

Chapter 3948

When the time comes, don't say kneel down and call him a slave, just call Mark's father, it is estimated that Mark will directly wink him without blinking.

"This is a lunatic!"

"In the future, I will India Martial Arts, I would rather offend the world than offend him again!"

This is the consensus of the three titles of the Foro Palace.

It was also King Foluo and the others who had learned a bloody lesson after fighting Mark for so long.

In the future, whoever wants to kill Mark, let him kill him.

Nothing to do with us.

We don't play anymore!

"Is it really a rumor?"

"No, why did Master Ke Zhe leave for so long without a sound?"

"In India, specify what happened."

"Juggernaut, why don't I go over and investigate in person?"

In the hot summer, at the top of Yanshan Mountain, the King of Fighters and Juggernaut and others were discussing the matter of writing the country of India.

The swordsman waved his hand: "Just send a few people over to take a look. Now, the few of us, it's better to guard Yanshan, stay close to each other, and always respond to emergencies."

"On Truman's side, I feel like there's going to be a big move."

Inside the main hall, the Sword Saint looked at the table full of messages about Chumen's mobilization and was very worried.

Ke Zhe's affairs, and even India's affairs, are just trivial matters to them.

The reason why I called to ask in person was only because a person's name was involved.

This man is the nightmare of the whole world.

The Juggernauts also had to confirm.

Now that I have figured it out, it is still the same as the previous few times, it is still a rumor.

"Well then, I'll arrange a few people to go to India to find Ke Zhe." The King of Fighters agreed.

In a similar scene, not only in the hot summer, the martial arts of the world have sent personnel to investigate and find people in India.

After all, it's so weird.

At a wedding, people are gone.

Like England, I have also asked about the situation in neighboring countries.

It was found that everyone could not contact the people they sent out.

If one person has an accident, it can be explained, but now, all the people sent by the global martial arts have disappeared mysteriously.

It's not that weird.

Therefore, in the next few days, a large number of warriors from various countries entered India for investigation.

They didn't stop King Furuo.

If you want to investigate, let them investigate.

If you can't investigate it, you can still go back alive.

If the investigation finds out the truth, King Foluo estimates that the second wave of people here may not be able to go back.

Japan, Sanshin Pavilion.

Luna, who had just finished a chain repair, immediately summoned the master of the Sword God Palace, Wangyuehe.

"Recently, is there any news about him?"

The Moon God is condescending, and there is a holy majesty on his beautiful face.

Mochizuki River's eyes showed bitterness.

Sure enough, their supreme god of Japan, the heart was really stolen by that man.

For more than two years, every time Luna came out of the chain repair state, the first thing he asked was not the development of Japanese martial arts, nor the cultivation of geniuses of the younger generation, but the message of that man.

Wang Yuehe felt that in this world, the only thing that could attract the attention of this god-like figure in front of him was that person's message.

"Report to Your Highness Moon God, recently, there has been news of that person's presence in India."

"However, I have confirmed it, and the Indian Folu Palace has denied this rumor."

"So, it should be the same as the previous few times, it's just a rumor that three people became tigers."

It has been more than two years, almost every once in a while, similar rumors will appear.

For example, Brian Chuis not dead, such as the reappearance of the Lord of the Dragon Temple.

But without exception, every time it was just a farce.

So, in the eyes of many people, this time is no exception.

Luna's expression was a little lost.

She sent back to look at the Moon River, and then walked out of the room alone.

The breeze blew the blue silk on her forehead, and also blew her plain white dress.

The hem of the skirt fluttered, revealing Luna's slender white wrists.

On Hao's wrist, the red Sansheng rope moves with the wind!

If Mochizuki River and other Japanese warriors saw their supreme god wearing such a small ornament between lovers, their pupils would burst in shock.

Chapter 3949

However, those lay people, how could they know the significance of the three-life brocade rope to the Moon God?

When people meet this world, they are destined for three lives.

That year, when she was just reflecting the moon in Suzumiya, she gave the three-life rope to Mark.

In Yanxia's culture, this can be said to be a token of love between her and Mark.

But good fortune fools people.

She became the moon god, and Mark, but entered the Chumen.

Fate, after all, makes it difficult for them to pursue their own thoughts.

Luna has also tried countless times to want to let go of that man.

However, she still failed.

Years, not only did the traces of Mark disappear in her heart.

On the contrary, like a pot of spirits, time will only make it more mellow.

"Can't you forget him after all?"

In his mind, the voice belonging to the Moon God rang out.

"Sorry, teacher."

"I...I just feel sorry for the master..."

More than two years later, the entire martial arts world has been completely renewed. Xiang King of Fighters, Juggernaut and others probably have long since forgotten Mark's appearance.

But Suzumiya Yinyue couldn't let it go!

Every time he closed his eyes, Suzumiya Yinyue would see the scene of Mark surrounded by martial arts of all countries in that year.

She didn't see the scene of Mark committing suicide, but she could imagine that she could force her master to die. At that moment, his master must be desperate.

"I once said that people who are born as masters die as ghosts of masters."

"But when my master needs me most, I no longer..."

"If I stayed by my master's side that day, he would definitely not die..."

It has been two years, and every time I think back to the past, Suzumiya Yingyue will shed tears of guilt and sadness.

She always felt that it was she who killed Mark and her master.

"Yue'er, I'm sorry."

"Blame me back then."

"It was me who insisted on returning to Japan."

"I hope you can understand that as the supreme god of Japan, I cannot let the people of Japan take risks because of an outsider."

Yueyue apologized to Suzumiya Yingyue again.

In fact, Yue Du also guessed what happened back then that Chumen used the Japanese people to intimidate her.

But even if he knew it was a conspiracy, Yue Du had to go back.

Her accusations and missions cannot risk her people.

Facts have proved that after the two elders of Xuan Ming from Trumen met Yue Du and returned to Vietnam, they also retired.

After all, Truman's purpose was to kill Mark.

"Teacher, I know, I don't blame you..."

"I just felt it, I'm sorry master." The more Suzumiya Yingyue thought about it, the more uncomfortable she felt. The feeling of guilt in her heart had affected the mind belonging to Yueyue.

In this body, there are two souls.

naturally interact with each other.

"Otherwise, let's go to India."

"If you don't look for it, I guess you still won't give up."

Yue Du had no choice but to decide to go to India to find Mark again.

Yes, in the past two years, rumors of Mark's life have occurred from time to time.

At the beginning, the martial arts of all major countries still paid attention to the exploration, and later, the number of times was increased, and all the martial artists also took it as a surprise and ignored it.

But there is only one exception!

That is the moon god.

Whenever there is information about Mark's appearance, whether it is a rumor or not, she will go to the scene to investigate.

In the past two years, Luna went abroad to find Mark dozens of times.

Many times, Luna still goes back, knowing that it is just a rumor.

Just because she didn't want to give up any chance to find Mark!

What if it's a rumor?

How about being cheated a thousand times a thousand times?

Even if there are 10,000 rumors, as long as the 10,000th is true, it is worth it.

Go and go.

That night, Yue Du Tian Shen fled the country of India and set foot on the road to find Mark again.

Flore Palace.

After several days of healing and recuperation, King Foluo, Haibu and the others had recovered 60-70% of the injuries caused by Mark before.

"This Brian Chuis really ruthless!"

"We took the healing oil left by our ancestors, and we practiced for more than ten days, but the injury was not so good?"

Haibu looked at his still scarred body and said bitterly.
