

Chapter 391: How can I just watch Igola get happiness?

Panji's doubts are also everyone's puzzle.

Yaxiu nodded: "Yes, after all, Harvey and I are both appearing on the future list, and Igola hasn't appeared once so far... Why does Earily prefer Igola so much? Does she want to be charming from a man? What does the baby get?"

At this point, everyone is looking at An Nan.

An Nan raised his eyebrows: "What are you doing?"

"Because it was your decision to bring us to Monferra, Missy." Ash said, "And you also know Falin. If anyone of us knows Ms. Beldette best, then it is you."

Panji was also a little curious: "I also came here to find out, Miss, you have had a relationship with Miss Falin."

An Nan raised her leg, raised her hand and fiddled with the earrings gently, as if she had fry the intelligence processing into a famous funeral dish in her mind: "Falin...My relationship with her is a long time ago, since she took over as the head of the house. , We never contacted again."

She doesn't seem to intend to disclose the secret of "How to Meet Super White, Rich and Beautiful, Get Rid of Poverty and Become Rich", and went directly to the topic: "Falin's personality is actually quite normal. It won't change, and her personality, quality, and virtue will naturally not be bad. Except for her height, she is actually pretty much the same as an ordinary girl."

"What I have to say is that she is too ordinary-so ordinary that she wants to have a pure and sincere sweet relationship. She also knows that the biggest obstacle to her love is her identity, so she once ran away from home, looking forward to a thrilling and exciting Another wonderful adventure."

"What's the result?" Ya Xiu asked.

“The result is naturally that the previous generation of Patriarch Beldette spent money to let her enjoy an adventure in her dreams.” An Nan shrugged: “Later she knew the truth and gave up her heart. She stopped pursuing the happiness of common people and went home to inherit. A trillion-scale consortium.”

“Speaking of which, Falyin doesn’t seem to be very old, why can he become the owner of the family at such a young age?” Harvey asked, “What about her parents?”

“Except for knowing that she has passed away, there is no more information, but her parents have nothing to do with the owner of the family—the owner of Beldette is basically unmarried, and the heirs are the descendants of brothers and sisters. Therefore, Falyin’s parents are not the owner of the family. Aunt is the head of the previous generation.”

An Nan said: “Almost all the previous generations of Beldette’s patrons succeeded when they were young. Assuming that the previous generation of Patriarchs did not live in anonymity but died in retirement, the previous generations of Beldette Patriarchs would not live to be 40 years old.”

“Wait!” Ah Xiu raised his hand and asked, “When is the time of the death of the biological parents of the Patriarchs of the past?”

An Nan’s expression is a bit subtle: “I don’t know, but it’s never been seen in the past data that the parents of Beldette’s Patriarch are still there. According to statistics, “becoming the Patriarch” should be equated with “Parents dying”. There is no problem. ”

“Then I have to tell Igola the news quickly—”

“It’s useless,” Harvey said lightly.

Ya Xiu looked at the necromancer in surprise: “Why is it useless? Sooner or later he will become a sacrifice for his children!”

“Even so, it takes more than ten years for children to grow up.” Harvey shook his head and said, “Do you think fraudsters care about the long-term benefits of more than a decade? Do you think fraudsters will be afraid of the outbreak after more than a decade. Risk?”

“And according to his personality, he must have investigated all the unexpected loopholes you can think of. How careful I was when I dissected, how carefully he was when I investigated, you actually tried to remind him in his field of expertise, I just think You look down on Igola Borkin.”

Axiu was slightly startled, and slowly closed the gospel.

“Could it be Igola’s appearance that caught the attention of Ms. Falin?” Panji guessed.

An Nan shook her head and waved her hand, giving the butler a double denial: “I also said that Falynn is just an ordinary girl, and she doesn’t have a love mind to the point of an idiot. And even if she is a idiot, she should be on her own. Why? Want to let my sister marry Igola? Is there anyone in this world who likes the love of no matter what?”

Ya Xiu blinked and subconsciously wiped the non-existent blood on his face.

An Nan said again: “Betting the entire Beldette consortium on one person, not to mention Igola is a beautiful boy, even if Igola is the reincarnation of her angel ancestor, she has to think carefully.”

“Actually, you can think about it the other way around, maybe it’s a bit simpler.”

Everyone looked at the ‘Lis’ in Yaxiu’s arms, and ‘Lis’ said, “Why didn’t Eharyn choose Harvey and Yaxiu? Is there a reason why I can’t choose them?”

Panji wakes up like a dream: “Yes, if I were Miss Falin, I would definitely not choose Mr. Harvey. Let’s not mention that Mr. Harvey will steal the inheritance of his ancestors in the future, and more importantly, Mr. Harvey’s reputation is already complete. It sucks. To support Mr. Harvey is to be the enemy of the whole gospel.”

Harvey scratched his ears embarrassedly: “Thank you.”

"I'm not complimenting you." An Nan said in a huff: "It's easy to understand that if you don't choose Asia Xiu, the Empire is still looking for Asia Xiu. If you rashly tied Asia Xiu to Beldit's chariot, it is simply seeking death. road..."

Yaxiu nodded and shook his head: "But these are just reasons not to choose us. However, the conditions that the dwarf made to Igola are too superior. Igola must have what Beldit needs."

"Then I don't know anymore." An Nan spread his hands.

The room fell silent for a while, and Harvey suddenly said, "So what are we going to do?"

"If Igola wants to abandon the secret to become Berdette's son-in-law, shall we give two coffins as a blessing to the wedding, or do we find ways to destroy Igola's hard-won or even the rare chance to comeback in a lifetime?"

Whether it is better to spit out 'Abandon the dark and cast the light' or 'Send two coffins' ...Because the slots are too dense, An Nan felt that his voice output ability could not keep up with the growing need for spitting, and fell silent instead.

"If Igola succeeds in falling in love with Anfil," Ashiu counted with his fingers: "Then he can not only get out of the funeral office, but he can also control Beldette's trillions of fortunes, but also The support of Beldit to continue sweeping the knitting festival, and to dominate us in turn... The most important thing is that he can also have an innocent, kind, lovely and beautiful wife."

"I think the answer is already obvious." Ya Xiu spread his hand: "As a friend, as a comrade in arms, as a cellmate, I can't convince myself not to make trouble! How can I just watch Igola get happiness!?"

Harvey reminded: "But don't forget, if Igola can dominate An Nan in turn, then we can also get out of the funeral office. It is good for us to support Igola."

An Nan glanced at the necromancer, she was not angry because Panji helped dispel their rebellious betrayal: "Mr. Harvey, do you think Mr. Bogin will cancel your contract with the young lady or pass it? Will the young lady's contract continue to control you?"

Harvey woke up like a dream: "Yes, how can I doubt Igola's character?"

"Also." Ah Xiu said solemnly, "Don't you feel nauseous when you see others get happiness?"

"Indeed." Harvey nodded.

"I can't forgive it in multiple senses." An Nan flicked the eardrop lightly.

Although Panji was standing on the side of the funeral office, he naturally agreed to interfere with Igola, but looking at the three people in front of him who smelled the same, the 60-year-old housekeeper always felt that his conscience was aching...

Chapter 392: just forget it

After working hard to formulate "Rescue Igola from Happiness (Extreme Secret, everyone left Ah Xiu's room.

But when An Nan pushed open the door, he happened to see Igola's blond hair disappearing in the corner of the corridor.

Yaxiu said in surprise: "Igola didn't work overtime tonight?"

"He is going to be Beldette's son-in-law and he still does some job." An Nan said in a low voice, motioning them to follow: "Our opportunity is here."

They followed all the way to the atrium on the second floor. Because the manor was located on the second floor of the city, there were no obstructions around it. The night sky was bright, stars twinkling, and the light yellow was a few meters thick. The makeup and heavy rouge made the artificial gardening romantic. Of the curtain.

The gardening maze is the best shelter. Halfway through the funeral, I heard Igola's voice from inside:
"Sorry, have you waited a long time?"

"No." Anfil's cheerful voice was filled with a smile that couldn't be concealed.

"Um?"

"No, it's just that my sister has told me many times that you are a psychic, and you must have a lot of love experience. Let me be careful of you, but you are more nervous than I thought."

"Huh? Where is the problem with me?"

"No, it's not a physical problem, but I can feel it." Although just listening to the voice, everyone seems to be able to see a girl with squinting eyes: "Mr. Igola, you're just a person who is strong and weak. A weak person, you will be super calm and smart when facing your sister, but when facing an idiot like me, you will be at a loss."

"There is no one who says he is stupid," Igola also smiled: "No stupid I have ever called himself stupid."

"What about you Harvey." Ah Xiu took the initiative.

"I'm a fool." Harvey said calmly, "It's your turn to prove yourself."

I don't even say that I am a fool, but I understand that the person who says I am a fool is not a fool.

Ya Xiu is true: "I am a fool."

As soon as Ash was speaking, An Nan, Liz, and Harvey turned on the recording function of the gospel at the same time.

“Okay, the recording is over.” Harvey looked at Ah Xiu with ‘compassion’ eyes, as if saying, “It’s really hard work, you jumped out to prove it.”

“This is bullying, right? This is definitely workplace bullying!” Ah Xiu gritted his teeth and said: “I want to complain to the Gospel!”

“What are you guys doing here!”

Everyone looked back and saw a blue-haired girl appearing behind them. With her arms akimbo, she stared at the funeral office angrily, like the boss who caught the employees and fished.

“We didn’t work overtime tonight, we can go wherever we want.” An Nan asked back: “On the contrary, you are Falin, what are you doing here?”

“My sister is on a date, of course I want to overhear and check the situation!” Falyin made a shameless remark in a natural tone.

“You actually don’t trust our ‘good friend’ Ikola Borkin!” An Nan looked shocked: “Dating is still under surveillance. I feel worthless for Borkin! No, I must persuade him. , Let him know your true colors!”

“An Nan, your acting skills are still so bad.” Falin looked disgusted: “It looks so bad.”

“Then you come to hit me, do you need me to kneel down and compete with you? After all, with my height, it’s like hitting you, a fire hydrant from the second floor.”

“Ann—Nan—”

“Wait.” Panji felt very strange: “We are so noisy, why are we still chatting inside?”

“Hmph, do you think I didn’t expect your group to make trouble?” Falin raised her eyebrows: “Not only is there a silent miracle enchantment here, but after Igola came in, the gardening here began to move. ,

The inner and outer labyrinths are completely isolated. Now not only will we not be able to get in, but they will also get lost if they think about it inside, and they can slowly cultivate their feelings!”

“Then what should they do when they want to leave?” Ah Xiu asked curiously.

“I will keep eavesdropping next to me, and when I think they can end the date, I will press this button.” Eharyn took out a controller: “The gardening maze and the mute enchantment will be lifted at that time.”

“Of course, you can also directly destroy the facilities here to destroy this date, but the damage caused... I hope you can afford it.”

This is actually multiple traps. If the funeral dared to destroy private property, Falyin would be happy to mention new employees!

“Oh~” An Nan nodded: “It’s a meticulous arrangement...Hey!”

Falin sensitively avoided An Nan’s snatch, “Demon! I knew An Nan, you are still as rude as an orc.”

“You can hide like goblins too!” An Nan gritted his teeth and looked at everyone behind: “What are you doing in a daze, come and help!”

“I want more people to bully fewer people?” Falin smiled: “Without weapons and unable to attack magic miracles, I also want to see how you deal with me, the two-wing boxer master.”

