

Chapter 3902

If you want to know what to do, why should you ask her? !

“My subordinates are ignorant, I really don’t know what to do.” Zhu Yanshuo lowered his head and said a little ashamed.

This matter is of great importance, how dare he act against the wind at this time.

“I think the command this time is handed over to Ye Shijun.” Ming Yu suddenly said.

Hearing this, Zhu Yanshuo hesitated. Ye Shijun is not without IQ, but depending on who he is compared with, if he is compared with someone like George Han, he is a pure fool.

Giving the troops to such a person to command, Zhu Yanshuo really didn’t understand which Ming Yu was singing.

But Ye Shijun was right next to him, and he was really embarrassed to speak up to dissuade Mingyu.

“As you said

, what should I do? I believe that George Han has also considered this issue, and it is very likely that he has made guesses and deployments about what to do with me.” Ming Yu said quietly.

Zhu Yanshuo frowned: “Elder Shenlong means that he predicted your prediction?”

“George Han is too smart. Although I know him a little bit, on the other hand, he also understands me to some extent. Therefore, this possibility is very high.”

“You are similar to me, so if we replace Ye Shijun to lead us at this time, it can completely disrupt George Han’s original deployment.”

However, doing so , although it can indeed disrupt George Han’s deployment, but there is a fatal point is that Ye Shijun’s brain may be completely crushed by George Han in his on-the-spot performance.

It’s just that Ye Shijun was here, and Zhu Yanshuo didn’t dare to make a sound.

Mingyu saw Zhu Yanshuo

’s eyes, and actually instantly knew what he was worried about, and smiled slightly: “Although Shijun has a more impulsive personality, he is easily targeted by George Han when he is commanding on the spot, but we have an army of 200,000 people. Aiming at the overall situation will not affect anything.”

Zhu Yanshuo nodded: “The subordinate also recognizes Young Master Ye as the leader of the team.”

The anger on Ye Shijun’s face suddenly disappeared, and it was replaced by full of joy, this happiness is too much. Suddenly, he became the commander-in-chief.

This is exactly what he wants. Think about it, what kind of scenery will his mother be?

Moreover, such a large-scale battle will definitely go down in history. Hehe, think that thousands of years later, there will still be legends belonging to him circulating in the rivers and lakes, hum, it is not too beautiful.

“Don’t worry, you two, Shijun is the leader of the team, and he will definitely kill George Han, throwing away his armor, kneeling down and begging for mercy.” After the words were finished, he swept away Futian proudly.

Futian laughed, of course he was very happy. After all, when Ye Shijun was in power, his status of Futian naturally rose.

Ming Yu didn’t speak, took out a black token from his arms, and handed it to Ye Shijun gently: “This is the palm soldier talisman. From now on, the entire army is under your command.”

Ye Shijun took the token and couldn’t hide his excitement: “Yes.”

Ming Yu nodded: “We should have encountered George Han’s obstruction ahead, he may have come to be a one-man pass based on the terrain, in addition, we have not encountered the executives mentioned by Fu Mei. , I doubt where the ambush is very likely. The rest, you decide.”

“In addition, I have a small request. Since you are the commander-in-chief now, I hope you can make all the decisions yourself. Not following the opinions of others.

Ye Shijun nodded his head like garlic. At this time, he was completely immersed in the excitement of taking power. Ming Yu’s words were more like telling him that he could completely control everything. How could he know that Ming Yu really used a hard conscience.

“Okay, let’s go.” Ming Yu said.

Ye Shijun grabbed the military talisman and led the way.

After a while, he was already accompanied by Futiandi to the front of the troops, and with a single stroke of the military talisman in his hand, all the troops immediately knelt down in unison.

“Listen to my orders!” Ye Shijun’s face was full of spring breeze: “The army will continue to attack frontally, make no mistake!”

“Yes!”

“Futian!”

“Subordinates are here.”

“Send elites to attack from other parts of the mountain, and I will cover him. Three thousand dumplings!”

“Yes!”

“Woo!!” The

horn of the charge blared, and the drum of the shocking army also rumbled.

For a time, around the mountain, above the sky, the army crazily pressed towards the top of the mountain.

Chapter 3903

"It's not like Mingyu's behavior, she wouldn't be so merciful." Ningyue smiled: "So, as you expected, Ye Shijun was in command."

George Han nodded.

Whether it was Ming Yu or Zhu Yanshuo, with their prudence, it was absolutely impossible for them to be so hasty in such a short period of time.

"Why do you think that they will change coaches temporarily?" Ningyue was really puzzled.

After all, changing the coach temporarily during the war is actually a big taboo in the military. Ningyue thinks of ten thousand possibilities and absolutely won't think such a situation will happen.

"It's very simple, Mingyu is as smart as you are." George Han chuckled: "When you have tried to besiege a person with nearly 100,000 people, not only will you fail, but you will also have some scruples about this person. "

Fu Mei betrayed us, and he would definitely tell them how many people we ran away. They suddenly couldn't see that these people existed. They must have been bitten by snakes once, and they were afraid of straw ropes for ten thousand years."

"So, Mingyu Will they make adjustments again because they are not sure how these missing people will ambush her?" Ningyue said.

George Han nodded: "Yes, she will win the game, so she can't afford to lose, plus she is jealous of me, she is naturally very likely to be clever but mistaken."

Ningyue understood: "She is worried about being You made a prediction, so you used a Ye Shijun who is completely out of the way to deal with you, trying to disrupt your deployment, but what she didn't expect was that even so, she was still within your budget.

George Han smiled lightly: "What I'm waiting for is Mingyu to play with me like this."

"Originally, I thought that she would be like this for a while with me. I didn't expect her to be like this at the beginning. She was too cautious and too I ca n't afford to lose."

"If you can't afford to lose, then it's better to go home and take the children."

After that, George Han glanced at the array of elites above the sky: "That group of people is the main army who tore open their mouths. They must want to rely on them to do the main defense, and according to the original plan, they handed it over to me to deal with."

"I understand." Ningyue nodded.

"Also, let them be calm, and make sure that the enemy is completely inside the trap before making a move."

Ning Yuezai nodded: "Don't worry."

“Okay, I’ll perform first.” Move the two boulders, block the concave mouth, and then rise into the sky to meet the enemy in the air.

At this time, Ningyue also blew a whistle.

In the next second, the shadows of several people suddenly appeared on the top of the mountain on both sides, and the enemy in the mouth of the concave was bombarded wildly.

And Ningyue also has a lot of energy in her hands, sticking to the narrow path between the two boulders.

In the concave way, the black enemy army was in chaos because you pushed me, but now there are more high-level enemies bombarding wildly, and they completely collapsed for a while. No one still has the intention to attack, and only flees in a panic.

boom!

At almost the same time, George Han also fought against those black-clothed elites in the sky. Suddenly, the sky was bursting with fire, and the sky was bright and dark.

“Come on.”

Around the top of the mountain, on each road, several senior executives of Futian and Fujia also followed Ye Shijun’s order and led their troops from various places to the top of the mountain, but they just charged, and then a series of explosions suddenly occurred.

Obviously, George Han had already set up an ambush around the top of the mountain in advance. Once they entered the ambush circle, the battle would immediately ignite.

Boom! !

Bang bang bang!

Between the mountains, the sky, and the concave road that is about to reach the top of the mountain, various magical attacks and explosions emerge in an endless stream.

“Kill, kill, kill, kill me!”

Ye Shijun roared loudly, commanding passionately.

But, at this moment, an accident happened.

Boom...

A huge explosion sounded, Ye Shijun and Ming Yu followed the sound and couldn’t help being shocked at the same time..
