

Chapter 3904

explosion site, a group of people were surprised to find that it turned out to be under the foot of the mountain.

That is, the rear of their 200,000 army?

But where did the people behind them come from?

“Could it be that the people who should have fallen in the city came to support?”

If the tens of thousands of people who should have fallen into the city rushed here, then for their army of 200,000 people, this would undoubtedly be a heavy blow.

They were attacked back and forth!

“It’s impossible. We have a 200,000-strong army to surround the city. Not to mention what kind of army can rush out there. Even a fly would be a fool’s dream.” Ye Shijun shouted angrily, never believing that this could happen.

Ming Yu also nodded slightly: “No matter how powerful the group of people who should fall into the city are, they will never be surrounded by our 200,000 army, and they will lurking behind us without a movement. Therefore, it can’t be them. “

Is it a trick to get the tiger out of the way? I suspect that Fumei probably didn’t deceive George Han at all. Instead, George Han took the plan and created an empty city for us. In fact, a large number of troops have been ambushed there. Down the mountain, just waiting for us to get hooked?”

“What?” Ming Yu was suddenly startled, his pupils widened.

If this is the case, then their current situation is not the absolute advantage they imagined, but an absolute danger.

“Then do you want to mobilize the people from the surrounding city?” Someone asked.

“No.” Zhu Yanshuo hurriedly stopped, and then hurriedly said to Mingyu: “If the siege soldiers are mobilized at this time, I am afraid that it is the real plan of George Han.”

“At that time, there will be fewer soldiers besieging the city, and it’s time to turn down the city to defend and attack, and it will really copy our back path.” When the words fell, Zhu Yanshuo said: “I think the explosion at the foot of the mountain is fierce, but the firepower is not like an army. The firepower should probably just be the elite team under George Hanbu. Send some people over to deal with it.”

With Zhu Yanshuo’s words, Mingyu regained his peace of mind. Zhu Yanshuo was right, George Hanbu was in the mountains. There should be an elite team with a small number of people at the foot.

Not only to delay the offensive, but also to bring some disturbance by the way.

“George Han, you are really scheming, you almost let you bastard be deceived.” Ming Yu gritted his teeth and looked at the person beside him: “Seven special envoys.”

“My subordinates are here.” A black The person with a skull on his clothes

“immediately leads the people who are in the Hall of Souls and pulls it out for me.”

“This subordinate understands.”

The man in black waved his hand, and more than 30 people dressed in the same clothes immediately followed him and quickly went down the mountain to kill.

Ye Shijun also clapped his palms at this time, and re-invigorated the morale of everyone: “Don’t be distracted, attack with all your strength, I tell you, when you win the three thousand Han, I will double the reward for you.”

“Kill!”

A gang of soldiers regained their morale and continued to attack the top of the mountain again.

And a moment later, at the foot of the mountain, the fire was also raging, and the troops ordered by the seventh special envoy also officially fought with the troops ambushed by George Han.

“Huh!”

It was time to land on the city wall, and the leaders of the four walls were almost all standing on the city wall, looking at the mountains in the distance.

There was a fire soaring into the sky, illuminating the sky, and the movement was too great.

“Commander... what should I do now?” the entourage asked in a low voice.

Judging from the light of the fire, the battle over there was extremely fierce. Therefore, the alliance leader and others may be more unfortunate than lucky.

Dongmen Commander shook his head: “How? No.”

“As a soldier, the implementation of orders is the first standard. Since the leader of the alliance requires us to guard each division, we will guard each division, even if anything happens outside.”

“Just , the subordinates are worried about the leader and the others...” The attendant said.

Once George Han is gone, the entire city will basically be gone.

Although the order is one thing, it also takes time.

“If we have no leader, then...then we will be completely defeated. Otherwise, our subordinates will lead a group of death squads to break out of the siege and go to the rescue?”

“I can give you a group of soldiers.” The commander said: “But , I’m not going to rescue the Alliance Lord and the others.”

The entourage was stunned for a moment, giving the soldiers but not letting them save people, why?

The commander let out a long sigh and suddenly laughed coldly...

