

Chapter 3826

“The treasure of the ant family is the strongest treasure of my ant family, and it is also the treasure of my ant family. There are rules in the family. Even if there is no one to fight in the future, we must protect the treasure behind the corpse, and never allow any outsider to take it. We know the rules of the clan, and we abide by them. preparation.”

“However, if this person is George Han, I will step aside now, and I will even invite you respectfully, how about you.” Someone said loudly.

“That’s right, just because Mr. Han almost died here in order to save the whole city, I will never embarrass him. If Zu Xun wants me to guard the treasure, then I would rather kill myself. Neither violated the rules nor made it difficult for him.”

“I also support this statement.”

“Mr. Han’s kindness, we can’t repay it. If we want to come, only our ant clan treasure can take our place.”

“Although I also feel sorry for the treasure of my clan, but at this moment I also raise my hands to agree.” Just now, just because the queen ant wants to change the rules, a group of people who already have a lot of opinions, but at this time they want to move the treasure of their own clan. The change is submissive, and even praised and agreed, the difference is huge, the contrast is obvious, and everything is because the queen ant told George Han’s contribution.

At this time, almost everyone in the ant family was deeply moved and respected for George Han.

The grace of re-creation itself is a great grace, and now there are benefactors who help with their own lives, and this kind of grace has become infinitely expanded.

“You don’t have to do this, three thousand help you, never thought of any reward, and will not be interested in your treasure.

interest. The reason why any family’s treasure can become a treasure must be obtained by the ancestors who experienced all kinds of hardships, so how could someone from Han take it? “George Han hurriedly said: “Secondly, even if it is not the above-mentioned possibility, most of it is important to your ethnic group, so no matter what point, someone Han will definitely not ask for your so-called treasure, and hope You take this back. “

That’s right, if you really want to thank us, let’s have another big feast, anyway, we and the husband and wife didn’t have enough to eat before. Amelia Su also laughed.

“I don’t want to repay my kindness, isn’t it the foundation of my Ant-Man family?” “

That’s right, or is it because the two benefactors look down on us Ant-Man, so they refuse to accept our gratitude?” “

“It seems so. Hey

, it seems that even if you and I have worked hard, for the two of them, it's really just tasteless. Hehe, you can also think about it. After all, they are gods, but you and I are just ants. With different levels, how can we be together. "

"Yeah, it's just our wishful thinking and self-love." A group of ant people are all saddened and sneered, and the face of the ant queen also has a touch of disappointment.

Amelia Su looked at George Han helplessly, how could they mean that, their thoughts were actually very simple, just as they thought That's all, that's all.

"It seems that the kindness is hard to resist. If I don't accept their treasure today, I'm afraid..." Amelia Su said bitterly to George Han

. It's not mine anymore. "George Han also gave a wry smile.

Father , why don't you accept it." "Little Dragon Ant said, "Since people are willing to take it out, they have already made up their minds. If you don't want it suddenly, isn't it impossible for them to step down?" So instead of this, it is better to accept it happily, you have to be good, and they will feel comfortable. "

George Han did not answer immediately, but turned his attention to Amelia Su, seeking her opinion.

Amelia Su thought for a while, and nodded slightly at George Han.

George Han turned around, sighed at the ant-men, and then said: "Well, since you are so kind, Han sb's will not talk too much, let's listen to your arrangements." After the words were finished, the ant queen and the ant-men finally Showing a smile, at this moment, the queen ant said: "Since the husband has love and concubine intentions, well, don't say more nonsense, and offer it to the treasure."

Chapter 3827

the words fall, suddenly, I don't know when, I don't know where, bursts of strange suona-like voices sounded in unison.

Looking around, I suddenly found that many Ant-Man in the crowd put their hands between their mouths, just like people whistle with their fingers. In the case of a very large number of people, this sound converged , it is also resounding in the city of fire.

The dozens of followers around the queen quickly retreated.

Not long after, when they reappeared, they were already lined up in two neat lines.

Wearing golden-red armor, even the spears in their hands were replaced by a kind of golden honor guard at this time. Although the attack power was not as good as the previous spears, its shape and whole made the whole atmosphere even more beautiful. Solemn and solemn.

“Crack, snap, snap!”

Like an army

, they marched neatly and slowly.

The two people at the head, together holding a box covered with red cloth, led the team and came slowly.

Along the way, all the ants around them took the initiative to give in, forcibly making way for them.

Moreover, those ants looked solemnly, looking at the box covered by the red cloth, and their eyes moved slowly with it.

This kind of scale and etiquette, in fact, George Han has a very familiar feeling, and he can quickly find out where this feeling comes from.

When on earth, when the flag is raised and the song is played.

“Wow!”

The entire troop moved about one meter in front of George Han and stopped.

The two soldiers holding the box raised their hands slightly and raised the box as high as possible.

The queen ant smiled softly and led the person over slowly.

She first smiled politely at George Han, and then she turned to look at the box covered by the red cloth.

His expression was serious, and there was even a hint of awe on his face.

“Huh”

she let out a long breath and opened her mouth: “The treasure of the ant clan has always been the treasure of the shock clan to my ant clan, and it is also because of your existence that over the years our ant clan has encountered various All dangers can be cleared through this.”

“You are a real treasure.”

“But unfortunately, maybe from today, you will withdraw from the historical stage of our ant clan.”

“Now, where is your return? It will be more meaningful. Second, the ant clan is now standing up again collectively with the help of George Han.”

“I believe that abandonment is a sad thing, but if you know it is because we are now If the collective is strong and abandons you, you must not only not be sad, but will be very happy, right?”

After the words fell, the ant queen turned her head and looked at George Han, saying: “The treasure of the ant clan is actually a kind of magical thing. For a master like you, I believe that the help is extremely great.” After saying this, the two Ant-Man handed over the box covered by the red cloth to the Queen Ant.

After taking the box, the queen ant brought it to George Han: "Now, I will officially hand it over to you."

Looking at the box covered by the red cloth in front of him, George Han was a little unsure of what to accept. Still don't pick up.

Amelia Su nodded at George Han, George Han then stabilized his mind and took the box over.

"Roar!" All around, the ants suddenly shouted wildly to celebrate this great moment.

"Since the thing is taken, why don't you open it and take a look?" The ant queen smiled at George Han.

George Han cried and laughed, dragging the box with one hand and uncovering the red cloth on it with the other.

Under the red cloth, the box was a red box similar to mahogany, with exquisite patterns carved around it and on the front.

Most of them are Ant-Man, they are all strong and powerful.

In particular, the sculpture on the front is the most lifelike. It is an ant queen, sitting on the throne lightly, looking lazily, but her eyes are full of a posture that belongs to an emperor, looking down at the world!

"Open it." The queen said to George Han.

George Han nodded slightly, raised his hand lightly, and opened the box.

Along with the lid of the box, a golden light, accompanied by a faint fragrance, spewed out of the box...
