

Chapter 3936

“Are you kidding me?” Pei Gu couldn’t believe it: “You have an army of 200,000 people, just surrounded one Han, 3,000 and others. A group of executives around him will lose?”

Zhu Yanshuo hesitated, which is indeed unimaginable, but it is an iron-clad fact.

Still, Ye Shijun couldn’t stand the twitching and sighed, “No one is in the mood to tease you. If you lose, you will lose.”

“But you are an army of 200,000 people.” Pei Gu said in surprise.

“It’s true that our advantage must be realized.” Ye Shijun was also very depressed: “But for some reason, a large number of elites who should be fallen suddenly appeared at the bottom of the mountain and surrounded us directly, and George Han on the top of the mountain was also brought by his mother. Nearly 10,000 strange beasts attacked us, and we were attacked back and forth for a while, and we became a dumpling trap.”

“What’s even more annoying is that in this difficult environment, Fumei led people to rebel , even...even...”

Zhu Yanshuo also nodded and sighed: “Even the people from the Troll Temple rushed over from the periphery, we... we thought we were here to support us and put them in the center of our formation, who knows. They actually betrayed us.”

“Under such a heavy blow, George Han persuaded to surrender and opened up a new way. Our military morale was completely disintegrated, disintegrated and unable to reorganize any effective deployment.”

Pei Gu It is a complete understanding. No wonder these people did not look like they imagined when they came in. Instead, they were all humble and polite. It turned out that they also lost the battle.

However, even though this gave Pei Gu some balance in his heart, he was always shocked and shocked by this incident.

“This George Han...” Pei Gu’s brows were wrinkled: “But when it comes to attacking the city,

It was also obviously suppressed by the opponent’s defenders. Pei did not excuse his own people, but the fact was that I suspected that there were a large number of soldiers guarding the city. “

As far as we know, the number of people who should fall into the city is absolutely impossible to exceed 100,000 people. They not only surround us, but also have people to defend the city. How did George Han do it?” Zhu Yanshuo said strangely.

“There is only one possibility, and that is the number of enemy troops on one side, which is very likely to be fake. The entourage beside Pei Gu said softly. When Pei Gu saw this, everyone looked at him and added: “He is my most trusted entourage. He will provide valuable advice whether it is family affairs or foreign affairs.” . “

From the perspective of the firepower configuration of the fallen city, there will never be less than 50,000 people in the city. Otherwise, our army of 200,000 people, even the pigs, would have already taken down the fallen city." After he finished speaking

, he suddenly looked at Ming Yu: "Judging from the situation in which you fought, how many people are there?" Everyone at the scene who asked this question was suddenly speechless, Zhu Yanshuo choked for a long time, and then reluctantly said: "In fact, we... we have not played against them. "

The man was taken aback: "Then how do you judge that they have a large number of troops?" "

At that time, one of our elite troops went to the foot of the mountain to investigate, but it was destroyed almost instantly. One person came back and told us that he saw many figures in the woods. Later, when we looked out from the mountainside, we also found that there were a lot of fire in the jungle and the sound of drums like the sky. "Zhu Yanshuo said.

The man nodded: "That is to say, from the beginning to the end, you have never seen each other?"

Zhu Yanshuo nodded. "

I haven't seen it before. The elites we sent are all masters.

Unless they encounter top-level perverts like George Han, they will never be killed in an instant. At that time George Han was surrounded by us on the top of the mountain, and he couldn't do it at all, so there was only one possibility, and that was a large number of enemy troops under the mountain. "Ye Shijun said.

The man smiled and shook his head: "You sent elites, so is it possible that there are a group of elites in ambush at the foot of the mountain? When the number and cultivation base are stronger than the people you sent, you can kill them casually. Are they? There is another detail that is also worthy of taste, that is, everyone in the army died, but one person came back alive."

"You mean, it is very likely that he was deliberately put back by the enemy to release some kind of information. ?" Zhu Yanshuo was surprised.

