

Chapter 3966

The soldiers behind him threw their weapons one by one, lowered their heads in a hurry, and began to gradually retreat.

George Han is already here, and the soldiers are not fools. At this time, they have the opportunity to disarm and surrender to save their lives. Naturally, they will not be neglected.

“You...what are you doing? Pick up the weapons for me, pick them up.” Lieutenant General Liu Zuo shook his head desperately and called out to the soldiers.

For people like him to betray, the soldiers are the biggest capital in his hands, but if they all start to defect now, then everything he carefully planned will come to nothing.

At the same time, the blow he ushered in will be devastating.

Unfortunately, none of the soldiers present listened to him, and no one picked up the weapon.

“Lieutenant General Liu Zuo, how is it? Are you still arrogant?” Ma Nanfeng laughed coldly.

Looking up in a hurry, Vice-General Liu gritted his teeth and shouted angrily

: “You...you...you.”

Ma Nanfeng said in a cold voice, looking at Vice-General Liu Zuo: “You are the Vice-General of Zuo, but you are the truth. I’m just a traitor, I’m sorry for the leader, I’m sorry, and I’m sorry for the trust of the people in this city.”

“All the generals obey.”

“Yes!” The soldiers who surrendered hurriedly said.

“Tie up this thief Liu Gou and behead it to the public to comfort the army.”

“Yes!”

“Who dares to come here!” Deputy Liu Zuo raised the sword, and at this moment he had no choice but to choose to resist on the spot.

“In front of my Ma, you dare to use a knife and a gun, not to mention the fact that the leader of the alliance is here, so you can be arrogant? Come on, chop this fellow to death and chop off the dog’s head!”

“Yes!”

Those soldiers crouching down to pick up the weapon, the next second with the knife in hand, he walked towards Zhao Zuo’s deputy general.

Deputy Zhao Zuo gritted his teeth, and he could only respond to the enemy with a knife.

However, even if he rose up to resist, but facing the siege of many people, he is only a small general, and his cultivation base is not outrageous. The more you get down, the more you get stabbed.

In just a moment, this guy had dozens of wounds opened by random knives on his body.

The anger in his eyes that had been desperately resisting turned into pitiful, like a helpless fool, staring blankly at the soldiers around him.

“Ping-pong!”

Suddenly, with a crisp sound, Deputy Liu Zuo suddenly dropped the long sword in his hand and fell to the ground. In the next second, before everyone could react, he fell to the ground with a plop.

“Alliance leader, your subordinates should die, your subordinates should die. I beg you to let your subordinates go, and your subordinates can guarantee that from now on, you will be the only one who will follow your lead and be loyal.” Deputy General Liu Zuo hurriedly pleaded, while Kowtow to George Han to apologize.

Ma Nanfeng clasped his hands together: “Alliance leader, you will use people in the march and fight without doubting them, and suspecting them but not using them. Right now, this thief Liu Gou is already a suspicious person. Ma suggested that he should not be left behind.”

George Han glanced slightly . Ma Nanfeng: “Commander Ma means...”

Commander Ma wiped his neck and said, “It should be killed to set an example.”

“My surname is Ma, I have been with you for many years as an adjutant, but you treat me like this. , has your conscience been eaten by a dog?” Vice-General Liu Zuo scolded anxiously.

Ma Nanfeng said in a cold voice, “Ma has always said one thing to another, not the right person. What’s more, you know that you have followed me for many years, but you used a knife to put a knife on my neck before? I gave you a chance, it was you. I don’t know how to cherish.”

George Han nodded and looked at the soldiers

: “On the battlefield, the commander’s order is the highest order, I’m afraid I don’t need to say more about Ma’s words.”

Hearing George Han’s words, Lieutenant General Liu Zuo was completely panicked. He regretted why he chose to betray, but what’s the use of regretting it now?

With a pop, Lieutenant General Liu Zuo’s head fell to the ground like a ball.

The next second, his headless body also fell heavily to the ground.

“Hang its dog’s head to the east gate.” Ma Nanfeng shouted angrily.

When a few soldiers took orders and were about to start, George Han smiled softly: “Wait.”