“Don’t damage the gardening next to me. At best, you can only strengthen yourself by magical miracles.” Panji reminded: “Miss Falin was deliberately alone to provoke us and induce us to damage her family’s property.”

“Do you like the starry sky?” Igola asked.

“I like it very much.” Anfil said: “Looking at the sky full of stars, I will feel how small I am, and my daily worries have become insignificant. I am most easily shocked by two things, one is the magnificent starry sky. The other is the persistence of the characters in the legendary deeds. The brilliance of human nature is as dazzling as the stars of the night sky.”

Harvey rushed to Eharin, and Eharin took off gently and vigorously, causing the necromancer to fall and eat shit.

An Nan and Ya Xiu fought back and forth, and the blue-haired girl slipped past Ya Xiu’s armpits, causing them to bump into each other full of arms.

“Mr. Igola must have been to many places? Is there such a thrilling adventure?”

“Yes, yes, but the content is not very healthy.”

“That’s great, I like to listen to dark and true adventure stories.”

“Do you yearn for adventure?”

“Yes, I have liked watching adventure stories since I was a kid, but I have been to other cities as far as I am. The only place I can take risks is the manor... My favorite series of adventure stories is to find ancient times in the wilderness far from the city circle. Traces of civilization, Mr. Igola, do you have such an experience?!”

“When I was eating black, I found that the field trading place used to be the dining hall of the ogre tribe hundreds of years ago. Does this count?”

“ $\sphericalangle (\cong \nabla \cong *)$ o black eat black!”

Panji took the opportunity to flew and hugged Falin’s legs. Falin didn’t panic at all. She pressed her body forward and lifted her legs upwards. While breaking free, she also kicked the housekeeper’s chin fiercely.

But at this time, An Nan also rushed over and tried to hug Falyin. Falyin gave a soft “monster”, and her legs stretched out—Axiu found out that she was wearing safety pants under her skirt—and her legs looked like Spinning like a windmill, it tripped the purple moth directly!

“Monster~” Eharin laughed disdainfully, turned two tumblers, and landed proudly like a champion—

“uh-huh!”

At the same time Harvey let out a muffled groan, Falin, who stepped on the necromancer, fell and ate shit. The controller in her pocket flew out until she hit a pair of small feet.

Liz, who had been watching the show, blinked, picked up the controller and handed it to Ya Xiu.

“By the way, let’s make a confession first! I will tell my sister when I go back, I am very satisfied with you, so that the initiative is on your side.”

“Um?”

“Why do you help me like this?”

“In fact, it’s not really a help. UU reading www.uukanshu.com, after all, I am very satisfied with Mr. Igola and I am not lying. And Mr. Igola, you are threatened by your sister. I can at least give you more room to deal with by doing this. ”

“Threat? But this deal is myself—”

“There are only two options, ‘Let me like you’ and ‘Be a Servant of Beldette for a lifetime’. It’s not a free choice.” Anfil seemed to lower his head and turn his teacup: “But I also know that. My sister has my sister’s ideas, and Mr. Igola, you also have your own goals. After all, your positions are opposite. I just wishfully postponed the outbreak of your conflicts.”

“But... you and your sister are smart people. Maybe you can delay a little time and you can find a way for everyone to mutually benefit and win? Hehe, anyway, I will be scolded by my sister, and I am willing to lose the bet.”

“Axiu, good opportunity!” An Nan rushed over and hugged Falin’s calf.

“Axiu, do you dare!?” Falin threatened with her teeth and claws like a tiger.

Harvey is treating his injuries from being trampled on. Panji, who was brutally hit to his jaw, is still in a state of dizziness.

Ya Xiu looked at the controller in his hand, he thought for a while, turned around and threw the controller to the center of the garden, where the two Igola were.

“just forget it.”

The cult leader clapped his hands and took “Lisi” back.

Chapter 393: hypothesis

The virtual world, the time continent.

“What are you thinking?”

Ya Xiu was startled slightly, then turned his head to see Jian Ji approaching him, very close. The tip of their nose almost touched the tip of their nose, and the warm breath kissed each other first, and Ah Xiu could even see her reflection in her sly eyes.

Between the lightning and flint, Ya Xiu suppressed the dodge instinct in his body with a strong psychological quality, and opened his eyes wide to meet her.

For 1 second, 2 seconds, 3 seconds, Sonia's egg white's cheek was flushed like a light mist, but she seemed to be stronger, and she kept staring at Ya Xiu without blinking. Suddenly she stretched out a small piece of cherry tongue and licked her lips, the smile spread out along the corners of the curled mouth, jumped over the cute face into the clear big eyes, and chemically reacted with the tension in the pupils, accompanied by His sight turned into a virus invading Ya Xiu's nerves, and he couldn't help but want to laugh.

Snapped!

When Sonia turned her head to look at the source of the sound, Ya Xiu immediately raised her fist to declare victory: "I won!"

I'm not playing a face-to-face game with you! How old are you so naive!

The village girl was anxious and looked badly at the witch who fell outside the car to interrupt them, "What are you doing?"

"I, I was thinking about whether to go further and make room for you..." The witch said embarrassedly, "Look, the rain curtain of the upstream golden rain is actually very powerful. I only need to take ten steps. I can't see you outside at all, it's very safe! I'm sorry to disturb you, I'll leave now!"

Dia originally wanted to leave Mimi quietly, but because she was too careful, she was unbalanced and tripped over the door of the car when she left, accidentally grabbing the ground with her head. In fact, she herself is very regretful—after all, she and her sisters have read the preface in the fairy tale picture book before, and she and her sisters are very curious about the 10,000-character text deduced by Jian Ji and the viewer.

It was Sonia who had practiced acting in the mirror, and she was shocked by the witch's words that made her face feverish, and her ears became hot, and she hurriedly went over to hold her: "No interruption! Come back and sit down!"

"Then what were you doing just now?" Dia asked curiously.

“We...we are just playing a game of looking at each other!” Sonia defended: “Whoever looks away first wins and loses!”

“Oh, Jian Ji, you are so naive.” Ya Xiu sighed and shrugged helplessly: “How old are you, can you be more mature?”

The village girl’s face turned red-this time she was angry. She felt that her anger was going to burn through her belly, and she was sure that she would be able to crit 100% if she drew her sword to the viewer.

“By the way, I saw some interesting information in the magician’s manual just now.” Dia said, “It’s about the investigation of Colorful Tail.”

Just now, Ya Xiu and the others drove to death a projection of a magician who didn’t have eyes on the road as a wandering around in their living room.

The magic spirit exploded by the magician projection was handed over to Jian Ji to sell, the magician manual was basically read by Diya, and only some particularly difficult magician manuals were dealt with by Ya Xiu. To be honest, Ya Xiu is still quite satisfied with the current garbage collection mechanism. After all, Deya will screen out most of the “ordinary” manuals. Therefore, Ya Xiu can only see some very popular manuals, each of which contains There are at least a dozen r18 tags, and every reading can refresh his understanding of biodiversity.

Hearing the colorful tail, Sonia immediately put out the fireworks in her heart, and Ya Xiu also drove to chase the white bull.

“The owner of the manual has collected a lot of information about the colorful tail, and after field verification and investigation, most of the hypotheses have been falsified.” Dia said: “Of the colorful tail hypotheses he knows, the most likely one is the three half magician hypotheses. , Qishushi Hypothesis and Bainiu Hypothesis.”

“The hypotheses of the three half-skills and seven-skills in it are actually the same. The magicians think that the “seven color” in the colorful tail refers to the color of the magician’s virtual wings. Although we are both Silver Wings and Gold Wings, if we study carefully, in fact, everyone’s virtual wing color and virtual wing shape are different. It is not an exaggeration to say that they are different colors.”

“Therefore, some magicians believe that if seven different virtual wings can be collected, it may be possible to cause the virtual world mechanism to generate a colorful tail. And the three semi-hypotheses are simplified versions extended on this basis. If everyone is For a fully condensed two-winged magician, those three and a half magicians can gather seven virtual wings.”

“There is another version of the Golden Seven Magician: Only the fully condensed Golden Void can be counted as ‘One Color’, and the Silver Void is not counted. Therefore, it must be triggered by seven two-winged condensed wizards. “Colorful Tail”. This speculation is also grounded-the magicians believe that when they gather the seven golden wings, they will become ‘seven drops of rain’ and fall upward along with the upstream golden rain. ”

Ya Xiu and Sonia both nodded their heads after hearing it. Although the argumentation process was very nonsense, compared with the Golden Fish Secret Poison, this Seven Magician hypothesis was already very convincing.

Moreover, the advanced version of the Golden Seven Magician Hypothesis takes into account the largest range of mechanisms in the mainland at the time of the upstream Golden Rain, which is very convincing, and even Ya Xiu feels that the possibility is very high.

Although he has only experienced the baptism of the golden fish’s secret poison, Ya Xiu has a faint hunch: The smuggling mechanism in the virtual realm should all belong to the kind of ‘brain twists’, ‘black under the lights’, ‘I don’t know how I can’t think of it. The type that feels very simple as soon as I know it, is as sophisticated and conspicuous as the detective’s murder method.

But this does not mean that the virtual world is easy to sneak into, on the contrary, the magician must also meet some extremely harsh conditions. Just like the golden fish, it doesn’t have any requirements for your location, as long as you can fly, but except for the “childhood equestrians” like Ya Xiu and Jian Ji who grew up together, other silver masters must have excellent skills. Only luck can meet and persuade another magician to team up and fly.

Therefore, there is a high probability that the colorful tail can be triggered anywhere in the time continent, but the trigger conditions are particularly harsh, and it is almost impossible for a magician to meet the conditions. Like the Golden Seven Magician Hypothesis, it has all the above factors, and Ah Xiu thinks this may be the truth, but...

Dia nodded: “By chance, the owner of the manual once gathered three half-magicians, but by all means, they still failed to trigger the colorful tail mechanism when Silent Domain caught up with them. This semi-hypothesis is basically wrong. The Golden Seven Magician has not been falsified yet, and is regarded as a highly likely second option by the owner of the manual.”

“Only second?”

“Because another white bull hypothesis that has not been falsified is more likely,” Diya said: “The magicians believe that the four legs of the white bull are the passage of the colorful tail.”

Ya Xiu and Sonia raised their heads suddenly and looked at the white pillar far in the sky.

“Yes,” Sonia suddenly remembered something: “The white light enters the prism and it reflects colorful colors... This is the common sense of the light arts faction!”

“Yes, the owner of the manual also wrote this just now.” Diya nodded: “The white bull hypothesis refers to the fact that the white bull’s four legs are actually four tails. If the technician can run into the white bull’s four legs, he can use himself The soul acts as a prism, UU reading www.uukanshu.com can reflect the colorful tail, and then the magician can fly along the four-legged beam of light to the third floor of the virtual realm.”

Ah Xiu decided to retract the preface: The White Bull Hypothesis is indeed more convincing than the Golden Seven Magician Hypothesis. After all, the latter has to gather seven magicians, even if it is Ashiu can’t do it, unless he even has four krypton operators, and this hypothesis will only turn into raindrops and fall to the sky; but the white bull hypothesis is a continuous ascent channel. They are all ready, and the scientific reasoning of ‘white light reflects colorful’ is also deeply loved by Asia.

“So what is preventing the owner of the manual from verifying the hypothesis?” Sonia asked.

“The speed of the white bull is too fast,” Diya said: “the white bull will not stay at all, every second will go forward for ten seconds, and the forefoot is often the bursting area of the Liujin River. The magician wants to bypass the flow. It is almost impossible for Jinhe to enter the inside of the forefoot.”

