

Chapter 3920

“Who is he talking to?”

“Crap, is he talking to our people?”

“Is he really sick? ?”

A group of executives were at the back, watching George Han’s inexplicable reflections in the field, and they were completely at a loss for a while.

But the next second, someone gave them the answer.

I saw that among the troops rushing towards George Han, a lot of people suddenly raised their hands and drew their knives and slashed at the backs of the people in front.

“Kill!”

With their collective roar, what was originally a good unit was abruptly split into two parts.

The former faced George Han with no backup, and the latter, who rushed forward, never expected that the friendly army in front would suddenly turn around and attack him.

For a while, there was chaos on both sides, but George Han and the camp that had suddenly appeared to be sentenced to death by the army were in chaos. Along with the chaos on the frontal battlefield, the soldiers on the left and right flanks suddenly became distracted. Taking this opportunity, Amelia Su and Ziqing’s troops broke through the enemy’s defense line one after another, entered the interior, and gradually merged with George Han. Ye Shijun’s eyes stared like cows, and it was obviously difficult for him to accept such a situation for a while. Zhu Yanshu and Ming Yu also showed panic. They don’t understand, how... how could this be! These people are obviously theirs, and even they can be sure that many people have never seen George Han at all, but why would they suddenly defect, and when it was time to betray them, they fought with George Han inside and out? !

“Fu Mei! It’s Fu Mei!” Zhu Yanshu suddenly remembered something.

When he looked back, sure enough, there was no trace of Fu Mei around.

“What, Fu Mei?” Ming Yu was shocked.

“Elder Shenlong, Fu Mei is playing tricks with us. She really surrendered to George Han. She deliberately came back to gain our trust, and then...”

“What?” step.

“She just lied to us to come here. The purpose is to lead us into the urn, and then work together to outflank us. We... we were fooled.” Zhu Yanshu’s face was even uglier than crying.

After Ming Yu heard this, she took a little taste, and it seemed that everything made sense.

No wonder there are so many troops in ambush at the foot of the mountain, in fact, everything is Fu Mei's plan.

The hateful thing is that at the beginning, I really believed her and gave her military power...

But now, she takes her military power and brings her own people to counterattack herself.

Ming Yu felt that it was really a shame and humiliation pouring into his heart, and his IQ was pressed on the ground and rubbed countless times.

"Ye Shijun, you've been tricked. In fact, I have already secretly joined forces with Fumei. The purpose is to lure you here. I will attack from inside and outside, and Fumei should be reconciled with the outside, and take your dog's life. Now, you understand. Why did I say you lost?"

George Han smiled coldly and flew into the air like a god of war.

Ye Shijun glared at George Han angrily, and then looked back at the disintegrating army around him. The anger suddenly lost most of his confidence.

The troops have dispersed, and the morale of the army has dropped to the bottom. Even if there is an advantage in numbers, the general trend has gone.

Especially George Han's remarks undoubtedly made most people panic.

They are surrounded.

"Don't panic, don't panic, hold on, hold on."

Seeing that the situation was not right, Zhu Yanshu hurriedly shouted at the soldiers.

After that, he ordered the drummers to beat the drums quickly to stabilize the situation.

Mingyu is no nonsense here. Several masters attacked in several ways, forcibly using bloody and brutal methods to kill the soldiers who were trying to escape directly on the spot.

In this way, the originally chaotic army barely regained its footing.

"Everyone, don't be afraid, even if they used trickery against us, so what? We have 200,000 people, and all the plots and tricks are just paper tigers." Ye Shijun also shouted at the soldiers.

The soldiers looked at each other, and it seemed to make some sense to some extent.

However, just when Ye Shijun's voice had some effect, he was so immortal that George Han said again: "Ye Shijun, did you feel guilty when you said this?"

" , you played with us for an average of six hours, and now that Fumei has come out, one thing has changed, one thing has changed, do you still think you can persevere?" When the words were finished, George Han suddenly looked at the soldiers and said, "Everyone, listen to me. My word?"

