

Chapter 3908

“What?”

Pei Gu frowned fiercely, and his body could not help but stand up.

Looking at the sky attacking, he was really surprised!

This should be in the city, isn't the city defense empty? How... how can there be such a large-scale attack all of a sudden? !

Next to him, his entourage was also extremely confused: “Patriarch!”

“This is impossible, isn't it an empty city? The area of this firepower...”

Wow!

Before he could say the second half of the sentence, a rain of arrows suddenly landed, and all kinds of magic attacks also landed.

Although the Yutu people are physically strong, it is obviously unbearable to be killed by such a large-scale group bombardment without any precaution.

The tribesmen were injured in the arrow rain, or fell down, and explosions continued to blow up in the team.

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

Almost at the same time, the other three sides of the city defense also exploded at the same time!

Looking around

, the entire fall city is surrounded by flames, and the war is raging!

“This...this...” The servant was completely stunned, completely speechless.

Even Pei Gu, the head of the family, was stunned at this time and had no idea why.

There are wars on all sides, and the fighting situation is extremely fierce, what kind of empty city is this, this is clearly... It is clearly a city full of iron defenses by his mother.

“F, what the hell are they doing over there? This city defense with so much firepower, how the hell has it become an empty city?”

The servant is also extremely depressed: “Information errors on the battlefield are fatal, even if we have an advantage at this time!”

“Yes, Patriarch, now my clan has been attacking the city deeply, and it is completely difficult to withdraw for a while, but if we do not withdraw. , when we are unprepared, the enemy's blow to us is like a fatal blow.”

Pei Guqi gasped for breath, these things, he is very clear without them saying, but now it is out of line Arrow, what can he do?

There is no other choice but to bite the bullet.

“F, I’m not afraid of a strong enemy, but I’m afraid that my teammates are pigs. I really accepted these idiots. Order the troops, stabilize the formation, and continue to attack.

” Solid heart suffocated to death.

The servant took the order: “This subordinate understands.”

As the servant left, Pei Gu slammed a depressed punch on the table. It was really a goddamn bad luck, and it was so unfavorable to leave the apprenticeship.

At this time, the mountains are here.

The army of 30,000 people was pulled up by Zhu Yanshuo, who turned the gun directly and turned towards the downhill for defense. As for the attacking troops from above, the offensive also began to weaken at this time, and the morale of the previous 3000 Han was completely lost , and it was more like waiting to be defended.

“Everyone cheer up, don’t let up.” Ye Shijun instructed the soldiers without the slightest worry on his face: “A mere tens of thousands of people want to make our dumplings, and George Han is also talking nonsense.

” According to my temper, I directly beat him George Han, and I have to be so conservative.”

“However, keep conservative and be conservative. Anyway, as long as you wait for the periphery to win the city, he will be hard to fly like George Han.”

Futian smiled lightly: “Elder Shenlong is also for safety reasons, although we really have nothing to worry about, but after all, we are facing George Han. If this guy hits us with head and tail, if something goes wrong, If we let him escape, wouldn’t we have lost a lot of money.”

Ye Shijun nodded: “Don’t worry, I can still understand this. You really think this young master is a fool. I have a few words. It’s just a complaint.”

“He George Han is just a dead man to Lao Tzu, it’s just the difference between an early death and a late death.”

Futian smiled: “It’s fine if you understand.”

Ye Shijun sneered and looked at the top of the mountain: “Han Three thousand, I see how you died this time. Listening to the news, the siege battle has already started over there.”

“Yes.”

“Oh, the scale of two hundred thousand is really different. It’s such a big deal to attack an empty city. I also want to keep a low profile, but you see, this strength is not allowed.” Ye Shijun laughed.

Futian also laughed along with him.

However, at this moment, Ye Shijun suddenly frowned: "Futian, why hasn't the army at the foot of the mountain moved?"

Futian was about to speak, but there was a burst of uproar behind him. Time hell...

"What the F is that?"