Asia Xiu: "The hind foot..."

"There is a quiet area in the hind foot." Sonia said in a deep thought, "Once the surgeon fails to keep relatively still with the hind foot, and is thrown into the quiet area by the hind foot, it will not be saved."

"And no one knows whether the White Bull's quadrupeds are lethal," Deya continued: "The most successful exploration of the manual owner was only ten meters away from the front. He has never seen anyone run into the White Bull IV. The internal end of the foot may be trampled to death by the white bull."

"And... he feels that the white bull has four legs, I'm afraid it doesn't exist at all."

"What's the meaning?"

"Although we can see obvious white pillars here," Deya said: "But once you get close to the four feet, the white pillars will become invisible. The owner of the manual only judges the position of the forefoot based on the density of the river. He once pursued the hindfoot, but turned his head and was thrown into the quiet zone. The closer he got, the less he could see the hindfoot. It was like..."

"It's like a rainbow," Sonia said.

Chapter 394: 2nd scoring

"It seems that we still can't sneak into the third floor of the Void Realm for the time being." Ya Xiu sighed.

In fact, this is normal. If there is a simple and easy-to-understand method of smuggling, then the sky of the time mainland will not hear the howling of the magician being attacked by the intellectual creatures from time to time. Perhaps there are many magicians who know the Golden Seven Magicians and the White Bull Hypothesis, but these hypotheses are too difficult to realize, they can only fly directly to the sky in desperation, trying to grasp the illusory colorful tail.

The golden magician is the most difficult group of people to admit their fate.

They are more talented than silver magicians, and they are basically human-level management in the world, and even have a high probability of seeing the scenery of holy domain magicians-the world thinks they are geniuses, and they also think that they are geniuses.

But the realm of the realm is more difficult than any difficulties. If your girlfriend doesn't love you, you can hypnotize you. If you get a headshot, the medical therapist can also recast it in the spa. The splashed water can even go back in time, but you can't understand it. High-level knowledge just cannot be understood.

The smartest group of people in the world has spent hundreds, thousands, or even tens of thousands of years on a smuggling channel that hasn't been found. The unlearned mudblood Ah Xiu naturally has no hope for himself.

"Tsk," Sonia bit her nails, "If we can reach the third floor of the Void Realm, then all the trouble will be solved."

"Trouble is coming." Ya Xiu said suddenly, and the sports car turned an acute angle of 45° and accelerated diagonally upward.

Sonia immediately grabbed the hilt and pulled out a little, Dia pulled out the water line with both hands, and the two of them no longer had hippie smiles, and instantly entered a state of combat.

In the Voidland map in front of Ya Xiu, a group of Velociraptors and some Thousand Birds appeared in the eastern area-obviously, they were the mixed troops of the Heroic Soul Legion.

They have come to the spider building area tonight.

Along the way, Ya Xiu hardly stopped to search for any resource points, except that he would be crushed and rested for a while when he encountered the projection of the magician, most of the time he was driving and chasing the white bull.

Their goal tonight is not to search, not to become stronger, but to survive. According to the contract agreement with the queen, they only need to stay in the spider building area for more than three hours before they can leave the virtual realm. Therefore, the best strategy for Asia is to keep driving and change locations, and go back to reality immediately after three hours to let the queen. The heroic soul could not surround and destroy him.

As for the naive idea of "The Queen's Soul may not be able to lock her own coordinates", she never lingered in Ah Xiu's mind—A Xiu even suspected that the traces of the contract on her body might be natural locators.

After all, steel machinery is better than flesh and blood. With the sports car squeezing its performance at all levels, Asia can easily get rid of the Heroic Soul Legion in the east. But before they could breathe a sigh of relief, there was a trace of the Heroic Soul Legion in the northeast.

When Ah Xiu thought for a moment, and when he decided to speed up to rush over, the Heroic Soul Legion also speeded up and tried to block the road. Feeling helpless, Ya Xiu could only continue to draw a 45° angle and ran all the way along the northwest direction.

But just as Ya Xiu was trying to head north, another Heroic Legion tried to block his way.

But this time Ah Xiu finally felt something was wrong.

"It's hunting!" Yaxiu slammed the brakes, and the sports car drew a donut arc on the grass: "They have been driving us to the west... The west must be their ambush ring. We have to rush directly over and get ready. Yet?"

"one!"

After the operators made a short short tone, the sports car made a roaring sound of a giant beast, evil fangs emerged from the front of the car, and the war monster was ready!

The steel monster passed through the heavy rain curtain, and Ya Xiu found that the entourage in the north was armed with troops, but there were still gaps on the left and right sides. Just before the two sides were about to crash into the bones, the sports car drew a right angle elegantly, and the dark green poisonous mist that seemed to thicken from the bottom of the car, bounced off the face of the entourage, and then ran into the fragile defense line in the northeast!

The wind is howling, the rain is rushing, and the monsters on both sides are fleeing!

boom!

boom! boom! boom! boom!

The slender and ferocious Thousand Birds became a red-capped soldier with long guns. They lowered their hats and raised their guns to shoot at the sports car. Although the rate of fire is much slower than the original state, the aim is extremely high and the damage is outstanding!

The “refracting curtain wall” rippled, and the energy of the protective shield dropped rapidly, but everything was worth it. Sure enough, the ambushing Legion of the Souls rushed out from the South and the West, and Ya Xiu squeezed all the performance of the sports car, rushing to the northeast blocked by the Legion of Souls, and soon left them behind, leaving only the poisonous fog that has been stinking for thousands of years. !

Seeing the Heroic Soul Legion disappearing from the Void Realm map one by one, Asia Xiu breathed a sigh of relief: “It should be safe to survive tonight...?”

At this moment, he saw a special golden area that occupies three squares in the northeast from the map of the virtual realm.

The introduction of the special area is-“Everyone will die of old age, including you, so you have to hurry up.”

“The front is Liujin River...” Ya Xiu murmured, “Could it be...”

A marching thunder sound shook the mountain from far behind, and Ya Xiu looked down at the Void Realm map and found that the Heroic Soul Legion began to emerge in all directions!

'Many' Explosive Dragon!

"Many" kobolds!

"Many" Slaying Fish and Dragons!

The outermost area of the virtual world map is painted with a vivid blood red, and the only way to survive is the golden area in the northeast, but that is the Liujin River that can turn them into withered bones within ten seconds!

The sound of the sports car engine slowly stopped, and the technicians stopped on the grass, quietly waiting for the butcher's approach. The operators were aware of something, Dia stood on the seat facing the rear, Sonia gently pressed Ya Xiu's shoulder.

"No apology," she said.

The real ambush direction is northeast.

The Heroic Soul Legion deliberately pushed them to the west, induced them to reverse the encirclement, and took the initiative to get into the ambush pocket prepared by the Queen's Soul!

There is even Liujin River blocking the road here~www.mtlnovel.com~ The Queen's Soul can deploy troops more calmly!

At the time of the day, Ah Xiu and others had to stay for three hours.

Geographically, the Queen's Soul is familiar with the surrounding terrain.

Renhe, the Queen's Soul mobilized a large number of legions in the Spider Tower!

Ya Xiu lost so quickly this time, and so cleanly, there was no room for complaining.

At this moment, a familiar voice resounded in the golden rain.

"You are smart people." Denzel's words made them cold all over: "It just so happens that I am also best at dealing with smart people. I just need to deliberately leak out a few insignificant flaws and pretend to be regretful that you have seen through the tricks. In the same way, your cautious heart will fall into a deep sleep like a fed lion."

"You got it for the second time, and of course it's the last time."

"But it's not that I can't give you some special treatment for getting to know each other. There is still a little time before three hours. You can spend this last life to your heart's content, wanting love and love, and entertainment. Then after you die, say Maybe I can leave a good manual for the magician."

The mind is swaying, the will is swaying, and the fighting will be defeated.

The empress's kind words that seemed to be merciful were full of murderous intent. Even if they had been driven to a dead end, the Queen's Soul did not let go of any opportunity to hit them. Perhaps it was revenge for the setbacks in the wooden house, or perhaps this was her personal evil taste—Ah Xiu preferred the latter.

At this moment of tension, Sonia suddenly leaned over to Ya Xiu, biting her ear with her voice: "You haven't answered me yet."

"what?"

"What on earth were you thinking just now?"

Ah Xiu's attention was abruptly drawn from her dead end: "Why are you so curious?"

Sonia blinked: "Because you haven't told me about your reality for a long time."

Chapter 395: I am the pendant

Squeaky-

From the rain curtain ahead, there was a toothy bend sound of steel bone rubbing, as if the listener's spine was bending.

The sports car has retreated to the extreme distance, and ten meters behind is the never-ending Liujin River. As long as they pass through a thin layer of rain, the heavy time will instantly crush their souls.

The most terrifying monster is time. It is everywhere and endlessly, chewing sentient beings and devouring civilization.

In the virtual realm map, there are only three colors left: the green and safe area where Ya Xiu is located, the red area of "Dead End" smeared by the Heroic Soul Legion, and the golden area where the Liujin River is located.

It was said that it would give them time to love, but the Queen's Soul did not say that they should give them enough space. The Heroic Soul Legion all pressed on, and now there was no room for Ashiu to move around.

Behind the rain curtain ten meters away, the hideous and terrifying Heroic Soul Legion is ready to go.

However, they stayed outside the rain curtain, and their figures were completely obscured by the upstream golden rain. Ya Xiu and others could only hear their rustling, grinding teeth and scraping claws, which was more uncomfortable than they directly rushed through-imagination In their minds, they launched a gorgeous rebellion, and they couldn't wait to overthrow the sensible dictatorship, and greet the advent of the fear of abuse of the king.

In addition to the imaginative rebels, the thirst for survival in the court is also intrigue. This thin rain curtain made the Survival Party swell endlessly. It sang along the way to defeat the dignified guards, hammered the courage, and pulled reason from the throne, forcing reason to bow down and surrender to humiliate the country.

There is a big horror between life and death.

This time it's not a joke. The Queen's Soul will definitely make the entourage swarm up. You will eat them up every bite. At most, only a layer of soul skin can escape back to the body-but it's like a 100ml blood drive. Without the body, even a little bit of soul fragments can't restart the consciousness's operating system.

Even if it weren't for offending the native natives like they did, it is not uncommon for other magicians to die in the Void Realm. Voidland is not a charity, let alone a talkative party. It is just a layer of indifferent filter to filter out the melody that can adapt to the environment, and destroy the noise that does not belong to this era-whether you are a backward aria or an advanced rock and roll .

The secret incarnation is definitely not the power that can be encroached on at their level. Such a hustle and bustle will naturally attract thousands of points-although it is not known whether there are a thousand, at least a hundred armed units are surrounding them.

It really makes sense that the academies can do their best. After all, the adventurers may die without a place to bury their bodies, while the academies can use time for safety, step by step to improve the realm faction, and step by step to climb the upper level of the virtual realm... Can't help thinking about it.

Snapped!

A puddle of unconditional malice fell outside the protective cover of the "refracting curtain wall," and the dark green rotting breath almost melted their souls through the respiratory tract. The magicians were so frightened that their bodies tightened, but the Queen's Soul chuckled and said, "Sorry, my spider's throat is a bit itchy. I accidentally spit out sputum. Didn't you bother you?"

Ya Xiu shouted angrily: "Excuse me, we are just about to enter the state, and now all the atmosphere is gone, why are you paying it back!?"

