

Chapter 3934

George Han smiled lightly, but did not answer directly, instead looking at Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng: "Count the number of people who surrendered, and then Order the troops to rest on the spot."

Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng nodded and went down to make arrangements.

"Three thousand, what chess are you playing? I told you, don't hide it from us this time." Amelia Su asked.

"Yeah, the tricks you and Fumei made this time kept all of us in the dark. Before, I really thought you were going to take us to escape, so I'll just say, how could it be with your character? Flee without fighting." Ningyue complained bitterly.

George Han smiled: "I didn't say it before because this plan is relatively complicated and the situation is urgent. The most important thing is that if so many people know the actual situation, their expressions will not be very natural. My opponent is a smart person like , not a reckless person like Ye Shijun, so we can't be sloppy about any details."

"The fewer people know about this, the better, and the people closest to me behave The more real it is, the better, so that Mingyu can believe it." "As for this game of chess." George Han thought for a while, then smiled: "Remember that I trained a team of sharp knives

Amelia Su nodded at George Han's gaze. Although she did not personally participate in the training during those three days, she had been with George Han all the time. Naturally, she knew very well.

"They are the rooks in this game of chess." George Han said.

At this time, Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng walked over slowly, and before George Han, he bent slightly: "The number of people has been counted, and the number of those who surrendered to us is about 17,000. The specific number, this needs to be turned back . Count slowly."

"Each one will give them a weapon, and then reward them with a batch of jewels."

"Huh?" Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng was obviously taken aback.

With so many people, money is not a problem. After all, there is a city now, and money can be recovered sooner or later, but if the problem is weapons...

This consumption is too much.

"There are so many people, each with one weapon, can you handle your inventory?" Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng asked softly.

George Han nodded slightly: "It's barely enough to eat."

“But...but the war is still undecided, they just surrendered to us just now, and now they have only distributed things to them, Wan Wan As soon as we are in a critical situation, these people see the wind again, don't they even lose their pants?” Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng said very worriedly.

Jianghu

Bai Xiaosheng's worries are not unreasonable. George Han himself is actually well aware of this.

But George Han has his own plans.

“Go, do as I say.”

Seeing that George Han was still insisting, Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng nodded. After George Han took out the things, he sent some disciples to transport them all to the surrendering soldiers. place to gather.

“Let everyone rest in place and wait until dawn.” George Han said.

Ningyue frowned slightly: “Should we get out of here as soon as possible? I mean, in case the enemy forces come back, this time, we won't have the same kind of attack from inside and outside.”

George Han gently shaking his head: “They are defeated troops, and they need rest more than we do. Besides, they have been defeated and scattered, and they want to reorganize their troops. How can there be such a fast time.”

“But I still need a night's time. .”

Hearing that George Han still needed time, Ningyue's words reached her throat, but she swallowed it hard. She didn't speak any more, nodded, and went down to arrange for the necessary defense and rest.

George Han glanced at Amelia Su: “Are you going to play with me or do you want to rest?”

“Marry the chicken with the chicken, I will accompany you.” Amelia Su said.

George Han smiled knowingly and nodded: “The place I'm going may be scary, and at the same time, it's full of beasts.”

“Aren't you the biggest beast?” Amelia Su smiled lightly.

George Han touched his forehead, full of helplessness, he shouldn't talk too much.

“Let's go then.” George Han took Amelia Su's hand and slowly walked towards a jungle on the east side of the mountain...

Chapter 3935

This is down town, outside the city.

The night was about to fall, and the siege army did not launch too many large-scale sieges during the day. After night, it was even more dead.

Pei Gu sat in the tent, ignoring that the food beside him was cold, and focused on the topographic map in his hand.

He is studying the overall city structure of the fallen city, trying to find some weak defensive links on it, and break them in one fell swoop.

His Pei family is a powerful family of demons. If he can't win a mere one, he should fall into the city. How can his Pei Gu have a light face.

As he was watching, the entourage walked into the tent lightly, and bent slightly: "Report to the Patriarch, Elder Shenlong has sent someone to inform us that she will arrive at our side in a few minutes."

Pei Gu heard the words and put it down slightly. With the map in his hand, he looked at the follower: "Elder Shenlong? Are they back?"

"The battle over the mountains has ended." The follower nodded.

"It seems that this George Han is not as strong as I thought. I thought he could hold on for a long time." Pei Gu finished his words and smiled disdainfully: "These bastards won't even win the battle. Send a signal to explain that you came all the way to me, why, are you here to show off their achievements?" The entourage sighed and did not speak. Obviously, what the owner of the family said was exactly what he thought.

"Come on, we can't capture the city and we should have let them come to ask for guilt."

After speaking, Pei Gu got up and put away the map. After slightly arranging his clothes, he sat on the chair and waited with his eyes closed.

After a while, the door curtain was opened, and Ming Yu walked in.

When Pei Gu heard the sound, he didn't open his eyes, he just smiled bitterly and said slightly: "It's really my Pei's responsibility to fall and fail to capture the city. If you want to laugh at it, just laugh at it."

Ming Yuji People looked at each other with complicated expressions. For a moment, Ming Yu smiled reluctantly: "The city should have a strong defense, and there are a large number of forces inside. If you want to capture it in a short time, it is indeed a dream."

"Yes, the city wall in that place is Mr. Zhu personally took people a very long time and made it extremely well, and Zhu is very clear about how solid it is." Zhu Yanshuo also followed closely.

Hearing this, Pei Gu frowned slightly, as if he did not expect them to have such an attitude. Then, he opened his eyes and looked at Ming Yu and the others with a puzzled look: "You are not here to deal with Pei. A certain Xingshi asked for guilt?"

"Patriarch Pei is joking, everyone is on the same boat, how can we ask you to ask for guilt."

“Yes, in battle, victory or defeat is a common thing.”

Pei Gu smiled softly, This group of people seemed to have suddenly changed so that he didn't know each other: “Why, did the sun come out from the west?”

“You don't have to do this, you won the battle, but Pei was trapped in the quagmire and couldn't get out. The two faced each other. Compared, it is already a high judgment, and Pei must be ashamed.”

Pei Gu finished, but the atmosphere of the whole scene had already dropped to freezing point, and the smiles of Zhu Yanshuo and the others also solidified on their faces.

“Actually...” Ming Yu wanted to speak, but halfway through her words, she couldn't continue anyway.

Zhu Yanshuo was so observant that he coughed softly at this time: “

There is something, in fact, we have come to discuss with the Pei family master.”

Pei Gu frowned, looked at Zhu Yanshuo, then looked at Mingyu and the others, and couldn't help laughing dumbly: “ Heh, you victorious army, you want to discuss with Pei, a defeated general? Pei heard right?”

Ming Yu looked at each other, full of embarrassment, Ming Yu nodded to Zhu Yanshuo, Zhu Yanshuo nodded slightly, and smiled awkwardly: “Patriarch Pei, you...” “Okay, let me tell you.” Ye Shijun He directly interrupted Zhu Yanshuo's words and looked at Patriarch Pei: “Don't be yin and yang. We have been defeated in besieging George Han in the mountains.”

Hearing this, Pei Gu had a dissatisfaction on his face. At this time, it completely turned into shock: “What did you say?”

Lost... Lost? !
