

Chapter 3846

George Han's smile freezes directly, the next second becomes nervous, but it is obviously too late to stop at this time.

As soon as he wanted to reach out, he heard a click, and the pill was broken...

Half of it went into Amelia Su's mouth, and the other half was being stored in Amelia Su's hand.

"What's wrong? Can't you?" Amelia Su looked at George Han ignorantly, not understanding why he was so excited and nervous.

Could it be that, as a wife, can't she eat something from George Han?

In fact, she did this not entirely for herself, she just wanted to add as much spiritual energy to her body as possible, so that she could quickly improve her cultivation.

First, he was eager to prove and express himself in front of George Han, and secondly, if there were any emergencies, he could be of help.

Secondly, it is also very important that she wants to awaken the Qiongqi in her body as soon as possible.

Because, only when Tian Zhiqiongqi wakes up, can Senior Sister Qin Shuang be put on the agenda as soon as possible. Although, after getting along with George Han recently, Amelia Su's heart has almost been untied.

But in any case, the matter of Senior Sister Qin Shuang has already been mentioned on the agenda, and her current situation has to be rescued, which means that Amelia Su is a little difficult to ride a tiger.

But Amelia Su also understands that no matter how difficult it is, the safety of Senior Sister Qin Shuang must be taken care of.

Therefore, when he didn't dare to tell George Han his anxiety, Amelia Su took this opportunity to directly swallow half of George Han's refined Jindan.

Of course, George Han didn't have her psychological burden. At this time, his burden was completely in not being able to step down.

George Han has never tried this golden pill

, but from the black scum that George Han tried before, he can clearly say that this thing is not for human consumption at all.

It's just that its appearance is the most glamorous one in the pile of garbage, so it was naturally taken out by George Han to brag.

But who knows, his wife this time, is to let him not directly in public.

What to do now?

What should I do if I eat bad Amelia Su?

He really wanted to pull Amelia Su to the side quickly, and then take a good look at her body.

But seeing that Amelia Su seems to be fine at the moment, and the five guys are staring at him, George Han is really in a dilemma.

“Yes... Of course, my wife doesn’t say she eats my pills, but even if she eats me, I will never say half a word.” George Han stared at Amelia Su carefully while holding on.

face change.

He had already made up his mind, as long as there was something wrong, he George Han wouldn’t want to lose face, he would just carry Amelia Su in for treatment.

Sure enough, Amelia Su frowned, but when George Han was about to start, she looked at George Han: “What did you use to train?”

“Ah?” George Han was stunned.

“It’s so sweet.” Amelia Su’s brows loosened in the next second, and her smile became even sweeter.

“Sweet?” George Han was a little dumbfounded, and he felt a little confused about the situation when he touched his head for a while.

Although how many kinds of medicinal materials were put in and which ones George Han really couldn’t remember, from a pharmacological point of view, the possibility of sweetness is almost impossible.

In those medicinal materials, it is impossible to contain sweet ingredients, so naturally it is unlikely that sweet medicinal herbs will be prepared.

especially Su

Amelia Su’s mouth is so sweet...

George Han is doubting life here, but Amelia Su nods like garlic: “Yes, yes, it’s really sweet and sweet, I’ve never eaten such delicious gold. Dan.”

“George Han, do you know? You really changed my inherent impression of medicine pills, you are too powerful.” After the words were finished, Amelia Su looked at George Han with her adoring eyes.

The five eager disciples were originally watching and had some expectations in their hearts, but now that they have received Amelia Su’s approval, this expectation is like a prairie being ignited by a spark, and it spews out directly.

“The leader of the alliance, what a bull.”

George Han turned his anxiety into joy, and he was also happy at this time. He forced X to pretend to be in the sky? !

But suddenly, at this moment, Amelia Su suddenly came close to George Han’s ear, frowned anxiously and quickly said, “Help me into the room.”

Chapter 3847

this, George Hangang's face immediately freezes.

What is life's ups and downs too fast, isn't it right now?

Just now, I was still in a hurry, but in a blink of an eye, I was overjoyed again. This exhilaration was not over, but it was a big surprise...

"What's the matter?"

"I know you want to save face, let them go first." Amelia Su The tone was obviously a little uncomfortable.

George Han nodded, coughed, pretending that nothing happened, and stared at the five people: "Okay, you all have seen what you should see, my wife is very happy now, and wants to reward me, don't you still? Do you want to watch something that shouldn't be watched? I don't have any eyesight."

After hearing this, the five people laughed awkwardly for a while.

After the five of them walked away with Bamboo, Amelia Su was obviously relieved, and half of her body was soft on George Han's body.

George Han also quickly helped her into the back room.

"How's it going? Tell me where you're uncomfortable." "If you're not feeling well, tell me earlier, why are you holding on?" George Han said, with a burst of energy in his hand, ready to take care of Amelia Su Take a look.

Amelia Su waved her hand, indicating that George Han didn't have to do this: "You don't need to be so exaggerated."

"I'm just a little uncomfortable."

"When a man is outside, face is very important, not to mention that you are still the leader of the alliance and your own. How can I fall in your face when I get along with my disciples?"

"What exactly are you practicing? I feel sick to my stomach."

"It's like... it's like eating something bad."

Amelia Su suddenly didn't seem to need George Han to answer.

Because obviously, looking at the darkness around the house, many answers are about to come out.

"Failed again?"

This word was harsh, but it was also a helpless fact. George Han nodded gloomily: "En."

"I...no wonder my stomach hurts so much." Amelia Su smiled helplessly.

"Let me help you with luck therapy?" George Han said guiltily.

Amelia Su was a little embarrassed: "It shouldn't be a big problem, no need to trouble you."

"You are my wife, how can you call me trouble?" When the words were finished, George Han didn't care whether Amelia Su agreed or not, he slapped his hand slightly and gently pressed on her stomach.

"True qi is disordered." George Han couldn't help frowning .

His grandmother's, could it be that there is something wrong with the medicine pill, which ruined Amelia Su.

Medicine pills are different from ordinary food. If the food is broken, it can be vaporized. However, medicine pills always contain corresponding true energy. Once a problem occurs, it is easy to cause damage to people's meridians and dantian. Therefore, George Han did not dare to. main idea.

The strength in his hand increased, and Amelia Su also felt a warm current entering from his abdomen.

Immediately afterwards, this warm current slowly began to soothe everything in an orderly manner in his dantian.

Amelia Su, who was still in pain just now, not only did not have the slightest pain at this moment, but instead felt very comfortable.

"How is it?" George Han asked when he noticed Amelia Su's change.

Amelia Su nodded: "It seems to be much better."

"Your dantian

The internal breath is relatively disordered. I think it must be that there is some problem with the medicinal pill, so it rampages in your body, destroying the original breath stability. "

However, don't worry, I have basically smoothed them out. Although Dan is a little broken, it can still give you some energy." "

Amelia Su smiled slightly: "It's like eating bad food and making a stomach upset, right?" "

It's almost the same reason, but the stomach will always expel the undigested quickly, but the broken medicine will not do this, and its inner breath also stays in Amelia Su's body.

"I will help you continue to treat it ." , will be more comfortable. "George Han said.

Amelia Su nodded, but just when George Han was about to recharge, Amelia Su suddenly realized that something was wrong and hurriedly stopped: "Wait a minute! "
