

Chapter 3918

Followers heard the words, the whole person is even more dumbfounded.

What is a tightrope walk, and what is a life gamble, he really didn't know what his hall master meant.

"My subordinates don't quite understand." The attendant lowered his head and said softly.

The demon put away his smile and let out a long sigh: "One side is personal feelings, and the other side is traditional rules. If it were you, what would you choose?"

"Since ancient times, loyalty and righteousness have been dilemma, and subordinates don't know how to choose. However, no matter what. Whatever the Palace Master chooses, his subordinates will follow the Palace Master to the death."

"Okay." The demon smiled lightly, "I see." When the words fell, he gently hooked his hands, and the attendants immediately understood what he meant and put their ears close. to his mouth.

The demon said something quickly and softly, and the entourage soon showed a look of embarrassment.

"Palace Master, what does this mean?" The attendant looked at him.

The ghost smiled lightly: "In this kind of tightrope walking, if you take one wrong step, you will lose everything, so be careful."

"This subordinate understands.

" The subordinates returned to their couch in the tent.

He took out a map and studied it carefully. While looking at it, he drank a little wine, shaking his head for a while, and nodding for a while.

"That's weird." He sighed depressedly, his face gloomy and uncertain.

And this time the other end.

It was also a sigh, and the same four words: "This thing is strange."

Immediately afterwards, four little commanders came over: "Fu Lao, the mountain has already been hit so far, why hasn't the enemy in our position attacked?"

"We stayed here all night, but there was no movement from the opposite side."

"Fu Old, what are we going to do now?"

Futian was also very depressed, and his spirit collapsed overnight, but he didn't realize anything until now

This really made Futian completely unable to understand what the situation was.

Faced with the questions of his subordinates, Futian really wanted to scold him, you ask me, who am I going to ask?

But as the coach here, Futian knew that he couldn't do this.

After thinking for a while, Futian frowned and said: "No matter what the other side does, defending the position is our main task. Send the order and let the soldiers be patient. The enemy is most likely to consume us on purpose."

"You don't know something, When it was time to fall into the city, this guy played psychological warfare against us at an extreme disadvantage. As a result, this guy relied on this battle to forcefully beat most of our soldiers and soldiers. This is also the main reason for our last failure. One."

Hearing Futian's words, the four commanders responded in unison: "This subordinate understands."

"That's right." Futian suddenly stopped the four commanders.

The four commanders suddenly stopped: "What else is there to order from Fu Lao?"

Futian said to his throat, swallowed it forcefully, and waved his hands, indicating that they can go down.

After the four of them left, Futian's face was full of sadness.

Although he ordered the commander to appease the soldiers, in fact, he himself was the most disturbed in the entire position.

There are more than 100,000 troops on the mountainside, but so far, this battle has gone through such a long time without stopping, which has to make people worry about the above situation.

And once there is any change in the above, it will be a fatal blow to their frontline troops.

on the mountainside.

The whole night of fighting was still in the middle of a fierce confrontation even at noon.

Around the mountainside, explosions continued.

The beasts of the strange beast army and the death cavalry on the opposite side almost came and went, and both sides were rampaging in the crowd.

Although the death cavalry is protected by yin and cannot be penetrated by swords and guns, the army of strange beasts has always had its own characteristics.

Both sides have suffered damage, but also gains from each other.

Amelia Su and Ziqing became the other two powerful firepower points after George Han. The two led their troops and attacked from the left and the right. Although Ye Shijun's army had already been ambushed, it was real for a while to meet these two little perverts. have no choice.

In addition, the two echoed from left to right, forming horns with each other, and the Ye Shijun army who was fighting was quite a headache.

It's not that they never thought of sending experts to set fire to the two women, but unfortunately, they also have Qing Ji, Ningyue and other experts to assist them, and they can often help the two women to level the obstacles around them, so that they can output with peace of mind.

As for George Han...

"Wait a minute!"

Suddenly, George Han slapped the dozen or so soldiers in front of him with a slap and made a pause gesture...

Chapter 3919

rely on!

The fight was fierce, but someone suddenly called a timeout at this time!

This is a life-and-death battle, bloodshed is terrifying, but you are calling for a timeout, how about playing the house?

If it is replaced by anyone, not only will no one pay attention to him, but he may even yell at the other party for being stupid.

But unfortunately, this person is George Han.

As soon as he shouted, the soldiers surrounding him stopped consciously without any orders from their superiors.

Grass, besieging George Han is simply a high-pressure and high-risk job. Now that someone finally stopped it, everyone wanted to take a breath. As for who called the pause, he didn't care.

In fact, not only the soldiers wanted to stop, but Ye Shijun and other executives also really wanted to take a breath.

This battle lasted for more than six hours, but that was twelve hours.

Who wouldn't be exhausted under such circumstances? !

Therefore, the seemingly outrageous request was unexpectedly agreed.

The whole scene was really suspended...

No one in the audience even moved a little bit.

This scene is full of embarrassment when it is shocked, especially who has more people and who is more embarrassed.

Ye Shijun's face almost wanted to kick in his trousers pocket, but his body was very honest and stopped obediently.

“George Han, what the hell are you doing, you still have to stop on the battlefield? You are the family.” Ye Shijun is honest, but he must be tough in his mouth. After all, he is now the commander of this group of people!

“You’re not tired after playing for so long.” George Han rolled his eyes at him.

Ye Shijun had to admit that he was really tired, but he couldn’t admit it even if he killed him: “Hmph, it’s a little tired, but it’s still much better than you.”

“After all, I don’t look like you have to deal with it . So many people.”

George Han nodded: “Although I’m not happy with what you said, I must admit that what you said is the truth. After all, I’m facing a wheel battle, and you’re playing a cold shot, which consumes It’s completely different.”

“Hmph, it’s good to know, now, you have two choices, either obediently kneel down and apologize, or, when the timeout is over, you will kneel down and apologize when we beat you.” Ye Shijun sneered.

Hearing this, George Han shook his head: “So confident? Are you determined to win?”

“Why not?” Ye Shijun said dismissively.

“It’s just a pause, I’m fascinated by your self-confidence.” George Han rolled his eyes silently : “I just see that you guys are tired enough, let you have a meal and be a full-fledged ghost.

I don’t care.”

Ye Shijun shouted angrily when the words fell: “George Han, you are so f* good at pretending, and let’s be a hungry ghost. I’m sorry, I want you to be a starving ghost.”

Ye Shijun snorted coldly: “Everyone, give it to me immediately, and after taking him down, we will have a big fish.”

“Yes!” The

generals took orders.

George Han gave a bitter smile and shook his head: “I originally wanted to let you guys eat and fight again, but who would have thought that you would use this kindness as a capital to be bullied. Well, I’m going to showdown, not pretending.

“You surrender.” “

Surrender? George Han, are you confused?” Ye Shijun said angrily.

“You don’t surrender when you are surrounded , because your brains are burned out.” George Han smiled softly: “You will find out later.”

When the words fell, George Han directly started the Heavenly Fire Moon Wheel, and the jade sword Add to the body, rush into the crowd, like a hungry tiger rushing for food, very ferocious.

At about the same time, Amelia Su and the others saw that George Han's attack also launched an attack at the same time. Suddenly, the hot battle just now rekindled.

"Kill, kill me!" Ye Shijun shouted loudly, will you know later? Wait, he knows shit, all he knows is that he will let George Han die later.

As he kept waving his hand, more and more troops were killing George Han.

However, George Han at this time not only did not have the slightest fear, but suddenly showed a cold smile at the soldiers who rushed up: "What are you waiting for?"