Chapter 3905

“People in the city, there are some people who are somewhat two-hearted. Right now, the leaders of the alliance are in a critical situation. I believe that even worse, they will take advantage of the chaos. Escape, you should bring a team of elites to patrol. If you find anyone who disturbs our army or flees, kill them on the spot.”

“Yes, this subordinate understands.” After the words were finished, the followers quickly retreated.

Seeing his entourage leave, the East Gate commander shook his head helplessly and looked at the sky above his head: “There are not many opportunities for people to choose in life, this time, can I bet on the right thing?”

” Commander, I have been betrayed and abandoned by others, and I know the pain and suffering, and I don’t want to become that hateful one day.”

“Compared to ordinary people, we can at least die on the battlefield.”

” Alliance Lord, I will swear to guard the city gate to the death. People are at the city gate, and the city will be destroyed.”

He patted his chest loudly towards the sky.

And almost at the same time, on the other side of the mountains under the same sky.

A large number of troops are still madly attacking the top of the mountain. Although they have encountered stubborn resistance, for such a huge army, it is just a drop in the bucket.

At the foot of the mountain, there were bursts of fire before, but it also disappeared at this time.

Zhu Yanshuo rarely showed a relaxed smile. At least, the war was over in just ten minutes, which fully proved that his guess was correct.

Underneath, there is only a small group of forces, but it is George Han’s tricks, or a sneak attack tactic that seems useless with limited forces.

Ming Yu glanced at Zhu Yanshuo who was smiling confidently, and the whole person relaxed a lot.

“It seems that what City Lord Zhu expected was justified.” Someone was flattering Zhu Yanshuo at this time. ” Hmph

, Han’s 3,000 troops are surrounded by us, and he also tried to use a small force to surround us to scare us. This guy is really cunning to the extreme.”

Let George Han startle us a lot.”

Ming Yu also nodded slightly, now it seems that her nerves are too tight. What she has to admit is that after being overturned by George Han one after another, she is too sensitive to George Han.

So much so that whenever there is trouble, she becomes overly nervous.

Zhu Yanshuo was really happy to be complimented by a group of people, especially even Ming Yu nodded slightly to him, which made him know that he was recognized.

“Zhu is just a little bit of analysis, and it just happened to happen.”

“Haha, special envoy of Shenlong, City Lord Zhu managed the city well at a young age, and now this matter proves that he is very humble and a talent that can be created. “

Yes, there are many young talents, but there are only a few who can be as humble as City Lord Zhu. City Lord Zhu’s future is very promising. He is a talented person.”

Ming Yu nodded with a smile. She saw Zhu Yanshuo’s talent in her eyes, and he liked it very much this time.

Zhu Yanshuo was overjoyed, but there was a light smile on his face: “Everyone loves you, Zhu has a lot to learn.”

When he was about to speak, suddenly there was a sound in the distance behind him, and everyone hurriedly turned around, But I only saw a man with a dismal face and embarrassed coming.

He was almost disheveled, and there were many wounds on his body.

Just when everyone was puzzled, he suddenly raised his head and looked here.

And it was this look that, even though they were still far apart from each other, Ming Yu’s group recognized this person in an instant.

“Then... isn’t that the Seventh Special Envoy?”

“Ah? He... Didn’t he go down the mountain to suppress the enemy? Didn’t the war quickly subside? How could... how could this be?”

“No, no, no, it’s impossible, it’s impossible. “

Some people shouted unbelievably, and some even lost their minds on the spot, unable to say a word.

Zhu Yanshuo and Ming Yu looked at each other in astonishment, and no one said a word for a while.

After waiting for the next second, Zhu Yanshuo reacted violently, and hurriedly led a few soldiers to the Seventh Special Envoy and rushed his supporter back.

The seven envoys were covered in blood and their faces were extremely pale.

“Seventh special envoy, you...” Ming Yu looked at the seven special envoys in shock, completely puzzled.

How could he be like this?

He failed? !

“Report... I tell the special envoy of Shenlong, there are... at the foot of the mountain... there are... a large number of mysterious troops, the number is extremely... extremely large, we... we were instantly defeated when we went down, and the subordinates... the subordinates were desperate to break through the encirclement. “

“What?!!”
