

Chapter 3768

The speed of the two is extremely fast, almost like a meteorite falling straight to the center.

After that, it suddenly stopped suddenly at a distance of less than ten centimeters from the destination.

In the end, everything can only be summed up in one word, steady.

George Han is too stable.

Amelia Su frowned, staring at the feet of Shida, but there was always a piece of gray sand under her feet. She really didn't understand why George Han stopped here.

There doesn't seem to be anything wrong here.

"What's wrong?" Amelia Su asked.

George Han smiled, looked around, and said, "This should be the most central point of this barren area."

"What does that mean?"

"Entrance," George Han said.

"Entrance?" Amelia Su frowned and looked down at his feet, as if there was no difference between this place and other places.

George Han smiled lightly and blocked Amelia Su behind him, and then the power of yin and yang in his hand suddenly moved and hit his feet directly.

boom!

With two forces detonating on the ground, the ground also exploded with a loud noise.

As the gray ground filled the sky, a fiery red lava cave appeared in front of the two of them.

The diameter of the opening is about one meter, and the surrounding area is surrounded by flaming magma, which is deep and bottomless, like a small but extremely deep volcanic vent.

Amelia Su frowned, hid behind George Han and glanced at it, and couldn't help but wonder, "Isn't this a crater? Why do you say the entrance?"

"The Silver Armored Dragon told me that this place should be a swamp. But in fact, it is full of mountains and rocks, this point, maybe you can find it deeper, so it may be an entrance, this is one."

"Second, there are gossips, and the gate of life is the gate of death, and The gate of death is the gate of life.

You can see the surrounding mountains, but the pattern in the center suddenly changes, and it is arranged in the shape of a hui. The center of the hui is the mouth, and the mouth is life, so this is the entrance. Two."

"Both are saying the same thing, so, Amelia Su, let's go down."

“Go down?” Amelia Su was taken aback.

“Why, don’t you believe me?”

Amelia Su shook her head: “With you, I believe you completely and unconditionally, not to mention that the crater is the entrance, even if it refers to a deer as a horse. You can see clearly.”

George Han smiled, took Amelia Su’s hand, and said affectionately: “Don’t worry, I am here, even if it is really a crater, I will definitely pour the sea into it and destroy it.”

Amelia Su smiled , nodded.

George Han moved slightly, took the opportunity to hug Amelia Su, and went straight down towards the crater.

As soon as Fang entered, the high temperature inside instantly burned the energy shields of the two of them with a bang, as if they could burst at any time.

But then, as George Han went more and more inside, the surrounding temperature began to drop, the fiery red color began to fade, and finally belonged to the darkness of the ground.

And with the darkness comes the cold.

Suddenly, not long after the darkest moment came, a golden light suddenly appeared under the feet, and along with this golden light, the surroundings became brighter and brighter, until it completely illuminated the eyes of the two of them.

And almost at the same time, George Hanliang also stopped.

Under their feet is a layer of light, transparent partitions, through which one can barely see that there seems to be a huge underground space below.

In the space, the lights are brilliant, and there are people moving from time to time.

Amelia Su wanted to speak out, but George Han made a shush gesture.

After that

, George Han smiled and pointed to the diaphragm under his feet.

Immediately afterwards, George Han’s hand moved slightly, and a small amount of energy was directly poured into the energy cover, and almost as soon as the energy arrived, the entire diaphragm also prevented the Buddha from encountering something in an instant, and the whole body was suddenly filled with electric light.

Amelia Su was taken aback, and she was stunned and secretly shocked.

This is just a little movement, and this diaphragm flashes such an electric light. If two people meet directly, then the huge electricity generated by this diaphragm must not electrocute people alive for several reincarnations?

Just when she was in shock, George Han smiled softly at this time, and her right hand gathered the yin force and shot directly into the diaphragm. The diaphragm suddenly did not generate any lightning, but seemed to sense nothing.

When it responded again, George Han and Amelia Su had already disappeared in place, and they went straight in with that yin energy.

