

Chapter 3968

Instead, it is the one who dominates the world, the god of Japan and the gods—Yue Du!

“You... hello...”

I felt the iceberg-like chill in the beautiful eyes of the woman in front of me.

Mark twitched the corners of his mouth and smiled shyly.

Then, he stepped back very wisely, and opened the gap with this Japanese god.

“You are very lucky.”

“Chu Yuan killed you like that, but he still survived.”

Luna looked at Mark, expressionless, and said coldly.

Mark smiled: “It’s just luck.”

“Is it really just luck?” Luna replied indifferently.

After that, there was no more nonsense.

“I will only protect you for a month.”

“After a month, I will return to Japan!”

“Do you understand?”

Luna is the guardian of Japan after all.

Being able to shelter Mark outside for a month is already the limit.

If it takes a long time and the Japanese martial arts encounter danger, then it is not what the Moon God wants to see.

What else could Mark say, he had to agree.

Just like that, under the protection of the Moon God.

Mark once again, closed the country in India!

This time, Mark will no longer have any scruples to attack the supreme realm.

Time passes day by day.

Outside Mark’s secluded elegant residence, Luna was guarding in the courtyard outside.

She sat cross-legged and closed her eyes.

The seven-foot long sword was placed beside him.

Feel the changes and changes of the surrounding world all the time.

At the Foluo Palace, when he learned that the Moon God was still in India, he was shocked.

“what?”

“Still...is still here with us?”

“Why hasn’t she left yet?”

“Leave what?”

“Can’t you keep a son for Mark?”

Moon God is not an ordinary person, that is, a strong person in the realm of the gods.

If such a person does not leave for a day, for Indian martial arts, they will face extinction at any time.

King Foluo and the others naturally had trouble sleeping and eating.

Can’t sleep all night long.

... constantly dispatching spies to keep an eye on Luna’s movements.

But one day...

two days...

half a month...

In the end, a full month passed.

Luna still has no intention of leaving.

When King Foluo and the others were bitter and anxious, the Moon God undoubtedly opened his eyes from the state of meditation.

She slowly got up and looked at the room behind her.

The smell inside is still long and distant.

It seems that the undercurrent under the volcano is surging, and it feels like it will spew out all the time.

However, it has not been able to break through the shackles and burst out.

The month of January has come.

It stands to reason that Luna can leave as promised.

She frowned and walked and walked outside the room.

But in the end, he chose to sit back and continue to stay here.

“One month.”

“Give him another month.”

“Whether he goes out or not, I will go!”

Now is the critical moment for Mark to retreat. Luna wanted to leave, but after hesitating, he finally chose to stay.

However, in the time that followed, the present world was never peaceful.

Trumen, who had been brewing for a long time, finally revealed their minions.

A large number of strong people started to attack from the land of Trumen, thinking of all parts of the world.

The first is the Americas.

In just half a month, all the martial arts of the entire American continent were surrendered!

The strong martial arts who resisted were all brutally killed and slaughtered.

When the news came out, the whole world was shocked!

For a time, the martial arts of the rest of the continents were all in danger.

Even the Japanese martial arts who had always been friends with Truman began to panic.

“Where’s the Moon God?”

“Go find the Moon God?”

In Japan, in the Sword God Palace, Mochizuki River shouted anxiously.

At the time of life and death, national martial arts are in danger of being destroyed at any time.

At such a time, their guardian deity of Japan had disappeared.

Moreover, it has disappeared for more than a month.

Mochizuki River is naturally crazy!

Crazy sent out to find.

Chapter 3969

After a hard search for a month, the Japanese side finally got the news that Luna was in India.

Immediately sent people to India to invite the moon god to return to the country.

“In a few days, I will go home!”

In the courtyard, facing the envoys sent by the Japanese kingdom, Luna waved his hand and told them to return.

However, it took another ten days.

Luna still hasn’t returned to Japan.

“quick!”

“Please go again!”

The situation is getting more and more anxious, Truman has reached Africa.

The American martial arts have surrendered, and the African martial arts may not last long.

Moreover, according to what Wangyuehe knew, Truman is now divided into two groups, and the other road crosses the Pacific Ocean and has already headed towards Australia.

Obviously, Truman's strategy is first easy and then difficult, first weak and then strong.

After Africa and Australia's martial arts have all fallen, the next step is probably Eurasia.

Now the martial arts forces of various countries are urgently being transferred back to their home countries.

The Yanxia Martial God Temple next door carried out an emergency mobilization, and issued a mobilization order to the world, calling on all warriors who protect the country and love their families to return to their homeland and prepare to fight against Truman.

In fact, in this case, everyone knows that the Chumen is so powerful that no single country can compete with martial arts.

The only way is for the countries to unite to form a martial arts alliance, so that the other side has the power to contend.

However, this method is unrealistic.

After all, the Eurasian countries have their own ghosts, and no one obeys the other. Once they are united, who should they respect?

What's more, even if the coalition is formed, where should it be stationed?

If you stay in the hot summer, then naturally the rest of the countries will not agree?

After all, what if Truman does not fight the hot summer, but fights other countries?

Now that Chumen is fighting fires everywhere, no one knows, where will the next soldiers go?

Time continued to pass, and the global martial arts situation gradually deteriorated.

For these, Mark naturally did not know.

His eyes are closed now, and Yun Dao Tian Jue is running wildly in his dantian.

With Mark's breath, a large amount of the power of heaven and earth gathered crazily in Mark's body.

Although the primordial power of heaven and earth on earth is thin, the primal power spilled from the medicinal pills that Duanmu Wan'er refined for Mark is still enough to provide Mark with the power he needs to cultivate.

"This guy!"

"Why haven't you left?"

The moon god in the courtyard is no longer calm.

It's been three months!

She has received Chu Fan for three months.

It has far exceeded the originally agreed period of January.

Several times, Luna wanted to lift his foot and leave.

However, when she reached the door, she turned back after all.

Moon God is also a person of martial arts, and he knows that the more important the breakthrough in retreat, the more dangerous it is for practitioners.

And now it is obvious that Mark has been in retreat for so long, and he must have broken through a big realm.

Such a crucial breakthrough, if there is a slight error, it will be lost to the devil, and it will be irreversible.

Luna wanted to go, but dared not.

She knew very well what kind of important position the guy in the room, who had not completed his seclusion, had in Yue'er's heart.

If Mark's irreversible consequences were caused by his departure, the consciousness that belonged to Yue'er in his body would have to hate himself.

Therefore, Luna stayed.

This time, Mochizuki River and other Japanese powerhouses have been driven crazy.

"No way."

"Walk!"

"Let's go in person!"

"This time, if Luna is not invited, we will not come back."

Mochizuki River made a ruthless determination.

But the rest were worried: "No, Sword God. Originally, the departure of the Moon God made my Japanese martial arts empty."

"Now, those of us who are in charge are leaving."

"In that time, within the borders of Japan, there is really a great emptiness."

"Once Chu Fan invades, he will drive straight in, as if entering a land of no one."

"At that time, our Japanese martial arts will be dead!"

The people around him discouraged.

But the Sword God said sternly, "Even the Moon God doesn't want the people of the Japanese kingdom, so what are we doing?"
