

Chapter 392

Gary suddenly frowned and asked seriously, "The Riverside District?" "Exactly!" Frank nodded. Gary took a deep breath, thought for a moment, and said, "Didn't we bid on that piece of land before? But then we realized that it was unprofitable and gave up on it, right? Why did the Chaney family decide to buy the land over there?" Frank shook his head slightly and his gaze turned cold as he said, "I don't know. I just heard it from Jason last night." "Well..." Gary frowned. "Could it be that Ms. Chaney insisted on buying it?" Gary knew that Marilyn had been working very hard these years. "I don't know. That's why I asked you to check." As Frank spoke, he walked back to his office chair, turned on his computer, and prepared for today's routine meeting. Gary sighed and threw his phone onto the sofa. Then he leaned lazily on the sofa as he looked at Frank's enchanting face with a faint gaze. "The Chaney family runs a lot of industries. If they want to buy the land of the Riverside District, the family must bet on it with at least half of their assets, right?" Frank shook his head slightly and said indifferently, "They bet everything they have on it." "What..." Gary slightly widened his eyes. "That's horrible. What if their evaluation is wrong? They can go bankrupt for it!" Gary's voice grew louder and louder. "Hold your tongue!" Frank glared at him. Gary immediately shut his mouth. "You're right! I shouldn't have said that! It may bring bad luck. However, is the land in the Riverside District really that expensive?" Frank did not speak. Instead, he fixed his eyes on the computer. When Gary saw it, he realized that Frank wouldn't bother to talk to him any longer. Therefore, he simply shut his mouth and returned to his office to prepare for the meeting in the morning! During the whole morning, Judith felt very busy attending meetings. When it was time for lunch, she and Alaina went to the cafeteria of the company together. They had just gone downstairs when Frank, Gary, and Edwin went downstairs to eat too. Gary glanced at Judith's back and then looked at Frank, who had distanced himself from Judith to make her safe. Gary suddenly smiled and asked, "Frank, are we going to eat in the cafeteria, or..." "To the cafeteria!" Frank interrupted him with a cold expression. His long legs had already stepped into the elevator. The light in the elevator reflected his noble figure, and the expression on his charming face showed that he was in deep thought. Gary and Edwin quickly glanced at each other. Gary reluctantly laughed as a response. "Frank, in my memory, you haven't gone to the cafeteria for over half a month. Judith's charm is indeed beyond imagination." Once Frank showed up in the cafeteria, he would attract tons of attention. Besides, Gary had to follow Frank to the cafeteria. He had always been following Frank to all kinds of great feasts. It had also been a long time since the last time he went to the cafeteria to eat! On the contrary, Edwin, who was a kind but indifferent man, went to the cafeteria almost every day! If Gary had a girlfriend, who was supposed to be Alissa, he would work hard to earn money and make her live a cozy life every day. Unfortunately, the news he sent out got no reply again. Alissa hadn't replied to his message in the past few days. Gary thought it over and over and was pretty sure that Alissa shouldn't have rejected him with her cultivated personality. Gary couldn't help wondering, "Am I being too sensitive? I can sense that Alissa is unhappy these days."