Chapter 3769

White light flashes, when George Han and Amelia Su reappear, they are already in the underground space within this barrier.

“Wow!”

When Amelia Su looked around, she suddenly couldn't help but scream.

Where is this underground space, and it is clearly a huge underground city.

They take the earth as the sky and the earth as the earth. The height of the space is about 100 meters. After that, it spreads around at this height, and it spreads to seem boundless. In short, the end of its surroundings cannot be seen. Time can't tell how huge it is.

In the city, there are low earth houses built everywhere. They exist in disorder, but they are arranged in an orderly manner, thus forming a huge city scene together.

“If I hadn't seen it with my own eyes, I wouldn't believe it if I was killed. There is such a large underground city hidden under this barren and barren land.” Amelia Su exclaimed in amazement.

George Han also nodded, yes, let alone Amelia Su, even George Han himself never thought that there was such a space under the ground.

From the hustle and bustle of all kinds of hawking, George Han could feel the prosperity and wealth of the city.

“Someone's here.” George Han said softly, grabbed Amelia Su and turned to the side, hiding behind a dark pillar beside him.

Immediately afterwards, the sound of footsteps came neatly from far to near, but when they actually passed by not far from George Hanliang and his wife, the couple saw them and couldn't help but stare at each other.

They wish they were wrong.

Because passing by the two of them...

It's so weird.

That's just a bunch of dwarves...

or rather, they can't be called people at all.

They are ants, each about the size of a fist, standing on two legs , walking like a human.

Then their hands, each holding something similar to a spear but more like a firewood stick in the eyes of George Han, lined up in a row, and stepped forward with great might.

“Ant-Man?” Amelia Su couldn’t help but asked George Han softly.

Although it is indeed a bit unbelievable, but at this time, looking at the low mud houses in front of them, it seems that the reason for the low houses is really the reason why the people living there are not tall and small.

“Is this an ant becoming a sperm?” George Han asked in confusion.

He is starting to be more and more puzzled now, why the silver armored dragon let him come here, the reason for coming here, and what it is for.

Shouldn’t it be, catch a few ants and go back to the bar?

“What shall we do now?” Amelia Su asked.

This is a good question, and I stopped George Han directly, because it was obviously George Han himself, and he didn’t know what to do at all.

He is a question mark.

“That person only asked me to come here, but he didn’t say what he wanted to do, and it wasn’t even a swamp when he came down. Let’s take a look and see.” George Han spread his hands helplessly.

Amelia Su rolled her eyes: “It seems that he may really think that you should catch a few ants and go back to making wine, look at their bodies, and make up for it.”

George Han gave Amelia Su a bad look: “I don’t think so. I don’t care if I make up for it, anyway, isn’t the last place to vent to you?”

Hearing George Han’s words, Amelia Su was stunned for a moment, but suddenly reflected it, and directly pinched George Han while nibbling his teeth: “You are going to die.”

George Han’s “fat body” twisted wildly. , However, at this moment, the couple suddenly stood in the same place stupidly, and the smiles between each other were frozen on their respective faces.

Because I don’t know when, the team of Ant-Man went back and forth, and suddenly appeared in front of the two of them. Moreover, at this time, they all assumed an attacking posture.

The spear was facing the two of them, and the eyes on the dark head were also staring at the two of them.

The couple put away their smiles, and then each coughed to relieve the embarrassment in front of them.

“Human?” The two tentacles on the head of the leading Ant-Man moved and suddenly made a very puzzled voice.

The couple was also stunned for a moment. They didn’t expect human words to pop out of the ants’ mouths.

But before George Han and the other two could speak, the Ant-Man took a big step forward with his spear and shouted, “A daring madman who dares to trespass into the City of Earth Fire, come on, take it down for me. When the words fell, the ant-men beside him also collectively aimed their spears at the two of them.

And almost at the same time, more ant-men rushed out from nowhere, and they were densely surrounded...
