

Chapter 3962

With the drum beat, soon, the siege army has lined up.

The Pei family's army, including Mingyu's subordinates, had more than 200,000 troops in the east alone. When this army was assembled, even from the air, a large area could be seen.

Not far from the opposite side, George Han's troops were already rushing all the way under the leadership of Amelia Su.

Accompanied by Zhu Yanshuo and others, Ming Yu went to the front line of the troops and sat on the bloody warhorse.

"It's really George Han." Ming Yu smiled softly.

"Everyone has it!"

"Listen to my orders, deal with it calmly, and bring them closer before hitting them."

"Yes!" Wan Jun led the order.

Ming Yu smiled coldly: "It turns out that you, George Han, were also forced to do nothing."

Zhu Yanshuo responded with a smile: "I hit the stone with an egg. If this loses again, I, Zhu Yanshuo, chop off my head and give him a stool to sit on.

"A unit attacking a large unit has nothing to do with any tactics, nor any personal strength. Even if he puts a pig as the commander, it is absolutely impossible for him to lose.

Zhu Yanshuo was not an impulsive person like Ye Shijun. When a person like him could say such things, it could basically prove how clear and clear the situation was at this time.

"They're almost there." Ming Yu smiled softly, and at the same time, Wei Wei raised the sword in his hand.

All of a sudden, the entire troop also clenched their weapons, ready to attack at any time.

But just when the sword in Ming Yu's hand was about to be drawn and the troops were ordered to attack, something unexpected happened.

George Han's troops suddenly seemed to have seen a ghost, turned around and retreated directly to the rear.

This can make a group of people waited for a moment to be stunned, completely bewildered and stunned in place.

Damn

, what are they doing? !

"I'm really drunk, what are they doing? Why...why did they suddenly go back?" Zhu Yanshuo looked bewildered, completely confused as a monk with two feet.

Ming Yu was also obviously a little confused, frowning tightly, his face speechless.

The soldiers below were about to rush out with a sigh of relief, but this opponent's action caught them off guard.

"Damn, are these people sick? They took the initiative to attack, but suddenly turned their guns. What the hell is this guy doing?" Ye Shijun was also confused.

Futian smiled coldly: "I had no choice but to want to attack us, but I didn't expect that we were already prepared. Seeing how many we are, some of them escaped. Elder Shenlong, if we chase them away now, we will definitely be able to beat them. The flowers are falling.

Ye Shijun nodded when he heard the words: "That's right, they fled in a hurry at this time, they must be unstable, let's chase from behind, defeat you!"

"Wait!" Ming Yu drank softly: "You Do you think he, George Han, is so reckless as you? If he came to attack, how could he not have imagined that we must be prepared."

Zhu Yanshuo nodded slightly: "George Han's command is absolutely impossible to be so naive, rushing to pursue, fearing to be deceived. "

If it were changed to the previous one, Ye Shijun would definitely scold him, but after George Han suffered consecutive losses, he would be depressed and depressed, but he didn't say a word.

"Let's not move in order to cope with the changes." Ming Yu's words fell, he raised his hand slightly, and ordered the troops to stay alert.

Zhu Yanshuo smiled lightly: "It seems that there is a trick."

When the words fell, Zhu Yanshuo pointed in front of him, and sure enough, the 3000 Han troops who had escaped suddenly stopped, and then, they all turned around again and faced the encircling army.

Futian chuckled: "It's still City Lord Zhu who is wise. They have turned their guns now. It's too obvious that we haven't been fooled and don't want to toss anymore."

"They're here again." Ye Shijun snorted softly.

Ming Yu said indifferently: "It's still the same as before. If they enter our attack circle, they will immediately close the door and fight the dogs. On the contrary, if they still want to escape and lure us, they will continue to remain unchanged and respond to changes.

" attacked.

However, just like the last chance, almost when they were about to enter the encirclement, the group of them suddenly turned their horses and left again.

