

Chapter 3970

“Walk!”

“Go to India!”

Sword God is also a sinking vessel, desperate.

Leading the Japanese martial arts leaders, they actually ran into the territory of India and found the Moon God.

When they found the Moon God, the Moon God was sitting in the courtyard with his eyes closed.

At that time, the Sword God was about to die of anger!

“Your Highness Moon God, your people are in danger, and our Japanese martial arts are in danger.”

“But you are here... but here... close your eyes and rest?”

“Your Highness Moon God, what do you think?”

Sword God was about to cry.

It's a pity that he thought that Luna had something important to do and couldn't get away from it.

After a long time, it turned out to be idle here.

“Moon God, don't sit here.”

“If you want to sit, go back to Japan to sit.”

“Please!”

“Let's go back...”

The sword god Wangyuehe knelt on the ground and begged the moon god to return home.

Luna didn't say anything, but looked back at the room behind him.

Still motionless.

“Wait.” Moon God said.

“Wait?”

“His Royal Highness Moon God, we have been waiting for several months.”

“Wait any longer, and Japan will perish!”

“Go back, Your Highness Moon God.”

Wangyuehe and the others kept begging.

But the Moon God just didn't leave, and stayed here to live and die.

Mochizuki soon realized something.

It's so good, it's impossible for them to stay here, and there must be something in that room.

"Your Highness Moon God, what are you waiting for?"

"I have to go in and have a look!"

Under the doubts, Wang Yuehe and the others got up and walked into the room.

"stop!"

Luna shouted loudly, and the majestic power swept out from his body.

Wangyuehe and others, even if they were shocked and flew out!

"Treasurer, die!"

The words of the Moon God were icy cold, with endless murderous intent.

Everyone in Wangyuehe was frightened.

Thinking that they had served under the Moon God for many years, at most the Moon God would kill them a few words, why did he ever say such a thing?

But now, Luna wants to kill them because they don't know something.

The hearts of Wangyuehe and others are all broken!

Are we your people?

For a time, Wang Yuehe and the others were undoubtedly more curious about what secrets were hidden in that room.

Just after Luna drank Wangyuehe and others, Nuoya and Yueyao walked in anxiously.

"who are you?"

"What do you want to do?"

"Get out of here now!"

Seeing these outsiders, Yue Yao's eyes showed vigilance.

The place where Mark retreated, only the three women knew.

Now, suddenly so many outsiders broke in, Yueyao and the others had to worry that these people came to kill Mark while Mark retreated.

"What exactly is going on?"

"Shouldn't you give an explanation?"

"Mark believes in you, so I let you stay here."

"But why did you bring so many outsiders in?"

"What the hell do you want to do?"

Noah glared at the Moon God angrily.

She could see that these people knew Luna.

What?

Mark?

When Wang Yuehe heard such a name, his whole body trembled.

A pair of old eyes immediately widened.

This name was all too familiar to him.

Back then, it was this bastard who slaughtered countless powerhouses in Japan.

What made Mochiyuehe and the others uncomfortable the most was that this bastard defiled their supreme god in front of the entire Japanese subjects.

And the relationship between Luna and Mark has always been a mystery in their hearts.

Therefore, when he heard this name, Mochizuki quickly guessed something.

With red eyes, he looked at the Moon God with unconcerned and unbelievable expressions: "Your Highness Moon God, you don't care about your family and country, and you don't care about your hundreds of millions of subjects, shouldn't it be just to protect that hot summer child?"

"Luna, you...you...how could you do this?"

Mochizuki River was sad.

The Japanese powerhouses he brought were also sad.

Is this person in front of him the patron saint of Mark, or the patron saint of their country?

You can't turn your elbows out.

Chapter 3971

Of course, in addition to being sad, Mochizuki River, who had calmed down, suddenly realized a more serious problem.

Then Brian Chu, is he not dead?

Under the panic, the Japanese powerhouses were all horrified.

They turned around and looked at the room behind them with an almost fearful gaze.

Only at this moment did they feel that there was a force in the room ahead that was slowly condensing and climbing.

Perhaps, this power is still extremely subtle.

However, the undercurrent surging under that hidden power is terrifying!

Ignoring Nuoya and the others' questions, Luna's cold eyes just looked at Mochiyuehe and the others.

"You go back first."

"When the time comes, I will return home."

"During this period, you can send a messenger to me to understand the situation of Japanese martial arts."

This time, Mochizukihe and the others didn't dare to say anything.

"Yes... yes, Your Highness Moon God."

"We're going back home now and will keep in touch with you at all times."

After saying this, Wangyuehe immediately ran away with the people.

In such a situation, Nuoya and others were stunned for a while.

He only felt that these people were panicking and anxious, as if they were running for their lives.

"Sword God, wait for me..."

"Why are you running so fast?"

"The Moon God doesn't really treat us like that?"

After leaving Mark's retreat, Wangyuehe ran wild all the way.

A few Japanese powerhouses behind them chased after them with their milk-feeding energy, but they couldn't catch up.

I had to call Mochizukihe and tell him to run slower.

"Don't go quickly, do you want to die?"

"Don't you realize it yet?"

"The Moon God is now guarding Brian Chu, the big devil who murdered without blinking back then."

"The Moon God won't kill us, but that doesn't mean that Brian Chu won't kill us!"

"Go quickly!"

Mochizuki River panicked.

He never dreamed that Brian Chu was still alive?

The grievance between him and Mark is not the slightest bit.

From when Mark was still in Noifork, Wangyuehe killed his hometown.

Later, he escaped from death in Mark's hands several times.

Back then, when Mark was besieged and killed on the coast of the East Vietnam Sea, Wang Yuehe also contributed a lot.

Now that Brian Chu was resurrected from the dead, it's no wonder that Wangyuehe didn't panic.

"No wonder Fen Tian died suddenly and tragically."

"I was curious before, this Fen Tian is known as the No. 1 powerhouse in South Asia, who is so capable to destroy him."

"It turned out to be Brian Chu!"

Until now, Mochizuki River has figured it all out.

It turns out that the rumors that came out of India before were not rumors.

But really!

That Brian Chu is really not dead.

messed up!

Totally messed up!

The whole world is in chaos.

First was Chumen, and now there is another Brian Chu.

Like a pot of boiling oil, poured into a fire.

Wangyuehe has a feeling that this martial arts world, which has only been calm for more than two years, is afraid that it will set off a turbulent wave again!

Chaos is coming.

Time goes on.

The green leaves in the yard have turned yellow.

There was a thick layer of dust on the short stairs.

The sky is getting cooler and the temperature is getting lower day by day.

During this period of time, a strange scalper suddenly visited and asked Mark by name, asking him to introduce a few girls to it.

The Moon God let it roll, but the negotiation failed in the end, and after a few tricks with the cow, he was able to repel it.

When he left, the scalper also scolded: "Mother, this guy has big breasts, he can't be bothered..."

"But Mark, you bastard, I will come back sooner or later."

It was the appearance of this scalper that made Luna stay by Mark's side for a few more months.

Luna also didn't know how many depraved things this bastard had done, and he couldn't even live with a cow.

Just like that, summer went to autumn, and winter was about to come, but Mark still didn't show any signs of going out.

However, the Japanese messengers were constantly sending messages to Luna.

The situation is getting worse!

When Mark retreated for nearly half a year, Luna finally couldn't wait any longer
