

Chapter 3954

“Okay, then we won’t besiege Chu Tianfan. However, we must announce to the world the whereabouts of Chu Tianfan. Only in this way can we clear our relationship with Chu Tianfan.”

“Otherwise, once we are considered to be the same party of the devil, the Celestial Master Gate that we have established over the years will surely suffer disaster!”

“I hope that the sect master will take the overall situation as the most important thing, and don’t want the benevolence of women!”

The other four celestial masters persuaded one after another, and their words were tough.

In the words, there is already a bit of displeasure and coercion.

The rest of the sect elders also persuaded them: “The overall situation of the sect master is the most important thing, and you don’t want the benevolence of women!”

“Otherwise, my Heavenly Master’s Sect is in danger!”

“Please take care of the overall situation!”

...

All the people in the hall drink together.

The words are tough, and there are many Yueyao disagreements, they will never give up.

Yue Yao is angry!

Because what they said was so ugly.

The benevolence of women has always been a curse word.

“presumptuous!”

“What do you want to do?”

“Isn’t it possible to force the palace?”

Yue Yao got up and said angrily.

But in the end, Yue Yao’s strength is not enough, her realm is shallow, and her roar does not have much weight in the eyes of these masters.

“Sect Master, we are just out of the bigger picture and have no other intentions.”

“Sometimes, for the sake of the sect, something has to be sacrificed!”

“This is the responsibility of the sect master!”

“Hope the gatekeeper takes our advice.”

“Otherwise, the sect master might not be able to resist your position.” Several Celestial Masters said coldly.

Yueyao smiled: “It looks like you guys have discussed it together, come and force me to submit.”

“However, let me tell you, Mark is my friend, and also a friend of Tianshi Dao.”

“As long as I am there for one day, Tianshidao and Mark will advance and retreat together, and live and die together.”

“If you have the ability, you can kill me and be the sect master yourself!”

Yue Yao said angrily, and in the end, she actually let these people kill her.

For a time, the expressions of the four Celestial Masters and the elders changed.

They originally thought that although Yueyao was expensive as the sect master, she was just a yellow-haired girl with no strength. As long as they were tougher, they would shake their heads obediently, and listen to them to break with Chu Tianfan.

But they never imagined that this young sect master could be so stubborn.

He directly flipped the table and let them kill himself.

For a time, these sect elders had nothing to do.

Although Yueyao’s prestige is not enough, many of these elders do not buy the account of this young master.

But now, they really dare not force Yueyao to abdicate!

All of this is only because Yueyao’s position as the Lord of the World is publicly recognized by the three titles including King Foluo.

If they force Yueyao away, or kill him, it is unpredictable how the Foluo Palace will react.

The biggest possibility will arouse the anger of the three King Foluo and directly destroy their Tianshimen.

Several Celestial Masters had no choice but to hide their anger.

“friend?”

“Sect Master, I think you like that Chu Tianfan, right?” Several Celestial Masters asked coldly.

It is obviously disrespectful to say such a thing to the master of a sect.

But what about disrespect.

A few of them are elders, seniors, and their strength is far superior to Yueyao. Naturally, they don’t have much respect for Yueyao.

Since the other party doesn’t save face for her, Yueyao doesn’t give them face anymore.

“What do I like about him? What if I don’t like him?”

“I just gave birth to a son to Mark, what can you do to me?”

To put it bluntly, the worst result is that these veterans kill themselves and force themselves to abdicate.

Yueyao is not afraid of the worst outcome, and naturally has no other scruples.

Yue Yao, who was angry, didn't care about anything, and some words came out.

But these celestial masters couldn't take it anymore.

“you you...”

“You are the head of my Heavenly Master Dao, the master of a sect, how can you say such absurd words?”

These celestial masters are going crazy and trembling with anger.

Is this what a gatekeeper should say?

A generation of sect masters did not want to work hard to rule, but only wanted to give birth to a child for an outsider.

This matter is like the ancient ruler of India, who did not want to strengthen his army and enrich the country, but thought about going to the Yanxia and becoming the son-in-law of the Yanxia people all day long.

