

Chapter 388

When Marilyn heard that, she did not feel good. Marilyn suddenly said, "I didn't mean that!" "Mom, that's exactly what you mean!" Jason suddenly stopped and looked at his mother angrily. When Marilyn saw that, she was so angry that she almost couldn't breathe. Jason had changed greatly recently. She was afraid to see Jason now. "Jason, how... How could you talk to me like this?" Marilyn was so angry that she looked very somber. "Mother, don't go too far!" After Jason finished speaking, he wanted to turn around and look at Sarah again, but because Marilyn was there, he didn't turn around.

He walked to the garage.

Marilyn followed him. Along the way, they never said a word. After the dishes were ready, Judith chatted while eating. "Sarah, eat the fish," Judith said as she picked up a piece of fish and put it in Sarah's bowl. "Judy, thank you so much today," Sarah said and smiled gently. Frank did not know that Sarah had lived at Judith's house.

Only Adam knew about it, and they did not mention it.

Frank spoke very little, and he had grown apart from Judith recently.

For Judith, they should keep their distance!

But to Frank, it made him suffer every day! They sat at the table, but they only said a few words that night. He wanted to be close to Judith!

Adam asked curiously, "Judy, where did you go today? Where are Mila and Mr. Williams?"

When Judith heard that, she smiled and said, "They have gone on their honeymoon. My mother has worked hard for so many years and finally married Mr. Williams."

"You are so proud!" Adam said and smiled. Adam looked at Judith lovingly. Frank glanced at Judith and was also interested in that.

He was very curious about why Judy would suddenly become Keven's daughter, and who her mother was.

"However, Mr. Williams and Mila are married. Why didn't they tell Eric and me that they would go on a honeymoon?" Adam was quite dissatisfied. He had a good relationship with Keven.

Judith smiled and said, "Adam, are you still afraid that you cannot send them the gift? Mom and Dad have got married, and they will hold the wedding after a while!"

"Father has waited for mother for many years, and mother had finally promised to marry him. He was afraid that my mother would regret it, so he wanted to marry her quickly. "He treats me as his daughter. I helped him, and then let father take mother to go on their honeymoon!"

"It's precious to them. They finally have a home!" Judith was very happy when she thought that it would be livelier at home! "Now you have a happy family!" Adam looked at her with a happy smile! "Yes!" Judith replied, lowered her head, and ate.