Seeing that no one was chasing after him, he came back again, attacked again, and started again and again, seemingly tirelessly...

"What are they... doing?" Ye Shijun was dumbfounded...

Chapter 3963

Ming Yu also frowned deeply, half an hour has passed, at least the opposite has been attacking back and forth, fleeing Twenty times.

Is this sick?

She turned her eyes to Zhu Yanshuo who was on the side, but unfortunately, Zhu Yanshuo was also dumbfounded.

Is this a straw bag?

I just want to deceive the enemy on purpose, but when the enemy has already noticed it, is there any point in repeating the performance?

This has to be replaced by an ordinary person's army. Zhu Yanshuo would have been beaten up if he brought people up there. After all, he also had to teach the other party. Everyone is a f***ing adult, and no matter how stupid they are, they have a basic IQ. Do, even a fool can see it.

But he was George Han's army, so he didn't dare to act rashly.

But it is precisely because it is George Han's army, so Zhu Yanshuo will be confused

. George Han is such an awesome and smart person, how could he make such a lowly mistake and play such a boring trick.

Seeing that Zhu Yanshuo didn't respond, Ming Yu couldn't help but say: "Which one did George Han play?"

"They came and went like this and ran away. To be honest, they are not tired. I'm tired of watching." Futian was also very depressed, even though he was full of hatred and contempt for George Han, this kind of basic childish trick didn't seem like he could do it.

"Elder Shenlong, what should we do. Do you want me to bring an army and have a small test first?" Ye Shijun couldn't bear it any longer.

"No need." Ming Yu waved his hand: "It seems childish, but I believe that George Han will never do such a meaningless thing. Does he seem to be challenging our patience?"

"Elder Shenlong means that George Han did it on purpose, knowing that he was low-level. When we can't bear it, we will launch an attack. At that time, his plan will be successful..." Zhu Yanshuo suddenly woke up, and then slapped his thigh: "This is really his George Han's way of doing things. It seems unreasonable, but he always inadvertently kills you."

Futian and Ye Shijun looked at each other and broke out in a cold sweat, because just a few seconds ago, Both of them also really wanted to strike out in anger because they were tired of seeing these low-level tricks.

George Han, this bastard, is really cunning and cunning, and inadvertently let you obediently fall into his trap.

“Order the troops and defend them strictly. Without my order, no one is allowed to attack.”

“Yes!” Ye Shijun and

Zhu Yanshuo took orders at the same time.

And the city, the city.

On the east city wall, the commander-in-chief of Dongcheng was sitting on the attic of the city wall, his brows furrowed.

In the city, a subordinate walked in quietly.

As soon as he raised his head, he said slightly, “How?”

“Report to the commander, everything in the city is quiet and normal. However, the subordinates always feel that...”

“Is it the tranquility before the storm?” The commander said.

The subordinate nodded slightly: “Led by the deputy general Zuo, when the leader of the alliance was away that day, he had the intention of retreating, but it was just at the beginning of the war, and it was not too obvious for him and others.”

“Now, the battle of siege has started. Once, the main force of the enemy army had all returned and surrounded us. In the afternoon, the enemy army came to persuade us to surrender. I believe they could not sit still.

If the soldiers defect, not to mention that we will lose nearly half of our people, and just fighting in his nest will also cause our side to suffer heavy losses.”

“Now, the offensive pressure on the east gate is the most severe of the four gates. If there is any change, I’m afraid... I’m afraid...” He didn’t say anything, but needless to say, the result was already clear.

“Don’t worry, Commander, even if the lieutenant on the left leads his troops to defect, my general on the right wing will fight to the death, and the general will live and die with you at the end.”

“Very good.” , As for the matter of loyalty to the monarch, since the lord has given us so many benefits and we have accepted it, then, when there are difficulties, we should die generously for the monarch.” “

Who said you were going to die?”

In the middle of the fall, a chuckle suddenly sounded.
