

Chapter 3878

Fu Mei smiled disdainfully: "You are actually right, Ye Shijun's gang wants to mobilize 400,000 horses in such a short period of time. , let's not say whether he has this book, even if he does, he will not be able to complete it."

"His own army is actually only 150,000 people."

"Since it is 150,000, why? Another 400,000?" Amelia Su said.

"This is the scary part. In addition to the 150,000 people from Ye Shijun's forces, there are 250,000 other elites in this army of 400,000."

"Other elites?" George Han frowned.

"The 100,000-strong army of the Yutu clan and the 150,000 people of a mysterious army, in total, 250,000." Fu Mei said lightly.

"The 栲杻 family?"

When someone heard this term, they couldn't help but look horrified.

"This Tau clan is a savage warrior who claims to be the bloodline of fierce beasts. This group of people can fight well and are extremely brave. They are the famous mad clan in our demon clan."

"Yes, this group of people is very fierce. Ah, no one dares to provoke them."

"How could they send an army of 100,000 people to attack us? Oh my God, their 100,000 people are definitely equivalent to at least 200,000 of us."

The color changed on the spot, and even his legs softened.

For those who have lived in the demon zone for a long time, the name of the Yutu clan is almost the same as the name of the notorious villain heard by the ordinary human race.

It was a kind of fear and fear that emanated from the psychology.

"I was so scared when I heard the Yutu clan, so are you still going to fight this battle? Besides, compared to the Yutu clan, that mysterious army can only be said to be worse than that."

"I Although I don't know their specific origins, what I can tell you, George Han, is that the abilities of this mysterious force are definitely higher than those of the Tsao clan."

Mo Yang frowned, "What do you mean, you You keep saying that you don't know the origin of that mysterious team, so how do you know that they are far above the Yutu clan? It doesn't make sense logically, doesn't it?"

Fu Mei smiled coldly: "Although I don't know. Which family do they come from, but firstly, I can tell which army is stronger by the breath? Second, don't you think it's strange? I mean, as long as people in the land of demons, they should all know this The Tu family is a big old-fashioned family."

"Although they have always had grudges against the Luocheng, they have never turned on it, not to mention that they will send so many elites to attack this time."

Someone heard this and nodded immediately . : "This is actually true. Although it is no secret that the 栲杓 family has expansion ambitions, it is unlikely that there will be large-scale actions before the mountain tower is about to shake. Soldiers are indeed a bit confusing."

"The Yingtu clan is going to develop, it is indeed a nail in front of their mouth that they should fall into the city, so they have been secretly supporting Devil Cloud Ghost City to use force against us. But the reason why it is unclear is the most important thing. The thing is, there are many demons, and their rash actions can easily affect their whole body."

"Now they are overwhelming the realm, what does this mean?" A group of people don't know why, in fact, George Han is also on this point. consider.

The most bizarre thing is that after George Han knew that the seventh princess of the Pei family had helped him this time, this was even more confusing.

They are kind to themselves, even if they want to pass the city and go out to develop, it is extremely easy to come, and there is no need to use force.

Therefore, the result may only be one: "They are coming for us, but it is not their strategic goal."

"So...they are forced to be helpless?" George Han looked at Fumei tentatively: "And forcing them, the positive is probably the mysterious army you mentioned?"

Fu Mei nodded: "You guessed it right, the Yingtu family was forced to send troops."

As soon as these words came out, the whole hall was quiet, Even George Han gasped.

"This mysterious army can actually force a party's overlord to send troops. Who are they holy?"

Chapter 3879

. Although the contact with George Han is not deep, but from the narrow-mindedness of his previous small hatred and big report , these guys are definitely not good-hearted people, and they are even less likely to bend over to others at will.

But now, they are being forced to send troops, and they are still sending troops in large numbers, so there is only one possibility.

The Seventh Princess helped her to be known by others, and then others used it to oppress and persecute her.

The ending is also quite interesting, the patriarch of the Yutu clan agreed.

What does this mean? It means that this mysterious force is absolutely impossible to be worse than the people of the Yutou clan. Otherwise, the patriarch of the Yutou clan will never give in.

Therefore, according to this logic, there is nothing alarmist about Fu Mei's words.

On the contrary, what she said was extremely accurate. This thing is terrifying!

"I have a speculation, I don't know if you want to hear it." Fu Mei said.

George Han frowned slightly: "You tell me."

"There is a new big net behind Ye Shijun. I don't know exactly where this big net is sacred. What I know is that it suddenly rose and quickly occupied the demons. A large part of the forces."

"And some of them are even old-fashioned forces of the Demon Race, such as the Three Palaces and Four Palaces."

"I mean, who can make these old-fashioned forces surrender suddenly without a fight?"

Fu Mei said in a voice. After falling, a person walked out slowly: "If you guessed correctly, they should be the messengers of hell."

"The messengers of hell?" George Han frowned.

Over there, Fu Mei and a group of people also looked at her at this time.

The Lord of the Hundred Demons Hall of the Three Palaces and Four Halls, Qing Ji.

Under the scene,

I am afraid there is no one who understands the situation better than her.

She is a veteran demon force, and she used to help Zhu Yanshuo.

"The devil eats the weak and eats the strong, and it is very cruel. This is a solid rule, but because the devil has always been a leaderless group, so naturally everyone can only abide by this rule."

"But the devil has not always been like this, otherwise, where will it be? What about the strength that came and the people from the Central Plains to fight the war between gods and demons in Xuanyuan World?"

"You mean, your demon king has been resurrected?" Amelia Su heard some of the hints.

"Hell messengers are a mysterious force that has existed since the Demon Race. No one knows their origins, and no one knows how powerful they are."

"All we can know is that messengers are often Born with the birth of the devil, they were born to serve only the devil, and they died when the devil passed away."

"Actually, it was precisely because I saw the messenger of hell that I and Mo Beitian thought that the devil came. There are many fights in normal times, but I have great respect for the demon king.

Therefore, once the demon king is reborn, I can't guarantee other forces, but the three palaces and four palaces will inevitably follow."

"It's just that at that time, I and Mo Beitian were , I thought the Demon King...it was you." After the words were finished, Qing Ji was a little embarrassed.

They were actually excited when they joined Jiluocheng. After all, Mobeitian realized that George Han was the new demon god in the land of demon dragons, and soon after he came back, he met the messenger of hell again. It's more of an idea of what it was originally.

"Now, they have the messengers of hell to join them, and the three palaces and four palaces are almost all under their command. It makes sense for the Pei family to have scruples.

" Immortal."

"If there are 150,000 people in such a team, it is enough to sweep any big city, not to mention the fact that we should be defeated, and the Yutu family will join us."

"Then we will die this time. It 's settled?"

A group of managers was shocked when they heard the words.

George Han frowned and said nothing. It seems that Ming Yu's preparations this time are really appropriate, even far more appropriate than he imagined.

"As expected of you, Mingyu." George Han said coldly.

Then, he suddenly stood up and laughed in the confused eyes of everyone...