“Yeah~ Then I will pay myself to you?”

“Okay, okay! Now that three are missing and one is missing, you come here quickly, it’s just time!”

“Sorry, I like to take the initiative, then I will send someone to bring you back?”

A Xiu’s heart moved, but Jian Ji had already taken the lead in responding to him: “We only accept multiplayer games, and single-person affair is not allowed.”

“Hey, the times have changed, and now the magician is really much more open than I was back then.” The smile in Denzel’s voice was quite playful: “It’s a pity, how fresh, how beautiful, how sweet and delicious... ..”

“It’s really a novel experience to hear your condolences while you’re alive.” Sonia snorted coldly, turned her head to look at Ya Xiu, and said with a low voice: “Don’t think about holding the Queen in the past! There are not enough lives for you to die!”

“Hey?” Di Ya was taken aback: “So the viewer’s hesitation just now was planning to assassinate the commander? I thought...”

“Otherwise? Is there any other possibility!?” Ya Xiu interrupted the witch righteously.

He glanced at Dia’s hair color that was starting to get dirty, and his heart sank slightly.

“Last time we were able to take advantage of the queen, it was not how powerful we were, but the amnesia cabin helped us a lot.” Sonia said: “This time the queen came prepared, any flaws she exposed It’s just a trap, we have no chance to take advantage of it.”

“Then what to do?” Deya’s voice was a bit erratic. Although she hadn’t entered the duet yet, her tone was quite different from before, and the corners of her mouth were mocking with disdain: “Should you not wait for death here? You two may be satisfied with the ending. , But in reality there are still people waiting for me to go back.”

“Kill out!” Sonia ignored Deya’s bad tone and said categorically: “The refraction curtain wall has not been broken, and the sports car has an evil blade to clear the way. Our combat power is not damaged! The queen has been here for many days, and all our strategies are in her. There are just bubbles bursting in my eyes, the only way is to break the skill with strength and use all my strength to make a **** path!”

Speaking of the back, although the village girl did not see the slightest anger on her calm face, her right hand had already gripped the hilt of the sword, and the red in her eyes had become dull.

The witch’s hair color is getting dirty, but her eyes are getting brighter and brighter, and her pure and lovely face reveals a vivid madness. She even raised her hand to hang her shoulders with Jian Ji, and laughed: “Haha, I I like this plan. I didn’t expect you to be so careful about the machine, but it’s still very cute when it’s critical~”

Where is the cuteness factor in this plan with only the word ‘reckless’?

Although Ah Xiu was broken in his heart, the state of the operators made him breathe a sigh of relief. What he fears most now is that Jian Ji and the witch lose their sense and judgment under the fear of life and death. After all, Ya Xiu has already spent too much effort to suppress his imagination, the rebels and the desperate party. With one or two burdens, Ya Xiu’s mentality will collapse.

No matter how beautiful Sword Fairy is, and how cute the Witch is, if they drag their feet and become monsters of negative emotions at this time, Ya Xiu will lower their trust level in his heart.

There is nothing more exhausting than a pig teammate, especially at the most critical moment of the project. What the Void Realm team needs is not a mascot nor a vase, but teammates who can trust each other.

But Sword Fairy and Witch weren’t a burden, and even on the other hand, Ya Xiu felt that they were their pendants. Facing the crisis of life and death, they are more brave than the other, and they can’t wait to cut through the door of life and death with one sword, and separate right and wrong with their hands. The negative emotions such as fear, regret, despair, and cowardice are alienated and invaded into the most decisive killing intent in their hearts. They stood together, and Ya Xiu felt as if he had a great army.

But Ah Xiu pressed the two of them back to their seats, "Wait first, let me see if there is any other way."

"Lover!" said Ya Xiu loudly, "I have a gift for you!"

"What gift?" The voices of Dia, Sonia, and Denzel sounded at the same time.

Ya Xiu pressed the heads of the operators and shouted, "Do you like my spiritist spirit?"

"It's normal, not particularly satisfactory." Denzel said very critically: "But after all, it was you who gave it, so I'll accept it reluctantly."

"After accepting it, can you please let us go?" Ah Xiu said, "Actually, there is no deep hatred between us. It's better to treat it as if nothing happened. You will fight your wars and we will explore our virtual world."

"What are you talking about, my lovely little lover." Denzel chuckled and said, "You're not dead, how can I get back the spiritist spirit? You won't forget ~www.mtlnovel.com~You are in the virtual world Once you give up Shu Ling, will Shu Ling disappear immediately? Only the Shu Ling exploded after the death of the magician, because there is still the original owner's soul branding aura, can they stay for a while and have the opportunity to be caught by other magicians."

"But the contract doesn't say that I was caught by you, so I have to take the initiative to hand over the 'spiritual' magic spirit..." Ah Xiu was a little confused. If he couldn't surrender the spiritual magic spirit at all, why would the queen add this to the contract? ?

"So the real meaning of this clause is that after I catch you, you will obediently commit suicide without resisting." Denzel speaks briskly, happily as if singing: "Every clause has a literal trap, you I accepted all of them without changing them. I really held back and didn't laugh until I didn't laugh. Little lover, you are really considerate."

"But you still have concerns."

Faced with the empress's mockery, Ya Xiu was not angry at all, and said calmly: "If you really only need to catch me, I will obediently commit suicide and surrender the spiritist spirit. You won't waste so much time and energy talking with me. Instead, he rushed over to fry the skin and tear me apart."

The laughter gradually stopped outside the rain curtain.

"You hunted me with your army, suppressed me with ridicule, threatened me with the army, teased me with your words, and I looked tired of you. If you want to eat me, just come and peel me off, why bother? Well, will my flesh quality be improved to the snowflake level after this set of operations?" Ya Xiu said, "You are trying to kill my rebellious heart. There is only one reason-it makes me completely lose my judgment."

"If I guessed correctly, when our sanity breaks down and hysterical, you will propose a very good plan for us. The content is probably that as long as I voluntarily die in your hands, you will let go of my companions, and You won't kill me completely, only take the 'spiritual' magic spirit from my soul... right?"

Chapter 396: Crossing the Liujin River

There was silence outside the rain curtain, and the Heroic Soul Legion seemed to have disappeared.

"You are afraid that I will break the jar."

Ah Xiu said with certainty: "Yes, the contract stipulates that I am not allowed to abandon the destruction of the 'spiritual' magic spirit, but the mandatory manifestation of this contract is immediately punished in the virtual world. In other words, when I think I can bear When it comes to the risk of punishment in the virtual realm, this contract is just a piece of waste paper for me that I can't even wipe my ass."

"The Void Realm can only be punished afterwards, and cannot be stopped in the middle. It can only kill me after the dust settles, but if you destroy the spirit of the 'spiritual', it is death, and being caught by you is also death. I would rather die. In the hands of the virtual world, you will not be wiped out by your lover."

There was silence between the sky and the earth, and the upstream golden rain fell silently into the sky. After a while, Denzel's voice slowly sounded: "There is only one point that needs correction."

"In the 'excellent plan' I prepared for you, only one place is left for you to leave alive."

Ah Xiu frowned, his expression slightly cold: "I am definitely going to die, that is to say..."

"You have to choose someone to die by yourself." The smile in Denzel's voice could not be concealed: "One is alive, one is half dead, and the other is dead. This is the ending I prepared for you, do you like it?"

"...I heard that only by retrieving soul fragments from hell, the heroic souls can gradually recover their feelings." Ah Xiu said, "I'm curious that your present nasty posture that makes you nauseous has the qualities of your heyday. How charming is it?"

"You know us quite well, in terms of proportions, one-sixth." Denzel said cheerfully: "Do you want to choose who to die? Is it a lover or a sister?"

"By the way, I would like to remind you that if you kill your companion personally, it will be equivalent to letting her leave the virtual realm ahead of time. Violating the condition of "staying in the virtual realm for three hours" will result in her being killed by the virtual realm, and this kind of death I don't recognize it! It must be handed over to us, and I want you to see with your own eyes how your companions were dismembered and devoured by my lovely followers. "

"...Did the incarnation of the gospel pick you up in the trash?" Ah Xiu said in disgust, "Fortunately, you like God. If you like people, I am afraid that you would have tossed you down. You like it. Or being hated by you, I am afraid it will be a disaster."

"I hate it, people are not so good." Denzel smiled: "By the way, I like smart people who know the current affairs and hate stupid people who say "No, even if I die, I won't make you happy." "

"So... are you smart or stupid?" The queen's tone was full of arrogance: "What if you guess my plan? Do you still have to choose?"

Yes.

Ah Xiu's situation did not improve at all because of his ice and snow intelligence. This is Yangmou. If Ash was frightened by the empress and his reason collapsed, he would naturally choose the latter based on perceptuality; and if Ash was smart enough to see through the queen's tricks, then he would also choose the latter based on rationality.

When there are only two options, there is no freedom of choice at all, and no one can choose the less bad one.

When Ah Xiu fell silent, Jian Ji and the witch both looked back at him.

Especially the witch, her hair color quickly became dirty, the water line between her fingers was looming, and the emotions in her eyes became more and more muddy, just like a kitten with fried hair all over her body. Once there is something wrong with Ash, she will definitely react violently immediately.

"It's difficult to make a choice. After all, it's your own companion, and you have to pronounce the other party's death sentence personally." Denzel suddenly said kindly: "Actually, I am not a bad person, little lover, so let me help you. Bar."

"I think you must be thinking about the possibility of a frontal breakthrough? In this way, when you break through, I will let my followers focus on the two companions who are attacking you. You only need to give a look and make a body language to show that you want to Abandon which companion, my lovely entourage will help you to do it for you, bite and swallow your abandoned companion. Your companion will think that you are only killed in battle, you can comfort yourself, this is the outcome of the failure of the breakout plan, yourself I don't want to."

As soon as she said this, the witch's shoulders trembled slightly.

Although she immediately turned her head and looked away without letting her teammates see her expression, Yaxiu and Sonia knew that the breakout plan had been completely aborted.

On the one hand, the words of the queen's soul almost reached the level of spiritual miracles, easily separating their relationship, on the other hand, the bond between the witch and them was not reached to the level of unconditional trust after all.

There was a chill, and Ya Xiu finally realized what level of enemy he was facing. Although it was only against the three magicians, the Queen of Heroes dispatched a large number of legions at any cost, and used the terrain to drive them to death. In order to increase the odds of winning, they kept digging the cracks in the relationship between their teams... Although they are not yet official In the confrontation, Ash hadn't even seen her legion, but Ash knew they had lost.

The magician's battle was over before it started.

Ya Xiu let out a sullen breath: "Witch."

"Um?"

"I know it's useless what I said, because you think I have a better relationship with Jian Ji, because you know that I haven't established a bond that is enough for unconditional trust between you and me — maybe there won't be in the future, after all, the bond is very Look at the stuff of fate."

"Um."

"But I need you to believe me." Ah Xiu said seriously, "We must work together to—"

"Do you think these are ironclad?" Sonia suddenly interrupted Ah Xiu: "Witch, you can wrap a thread around my neck."

"Um?"

"If you feel that the viewer has abandoned you, you immediately cut off my neck. This kind of serious injury is enough to take me directly to the virtual realm, and cause violation of the contract and be sanctioned by the virtual realm." Sonia said seriously: "I won't I ask you to trust the viewer like I do. If you think he will save me only, then I will put my life in your hands."

“Give me one too.” Ya Xiu said suddenly, his tone relaxed as if he was asking for a cigarette.

Diya looked at them and nodded, “Hmm!”

