

Chapter 391

“Frank, as you said, we grew up together. If Jude is still alive, we might have become a family already. Don’t you want to see me live happily?” Jason looked at Frank excitedly. Frank pursed his lips slightly, saying “Jason, Jude is still alive. Why do you all think that she is dead? If she hears these words, can you imagine how much pain she will endure?” “I...” Jason choked and then he said, “But Frank, it has been so many years...” “No matter how many years have passed, we shouldn’t give up, right?” Frank angrily interrupted him again. “Also, Jason, one has to fight for his or her own happiness. Remember those people who hurt you so much that you can barely breathe because they teach you how to endure or be cruel.” After saying that, Frank walked past him and strode away. Different from Frank, it would be tough for Jason to get it all from the beginning without the support of the Chaney family! Marilyn would never compromise because she wanted to make Jason marry a fine lady from a wealthy family! Jason had seen how stubborn Marilyn could be. Jason had been staring at Frank’s back as he left, and his face was still filled with pain and excitement. After a long time, he moved his stiff legs and got seated in the car. Then he took another cigarette in frustration and drove away! Jason thought, “Damn it, how did things become like this? Jason pursed his thin lips in pain and drove at an extremely fast speed. A long whistle sounded on the wide street. It broke the lonely night sky! In the lonely night sky, faint starlight could be seen! On the next morning, Judith arrived at the office on time! Alaina had got the files for the meeting ready for her. Alaina looked at Judith’s attractive face and walked over with a smile. “Good morning, Ms. White. These are the files needed for today’s meeting!”

Judith looked at her and smiled, saying, “Thank you, Alaina. Let’s go to the meeting.” “Alright, Ms. White. According to Edwin’s words, Mr. Taylor has a regular meeting today. After the department meeting, he go to the general conference room for a meeting.” Alaina said with a smile. She didn’t feel much pressure working with Judith. “Alright!” The two of them took the elevator downstairs for the meeting. Frank and Mu Gary came to work very early today, even earlier than Judith. The two sat in the office and chatted. Frank glanced at Gary, who was scrolling through the Line, and said in displeasure, “Gary, how many times do you have to check Alissa’s Timeline in a day? You stayed up late at night, and you’re doing it now in the office?” Gary barely glanced at Frank and he didn’t seem to be angry at all. He pointed to the Timeline of Alissa and smiled, “Frank, don’t you want to see your son’s photos? Look at him, he’s so cool!” Hearing this, Frank looked at his phone. Seeing the boy’s handsome little face, the corners of Frank’s mouth curled into a faint smile. “Don’t you know whose son he is?” Frank looked proud and delighted. Gary glared at him and mocked, “Frank, do you have to act so proudly in front of a single man like me?” Frank smiled naturally and raised his eyebrows, saying, “Gary, he is the reason why I can be proud. I can be proud because I have a son.” “Fine. You can be however proud you want to be!” Gary had no reason to refute. Frank was qualified to show off anyway. Frank thought for a moment and said, “Gary, the Chaney family is now focused on real estate. Check on the land they have sold in the Riverside District.” He wondered, “The land in Riverside District belonged to Keven. If the land was profitable, why would Keven wait for
