

Chapter 389

Frank wanted to ask Judith some questions, but when he saw Judith smiling happily, he didn't ask. Sarah suddenly vomited. When Judith saw that, she quickly put down her chopsticks. "Sarah, are you alright?" Sarah looked at her and shook her head. She smelled something greasy and wanted to vomit. After Judith saw that Sarah was feeling better, she handed Sarah the water. "Thank you!" After Sarah took a sip of water, she felt much better. Judith smiled and asked, "Sarah, what else do you want to eat?" Sarah looked at her and shook her head. "Judy, I'm full. I'm tired today and want to rest early!" "Then wait for me. I'll be done eating soon too." Judith looked at Adam and Frank. "Adam, Mr. Taylor, eat something! Don't just hold your chopsticks." Adam nodded and didn't say anything. Frank sat quietly and occasionally looked at Judith.

He did not expect to meet Judy here today.

Half an hour later, they left the restaurant.

Frank paid for the meal. "Adam did not want to owe Frank, but Frank got ahead of him.

Adam said with a smile, "Judy, shall I take you home?" Judith shook her head and said, "No, Adam. Have a rest on the weekend. Go back and rest early. I'll drive home by myself!" Adam nodded in disappointment and said, "Judy, be careful!" "Okay!" Judith said and looked at Frank, who looked calm. She said with a smile, "Mr. Taylor, see you tomorrow!"

Frank was excited and looked at her gently. "Judy, see you tomorrow!". Frank said in a deep voice. "Adam, goodbye!" Judith said goodbye to them and left with Sarah.

Frank and Adam didn't look away until Judith disappeared. Adam looked at Frank gloomily. "Mr. Taylor, we haven't finished yet."

Frank turned to look at him and said coldly, "Adam, we have nothing to say!" Adam glared at him and said, "Frank, did you know? Judy almost died seven years ago. She wanted to die. We did a lot to save her. I don't want anyone to hurt her. Please let her go!" Frank felt sad at that moment and couldn't stop crying. He quickly lowered his head and said seriously, "Adam, you don't understand me. To repeat, I won't hurt her!" After that, he did not look at Adam. He turned around and left. The moment he turned around, his eyes turned red and he took a deep breath. "Frank, did you know that seven years ago, Judy almost died." He remembered that. He had heard the conversation between Judy and Sarah, and Judy had a car accident. Why was it so unfair? But there were too many unfair things. Adam looked at Frank's back and suddenly felt that he was very lonely. He sighed slightly. It was not easy for Frank.
