevent my dragon clan elders from participating in the war. However, in my body, the persuasion failed, but it strengthened my clan chief's determination to participate in the war. I don't blame him, at least as far as my identity in the dragon clan is concerned, what I do is If you oppose it, you should do it."

"I hurt them, and I hurt him too, with a lot of sin." He sighed.

When the words fell, he suddenly turned his head and looked at George Han: "It has been unknown how many years have passed since the annihilation of the dragon clan, and if this goes on, I believe that the dragon clan will disappear completely from this world, so I am here to find you. ."

"Do you want to return to the heart of the Dragon Clan?" George Han asked.

In fact, George Han is not very interested in the heart of the dragon family

. Just because of the existence of the dragon, it is destined to return to the dragon in the end.

What's more, now that the Dragon Clan has come to ask for it in person, George Han has no excuses.

Unexpectedly, the old man shook his head: "No."

“The heart of the dragon family is the foundation of the dragon family, there is no falsehood. But after ten thousand years of decline, the current dragon family wants to rely on the heart of the dragon family to return. The peak is already unrealistic.”

“It’s like a terminally ill person, wanting to rely solely on drugs to maintain it is simply a fantasy, a fool’s dream.”

“His only hope of surviving is to remove the pain and start again.”

George Han can understand what he said, roughly meaning that the dragon family has completely declined after losing the heart of the dragon family for many years, and has gradually become accustomed to the current life because of the lack of the heart of the dragon family for too long.

Therefore, even if the heart of the dragon family returns to the dragon family, the actual effect and significance are not very big.

“You are the one who healed my dragon clan, so I hope you can help us.” He looked at George Han and said.

“Me?” George Han frowned and said, “In addition to returning the heart of the dragon race, what can I do to help you?”

“You don’t know enough about yourself.” He smiled softly: “You will be slow in the future. Slow and clear, there are some things that I can’t say, and I can’t tell you, but the only thing I can tell you is that you are the only hope for the rise of the dragon clan, and the only choice for the rise of the dragon clan, but to help us or not, the choice is yours. Come on.”

George Han was slightly taken aback, but this choice was a good choice: “Linlong is my friend, and I promised earlier that I would help the dragon clan rise, so I don’t need to answer this question a second time.”

“Someone Han is not a hero, but he also knows that a promise is worth a thousand dollars.”

Hearing George Han’s words, the old man was very happy: “I represent the whole dragon clan, and also on behalf of all the ancestors of the dragon clan, thank you in advance. Pass.” After he finished speaking, he suddenly looked at George Han, hesitating to say anything.

Seeing him like this, George Han smiled slightly, and said, “There is no one else here, so it’s okay to speak directly.”

He shook his head and pointed to the sky, as if to imply that there is a sky beyond the sky.

George Han gave a wry smile and shook his head helplessly, taking it as an excuse he didn’t want to say.

However, just when George Han gave up, he suddenly waved his hand, motioning George Han to come closer to him.

George Han hesitated for a moment, but he did as he did. Then he whispered in George Han's ear and opened his mouth cautiously...

Chapter 3751

"Since you are willing to help the Dragon Clan, I will also disclose a secret to you in advance."

"Your choice is right, it is definitely not here. Alarmism is definitely not intended to threaten, but to tell the truth."

George Han nodded.

"If you don't choose to help us, in fact, you don't know what you will do next. You only know one thing, and that is that you will have a huge loss."

"When the four dragons returned, they revealed the whereabouts of the heart of the dragon family. I came to you on purpose to get back the heart of the dragon family."

"But, fortunately, I didn't know if you were a good talker at that time. After all, the heart of the dragon family is a supreme treasure, and the person who took it is unwilling to return it. It is also very possible, so if such a situation occurs, it will inevitably be a battle between dragons and tigers."

"My clan is weak, it is not what it used to be, if you want to fight against gods like you, who will die? So, before leaving, I went to the Dragon Clan's old temple to ask the ancestors."

"It doesn't matter." Speaking of this, his eyes are still full of shock. Obviously, his questioning ancestors did not know whether to ask Which great ancestor came out.

There are many ancestors of the dragon clan, and there are many famous dragon clan bosses known to outsiders alone.

Such as Yinglong, Zhulong, Zulong, if any one is taken out, it will shock the world.

However, looking at the appearance of the old man, he should not want to say who it is, so George Han naturally does not want to ask more.

"He told me not to have a bad relationship with you. On the contrary, we should be sincere to each other, and even the people we are waiting for should be based on you. In this way, the dragon clan will rise. This is why I have always been in front of you. Call yourself below."

"Otherwise, in terms of age or seniority, what's wrong with you calling me a senior? What's wrong with calling you a junior?"

"However, these are not the point, the point is what you can get."

"What can I get?" George Han frowned, he never thought about this question.

He helps Linlong, which in turn is equivalent to helping the dragon family. In fact, the core is the relationship with Linlong, not for what he will get.

Even George Han was ready to sacrifice his own interests.

“You can get a lot.” He smiled slightly: “The ancestor told me that the cooperation between you and me is actually a combination of destiny. Therefore, for you and me, it is a huge improvement.”

never thought that he needed anything to help others, especially his friends.” George Han smiled.

“The righteousness of a friend should be a knife in both sides.” He nodded in agreement: “But the meaning of a friend is to help and grow each other.”

“According to the meaning of my ancestors, when you agree to my request, I should also One thing is in your hands.” As the words fell, his hand suddenly moved, and a key appeared in its hand.

“Go all the way to the north of the falling city. After about 177 kilometers, please look for a swamp in the southeast direction. You need to reach the center of the swamp. After that, you can see a bayonet in the center of the field.

” The key is placed in the center of the bayonet, and after that, you can enter a mysterious area. Remember, sir, the mysterious area is very special. You can only enter by yourself, sir, and you must not bring others.”

“Otherwise... ..” Speaking of this, the meaning in his eyes was extremely serious: “You and that person will both be in a state of doom.”

George Han frowned: “Is it alone again?”

“Some things, the less you know, the safer you will be. Sir, please remember the words below. It’s not too early. I hope you forget that you and I will meet tonight.

” With a smile, the figure suddenly became transparent, and finally vanished in the cold wind above.

At this time, George Han had nothing but an extra key in his hand.

After taking back the key, George Han flew back to the city wall again, but only halfway through the sky, he suddenly heard a voice from the sky: “The moonlight tonight is so beautiful.”