The witch did what she said, and two transparent aquatic threads were wrapped around their necks, one in each hand, as if holding two human head balloons. Although Yaxiu and Sonia didn't feel uncomfortable at all, they always had the illusion that their heads were unstable.

“Okay.” Sonia took a deep breath and squeezed the hilt: “Then we'll make a **** way—”

“Who said we are going to kill?”

The witch and Jian Ji were taken aback, only to see the sports car suddenly move, and their strong push back drove away all their unnecessary thoughts.

Denzel's frightened and angry voice sounded like thunder: “Little lover, come back soon~www.mtlnovel.com~Do you want to die?”

“No, even if I die, I won't make you happy!”

Ya Xiu Youyou responded. When the Heroic Soul Legion roared and charged, he drove the sports car into the Liujin River area!

The moment it crossed the rain curtain, the “refracting curtain wall” of the sports car quickly collapsed, and even the sports car itself began to decay and fall apart. At this moment, Ya Xiu stretched her hands back, and the Sword Fairy Witch immediately knew that she would hold his hand.

Red and blue appeared on the surface of the magicians, forming a fairy tale armor like crayon painting.

Armed units·Two-color anchor!

At the moment when the sports car fell apart, the three of them jumped forward at the same time, and the heavy time flow rushed their souls. The three of Yaxiu only felt that their souls were falling like lead, and their thinking ability was as slow as rust. .

However, when they rolled down to the edge of the Liujin River, the three of them felt great joy at the same time.

Anchor launch!

[Anchorage: When you encounter any external influence (physical attack, mental impact, curse weakening, etc.) or spontaneously change yourself (consumption of mana, gain yourself, etc.), there is a probability that the anchoring effect will be triggered. Once the anchor is triggered, you cannot be influenced by the outside world, nor can you influence the outside world for the next 5 seconds. ]

Although there is only a 20% probability, the Liujinhe area is accelerating the aging of the surgeon every moment!

They are in an “anchored” state, and they can no longer feel the corrosion of time. The Liujin River was vividly presented to them, the golden river water stirred up the waves of history, and the time magicians who bathed in the Liujin River curiously watched the uninvited guests, ‘against the sun’, ‘listen to the moon’, ‘ Although the rare magic spirits such as ‘Ding Nian’ are far away, they can’t help but stick their heads out of the river, and are not afraid of the magician at all.

“Go.” Ya Xiu found that his voice became more magnetic: “We are going to cross the Liujin River.”

Chapter 397: Accident

It’s heavy.

Even with the shelter of “anchor”, at the moment when he stepped into the Liujin River, a deep sense of powerlessness still flooded the soul of Ya Xiu.

It is not because of the speed of the flow or the quality of the water. In fact, “anchoring” does literally block any external factors that affect him. In this state, even if Yaxiu wades through the sea of flies and dung. Can not be stained by silt.

However, “anchoring” only blocked the influence of the outside world on the magician, but did not prevent the magician from receiving information from the outside world.

When oneself is too weak, excessive information is also poison.

There are countless echoes from the surging water of the Liujin River, and thousands of scenes reflected by the surging waves. As if he could hear the sighs of thousands of living beings, old, sick, and dying, and seeing the images of all beings intertwined for a long time, just dealing with this overloaded information almost made his soul freeze!

Obviously, with his information receiving ability, it is impossible to digest so much information at the same time. Just like in a math class, students can only receive and understand the most basic knowledge. As for those advanced formulas on the blackboard, they can't understand and remember. live.

And the current situation is equivalent to the teacher piling into the head of the student scum, forcibly stuffing hundreds of GB of learning materials into the head of the scumbag!

Even if Ya Xiu closed his eyes and blocked his ears, he could still feel that what was flowing on him was not only the river, but the life of all beings. When he swiped his fingers back, he swept the past of millions of people; when he threw his feet in the river, he accidentally trampled on the glorious history of a certain city.

Suddenly there was a kind of insight in his heart: The so-called time faction does not mean that there is some kind of power called 'time', but the flow of sentient beings forms time, and the essence of time is flow.

Every drop of river water in Liujin River originates from reality. It may be people, longevity elves, mayflies that are dying forever, or floating clouds, motionless rocks, and withered leaves. After understanding this, Ya Xiu found that although he was still receiving excessive amounts of information all the time, they no longer affected his thinking, and the excellent forgetting mechanism was also working. He quickly threw the new files into the brain directly to the recycle bin. Shattered.

It is worthy of being the most terrifying natural landscape in the mainland of time, the Liujin River. Even if it is “anchored”, it cannot completely protect the magician... When Ah Xiu couldn't help worrying about the operators, he looked up and saw that the two of them were already swimming in front of him.

Among them, the witch swims the fastest, and there is no magician who can't swim in the second swordsman. In order to cross the basic requirement of the sea of knowledge, even the magician in the desert will become a swimmer.

Faced with the information impact of the Liujin River, it still took a second for Ya Xiu to update his drive. Jian Ji and the Witch were able to adapt to the environment of Liujin River almost instantly.

A Xiu sighed secretly in his heart: It's worthy of being a specially selected genius magician in “Aurora's Magician Manual”, and ordinary people like him are really far from them.

But they just crossed the basic threshold of Liujin River, and the real danger is coming.

The duration of “anchor” was only five seconds. At the moment when “anchor” failed, the huge amount of time almost instantly crushed the three!

Ya Xiu only felt that his physical strength dropped rapidly, his vision was blurred as if he had opened the shooting mode with a telephone landline, his throat was breathing fragmented like a broken fan, and his thinking was delayed like a locked screw.

Although Ah Xiu immediately entered the “anchored” state again, he was almost tens of years old just after he was exposed to the Liujin River for a few breaths!

This is also a matter of course, after all, getting close to Liujin River will accelerate aging, and they are swimming directly in it now, without dissolving on the spot, Liujin River is already slacking off.

At the same time, because of the “anchored” state, Ya Xiu couldn’t consume the soul energy to restore the aging soul body, so he could only continue to swim like this. Although this golden river is not wide, it seems that it can swim through with one acceleration, but Ya Xiu estimates that he will accept at most two or three times of scouring. If he does not escape as soon as possible, he will be literally swallowed by the ‘wave of the times’.

After all, the “anchor” of the two-color anchor has only a 20% trigger rate. Unless the trigger rate can be increased to 100%, the Liujin River is still a restricted area that no one should enter!

There were many time magic spirits in the Liujinhe River. Seeing Ya Xiu swimming in so bravely, they might think that Ya Xiu was a new type of Shu Ling, and they came close to say hello to Ya Xiu. There are more than a dozen rare magic spirits that Ya Xiu knows, including the precious magic spirit ‘Listening Sun’ lost by the witch in the amnesia hut, but he really doesn’t even have the space to pick up trash, desperately Struggling to swim forward.

Perhaps because this section of the Jinhe River was only a small tributary, Ya Xiu and the others quickly swam halfway there. When they were only one or two meters away from the shore, five seconds passed, and the anchor was lifted again.

Ya Xiu was ready to accept the scouring of time, but perhaps the white bull had gone far, and the flow of the Liujin River had speeded up in vain. The turbulent waves splashed several drops of gold, one of which fell on Ash’s ears and slipped into his soul like milk.

Even if Ya Xiu entered the “anchored” state immediately after his next breath, his ears still exploded. Only this time, what he heard was not the echo of other people’s life, but the echo of his own soul!

“What an ugly child, he looks a lot like you.” “No, I’m a little bit more like you, I’m not so ugly.” “You can’t let me just give birth to a child, you are obviously as ugly as you!” Two of you, newborn babies are so ugly!”

“Brother, why are we different in size?” “Xiu, this is normal. When you grow up, you will...Σ( ͡° ͜°;) っ焯!? Wait? Why?”

*/\** Hush, repair, keep your voice down, this is my classmate, who came to study at home..." "Mom! Brother brought female classmates home!"

"What an ugly child, he looks very much like your dad." "Are you polite, how can you scold my grandson like this? If you want to scold your brother, just go straight!" "That's right!"

"I found an internship. If I'm lucky, maybe I'll do it in this company." "Have you found a girlfriend?" "It's a mobile game company with a fourteen salary and a year-end bonus, and it also provides Fangbu..." "Have you found a girlfriend?" "Can you ask me something else?" "How much did your fund lose?" "I didn't find a girlfriend."

"I told you that I don't need to come back. Dad just flashed his waist and I was watching."/"You, don't come over! What's the matter, Igola, don't you want to fight me ten times in a row? Now you win I beat me once, I beat you once, and 8 more times."

"Cough haha haha, it's a pity Varkas, you almost pulled me to the bottom of my body, fortunately the executioner is faster than you... Fortunately, you are an elf that is rejected by the people!"

"Freya, come with me, I need you."

"Veeva, this race almost no longer exists in the Gospel Kingdom... But you two are not even magicians. How did you pass through the passage of the virtual realm? Forget it, from today, you are the employees of my funeral office. "

The reverberation evokes the memory, and the memory overflows with emotion!

There were all these specious voices in his ears, and Ah Xiu's mind was almost instantly crushed by the noise, and his soul was abruptly trapped in the echoes of the past, even struggling to keep himself afloat, let alone continue swimming past!

Years flow gold, a lifetime!

Jian Ji seemed to notice that he had an accident, and tried to come back and tried to take him along. However, it was such a delay, and five seconds passed quickly. The third time the flowing golden river flushed almost turned the two of them into twilight corpses. !

They have lost the ability to cross the Liujin River

“Arffa Sennheiser.” Denzel said: “You have a talent for armor. Try to get them back.”

The named heroic commander nodded silently, armed himself with troops and stepped into the Liujin River area. The time power of Liujinhe is as effective as the heroic soul, but the armor reduction effect of the heroic soul is as effective as time. Like Commander Alpha, his superimposed armor reduction ceiling reaches an astonishing 95%. Although the soul power is huge, But at a specific time can play a tactical effect of reversing the situation.

Soon, Alpha returned to the legion with nothing.

“They are not on the shore.” Alfa explained, “I need to break the time barrier to cross the Liujin River. My time faction is insufficient.”

“Time barrier...” Denzel bit his thin lip lightly, and there was a sense of powerlessness in UU reading www.uukanshu.com.

She has already used the resources in her hand to the mechanism, but the magicians actually have special units that resist Liujin River, and they can actually break the time barrier. Crossing the river and Jinhe water is itself for the magician. It is highly toxic. Only a genius magician who can understand the nature of time can use or even touch the water of the Liujin River. This is the so-called time barrier.

To put it simply, the time barrier is a mechanism for measuring the upper limit of arithmeticians. Only when a mathematician has the potential to climb the legendary realm of the time faction, it is possible to pass the time barrier.

Although it's only theoretical potential, all three magicians actually passed the level, which is too ridiculous, but it is outrageous that they can team up and drive in Time Continent. In comparison, they are all genius magicians. what.

Accident, accident, accident...

Although this is only the first time to hunt them down, there will be many Spider Tower rounds, and these three magicians will definitely stay in the Time Continent for many rounds. But Denzel's only one-sixth of the soul fragments told her that the same trick would not work on them twice.

Some more despicable methods are needed, she thought.

Chapter 398: Golden Time Faction

When Ah Xiu regained consciousness, he felt someone in his arms.

He blinked and looked down slowly...

Then I saw a pair of black and white silk legs.

The witch put her legs on him, curled up like a child and lay in Jian Ji's arms. Although it was not an operator in his arms that made Ya Xiu breathe a sigh of relief, he couldn't let go of being used as a pillow by the witch-and the witch hadn't taken off her boots yet!