The man smiled and didn't speak, but Mingyu's group opened their eyes completely: "You...you mean..."

Chapter 3937

"We... We were deceived?"

"George Han deliberately sent a team of elites to make a move, I know you must He would go to check out of his own back. At this time, he used Thunder Action to directly cut the troop, and then deliberately placed dummies in the jungle and released a living mouth. The living mouth was in a hurry and only fled for his life, how could he tell if it was a real person? Or a dummy?"

"Afterwards, Zhihuokou will definitely report it to you, so he lit a lot of torches, so he made a drum that looks like a thousand troops, so that you can think that what Huokou sees is real."

"Everyone, there are Isn't there such a possibility?"

The man finished his words, smiled lightly, and looked at Ming Yu and the others who were already stunned and stunned.

Mingyu came back to his senses slightly. From the words of that person, he connected with the memory of the past in his brain. It seemed that the more he thought about it, the more afraid he became, and the more he thought about it, the more shocked he felt...

Zhu Yanshuo also suddenly remembered something, like seeing a ghost, said : “f***, no wonder we sent Futian to confront them, but they kept holding back. At that time... we thought they wanted to use George Han’s side to attack and echo us inside and out, but now it seems... that’s not at all... ..it is very likely that the other party is bluffing at all, they have no one at all, it is just... just to scare us.”

“In this way, we will be divided by them and dragged down a full 90,000 troops!” Executives also came to their senses.

“Yes... there is a possibility!” The other executives also nodded: “When we were defeated, George Han not only did not order the troops to pursue us, but opened up a lot of life. At that time, we I thought he was attacking our military heart, but when you think about it carefully, is it not killing two birds with one stone, but in fact he has no ability to chase us?”

Hearing more and more affirmations from everyone, Ming Yu had to slowly accept this fact that was both shocking, angry, and even more humiliating.

Han 3,000, with a small number of troops, directly scared all of them, and even... even affected their entire 90,000 soldiers and horses on the position and did not dare to move.

This is so absurd that the world is absurd, and it is beyond the spectrum of the world.

Thinking about it can even make people laugh alive.

Pei Gu didn’t speak and looked at the appearance of several people. At this time, he didn’t have the slightest intention to laugh at Ming Yu’s group. He was more secretly surprised at this time.

The army of 200,000 people was rubbed into this by their intelligence quotient. From the perspective of a bystander, it is indeed funny enough, but as a participant, after laughing, you should reflect on the reason for this and how to treat Han 3,000. re-acquaintance.

“It seems that George Han is really not an ordinary person.” Pei Gu looked at his entourage and said with a frown.

The man nodded: “The tactics on the battlefield are peculiar and the ideas are bold. It is indeed not comparable to ordinary people.” The man nodded and said, “If we hadn’t met at this time, we might have been kept in the dark by now.”

Pei Gu nodded: “That’s right, even me, just now I was annoyed by researching the defense of the city, and once blamed myself for not being able to capture an empty city.”

“f.” Said: “This George Han is so f ing cunning!”

“On the battlefield, cunning, cunning.” The follower said: “We have to be careful of this person.”

“Since their side is completely fake, then let’s Directly lead the troops to fight again and take revenge.” Ye Shijun ignored the man’s words and looked at Mingyu.

“The periphery of the mountains is empty. Let’s fight them, and they will retreat to the outside of the mountains. What should we do then? If we don’t chase, we will run for nothing, and if we chase, we will besiege the city. When the time comes, we should drop the city and then open the gate. Kai, what about attacking us from the rear of our army?” The entourage laughed softly.

“What he said makes sense. Victory and defeat are common things. We can’t mess up the overall situation because of this. Now that we have reunited, we should just work together.” Zhu Yanshuo said.

Ming Yu also nodded: “We’ve lost our minds, our primary goal is to fall into the city. We can’t take it from George Han... so we won’t take it.”

Pei Gu glanced at his entourage and saw He nodded, and he nodded slightly.

At this time, in the dark mountains and woods...
