

Chapter 3974

with the sound of the command.

Sure enough, the scene of the slaughter finally stopped.

But even if it stopped now, the few minutes just now made the whole scene feel like a hell Shura.

50,000 horses rushed in a few minutes ago, all of them showing majesty, but now, a few minutes later, they have already turned their backs on their horses, in chaos, and countless casualties.

“Whoever disarms and surrenders, don’t kill!”

“Those who sincerely vote for me to fall into the city will be rewarded!” George Han commanded softly.

When the words fell, someone immediately shouted an order: “My master has an order, and those who surrender can be spared death. If they surrender to me, those who should be thrown into the city will be treated as well as the soldiers who should have been thrown into the city.

” Ten, not much and not much to pass on the master’s words, but I really can’t bear so many people die tragically and should fall into the city, so I will say more.”

“Don’t think that your mere 50,000 people are too many

, when you should fall into the city, I When nearly 100,000 people besieged one of my masters, but I lost the battle abruptly, so...”

“Listen to my advice, either surrender obediently, or surrender if you have some ideas. My master is well-paid, you can take a look at us. The weapons in the hands of the army in the city and their cultivation bases can be known.” As soon as these words came out, those southern troops who were already surrounded and flustered suddenly looked at each other, fearful, but also had some thoughts of each other.

The southern commander’s face was slightly cold, and his teeth were clenched.

Surrendering is naturally a shame, but now, they are being beaten and beaten, and the only option left is death.

“What? Don’t want to?” George Han smiled coldly, glanced at the remaining people, and nodded: “Okay, continue.”

As soon as the words fell, the soldiers from all walks of life started to fight again, and for a while, the screams continued . , the flesh and blood are flying.

outside the city.

“City Lord Zhu, what should we do?”

Zhu Yanshuo shook his head, what to do, how did he know what to do.

The tens of thousands of troops can’t defeat the city, is it because of his 8,000 elites that he wants to defeat it? He is not George Han, and even if he is, he may not succeed.

If he rushed up, he was giving away, but if he didn't, he stayed here and heard the screams of his own teammates in the city, and he couldn't bear it.

"Order the troops to stay where they are, stay outside the city, and don't allow anyone to come out. I will go back in person. The southern army has been destroyed, and other troops need to be dispatched to fill the void."

"Yes!" The subordinate took the order.

As soon as Zhu Yanshuo's voice fell, he rode the beast all the way towards the east army.

East side.

Ming Yu and the others were tired of the impact of George Hanbu, leaving a few generals to observe, most of the executives have returned to the main account.

A group of people suddenly heard that Zhu Yanshuo had returned, and they were both puzzled and surprised.

"This Zhu Yanshuo only went out for less than a quarter of an hour, why did he leave and come back so quickly?"

"Hehe, I think the South Gate has been broken, and our army is obviously set. Zhu Yanshuo is eager to come back and ask for credit."

"No wonder they went and returned so quickly." A group of people were chatting and laughing, with a faint smile on their faces.

Pei Gu glanced at all the people present with a smile. Although he didn't bother to talk to them, he was happy that this kind of thing was bound to be contagious, and it was always a good thing for his own victory.

Just thinking about it, Zhu Yanshuo walked in quickly, and then knelt on the ground with a bang.

Ming Yu frowned: "City Lord Zhu, why is this?"

Zhu Yanshuo was about to answer, but someone said in advance: "Why, has City Lord Zhu realized his mistake so quickly?"

"Haha, City Lord Zhu, I told you a long time ago that sometimes it is a good thing to show off that your IQ is higher than others, but to show off just to show off will also show that you are very stupid."

"People, sometimes keep a low profile, that's right." A group of people said your words, I said, with endless sneers and ridicules on their faces, they had long disliked Zhu Yanshuo's pretense.

Zhu Yanshuo clenched his lips and was very depressed. Before there was no evidence, it was nothing for them to say so to themselves. However, until now, these idiots are still complacent, standing high and looking down at others, there are such pigs Teammates, it's just frustrating.