That shame, but the whole country of India!

If the sect master of the Tianshi Sect really gave birth to a child to other wild men, what would their Tianshidao face be?

I'm afraid it will become a big joke!

Chapter 3955

“I just said it?”

“What can you do?”

“If you have the ability, you will abolish my position as the sect master!”

Yueyao is not a temperament to swallow her voice.

Directly dead pigs are not afraid of boiling water.

What do you love, you want me to break with Mark, don't think about it?

When the sect master and Mark knew each other, you old people didn't know where in the deep mountains and forests they were hiding like dogs?

It's just wishful thinking to let the sect master give up the ten-year friendship with Mark because of your few words!

Of course, Yue Yao's anger turns into anger, her strength is limited, and she really can't help these old people.

But she can't beat them, she can piss them off!

Yueyao knew that these old guys regarded Zongmen's face as more important than her own life.

Yueyao's words just now were more relieved than beating them.

"you you..."

as predicted.

The sect elders in the hall were all blushing with anger, but they couldn't help this unreliable sect master at all.

It is impossible to abolish Yueyao, so she naturally wouldn't dare to kill old things like her.

Moreover, these Tianshimen elders have never thought about this.

After all, Yueyao was the heir chosen by the old Tianshi. At most, they didn't have much faith and respect for Yueyao, but they didn't have any thoughts of hurting Yueyao.

"Humph!"

"Sect Master, you go your own way, and sooner or later you will suffer the consequences."

"Wait, it won't take long, my celestial master will be in great trouble because of your decision."

"When the time comes, I see what face you have to see the dead ancestors of the heavenly masters?"

"let's go!"

The words have come to this point, which naturally means that the conversation has collapsed.

The elders who had no other choice had to shout angrily at Yue Yao, then turned their heads and left.

As for these disobedient senior brothers, Yue Yao was too lazy to pay attention to them?

No matter how they scold, Yue Yao turned a deaf ear.

Continue to follow your own plan, rectify the sect, recruit disciples, and train disciples.

Although these sect elders, although they often oppose Yueyao on Mark's affairs, they still fulfilled Yueyao's other policies and guidelines.

After all, like Yueyao, these people share the same goal.

That is, Guangfu Zongmen!

However, this quiet day did not last a few days.

Outside the door of the angel, an uninvited guest finally arrived.

"I'm going, what a beautiful girl?"

“Girl, are you here to learn the arts too?”

“However, I’m afraid I’m going to disappoint you.”

“Tianshimen does not accept female disciples, only male students.”

“However, don’t be too disappointed.”

“If you can’t be a disciple of the Tianshi Sect, you can be the wife of the disciple of the Tianshi Sect.”

“How do you see me?”

“I am a new disciple of Tianshimen, and my future is limitless!”

Outside the Heavenly Master’s Gate, a large number of new students were amazed and their eyes lit up when they saw this holy and beautiful woman who was like a fairy who had been exiled from the world.

Come to chat!

But the beautiful woman in front of her is obviously not a gentlewoman. Facing everyone’s frivolous remarks, she only replied: “Go away!”

hum!

It sounded like muffled thunder.

Under this sound, the fierce energy was just like a gust of wind swept across.

As soon as they entered their eyes, everyone was blown away by this drink.

Spitting up blood and screaming!

However, the woman remained alone.

At this moment, the only fish that slipped through the net saw such a bizarre sight, and was so frightened that his legs were paralyzed, and he fell directly on the ground.

The sound is like muffled thunder, drink a hundred meters!

This is the power of the title?

oh my god.

Could it be that Sect Master Truman has arrived?

The only person left was completely frightened.

In today’s world, there are not many female titles.

There are two most famous ones, one is Tang Yun, the master of the Chumen clan, and the second is the wind queen who has been missing for many years in Yan Xia.

Therefore, it is possible to guess without thinking that the ruthless woman in front of her is most likely Chumen Tang Yun.

“Big... boss, spare... spare your life...” The man begged in panic.

The woman only replied: “Let your sect master come out to see me, I have something to ask him.”
