

Chapter 3802

“The color of the five elements has finally condensed, and the power of the five elements has also begun to emerge.” In the continuous mountains, the night is always like this. The quiet, uninhabited place is like a backwater at this time.

But in the sky above the dead water, at this moment, two starlights converged.

From the outside, these two stars are just two stars, but from the inside, they are clearly two figures.

It’s just that, inside and outside, it’s not a doorway that ordinary people can spy on.

“The number has been fixed, and it has slowly moved towards **. The so-called five elements are powerful, and the world is restless. Just like the last word left by that person at the beginning.”

“Now, the roulette of fate has already begun to rotate according to the original prophecy. Halfway through, it will run fast.”

“The dragon family is the key to start this new turntable of destiny, just as the world started when the chaos of the world first opened.”

“Everything is so familiar, but everything is so It ‘s brand new.”

“Five Elements Kaiwei, you and I have completed most of the tasks. Are you interested in it recently?”

“How?”

” There is nothing that you and I can miss too much, but after all, it has existed in this world in its own way.”

“You are right, well, it just so happens that we have free time with each other, so we can go and have a look.”

When the words fell, the two stars suddenly streaked across the sky like shooting stars, moving slowly into the distance.

At this time, at the bottom of this continuous mountain, he jumped over the city of fire, and then turned over the swampy land, and finally came to the enclosed space.

One person and one beast were lying in the air, their bodies curled up as if they had hit the redstone before, but they didn’t fall down when they should have fallen to the ground. Instead, they floated in the air.

But what can support them to float in the air is just the afterglow of the rays of light emanating from the divine stone at this time.

Immediately afterwards, the other rays of light on the Five Elements Divine Stone began to move slowly.

They began to move slowly, like smoke, towards George Han, and gradually surrounded George Han with one person and one beast.

The light curled up and moved slowly.

And the miraculous scene gradually began to happen.

The charred bodies on George Han's body began to fall off a little bit, accompanied by the continuous growth of new flesh, and the little dragon ant beside him also began to slowly restore the faint red light on its body at this time. .

Anti-Buddha, in an instant, in the midst of all the sudden changes, the life of one person and one beast began to take a turn for the better.

call!

Suddenly, the wind seemed to blow, blowing away the rays of light floating around

, and also blowing the rays of light into the bodies of one person and one beast, and woke up one person and one beast.

George Han opened his eyes, and with a slight movement, those almost carbonized objects that had already fallen off also fell off in an instant. He was like a new creature that broke out of its shell, with white, tender and shiny skin!

The little dragon ant also slowly opened its eyes, and its body was also red and smooth, beautiful and very beautiful.

"Father...Sir Father, we...are we going to hell? But why is hell so quiet?" Little Dragon Ant opened his mouth slightly.

George Han looked back at his surroundings, and the surroundings were peaceful. Even the high temperature that had always made him feel extremely uncomfortable before was gone at this time.

It seems that they really changed to other places.

But the question is, where is this place? !

George Han couldn't help but patted his head, but he couldn't reflect it for a while.

It wasn't until, looking back at the traces of light in front of him and looking up, that he saw the Five Elements Divine Stone hanging above his head, he suddenly stood up and looked around seriously again.

"It seems that we haven't gone anywhere. This place is where you were born, which means it's under the swamp!" George Han could almost recognize this place, but he couldn't even believe it himself.

After all, the environment here is really too cool. Where did the high temperature and fire go? !

They suddenly disappeared as if they had evaporated suddenly.

However, he did not seem to have caused any substantial damage to him, so how could that redstone disappear? !

Suddenly, George Han suddenly set his eyes on the Five Elements Divine Stone hanging above him, his eyes widened suddenly...

Chapter 3803

“No...no...no?”

George Han didn't dare to get the Five Elements Divine Stone directly, but self-denied shook his head.

But it seems obvious that it should be the only answer.

Holding his breath slightly, George Han moved slowly, stretched out his hand, and the Five Elements Divine Stone slowly landed on his hand.

Some things you think are scary, but it really happens as you think, and it becomes even more scary.

At least, just like George Han at this time, he got the Five Elements Divine Stone.

On the Five Elements Divine Stone, the red mark was very abrupt, unfamiliar, and terrifying to George Han!

“That red stone...” George Han frowned tightly.

isn't it?

isn't it? !

It... is it flint? ! It is the last divine stone on the Five Elements divine stone that I have dreamed of and searched for for a long time ... flint? ! Depend on! Looking back on the past, the possibility of this kind of speculation is getting bigger and bigger! It relies on the body of the little dragon ant to absorb its energy, stabilize itself and release its faint firepower! Because of its existence, the little dragon ants have been accompanied by high temperatures since they were born, so... a series of situations began to occur.

However, because the little dragon ant is the son of a dragon and an ant, it needs special conditions when it is born, but because the dragon clan is already close to exterminating the clan after participating in the war of gods and demons, it cannot meet this special condition.

So it's a little weird that the little dragon ants didn't hatch.

This covered up Flint's secret, or in other words, the little dragon ants took the blame for it.

“You can't find a place to break through the iron shoes, and it takes no effort to get it!” George Han, who originally had a casual attitude towards the five elements of the gods, never thought of it at all, but inadvertently got the most crucial last one ring!

Outrageous, bullshit, but full of bizarre, people are all excited.

The Five Elements Divine Stone not only saved George Han's life at a critical moment, but also completed its final cohesion.

There is nothing in this world so coincidental and full of drama.

This is not only inexplicably getting a son, but also a big opening offer of buy one get one free.

Perhaps, on Earth, buy-one-get-one-free was a deep tragedy in a comedy, at least in certain circumstances.

And even under the promotion of shopping malls, it is often a means of coaxing people out of sheep.

But at least, at this moment

, this is great news.

The super spree fell from the sky and fell on your head so coincidentally.

George Han suddenly understood why the Silver Armored Dragon said that after coming to this place, it was good for the Dragon Clan, and it was also very relevant to him, George Han.

Damn, if he had said earlier that there were flint stones, George Han would be able to gather all the divine stones, and he would have ignored the rest. George Han would definitely fight with his head on his head.

This is very nice.

“Hehe.” George Han couldn’t help but smirk.

“Father, why do you show such a wretched smile?” asked the little dragon ant.

George Han came back to his senses, stunned for a moment, moved his hand, and lifted the little dragon ant gently with the other hand: “I’m not called wretched, I’m happy, you know? Don’t talk nonsense if you don’t understand. Oh.”

Father, it’s true that you’re happy, but happy doesn’t mean you’re not wretched. The fact is that what you laughed just now... It’s really super wretched, full of greasy feeling and that kind of treacherous feeling.”

“Go, go, go . , children, don’t talk nonsense.” George Han didn’t care about his image at all, and he couldn’t help but laugh again at this meeting, and then, with a move of his hand, he directly hid the Five Elements Divine Stone in his arms.

After going out, George Han will come back to study and study the magic of the Five Elements God Stone Man.

“Let’s go, now that all the problems have been solved, let’s go out from here first.”

Little Dragon Ant asked, “Father, where are we going?”

“You’re going to see your mother, as for me, hehe...” George Han smiled wryly...