He raised his head abruptly and looked at Ming Yu: "Zhu is in a hurry to get back, it's definitely not the so-called guilt that some people say, Zhu just wants to come back and report that the 50,000 troops at the south gate were ambushed by the city and put into the city. After closing the door and hitting the dogs, at this time... at this time, I am in a desperate situation, I believe... I believe that it will not be long before the entire army will be wiped out!"

"What?"

Chapter 3975

Ming Yu's eyes suddenly dilated, and she looked at Zhu Yanshuo in disbelief. She even wondered if she had heard something wrong.

And the group of executives who were very proud just now are all silenced now, and they can hardly believe their ears.

"The 50,000 army has been engulfed, and the top of the south gate is empty. Zhu sent 8,000 elites to temporarily station, and he came back to report to the elders. I hope the elders will dispatch the army immediately to prevent George Han from arresting me and besieging the city. This is an attack." Zhu Yanshuo said urgently, but his tone was also full of venting.

There is nothing more powerful than these words to fan those who just mocked them.

Although such a crisis is indeed very bad for the entire war situation, at least for myself, it is very comfortable now.

Mingyu felt that the world was spinning for a while. The southern part was an army of 50,000 people, so... was it eaten by George Han in one bite?

Even if she still has an army of 300,000 people, 50,000 casualties are not unacceptable to her, but if this happens when the 50,000 army is wiped out without doing anything, it will make people Hard to accept.

That's his own troops, not fifty thousand cats and dogs...

"Why... how could this be?"

"My subordinates have already said that this matter looks extremely weird, but unfortunately..." Zhu Yanshuo glanced coldly at the side and mocked him just now. man, could not help but sneer.

A group of people no longer have the arrogance they used to do, and they all keep their heads down and say nothing.

Mingyu also suddenly remembered these rubbishes who were fighting the fire. If it wasn't for these rubbishes who had been deliberately going to top Zhu Yanshuo before, he would have listened to Zhu Yanshuo's opinions more.

At that time, the three-sided army besieged the fallen city, even if there was an ambush in the fallen city, but under the circumstance that they were pulled from three sides, the encirclement of the south gate was definitely not strong.

Therefore, the 50,000-strong army may still be able to break out of the siege, but it will never be completely wiped out like this.

“You really deserve to be damned, just now, aren’t all of them articulate and articulate? Why, now they’re all dumb?” Ming Yu shouted angrily.

A group of people still kept their heads down and said nothing. At this time, they didn’t mind that they had too many heads.

“Normally, you don’t say a word of constructive words, but when it comes to harassing the troops, you say it right. It’s better to raise a group of dogs than to raise a group of you.”

“Zhu Yanshuo.” “My subordinates are here!

” I ordered you to lead 50,000 troops and immediately rush to the South Gate to set up defense.”

“Yes!”

Zhu Yanshuo was about to get up, but Mingyu suddenly said: “Wait a minute.”

“What else is there to tell the elder.”

” The troops in the west are far away from those in the east, and on the battlefield, the war is changing rapidly, so, if necessary, you will also command the troops stationed in the west.”

“Yes!”

“The 100,000 troops on both sides of the west and south, Yan Shuo, don’t let me down .”

“Zhu Yanshuo must have the army and the people.”

Ming Yu nodded, and with a look, Zhu Yanshuo hurried down.

Not long after, the 50,000-strong army followed closely and headed to the South Gate for defense.

Ming Yu let out a sigh of relief, his eyes filled with helplessness, looking at a group of executives with their heads lowered, for some reason, he couldn’t help but feel extremely sighed in his heart.

The enemy is only strong, why are teammates still so pigs?

Pei Gu stood up slowly at this time and shook his head gently: “I don’t know who should be in the city, who is in charge, but it’s a bit smart.”

Ming Yu smiled bitterly, this is the gap between teammates: “He George Han They are not there, but the people in the city...”

Suddenly, halfway through the words, Ming Yu’s pupils suddenly widened, as if thinking of something...