Chapter 3909

the top of the mountain, the curling smoke slowly rises, and even because of the wind, the crowd can still smell the aroma of meat.

"F, George Han is cooking on it." Futian couldn't help but spray directly.

The two armies are fighting each other, and he is still in a crisis state of being outnumbered and outnumbered by the enemy. He's not a motherFer, and he's actually... actually cooking on it!

Are you Fing sick? !

"He's a bastard, she's really a business girl who doesn't know the hatred of subjugation of the country, and she actually cooks for me at this time." Ye Shijun was angry: "F, Futian, lead me to attack him immediately, it's really the opposite. Damn, I'm still hungry, he's better, let his mother cook the food, F, it's still roasted meat."

Futian responded and was about to start, but Zhu Yanshuo stood in front of him.

"What, Zhu Yanshuo, I want to send troops to move, are you ready to stop it?" Ye Shijun snorted dissatisfiedly: "Don't forget, Elder Shengkong will give the command of the entire army to me, you, say It doesn't matter."

Zhu Yanshuo's face was extremely ugly, since Mingyu came, Ye Shijun was rude in front of him, which made him extremely unhappy.

However, whoever called him a son, he had no other choice but to swallow his anger: "What is Ye son's arrangement, Zhu naturally dare not ask."

"If you dare not ask, what are you doing here?" Ye Shijun said coldly.

Zhu Yanshuo was about to speak, when Ming Yu walked over slowly: "I asked him to come over and say it, okay?" When the words fell, Ming Yu looked at Zhu Yanshuo: "City Lord Zhu, speak up if you have something to say. ."

Zhu Yanshuo nodded: "On the road to the top of the mountain, George Han defended against danger, and our air raid elites were also scattered by George Han."

"Now, we are surrounded by a large army at the rear, and our morale is not very high. "Okay."

"George Hanshan is cooking on a fire, is it really because he is hungry?"

Ming Yu nodded slightly: "You mean, this guy is deliberately attacking our morale."

"Subordinate I think that if we attack the top of the mountain at this time, it will be difficult to capture in a short period of time, and the soldiers will be somewhat discouraged, and then think that there is still a thorn in the back at any time, and no one will feel good." Zhu Yanshuo said.

"So, City Lord Zhu means..."

"My subordinates have an immature suggestion. George Han can make a fire to cook, and so can we. We should cook better and richer than him." Zhu Yanshuo said.

Ye Shijun muttered, "You also know that your suggestion is immature."

Futian hurriedly and gently grabbed Ye Shijun

, telling him not to say more, and everything was left to what Mingyu had to say.

"Okay, order the troops, except for the basic guards, make a fire to cook." Ming Yu nodded: "This is also good, at least it can give more time to the outsiders who attack the city."

Zhu Yanshuo hurriedly took the order: "Yes. When the words fell, Zhu Yanshuo blew the horn of rest.

Ye Shijun snorted slightly between his nose: "It's just right, let's take a rest, I also save the toss." After the words were finished, he found a shady place to lie down in dissatisfaction.

After a while, not only the smoke from the top of the mountain curled up, but the meat on the mountainside was also cooked at this time.

"It seems that some people have followed suit." Amelia Su took George Han's roasted meat and couldn't help laughing.

George Han smiled disdainfully.

"Three thousand, you said, if we hit them at this time, wouldn't they be caught off guard?"

"Ningyue laughed at this time: "Let them learn from us.

", 200,000 horses, how many of them can we rush? This matter is of little significance, and it will be even more difficult to get in and want to come back." George Han shook his head and refused.

There are four places in the mountain, and the position on the top of the mountain is safe to defend. If he changed other places, George Han wanted to rely on himself to resist the attack of so many people, which was like a dream.

"Then let's just spend it with them like this?" Ningyue asked suspiciously: "It's not a long-term solution, how long can we spend with them?"

"After redistributing the meat to the two girls, he lay down comfortably: "Don't worry, opportunities are all waiting to come.