Then, he whispered a few words in Ma Nanfeng’s ear.

Ma Nanfeng was stunned for a moment, and George Han smiled slightly: “Go ahead, I’ll wait for you.”

“Yes!”

After saying this, Ma Nanfeng waved his hand and led Zhang Jiang to the outside quickly...

Chapter 3967

no time, the commanders of the South, North and West three gates each bring guards and lieutenants on the left and right, carrying knives and guns, and quickly With a bang, he rushed towards the east gate.

The faces of this group of people are cold, and at a glance, they are definitely not good.

When the people in the city saw the driver, they all felt that the situation was not second.

A moment later, the East Gate Loft.

The body and blood of Lieutenant General Liu Zuo on the ground had already been cleaned up, and a beautiful stone table had been replaced instead.

On the table, the tableware is exquisite, but there are not too many dishes, just in the center, there is a big lid, which seems to cover some dishes.

“Old Ma, the war is tight right now, why are you asking us to have a meal together?” Zhang Luo, the commander of Ximen, said in dissatisfaction

“That’s right, at the moment of the war, it’s easy to deal with it if you can. What are you trying to do with this?” The North Gate commander was also annoyed.

It was only the commander of Nanmen, who didn’t say a word, smiled softly, and sat down first.

“Everyone, people take food as their heaven.” Ma Nanfeng did not get angry when confronted with the questioning. He smiled softly and asked the three commanders to sit down.

The two leaders of the northwest were depressed and depressed, but they could only sit down helplessly.

Even if the two commanders from the northwest sat down, they looked dissatisfied, and then the commander of the south gate said with a smile: “The two brothers don’t have to be so anxious.”

“Since Brother Ma can invite me at this time, it is equivalent to eating in the attic. It must be certain that there will be no enemy attacking, so you can feel at ease.”

Zhang Luo rolled his eyes, not angry.

Come: “Reaured? What kind of heart is there? If the enemy wants to fight or not, do you think we can control it?”

“What if Brother Ma can control it?” Nanmen commander smiled softly.

“How does he control, he...” Commander Ximen said subconsciously, but the whole person was stunned for a moment. He suddenly seemed to understand something and looked at Ma Nanfeng: “Old Ma, You won’t...”

Ma Nanfeng smiled lightly, glanced at the commander of Nanmen, and said nothing.

The commander-in-chief of Beimen also clearly noticed the different atmosphere and looked at Ma Nanfeng: "The people sitting here are all brothers for many years. If you have something to say, you don't have to hide it. I may understand what the old horse means. However, I don't. I really agree."

"Although Alliance Leader Han has known me for a long time, he treats us very well.

There are many weapons, medicine pills, and even cultivation bases. I have never obtained these for Zhu Yanshuo's life and death for so many years. Well, I am not willing to betray you."

Commander Ximen also nodded: "Yes, and a soldier must have the dignity of being a soldier. We were abandoned by Zhu Yanshuo that day, but today he is calling for it. Come? I'm sorry, I can't do it."

"It's a big deal."

Nanmen Commander laughed and shook his head: "Everyone is a soldier, a reckless man, if it is really like Commander Ximen, then we are not really. Has it become what others say?"

"The so-called practical person is Junjie, we should make the best judgment and choice according to the situation." After the words were finished, the commander of Nanmen looked at Ma Nanfeng, which meant it is obvious that he supports Ma Nanfeng's approach.

Ma Nanfeng responded with a smile, glanced at the other two, smiled, and said, "Three brothers, Ma really just wants to invite everyone to a meal, you guys, it's really too much."

The two commanders in the northwest looked at each other depressedly and nodded: "Xingxingxing, then let's not talk about other things, and quickly order someone to serve the food. After eating, we have to go back to defend the city."

"That's right, don't let the enemy take advantage of it. We suddenly attacked while we were eating."

Ma Nanfeng smiled and pointed to the things covered on the table: "The dishes are already ready."

"Just this one dish?"

"One dish is enough, of course, maybe also you can add one more." When he finished speaking, Ma Nanfeng nodded to Zhang Jiang, Zhang Jiang responded and lifted the lid on the table...
