

Chapter 3952

“He has been hidden in the crowd.”

George Han suddenly looked at Amelia Su.

“But the army was in chaos, and no one could see what he did after retreating into the crowd.” Amelia Su doubted.

“It didn’t take long for him to go in.” George Han frowned: “It only takes a few minutes before and after. Even if you eat Tiancaidibao, it won’t work so quickly.”

“Could it be that he and I Also , is there a cultivation technique similar to Taixu?”

This is very possible, but it is absolutely impossible when you think about it carefully.

The technique of Taixu, a forbidden technique that even the true gods can’t understand, what qualifications does a Pei Gu have?

But, if not, what the hell did he do? !

“Three thousand, will there be any problems with the bloodline awakening?” Amelia Su asked.

“Blood awakening?” George Han frowned.

They call themselves the ancient ominous beast Tau Clan, then, they inherit the Tau bloodline, I mean, use blood to nourish blood.” Amelia Su said.

Hearing this, George Han was in an uproar.

That’s right, all the 攒杓 family actually have the same bloodline, so nourishing blood with blood does exist in theory, and it is also the most suitable for many prerequisites, and achieves what George Han saw in the end. look.

“I understand.” George Han glanced at Amelia Su gratefully, and then slowly stood up: “He has a plan, and I have a cloud ladder.” With a slight movement in his hand, George Han burst into energy . He broke into the Five Elements Divine Stone.

The Five Elements Divine Stone shone directly, and at the same time released a faint energy to wrap George Han in it.

With this light energy wrapping George Han, George Han only felt that all the previous pain and anti-Buddha had completely disappeared in a blink of an eye, and a burst of refreshing feeling hit him, which made him feel refreshed.

George Han smiled coldly, nodded to Amelia Su, and motioned Ningyue and others to reduce the speed of their counterattacks, so that the other party could quickly surround themselves and others.

After a while, more and more people from the Tiaotu people surrounded George Han and others. At this time, Pei Gu also flew down slowly with the four kings.

“What’s the matter, George Han, weren’t you very tough when you were young? Why, now you’re lying motionless in the arms of a woman like a dead dog?”

Pei Gu laughed mercilessly as soon as he landed.

George Han looked angry and tried to forcefully get up but was powerless: “Shameless old man, what do you have to be proud of? If it wasn’t for you bastard who attacked me, would you win?”

” Kou, you are just a loser now, what qualifications do you have to shout in front of me? Even if I attack you, if you have the ability, can you still stop my attack?” Pei Gu sneered road.

“Humph!” George Han showed dissatisfaction.

“The 栲机 family will never retreat. When you choose to be our enemy, you have already chosen to be with the King of Hell. I admit that you do have some skills, but unfortunately, you have to be my enemy.”

“The head of the family is right, George Han, you are already dying, do you still want to be stubborn? If you want to be smart, hurry up and surrender. At least we can leave you with a whole corpse.”

George Han smiled: “Leave me a whole corpse? I’m sorry, I’ve heard this many times, but it’s a pity that none of the people who said these words can do it.”

“You are no exception.” Falling, George Han laughed coldly, and was extremely surprised when the crowd was waiting.

In his eyes, he slowly stood up.

“What?”

“You...”

“How could you still stand up?” Pei Gu stepped back in shock.

He really couldn’t understand why George Han had been beaten to death by himself, but he suddenly seemed to be nothing.

“Oh, I forgot.” George Han smiled, and then wiped off the blood on his mouth: “I left it before, I forgot to wipe it.” When the words fell, along with George Han wiped the blood from his mouth, he paused. In time, Pei Gu became even more panicked.

Because it is obvious that George Han at this time is clearly red-faced and full of energy, how can he look half injured.

“How could you...”

“Hmph, if you allow Pei Gu to steal chickens, you won’t allow me, George Han?” As soon as George Han finished speaking, his hand suddenly surged, and he slapped Pei Gu directly... ..