When Ah Xiu woke up, Sonia also regained consciousness. First of all, she felt the soft touch in her arms and blushed slightly and looked over. She was relieved when she saw that it was the witch, and then she turned her head and saw A Xiu.

Noting the accusation in Ya Xiu's eyes, Sonia moved the tip of her nose, curled her lips to avoid looking at Ya Xiu, and pushed the witch: "Get up!"

Dia sat up sleepily. Her hair color had returned to normal at this time. She yawned and said, "I'm exhausted..."

"I remember that Jian Ji and I hadn't been able to swim across the Liujin River..." Ya Xiu said, squinting at Sonia, Sonia just didn't see it.

"I pulled you up." Deya said: "But I was not so stupid to look back in the Liujin River. Instead, I first climbed to the shore and then pulled you to the shore."

Sonia was so ashamed that she blushed to the root of her ears—she was scolded by the witch for a fool, and she could not refute it.

"But what did you use to pull us..." Ah Xiu knew the answer halfway through.

Aquatic line!

He and Jian Ji both have aquatic threads arranged by a witch on their necks! Originally, this was just to make the witches feel at ease, but they did not expect to become a 'lifeline' for the witches to save them!

Sonia asked: "But won't you cut our necks directly with aquatic thread?"

"I can increase the proportion of water magic spirits and make the aquatic thread soft and tough." Dia spread her palms and said, "For example, the aquatic thread I hold with my hands is as comfortable as the bear's hand. Will not cut my own hands."

"How long did we rest?" Ya Xiu asked.

"It's probably a few minutes." Dia wasn't quite sure: "After I dragged you out of the Liujin River, I was so tired that I collapsed on the ground."

Ya Xiu opened the Void Realm map and found that everything was normal in the surrounding area, and there was no trace of the Heroic Soul Legion. Although Yaxiu didn't know how long the Liujin River stretched, neither did the Heroic Soul Corps—in the commander's map, Liujin River was the only landmark that could not be marked, because every day, every hour, and even every second. The location of Liujinhe is different.

The Liujin River is the trace of the white bull stepping on it. The white bull is moving every minute and every second, so the Liujin River is always changing. Generally speaking, there are actually only two Liujin Rivers, corresponding to two forefoot, but the two main veins are divided into countless branches, like the distribution of tree branches, the Liujin River forms a normal flowing time and space.

The tributary they have just crossed may be the terminal branch, and walk tens of meters to one end to reach the end; but it may also be a tertiary or even second-level branch, which stretches for several kilometers. To them.

Having said that, even if the Heroic Soul Legion really had time to rush over, Asia Xiu could not help it. Their soul energy light is used to repair the soul body and has been exhausted, and there is no excess energy to use for walking.

Moving in the virtual realm requires soul energy. It was only because they could ride in a car, so this part of the cost was eliminated, but now the sports cars are scrapped, and they don't have other means of transportation...hey wait?

Suddenly, Ya Xiu remembered, it seems that the stand-in can also walk with him on his back, right?

Although he can only summon a double, but the double carries him, he carries the sword **** his back, and the sword girl carries the witch on his back. They form a four-person Jenga form. Can't they also move normally?

When Ah Xiu made this suggestion, she was unanimously opposed by Jian Ji and the witch.

Sonia: "How far can the stand-in go? If the Heroic Soul Legion really finds it, the stand-in will never get away; if the Heroic Soul Legion can't find it, we can leave here for tens of minutes. There is no need to go wrong. "

“It feels weird just thinking about it,” Diya said, “But the double can still be used like this...Speaking of which, is the double a rare magic spirit?”

“It doesn’t belong to me.” The village girl shook her head: “But it’s not very useful. A stand-in can neither inherit the magician’s magical spirit, nor can it speak for precision operations, and it will collapse when touched. It can only play a traction role in battle. , That is to say, can be responsible for some superficial housework in daily life, but the appetite of the substitute Shenshuling is very large. Every few days, he has to eat a silver coin, which is two or three times that of the ordinary Shuling... If it is a particularly lazy magician, maybe Will deliberately purchase a stand-in Shu Ling.”

Deya nodded her head again and again after hearing it: “Indeed.”

Ya Xiu also gave up this idea. After all, because of the Liujin River, the surrounding area was actually quite safe, and the creatures in the virtual realm would consciously stay away from the Liujin River.

If you go a little farther, maybe there will be a magician projection or a wandering fish-cutting dragon looking for the door, and they will enter a weak state and be kicked out of the virtual world if they move around. It’s too unlucky to die.

“Then sort out the gains and losses just now.” Ya Xiu rubbed his temples: “Jian Ji, you...”

“Witch, it was all thanks to you just now.” Sonia stretched out her hand and pressed Dia’s upturned hair: “If we didn’t have you, we would definitely not be able to get through, the witch would be the best!”

“Hehe.” Diya scratched her head embarrassedly and said, “It’s not so powerful...”

“This time it is indeed the witch who made a great contribution.” Ya Xiu also wanted to reach out and touch the witch to show his praise, but Diya avoided it: “In comparison, Jian Ji, you...”

“Are we still in the spider building area tomorrow?”

Ya Xiu opened the Void Realm map and looked at it: “The white cow will be in the spider building area for half of the night, but the requirement of “compulsory stay for three hours” will only take effect once when “the cow of the crown block steps into the spider building area.” The next time it takes effect, you will have to wait until the White Bull steps into the Spider Tower area again, which means that we won’t have a problem tomorrow if we don’t come to the Void Realm. ”

“It’s okay if the car falls apart? The Alchemy Throne that has just been completed will not fail, right?”

“It should be okay...”

“By the way, do you know the witch, your tone was very arrogant just now, I will imitate it for you...”

.....

Be mixed by Jian Ji.

Ah Xiu returned to reality, feeling a little depressed.

Jian Ji’s action to save people in Liujin River was really stupid. Ah Xiu wanted to find a chance to talk about her, and she must be in front of the witch to prove that he is a clear distinction between public and private, and is equally strict with every cadre. The leader of Jiben who requires and will never protect the pig teammates.

However, Jian Ji had just exerted the power of social horror at this time, and she was surprised that Ya Xiu couldn’t find a chance to interrupt. In fact, it is not impossible to find it, but whenever Adam wants to speak, he will be interrupted by Jian Ji’s pitiful eyes, forcing him to continue to consider his words.

After Ya Xiu had thought of a whole set of stern but gentle remarks in his mind, the work time in the virtual realm had already reached three hours unknowingly, and Jian Ji immediately clocked in and off work, not giving Ya Xiu any chance to have a meeting.

But Ya Xiu also knew that he was actually unwilling to blame Jian Ji in his heart.

After all, he is a cult leader and not a living saint. Jian Ji dared to turn around to save him in that situation, even if this approach was wrong and useless, but it was strange that Ya Xiu had no gratitude in his heart.

But Ya Xiu needs to consider for the team.

In this confrontation with the Queen's Soul, the cracks in their relationship have been exposed. It's usually fine, but when it comes to a real crisis, the witch subconsciously won't trust the two of them. If it comes to a situation that must be abandoned, the witch will think that she is the first secondary player to be abandoned.

In fact, the witch's feeling is indeed right.

It is precisely because of prejudice that we can distinguish between relatives and estrangements. As A Xiu is a human being and not a god, how can he achieve 'fairness' without any emotion at all?

Even Blood Moon Supreme Lord prefers Blood Sage Moon Shadow.

But thinking like this, if you do it, you definitely can't do it. Ah Xiu must find a way to show his attitude, otherwise the team will become singular and divorced sooner or later.

It's time to show your real personnel management skills!

But now it's so troublesome with only three people, how can I bring it with the team in the future...

Ya Xiu sighed, and as soon as he remembered, he suddenly felt someone in his arms.

He looked down and saw another pair of feet.

It was Lisi's. She slept next to Ya Xiu, with her little feet on her belly, and she slept with the little bear doll in her arms. Ah Xiu also remembered. Last night Liz said that he would sleep with him, and Ah Xiu thought that she was going to the Void Realm anyway, so she was left alone.

Why do both of them like to use me as a footrest...

Now that the sky was still dark, Ash lay back, called out the gospel, opened the "Aurora's Handbook for the Magician", and immediately popped up a message.

"Growth Report of the Dead Sword Princess 5.17~5.23"

“The Growth Report of the Black and White Witch 5.17~5.23”

“Bond level: 1→2 (40% experience sharing

“Mind Faction: Silver→Silver”

“Fist Claw Faction: Gold→Gold”

“Time Faction: Silver→Gold”

“Water Faction: Silver→Silver”

“Magical Power: Golden Two Feathers→Golden Three Feathers”

“Cultivation evaluation: A!”

“Because of the A-level evaluation, the death berserk swordsman has obtained the professional enhancement of the wizard’s manual: extermination follower → death warrior!”

“Dead Man: Inflicts an additional 20% damage to the Heroic Commander. Each hit can cause a short pause to the Heroic Commander.”

Ya Xiu discovered something was wrong right away—how the time faction of Jian Ji and Witch had been promoted to gold! ?

It’s all about the witch’s promotion to gold. After all, the witch originally has the talent for time, but Jian Ji’s time faction realm is still obtained from the amnesia cabin, she has not practiced at all!

What did the cult leader realize, he opened his operator interface and found that his own time faction was already at the gold level!

His swordsmanship faction is still silver at this time!

What's this? The income of hard work is not comparable to the huge wealth that makes a fortune?

With his toenails, Ya Xiu knew the reason why their time faction skyrocketed-Liu Jinhe!

The virtual realm is the most just, and you can gain as much as you pay. Although the three of Asia Xiu were near death in the Liujin River, they also faced the essence of time personally, gained a lot of time faction experience, and directly piled their faction realm to the gold level!

But this kind of thing should not be possible again, only the first adventure can get such a huge benefit, and even if the experience can be increased the second time, it will not be able to raise their faction realm to the sanctuary level.

On the contrary, the new professions of Sword Fairy and Witch, "Remnant Soldier" and "Dead Soldier", are quite interesting. But it is too late for them to avoid the Legion of Heroic Souls, how could they still provoke those monsters?

In addition to this, the witch's bond level has also risen by one level, I don't know if it is the increase brought about by living and dying just now.

"Um..."

Lisy made a sweet and lazy sound, and kicked her legs on his stomach. Come over and hug Ah Xiu, rubbing the drool from her cheek on Ah Xiu's clothes. Ya Xiu pushed aside the dozen kilograms of pendant and got up to wash.

Halfway through Ah Xiu brushing her toothbrush, Liz also walked into the bathroom sleepily, tearing open a new toothbrush cup and brushing her teeth next to him.

The little girl opened her eyes and glanced at the spectacles, her body was slightly startled. Then she quickly finished rinsing and washing her face, then turned and hugged Ah Xiu.

“...Isn’t there no towel next to me, do you have to use my pajamas to wipe your hands?” Ah Xiu felt helpless.

‘Lis’ shook her head, arching around in Ash’s arms like a pig.

“Why are you so clingy today?”

“...I had a dream last night.”

“Nightmare?”

‘Lis’ thought for a while, and shook her head again, “I dreamed that everyone else hurts, but I was alone and excluded.”

“Don’t worry, dreams are reversed. In reality, you must be the one who rejected others.”

After washing her face, Ya Xiu brought Lisi to the dressing table, and while helping her comb her hair, he said, “Let me help you tie your hair.”

