

Chapter 3930

This...

This neat and powerful army of 200,000 people has changed in a short period of time. In this way, throwing away the armor and abandoning the armor is extremely embarrassing?

Futian couldn't understand.

He couldn't even understand why they lost, why they ran away.

The Han 3,000 basic army has been blocked by themselves, and even at this time, they have not launched any attack, which means that they have no worries at all.

Since there is no worries in the future, then why is this army of 200,000...why would they flee in the face of the few people of 3,000 people in Shanghan?

"No...impossible, it's impossible, we...we lost?"

"How could we lose? How could we lose? We didn't lose before, why did we lose with the reinforcements from the Troll Palace? Or? So fast?" The two little commanders also came out with their back feet, watching this scene, they couldn't help being stunned and froze in place.

Not only them, but more and more soldiers in front of the battle also looked back at this "mighty" scene at this time, and their eyes suddenly became puzzled and fearful.

They used to be the big rear of the people on the mountain, but on the other hand, the people on the mountain are also their big rear. The collapse of any one person will make the people on the other side completely lose the rear defense, and it is natural to be worried.

"Listen to the people inside, we have opened the humanitarian passage, and all those who are willing to escape can leave safely from the left side of the forest." In the forest, someone's shouting sounded appropriately at this time.

Everyone was awakened by this sound while being shocked and terrified, and in a trance, they had to escape towards the left side of the forest.

"That...that's just a trick to lure the enemy, don't go over, don't go over, once you pass, you will be ambushed."

Seeing a group of soldiers abandoning the formation and fleeing there, Futian hurriedly cursed.

However, it was his scolding, which seemed impermanent, but in fact gave many soldiers enough confidence in their hearts.

Yes, Futian is scolding furiously, what can he swear at?

The scolding is that they shouldn't go to the left, what does that mean? !

Futian also wants to escape! !

Some people made their mark and ran first, but now the leader is scolding this again. The heart of a bunch of people who have retreated has become more restless at this time, and many people are looking at each other.

The next second, they collectively fled towards the left side of the forest.

In fact, many people still obeyed Futian at the scene. However, when they saw the first batch of people fled from the left side and there was no battle there, some people even passed through the siege and ran out of the mountains. After that, they couldn't take it any longer.

"Listen to the person on the opposite side, put down your weapons and escape from the left side of the forest. We, the Mysterious Man Alliance, can do what we say. Anyone who escapes from the left side, as long as they don't bring weapons, will never move either of you. Roots of hair."

Appropriately, the voice on the other side rang again.

"Wow!"

Many people threw the weapons in their hands when they heard the sound, and then crawled out of their positions one by one, and headed towards the left side of the forest as if they were dying.

"The defeat... is like falling down like a mountain." Futian sighed deeply, watching the soldiers completely disobey the command, running towards the left side of the forest like a tide.

Futian understood very well that the trend was over.

"Fu Lao, we... what should we do?" The little commander came over and asked softly.

Futian gave a wry smile: "What should I do? What else can I do? You teach me, what should I do?"

"My subordinates don't dare." : "But the subordinate thinks that we should also withdraw."

"But in order not to be blamed, we can use the pretext to check the safety of the escape route for the large army in advance, you see..." A flash of light suddenly flashed in Futian's eyes.

This method is indeed very good. Under the defeat, staying in this place for an extra second is dangerous. If you can evacuate early and still not be punished, how can Futian be unhappy?

Thinking of this, he hid a trace of joy in his heart and pretended to be difficult: "This is not an excuse, the safety of Elder Shenlong is the most important thing." "

Order the troops, go with me."

The troops moved towards the left side of the forest.

Looking at the enemy who has retreated like quicksand, George Han on the top of the mountain...

Chapter 3931

“Roar!”

Mysterious man and all the executives shouted in unison, excited for a while.

Amelia Su and the others also held each other's hands at this time, jumping and jumping happily.

Yes, with less winning more, and almost without any serious casualties, the 200,000 army fled in embarrassment. How could this battle not make everyone in the scene go crazy? !

“Haha, if I didn't participate in person, even if I was killed, I would never believe that we could complete such a Jedi comeback under such great adversity.”

“Yeah, this xx is like a dream. “

However, these must be remembered on the head of our alliance leader. Although I was confused by his manipulation before, I even thought that my alliance leader had become a headless fly because of excessive fear . Look at it now.” Come on, the leader and I are not at the same level, he is flying in the clouds, and I am drilling in the ground.”

“Yes, yes, I didn't understand it at all before, but I don't understand it now, but who XX f* cares, the important thing is that we have won now, and he won the XX thoroughly.”

“The leader of the alliance is awesome!” A group of people didn't hesitate to praise George Han. .

George Han had a faint smile on his face, looking at the army of the enemy fleeing in embarrassment, but did not speak.

Ningyue, Amelia Su, Wang Simin, Qingji and others came to him one after another, Ningyue shook her head and smiled bitterly: “They are all praising you, you are a god in their hearts, are you still pretending to be reserved here?”

Amelia Su shoot

He patted George Han on the shoulder: “Great hero, what's the matter?”

Seeing Amelia Su, George Han retracted his gaze and looked at Amelia Su, he let out a long breath: “There are only forty-four in the jungle. Personally, I need to make sure that Ye Shijun and his troops have really disintegrated and fled.”

“Three thousand, you... what did you say?” Amelia Su was surprised.

“It's that secret dagger troop.” George Han smiled bitterly.

“Just them? No one else?” Amelia Su said.

Ningyue is also extremely puzzled: “The other party has sent tens of thousands of people to fight against the defense, why... why do we have so many people? Shouldn't the people who should be in the city be below?”

George Han smiled bitterly. : “I just deliberately lied to them. I know that there is movement at the foot of the mountain, and they will send people to check. I have already asked my team to put a lot of scarecrows in the woods in advance with the help of trees, waiting for the group of people to come and check. At that time, the team quickly attacked them according to my order.”

“The group of people were all beaten up, and when they saw those dazed figures while rushing to escape, they naturally thought that there were many people there. After that, the group of people I must go back and report. I have already instructed the people in the squad to light torches everywhere, and I also put dozens of drum beasts for them. When the drum beast roared, it was like a heavy drum, and dozens of them screamed together, like a thousand beasts. The army beat drums.” “Just like that, they thought that I had released the elites who should be in the city, so they would definitely step up the defense and send soldiers from outside to attack the city.”

The people in this mountain will gradually become depressed, and at this time, if I let Fu Mei be sentenced again, guess what will happen to them?”

Hearing George Han's words, a group of people finally understood to the end. something happened.

Amelia Su smiled lightly: “The city that should have fallen can't be attacked, this side is besieged again, and there are still people rebelling inside, which is a huge blow to any army.”

George Han nodded: “Yes, if you compare the army of 200,000 people to a camel, then Yaoming's group is the last straw that breaks the camel's back.

”, the sudden despair makes people even more desperate.”

Amelia Su heard the words, and suddenly smiled: “Haha, if you let them know the truth, what would happen to Ye Shijun and his group?”