Chapter 3953

Pei Gu’s eyes widened, obviously did not expect George Han to play such a trick.

At this time, he was too close to George Han, just as George Han didn’t expect him to come out suddenly, he also didn’t expect George Han to make such a move.

In a hurry, it is obviously extremely difficult to resist at this time, so I can only bite the bullet and push hard.

“Bang!”

Along with a loud noise, Pei Gu flew several meters upside down, blood spurting wildly.

George Han smiled coldly: “You’re not the only one who can play sneak attacks.”

“George Han, you fu*!” Enduring the pain, Pei Gu was furious, but the next second, his eyes suddenly turned cold: “Four Great Heavenly King, where is the Leopard Master.”

“The subordinates are there.” “Then what are you still doing? Kill me!”

“Yes!” Only this time , George Han did not rush to act, but instead retreated and observed. These people are as difficult as flies, but George Han, who has suffered a loss once, has long stopped paying attention to them. He just observed the general situation of this group of people. Unintentionally looked towards Pei Gu. Sure enough, only a moment later, Pei Gu really began to escape towards the back of the crowd with the help of the people behind him. George Han smiled coldly, and after looking at each other with Amelia Su, Amelia Su knew George Han’s meaning almost without words.

She rushed up quickly and plunged directly into the crowd to replace George Han, and almost at the same time, George Han suddenly rushed out of the siege and went all the way to look for Pei Gu.

Seeing that George Han came, although the gang of soldiers rose up to resist, it was obvious that in George Han’s eyes, these people were no different from ants.

As soon as the sky fire and the moon wheel passed, a large group of people collapsed, and even the remaining people couldn’t resist George Han’s hand for a round, and they were sent flying.

In just a few tens of seconds, all the men and horses in front of Pei Gu’s escape had fallen, and the back part was bare.

At this time, Pei Gu was at the back of the crowd. There were many people around him. All of them were extremely young, and at the same time, their sleeves were rolled up to reveal their arms.

On the arms, most people have teeth, which are covered in blood.

Looking back at Pei Gu, he had just gnawed on the blood of a man's arm, and there was even a faint trace of blood on the corner of his mouth. He was obviously quite surprised to see George Han suddenly kill him.

Putting down the hand that a disciple stretched out in front of him, Pei Gu looked at George Han ruthlessly.

George Han smiled coldly: "Awakening of blood? You really give yourself a name. Haha, I said how did you suddenly recover from a serious injury so quickly, it turned out to be like a vampire sucking other people's blood for supplementation."

Pei Gu's face turned cold: "Why, are you afraid?"

"I'm afraid?" George Han asked in confusion.

"Hehe, I have an army of 100,000 people, which means that I can suck the blood of 100,000 people. As long as they are replenished with their blood, I can tell you George Han clearly that not only can I not be injured, but I can even not die."

"Are you fighting me? What are you fighting for?"

George Han shook his head helplessly: "How dare a little vampire dare to speak madly in this mouth?"

"Roar!"

With Pei Gu roaring angrily, the soldiers behind him all raised their fists and shouted.

"Roar!" The

morale is high!

"Tao 杙 颯 杙, all closed mouths are 颯 杙. Those who don't know it think it is an absolutely invincible god, but it's just an ancient vicious beast. Look at you proud." George Han said coldly and disdainfully.

"George Han, you can also comment on the ancient beasts?" someone shouted.

"Ha!" George Han was really fed up with a disdainful smile: "Is there anything wrong with this? To tell you the truth, not to mention that I can judge them at will, what if I let them be my little brother?"

"George Han, just rely on you? What are you?"

"Then what are you?" George Han finished his words, and his hand moved slightly: "I'll bring a little brother out to play with you first, I really can't stand your clothes. Smelly face."

"The gluttonous eater of evil, come out for me, and let's have dinner." As the words fell, along with the movement of George Han's hand, a huge beast suddenly appeared.

Exactly, the glutton of evil! !

“What... what?”