“Hey? Didn’t I always ask Aunt Bogin for help?” Liz was a little surprised.

“What if Aunt Bojin won’t be with us in the future?” Ya Xiu said calmly, “You can’t always rely on him, right?”

“But even if I don’t find Aunt Bojin, I can also find Aunt An Nan, Uncle Panji, and Uncle Harvey for help!”

Ya Xiu felt great humiliation: “I can’t even compare to An Nan Panji, why can’t I even compare to Harvey!?”

“Isn’t Alice pretty...” ‘Lis’ mumbled: “But, is Aunt Bokin really leaving us?”

“Accurately speaking, we don’t need friends like us. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com” Ya Xiu shrugged: “The life train goes up and down. Father-in-law helped to get out of the car. Only cows and horses have been in the car...I’ve long been used to it.”

“But what if Aunt Bogin is cheated?”

“He? Fraudster? Deceived?”

“Didn’t Aunt Bogin often say that you were deceived? He seems to be easy to be fooled.”

“You seem to make sense... are you scolding me?”

After cleaving Lisi’s head, Ya Xiu said in deep thought, “Speaking of which, Bel Dette’s value for Igola is indeed too strange...As his natal family, we should take care of Igola and confirm Bell. Dayt’s sincerity!”

“Lisi” blinked: “Is it so kind?”

“The main reason is that although my heart really wants to wish him a happy wedding, my capacity is really not big enough to digest the success of a friend.” Ah Xiu said solemnly: “It would be too great if I can justify ruining his happiness. Bravo.”

Chapter 399: Do not touch me

Two days later, Ah Xiu didn’t find any handle on Beldit.

It's not because of how clean the two sisters Falyin are, but because there are a lot of high-paying jobs that name them on the job list. The hourly salary reaches an astonishing 0 bei points. You can earn 00 bei points by working hard for 10 hours a day. The sky can redeem the body and escape the fire pit.

This wave, this wave is the alienation of capital to people. As Xiu rubbed the statue fiercely, he looked at his savings happily.

At dinner time, Ash saw Igola having dinner with Harvey tonight, and there was no red-haired angel Anfil next to him. In the past two days, Igola had dinner with Anfil and chose two seats specially. Unless Ash was willing to move a baby chair to sit next to him, it would be impossible to insert them into their lovers seat.

Without losing the opportunity, Ya Xiu immediately sat next to the deceiver holding the dinner plate: "Oh, Igola pulled it like this tonight, and he was reduced to eating with Harvey?"

The black-skinned necromancer glanced at Ah Xiu: "...A Xiu, you came just right, we were discussing you just now."

"What are you discussing about me?"

"Discuss your future." Harvey said, "I will become the chief forensic doctor of Memphis in the future, and Igola will become the secretary to the mayor of Memphis, and you will become an unemployed single parent who **** blood from her daughter's blood on a relief fund. Dad, we will all have a bright future."

"Although I don't mind receiving relief money, I am not a blood saint, why should I **** Lisi's blood?"

"Don't you think Liz has the potential to become a child star?"

"Hmm..." Axiu pondered, "Liss is indeed talented in acting. According to the educational concept of teaching students in accordance with the gospel, it is okay to let her get in touch with the actor industry. But I don't know how to **** my daughter's blood. Help her invest in opening a store, and return her a lot of property when she grows up!"

“Oh~” Igula nodded, “That is to say, you plan to **** up Lisi’s blood. The Blood Saints are not as cruel as you.”

“They said they were used for investment and management!”

“Anyone who can even open and close cults is deceiving shareholders by saying that your investment vision and business ability are 0.”

“But how do you discuss the business in Monferra?” Ash asked: “It shouldn’t be Ikola, you stayed, and the two of us left?”

“How do you two leave?” Igola asked: “Have you gathered the shellfish for redemption?”

“We didn’t get it together, but didn’t you still have you?” Axiu intimately hooked up with Igola: “Wait for you to marry Anfil and take charge of the big consortium, I don’t ask you to give me any benefits, but it’s free Is it okay to drop our contract?”

Igola glanced at Ah Xiu on his shoulders, gently swept it away, and said slowly: “Let’s not mention that after I became Beldette’s person, for me, you all start from the ‘available taunt follower’. To ‘become a sheep that can be sheared’, even if I take 10,000 steps back, I have a sudden illness and want to do good things, but the contract is a contract. Unless one party breaches the contract, the contract cannot be cancelled.”

“What!” Ya Xiu was surprised: “I thought you would definitely help us-damn, I really couldn’t help buying Falin’s goods today, what if An Nan and the others asked about my deposit!?”

“Deserve it.” Harvey said, “I held back when Eharyn took out a perfect human skeleton.”

“You might as well ask Liz for a question like this.” Igola said, “You two have relatively close IQs. She should be able to give you proper advice.”

“Wait, Igula, you will definitely pull the brothers after you fly to the top, right?” Ya Xiu said, “Our daring prisoners!”

“Who killed each other immediately after breaking out of prison?”

“Still a brilliant comrade in arms!”

“Escape from the sword of Gerrard twice, are you so ostentatious?”

“It’s even more a friend who cares about each other!”

“You cherish him?” Igula pointed to the necromancer indifferently.

“All in all!” Ya Xiu broke the topic back: “Brother Igola, you must not forget to lead the younger brother!”

“Why?”

“It’s because you still owe favor between you and me!”

“Wow.” Harvey said in surprise: “Axiu, you still have such a hole card!”

“Yes!” Ah Xiu raised his head and hummed, “I thought that when I was in Broken Lake, in order to let Igola join my great prison escape plan, I signed a wishing contract with him to use up my wishes. Force him to make suggestions for me, so...”

“Please let me owe you another wish!”

“So you owe Igola a wish...” Harvey curled his lips.

“I’m full, take your time.” Igola ignored Ash at all, holding up the dinner plate and preparing to leave.

“Igola, wait...”

Snapped!

Igola slammed Ya Xiu’s outstretched hand, looked down at him condescendingly, and said calmly:

“Do not touch me.”

“That’s the situation.” Harvey said, “I told Alice, Alice feels embarrassed for Axiu.”

In Ash’s bedroom, the funeral office and his party gathered again.

“Aunt Boking actually treated Dad like this!” Liz pursed her mouth in indignation: “Dad won’t cry, we won’t play with Aunt Boking anymore!”

“Is Mr. Borkin actually such an impatient person?” Panji muttered, “I haven’t officially joined Beldette yet, so I can’t wait to break with you Mr. Harvey?”

“Once you are successful, you are incoherent.” An Nan shrugged, “But it can also be said that he is very smart. After all, you two are pure negative equity. It is of no benefit to him to interact with you. Instead of continuing to increase sunk costs on you, It’s better to short your friendship as soon as possible.”

“Axiu, do you regret not breaking their date with us the night before?” An Nan turned his head to look at Axiu: “Is it backlashed now?”

There was nothing uncomfortable on Ah Xiu's face. He slowly said, "I just feel that Igola is a little weird..."

"What's so strange." An Nan smiled while propping his chin: "Bojin is going to go ashore this time. Naturally, we don't need our old colleagues in the sea. Everything in this world will betray you, even Shu Ling may be Sneak away, let alone a fraudster?"

"Is it my illusion?" Ya Xiu said suddenly: "I feel An Nan, you don't seem to be particularly concerned about Igola's defection."

"Who said that, am I very concerned about it?" An Nan said, "I don't want to use beauty tricks anymore."

"You? Beauty trick?" Everyone was taken aback, and then Ah Xiu immediately shook his head: "No way, no way, absolutely not!"

"Why not?" An Nan blinked, and the corners of his mouth turned up to watch the continuation.

"Because you are determined to lose!"

"Why should I lose? I'm also in the top ten of Azula's list of Latin Americans anyway. Isn't it comparable to the little sister of the dwarf?"

"Yes, you do have the same level of beauty as Anfil." Ah Xiu said, "But the problem is, your heart is ugly."

When An Nan rushed to fight with Ya Xiu again, the necromancer slowly said, "The fraudster is really strange."

Panji: "Why?"

“The fraudster will not take the initiative to cut off communication with others. This is not in his habit.” Harvey said: “Just as I hate my enemy, I won’t refuse to deal with his body.”

“Could it be that Aunt Bogin felt that she would not have to bear with you anymore, so that she completely exposed her true character?” Liz guessed: “Didn’t Aunt Bokin always say that chatting with Uncle Harvey is like sleeping in a coffin? ”

“Huh...?” Harvey asked doubtfully, “But... isn’t this a complimentary metaphor?”

Liz looked at Ash in the mirror, and suddenly asked, “Dad, do you think Aunt Bokin really abandoned us?”

“This kind of thing is not as useful as I think...” Ya Xiu combed and dried Liz’s hair with a hairdryer: “It’s going to rain, my mother is going to marry, if everyone gets married, I’m still single...”

“Then what do you think?” Liz hesitated and decided to say what the White Queen asked her to say: “I don’t think Aunt Bokin will abandon us.”

If anyone in the funeral office knows Igola best, it is not An Nan or Axiu, but the White Queen who has negotiated with Igola.

“Why do you feel that way?” The purple moth beside him smiled: “Because he will make you beautiful braids?”

Liz ignored the malicious aunt and looked at Ash in the mirror carefully: “He values you more than you think.”

Ah Xiu lowered his eyelids: “I actually don’t care if Igola will abandon us.”

In the stunned eyes of everyone, Ash slowly said: “I have seen three forms of Igola. The first one is a scammer who can speak sweet words. This form means he wants to deceive something from you; The second is a fraudster who will deliberately suppress you. This form means that he wants to use you.”

“And the third one is the one I just saw, the fraudster who alienated us thousands of miles away.”

Liz asked: “What does this mean?”

“I don’t know.” Ah Xiu said, “I only saw him moving alone, he was trying to force himself.”

Everyone was silent for a while, and An Nan said, “So do you still believe in him? Are you throwing your trust like this?”

“No.” Ya Xiu shook his head slowly: “Of course trust should be entrusted to the worthy.”

After everyone went back to rest, Liz still stayed on the bed. After coming to Beldette, Liz has become more and more clingy, but Ya Xiu thinks that she may be in a strange environment + work every day, so it is excusable to like to act like a baby. Anyway, Ya Xiu waited. The next meeting will enter the virtual realm, and she will leave it alone.

“Can you not put your feet on my stomach tonight?”

“That father hugs me to sleep!” Liz raised her hand happily.

Axiu feels feasible, anyway, with Liz’s amazing sleeping position, she will roll away smoothly in less than an hour. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com shouldn’t sleep so much that her arm is paralyzed, so she is allowed to rest on her arm. In his arms, then open the “Magician’s Handbook” for “Void Exploration”.

As the consciousness connected to the virtual realm, Ya Xiu slowly opened his eyes and found that he was holding the witch in his arms.

Diya opened her eyes and found that she was actually sitting on the viewer. When she raised her head, she saw the misty face of the viewer!

“Wow!”

The two quickly separated with a scream, and looked back at the same time—Jian Ji was sitting in the back seat of the sports car, and had a panoramic view of their previous contact!

“Jian Ji, it was an accident of entering the Void Realm just now—” Di Ya explained in a hurry, “It really has nothing to do with me. Even if it is wrong, it is the viewer’s fault—”

“We came to the Xingtang area tonight?”

Jian Ji didn’t seem to care what they were doing just now, and said calmly: “Don’t waste time, hurry up and plan the best route to search for resources according to the map. We are short tonight.”