Chapter 3921

“Don’t listen to his nonsense, this bas**** is full of lies.” Ye Shijun hurriedly stopped, and at the same time looked at Fumei hatefully: “And you b!tch, how dare you dare to betray me.”

“Wait until this battle is over, please help me to put it down here, I will make you survive but not die.”

“Hehe, let me Sister, you can’t live or die, you have to ask us if we agree or not.” Fulin stood up directly, pointed at Ye Shijun and said coldly.

“Traitor, traitor, you group of traitors.” Ye Shijun roared angrily: “You are not qualified to talk to me.”

“No one wants to talk to you rubbish, from beginning to end, you are the one who keeps talking, our leader. I just want to speak to the brothers present.”

“You...” Ye Shijun was angry, but in the blink of an eye, he saw that most of the soldiers were looking at George Han, and he was speechless for a while.

Obviously, these people want to hear what George Han has to say.

“You have seen it too. Most of the people behind me also know each other, right? If you don’t know them, I can also introduce them. They were all your comrades in arms.

” The soldiers attacked me alone, but surprisingly they were killed by me alone. In the end, the army was defeated and left the city. And the soldiers behind me were also abandoned by them.”

“As the saying goes, soldiers die for those who know themselves. Old life, if you win, it is someone else’s credit, but if you lose, you will be abandoned. Excuse me, are you really willing?”

“Someone Han is not talented and has no other skills, but he is surprisingly loyal to his brother. Those who enter my door have pills, weapons, and divine beasts.”

“I know, some people will say that I’m bragging, but the eyes of the masses are sharp, and you will know . Brothers who are interested, come back and pick one.” He stood up and said, “Brothers, you have to be the master of your life. It’s not necessary to say how many people we have been abandoned.”

“I thought it was a tragedy, but after following George Han, we I was stunned to find out that this is a big comedy. Because, after following him, we have everything.”

“You should be able to see now that our weapons are all very good, huh, it’s nothing. Ask some people in your team who know us, and ask them if our cultivation has improved a few grades compared to before? Hehe, I’m not afraid to tell you that 3,000 gave us a lot of medicinal pills. The first payment is almost what you can earn after working hard for ten years.”

“Also, all those who follow him will at least be promoted by one level.”

After that, many executives and masters who were abandoned at the beginning came forward one after another. , with a confident smile on his face, and fiddling with the weapons they were assigned.

One person may lie, but when a group of people come forward, the lie is less likely to be a lie. Especially now, when everyone still has the real thing in their hands.

“Don’t listen to their bullshit, it’s just a face project. How can he, George Han, have the capital to give them so many things? It’s just pretending to be a big family.” Ye Shijun shouted in a hurry.

“Pretend to be a big family?” George Han smiled and said, “According to my previous character, I’m really lazy to explain. However, today is different, I said, I have a showdown.” After he finished speaking, his hand moved directly, and the space ring A lot of gold and silver jewelry and all kinds of magic weapons were sprinkled directly in it: “

In addition, I forgot to tell you that someone from Han also has an identity, that is, an alchemist to cure diseases, Xianling Island, have you heard of it, the next is the new island owner. This point, your Shenlong elders should be very clear. Now, do I still have capital? “

As soon as these words came out, the gold and silver jewelry and all kinds of magic soldiers on the ground were immediately dumbfounded by everyone, and after hearing George Han’s words, they looked at Ming Yu.

Although Ming Yu did not have any expression, she did not refute it. George Han’s words have already shown that George Han’s words are quite true.

Many soldiers immediately whispered, although it was not obvious, but at least the previous murderous aura was gone.

However, at this moment, there was someone next to Ye Shijun. He exclaimed: “Don’t be tempted by them, our reinforcements are here. “

Going with the sound and looking around, sure enough, in the mountains, a large army rushed towards this side quickly...
