

Chapter 376

Gary was curious about what interesting things Frank had gotten this time. "Frank, come here. Let's have tea!" Gary handed the tea to Frank, Frank glanced at the teacup but did not take it. Gary frowned and something suddenly came to his mind. He took a look at the time. It was already late. Frank had a habit of not drinking tea after five. He had sleeping problems. After drinking tea, it was even more difficult for him to fall asleep. "Fine, I'll just get you a coke!" Gary shook his head helplessly. He was more tired than a servant girl today. He quickly took the coke. However, he did not hand it to Frank but directly placed it in front of him. Frank didn't even look at him. He only stared at the computer. The footage had already come out. It was the scene of Gina coming and going, occasionally making a phone call! Frank and Gary watched patiently. After a few minutes, Gina, who was sitting in the living room in the footage, soaked herself in some photos that she held in her hands. Gary quickly stopped playing and zoomed in. Then when he looked closely, he found that the photo in Gina's hand was a photo of Frank eating with Judith as well as the kids. "Wow!" Gary clicked his tongue. "She has already taken action." Frank was filled with killing intent. "She didn't begin it recently. She has always had people following me!" Frank's voice was extremely low and scary. Damn it! Frank secretly cursed. He did not expect that Gina would send people to secretly observe his every move. "Frank, you have to be prepared. If Gina continues to investigate like this, he will soon discover that Eric and Lucas are your sons." Gary said worriedly from the side. He knew how ruthless Gina was. Seeing what happened today, even a gentleman like Gary wanted to beat Gina up. "I know," Frank said in a deep voice. Then he said, "Before Gina finds out that I am their father, I will let Jodie fall in love with me. I will find a suitable opportunity to tell Jodie the truth. What happened that year was a big blow to her." This matter was a blessing to him, but to Jodie, it was a fatal blow. When Gary heard this, he nodded. He put down the tea in his hand and looked up at him, "Frank, this time, don't be afraid. No matter what you have waited for Judith for more than a decade. You must be patient." Although Adam had intervened, Frank had taken Judith his one and only love. With this unswerving conviction, Frank believed that he would definitely have a happy ending with Judith. "I know!" Frank stared at the video coldly. Gary sighed. He hoped that Frank could soon win Judith's heart, so he could move home to accompany his parents!

Or perhaps... A smile flashed across Gary's eyes. Or perhaps he could stay with his girlfriend. Thinking of Alissa, Gary became melancholic again. He looked sideways and asked, "Frank, when will Eric come back?" "Do you miss Alissa?" Frank glanced at him coldly. "What are you talking about? Don't you miss your son?" "I can call him," Frank said, but he didn't even look at Gary. Naturally, he could tell what Gary was thinking. But Alissa had a boyfriend after all. Gary suddenly fell silent.