Ah Xiu blinked with Dia and nodded quickly. Dia sat carefully next to Jian Ji, but Jian Ji seemed to have no interest in her, looking at the upstream golden rain outside.

Soon, Ya Xiu drove to a gem mine resource point, where the overlord Tyrannosaurus and a group of kubose dragons were stationed. Although this is a monster group that can kill most magicians, for the three of them, even if they are not armed with arms, it is easy to wipe them out.

After a glorious victory, Ash and the others first collected the gem materials that their magical spirits could eat in it. Ya Xiu found a ‘sharp gem’, which was the best ration for swordsmanship, so he went to find Sword Ji: “Sword Ji, you—”

Snapped!

Sonia slapped Ya Xiu’s hand on her shoulder in an instant, staring at him with wide eyes, and said calmly:

“Don’t touch me.” (to be continued)

Chapter 400: Why is Jian Ji angry?

Latest URL:

“Watcher, why don’t you apologize?”

During the battle with the large mercury resource point, taking advantage of the battle with the overlord Fox Lantern Dragon, Dia retreated to the side of Ya Xiu and said with a low voice.

“Even if I am willing to apologize, I still have to know what I did wrong.” Ya Xiu said helplessly.

“But you didn’t do anything wrong, how could she be so angry?”

With a cry of wailing, the Fox Lantern Dragon exploded three magic spirits and an experience orb. One of the magic spirits was the second wing ‘Flow Zhuan’, which just happened to replace the one wing of Ya Xiu’s ‘Flow Zhuan’, and the second wing ‘Yue Si’ ‘Shuling and light orbs are suitable for feeding the sword girl.

When Ah Xiu passed Shu Ling and the Orb, Sonia took it from his hand instantly, as if she didn’t want to have more than a moment of physical contact with him.

Diya looked at the side and shook her head again and again, with a look of “what did you just look at me saying?”, she covered her mouth and gloated, until Jian Ji looked over and went to search for resources.

Ah Xiu also looked helpless—he didn’t know what happened!

Jian Ji was very wrong tonight, her attitude towards him was so bad, even when they first met, they weren’t so bad. But Yaxiu didn’t offend her because he tried to scold her the night before. They didn’t go online at all last night. Why did Jian Ji suddenly become the “Extreme Sword Ji Ba Jue” tonight?

Ya Xiu thought about it seriously. He didn't draw any cards to arrange special events for Jian Ji recently. It was definitely not his own problem. Then Jian Ji could only encounter problems in his plot.

Could it be that the reputation of Jian Ji's movies and dramas is so bad that her role is sprayed into shit?

Or did Jian Ji lost the game and was ridiculed by the Anti-Sword Ji Alliance for a chance?

Or maybe Jian Ji was stabbed by a classmate, and she got out of the club with her claws?

It may also be affected by the menstrual period...

Because there were so many possibilities, Ya Xiu couldn't guess it at all. He thought for a while, and walked to Sonia under Dia's awe-inspiring gaze: "Sword Ji, I have something to tell you."

"Say." Sonia looked down for the mercury material.

"Although I don't know why you are in a bad mood, it is not good to anger others."

Sonia raised her head to look at him: "Do you mean to vent your grievances on unrelated people?"

"Yes."

"Then I didn't anger."

Deya tried very hard to hold back her smile, and Ya Xiu went to recover the mercury essence with a depressed look.

Now they are in the Star Hall round, and Ya Xiu had previously obtained the Star Hall map from De Miro, so they are equivalent to opening a full map to explore the Time Continent. Originally, the commander map could not be saved, that is, it can only be used the night the commander was killed. However, the “Void Map” has a memory function, which turns one-time items into an unlimited number of times, so that Ya Xiu and the others can finally enjoy it. A planned sightseeing tour.

Asia Xiu did not blindly choose locations in the virtual world with special mechanisms. After all, those locations are widely distributed and the income is uneven, such as the amnesia cabin. Even if there is no such thing as the Queen’s Soul, they will not make much; such as the legendary library, Ya Xiu made a profit, but the witch’s hair was not picked up—although the main reason was that the witch was too greedy.

In contrast, the search for resources to improve the Alchemy Throne is the most important thing. Cohesion is always an increase in profit without losing money. Not to mention that when the resources are searched, the magic spirit and experience orbs will be exploded. Therefore, Asia Xiu formulated an ability. After passing the route of many rare resource points, if nothing happens, the Alchemy Throne can be raised several levels tonight.

When Ah Xiu and the others searched the fifth resource point non-stop, Ah Xiu saw a Legion of Heroic Souls approaching on the map.

It was the Star Hall round, and it was the Spider Tower Legion that should go. The Empress Commander’s Legion could not chase him down no matter what, Ya Xiu didn’t care, so he drove around to the next resource point.

But as soon as they searched it out, they found that the Heroic Soul Legion had almost hit the face!

A few thousand feather birds and dragons kept attacking the “refracting curtain wall” of the sports car from a distance, and Ya Xiu quickly drove away. This heroic legion didn’t seem to have many troops, and didn’t even come to melee, so they escaped fairly easily.

But the problem here is already very big-why can the Star Hall’s Heroic Soul Legion accurately locate their location and chase them?

“My lover loves us too much...” Ah Xiu gritted her teeth and said, “She actually revealed our coordinates to all the forces!?”

It could only be for this reason—the queen found that it was impossible to kill Ash and the others, and directly announced the coordinates of Ash and others to all the forces, and might even reveal that they had a ‘secret incarnation’ and seduce other forces to chase and kill Ash. !

As for why the queen would rather risk losing her ‘secret incarnation’ to do so, the reason is simple-she knows that she can no longer catch them!

Most of the queen didn’t know that they would be near death by crossing Liujin River, but only with the ability to cross Liujin River, Asia Xiu and others would be invincible, no matter how strong the Heroic Soul Legion could only face Liujin River. Looking at the river and sighing.

If you can’t get it by yourself, don’t even think of it for others!

Send out intelligence to let all the forces kill Ya Xiu and others. The worst result is that the ‘Secret Incarnation’ is destroyed. The best result is that Ya Xiu and others have exhausted their spirit power in other areas, and there is no longer in the Spider Tower area. The ability to cross the Liujin River was easily grasped by the queen’s heroic soul.

Without releasing information, the Queen’s Legion would definitely not be able to catch Ash who can cross the Liujin River!

In such a comparison, the queen knows how to choose even if she is a fool, not to mention that she is an extremely vicious-hearted queen!

And don’t forget, although the elimination of the conceptual avatar will cause all related magic spirits to collapse, as long as it takes a certain amount of time, the conceptual avatar can still be regenerated. Therefore, although the loss of the “Secret Incarnation” is a loss, it can be made up; and if the “Secret Incarnation” is permanently taken to the third floor of the Void Realm by Ya Xiu and others, it will be a blood loss hole that cannot be filled at all!

Even if they are far away in the quiet domain, the queen can still chase them and kill them!

In fact, this trick can also be easily cracked: that is, Ya Xiu and others don’t usually go to the Void Realm, and they don’t go online until the Spider Tower round. But in this way, their growth rate will drop sharply. I don't know how long it will take to climb the third floor of the virtual realm. Therefore, the Queen's soul will have more opportunities to ambush them!

One link is hidden, one step is better!

When Ya Xiu said his thoughts, the operators took a breath, and Diya asked, "Then what shall we do?"

"Grab time to develop!" said Ya Xiu: "The sports car is faster than the Heroic Legion. Before the Heroic Legion can find it, we will run away! As long as there is a detailed map, even if we are besieged and suppressed, we can compete for space and time for development!"

Although knowing that the viewer's plan is very reasonable, Sonia and Deya still have a sense of unreality: ordinary two-winged magicians are cautiously exploring in the time continent, and encountering a tyrannosaurus is today's adventure, and They are actually going to grow up in the outburst and annihilation of the Heroic Soul Legion, the most vicious existence in the Time Continent?

Is this really the pressure that the Second Wing Master can withstand?

Having said that, Sonia and Deya didn't have the slightest feeling of timidity. After several deadly deaths, coupled with their personal victory over the Heroic Legion, they have no fear of the Heroic Legion. When they heard that the Heroic Legion would chase and kill them, they had a bad temper in their hearts!

"arrive."

Suddenly, Ya Xiu stopped outside a garden surrounded by wooden railings. Inside, the white mist was tangled and radiant, and even bursts of singing could be heard. Sonia was taken aback: "Misty Miracle Garden?"

"Go down and grab Shu Ling!"

As soon as Ah Xiu's voice fell, the three magicians rushed in with various moving miracles to capture the magic spirits. The Mist Miracle Paradise is a kind of miracle paradise. The magic spirits are hidden in the mist of the group. The magician can only fish by luck. Once the magician enters the paradise, the mist will quickly dissipate and the magic spirit will disappear. Cycle to re-gather the mist magic spirit.

“Hey!”

Ya Xiu fluttered and didn't catch a single magic spirit. He felt like a young master chasing beautiful women, and he was still a fat house, and the beautiful women avoided their own pounces when they walked around easily.

Will it be my turn to get nothing this time?

Ya Xiu took a deep breath. Shu Ling here likes to sing, so he should listen to the voice to catch Shu Ling. Sound, sound, sound...

It's here!

Ah Xiu leaped at the sound source very precisely, only to crash into the grass with others with a snap. He looked up and saw the bad-tempered Jian Ji riding on him today, and he drew a sigh of relief: “Sorry, it's an accident—”

“Shhh.” Sonia leaned on him, covering his mouth: “The witch is not nearby, isn't it?”

☹_☹)?”

“Hehe.” The village aunt smiled: “How about it, am I pretending to look like today?”

“What?” The cult leader was startled: “Your bad temper today—”

“It's all pretended!” Sonia blinked at Ya Xiu: “Surely the witch will think we have a bad relationship, right?”

Why do you want to do this...Axiu knew the answer without asking. UU reading www.uukanshu.com

Just as he could see the crack in the team, Sword Ji could also see it naturally. However, Asia Xiu hadn't figured out how to solve it, Jian Ji gave her solution: Since the witch thinks that their relationship is too good to believe in them, then their relationship has gotten worse?

Although this method is too simple and plain, the problem is that the witch is also an ignorant girl who has not been involved in the world, and she has deceived her just right.

"Huh." Ya Xiu breathed a sigh of relief, "I thought—"

"Thinking that I suddenly hate you?" Sonia stared at Ya Xiu with wide eyes, her eyes gleaming with stars, her eyebrows curled, and the corners of her mouth curled up like a fox stealing food.

"Yeah, I thought I had offended you in some way."

"You have offended me so much."

At this time Sonia finally seemed to feel that this posture was not quite right, and she blushed and stepped back and sat next to her. Ya Xiu also sat up and muttered, "Then how we communicate in the future will be the same as today?"

"What do you think?"

"I think it's pretty good, so I can relax too—"

"Then I will tell the witch tomorrow that I forgive you, everything is back to the original state, anyway, the effect is already out."

Yaxiu glanced at her, and Sonia tilted her head: "Aren't you... mad at me?"

“Why should I be angry with you?”

“It’s me, I’ll definitely be angry...” Sonia looked down at her index fingers touching each other: “Actually, I just couldn’t pretend, and I wanted to find a chance to explain to you along the way, but the witch was always there.”

Ah Xiu put his hands in front of his chest, and said in a very embarrassing way: “It’s okay to restore to the original state, but if you want to attack me like just now, it’s better to wait until the witch is away—”

“I can’t do it!” (to be continued)
