

Chapter 381

After lunch, they set off. The traffic was heavy. The city was prosperous. Judith turned on the navigation. The destination was not far. It was just behind their living area, about five bus stops far. Driving was a bit faster! Judith parked the car. They came down to look around. The buildings in this area all looked very luxurious and commercial. Judith smiled. "Sarah, would anyone come here for a barbecue?" Sarah was experienced. She looked at the surroundings and said, "Judy, sure. We'll be opening in the evening. There is a night market here. This place is very prosperous and many people are living here. I am afraid the rent will be very expensive!"

Judith also thought of this too. "Let's go take a look first!" "Alright!" Sarah nodded. She clicked on the GPS on her phone and the two of them walked towards their destination together! Judith's phone suddenly rang. She took it out and answered the call with a smile. "Hey! Dad, are you guys having fun? Have you eaten?" Keven felt very happy hearing Judy call him dad. "Judy, your mother and I have had lunch. Now we are going to the beach. Your mother was worried about you, so I called to ask you what you are doing now." "Oh! Dad, I'm already the mother of the three children. I'm not a child. Don't worry about me. Sarah and I are now looking for a shop on the Riverside Road." "Why are you looking for a shop?" Keven asked curiously. "Dad, Sarah wants to open a barbecue restaurant. There is an available shop at the night market here, so we came over to take a look." "Oh, the shops over there have a high commercial value, and the rent is especially expensive!" Judith said, "Dad, let's take a look first. If it is too expensive, we'll go somewhere else." "Little girl, have you forgotten who I am again? Riverside Road is my property too. Just let me know which shop Sarah has taken a fancy to." Keven's tone was somewhat reproachful. Judith smiled. Yes, Keven was not an ordinary person. Even the Riverside District was his property, it was unbelievable! "Okay, Dad, but we don't want to disturb your honeymoon with Mom." Judith teased with a smile. "Well! As a father, I should care about my daughter's wish." Keven said in a doting tone. Judith was touched by this sincere tone. That gentle smile came from the bottom of her heart, so gentle, and dazzling. "Okay, Dad, I will send it to you later." Judith said a few more words before hanging up. Judith said, "Sarah, give me the location of the shop and I will send it to Dad. He said that this area is his, so we don't have to come out every day looking for shops." "Wouldn't it bother Mr. Williams too much?" Sarah smiled as she sent the address to Judith. Judith smiled and said, "Sarah, for Dad, this is nothing, but for us, it is everything. You are pregnant now. You shouldn't let yourself be tired. If Dad can help, things would be so much easier!" Judith said, sending the address to Keven. In less than ten seconds, Keven called, "Judy, this position is good. Its former owner could not pay the rent, so the shop is empty now. It's a perfect choice for Sarah. "Go there directly. I will call my assistant and ask him to go there. Tell Sarah that since she is your friend. I will waive her rent for half a year. The rent is 37,000 dollars a year. "Wow! Dad, can I get one too?" Judith asked excitedly.

12:45 "Silly girl, you are now my daughter. My everything is yours. Tell me, which shop do you want?"
