

Chapter 385

When the waiter left, Adam smiled. "Mr. Taylor, the company has been developing well these few years. Congratulations, it's on the market." Frank elegantly leaned back and slightly narrowed his eyes. "Thank you. Mr. Haywood. You have been doing good on business these years too!" In the business world, Adam was a legend too! He founded the Haywood Group without anyone's help. And his sister was a famous agent! In Kimshire, the Haywood siblings were influential. But Adam had stayed here for Judith. Adam was Frank's biggest and most powerful rival! The dishes were served quickly, and Adam did not ask for wine. The two chatted as they ate. Halfway through the meal, Adam elegantly put down his fork, picked up the cup beside him, and took a sip of water. He then looked at Frank and said, "Mr. Taylor, you seem to be very interested in Jodie?" Hearing the words "Jodie" again, Frank's face instantly turned cold. Adam also looked cold. The two of them looked at each other with cold eyes. It seemed that they were trying to make the other person admit defeat by glaring at him. Frank laughed mockingly. "Mr. Haywood, why did you call her by her nickname? What are you trying to say?" Adam smiled, avoiding the question. He asked, "Mr. Taylor, why did you investigate Judy?" Although Frank had many cruel rumors, he had a good character. As a person in the circle, he still knew this!

Frank narrowed his eyes. "Mr. Haywood, are you meddling in my business?" he asked. If it weren't for the fact that Adam and Alissa had been helping to take care of the children and Judy for the past seven years, Frank wouldn't have appeared here tonight. Adam said in a serious tone, "Mr. Taylor, I came here this time to ask you to let Judy go. She has been having a hard time all these years. Do you know how deeply your affection would hurt her?" His stepmother, Gina, had been investigating the relationship between Judith and Frank! Frank's heart tightened. He knew what Adam was referring to. Since Frank knew that he was investigating Judy, he must know Gina was investigating Judy too. It was precise because of this that he stayed away from Judy during this period. But even so, Gina wouldn't stop. Frank's heart was filled with schemes! Frank subconsciously clenched the cup in his hand. He had not thought of a better solution for this. He could not stalk Judy all the time. "What do you mean?" he asked deliberately. Adam frowned. "Mr. Taylor, stop playing dumb." Whenever thinking about the beautiful woman with curved eyebrows and a bright and pure smile, the affection in his heart surged like a tide! That was the person he wanted to put on the tip of his heart and would never allow anyone to hurt her! Frank looked laidback. He narrowed his deep eyes and replied casually, "I don't understand what you mean." Adam loved Judy a lot, but what about Judy? Adam had done enough for Judy. "Frank!" Adam was furious. Frank looked at Adam coldly. Adam, Sorry!
