

Chapter 3976

Seeing Mingyu like this, Pei Gu seems to understand the meaning of Mingyu instantly: "The elder means that the one outside is not George Han. Qian?"

Ming Yu didn't say anything, but after thinking about it, he felt more and more that this seemingly absurd possibility was the most appropriate possibility.

"From the beginning to the end, we haven't seen George Han at all, just because it was George Han's troops, so we preconceived that the person who led the troops was George Han." Ming Yu looked at Pei. He said softly.

Pei Gu frowned, thought for a moment, and nodded heavily: "It is true. We have always ignored this point."

"If this is the case, it can explain the fact that George Hanbu retreated from the attack. The weird behavior of retreating and attacking." The more Ming Yu thought about it, the more depressed his heart became: "That is basically a cover attack, and the purpose is actually to prepare for George Han to secretly defeat Chencang."

"Then, George Han slipped into the falling city . , not only stabilizes the morale of the army, but at the same time, lays out a large array to attract us."

Hearing Mingyu's analysis, Pei Gu nodded: "Our military learns from him and disintegrates the military's will to fall into the city. In our judgment, George Han will indeed be anxious about this, after all, the time for the one who surrendered to him is too short and the foundation is not solid."

"It's just that we guessed one, but ignored the second, where can we think of it, the attack is to a certain extent. Satisfy you. I guess, it is actually a good cover for the second fight."

Ming Yu sighed helplessly: "With George Han stationed in the Luocheng, our plan to confuse the soldiers of the Luocheng failed, and he will play a trick with us at the same time. The door is wide open, let us think that our technique of bewitching the military has been accomplished, but in fact..."

"There is no way to stabilize the military's heart more than a big victory, George Han, this person.

, Seemingly young, but he didn't expect such a maddening step. Pei Gu couldn't help but sigh.

"We lost to him one after another. It seems that it was not an accident. Pei Gu smiled wryly.

Ming Yu didn't speak. She had long known that George Han was extremely talented and had an unusual mind, so she always treated him cautiously. But what she could never imagine was that even so , is far from enough.

"Patriarch Pei, you are a veteran of the battlefield, what do you think?" Ming Yu asked.

There was a hint of coldness in Pei Gu's eyes: "Pei Mou can't tell in his high opinion, but Xiao Xiaoyu's opinion is a little bit. "

Isn't George Han the one who closed the door and beat the dog to kill us?" There is also a group of people outside him, and we will kill their people. "

"Good way. Ming Yu nodded, but just as she was about to issue the order, she suddenly heard a muffled sound in the sky outside.

Ming Yu quickly rushed out of the tent, but saw a fireworks explode over the city that was supposed to fall, and almost at the same time, the The troops that were constantly attacking and retreating from the front also quickly retreated in the direction of the mountains after seeing the fireworks.

Ming Yuqi's teeth were gnashing, and it was obvious that George Han should have predicted everything. If you succeed, you will quickly reflect what happened on your own side.

Therefore, the troops will be arranged in advance, and the signal will prevail, and they will be evacuated in time.

Even if Ming Yu and others are extremely angry at this time, they can only fight with one punch. Air.

"Ah! ! Han three thousand! "Ming Yu is extremely angry and angry.

Pei Gu also has a cold face. This George Han reacts so quickly and his methods are so hot. How can he look like a young general? If you don't see him, you say He is a veteran who has fought for many years, and Pei Gu absolutely believes it .

Some executives were also completely dumbfounded at this time. Looking at the smooth operation of the enemy George Han, what else could they do except to sigh and sigh?

"Who the hell is this?"

With 400,000 horses, anyone would be full of confidence, and he could even win at will when he was the head coach.

But until now, they have not only lost this confidence, but even have a faint feeling of losing.

It's just that they really don't understand, how could they lose? How did you lose?

The other end should fall into the city, along with George Han raising his hand slightly again, the soldiers who were slaughtering the 50,000 troops in the south stopped again.

"How is it? Last chance." George Han smiled softly.

In the next second, at the south gate of the city, in the pool of blood, suddenly I heard the iron ping-pong falling to the ground...

Chapter 3977

50,000 soldiers, half of them are dead, and the remaining half are full of fear, and their bodies are covered with knife wounds and blood.

The southern commander even had his helmet off, his hair was scattered, and he was extremely embarrassed.

They have no choice but to surrender.

“Someone Han’s words are what he says, he will never embarrass anyone, and he will never hurt even a single hair of you as promised.”

“Ma Nanfeng!”

“My subordinates are here.” Ma Nanfeng hurriedly Step forward.

“Clear out the barracks in the south of the city immediately, and let these soldiers move in later.”

“Remember, our soldiers around the barracks are only restricted in entry, and life in the camp should not be interfered with to ensure their normal living needs.” George Han commanded.

Ma Nanfeng was stunned for a moment, this is going to a prison camp, isn’t this a holiday for them?

“City lord, you...”

“What’s wrong?”

“They are always captured soldiers, no need

?”

“Go and do as I say.”

“Yes!

” Hundreds of people rushed to work.

“The war is imminent. In order to reduce unnecessary casualties, although those who surrender may not be killed, it may trouble you to stay for a while.”

George Han nodded to the other commanders.

The three commanders of the Northwest South Gate immediately moved forward and gestured towards the surrendered southern generals: “Everyone, please.”

The southern commander sighed, shook his head helplessly, and led his subordinates towards the barracks slowly under the leadership of the three commanders.

“Wait a minute!” After only a few steps, George Han suddenly said.

The troops stopped and looked at George Han one after another. The southern commander even sneered: “Why, do you regret it? I’ll just say, how could someone treat the prisoners so favorably.

Just a friendly reminder to you.”

“If anyone wants to join us, they can tell my soldiers or generals in private at that time. Just like before, I will not force you to make a choice. Those who surrender can also join us. You can also choose, everything is yours to choose.” When the words fell, George Han got up and went up to the southern city wall, ignoring them at all.

The southern commander and some soldiers were obviously quite surprised by George Han’s move. George Han’s move seemed to be a little too generous. After all, when the city should fall to face the siege of 400,000 troops, it is precisely the people that are in desperate need.

George Hanhe...isn’t in a hurry at all?

Not only them, but the three leaders at the scene were a little confused at first, but after thinking about it carefully, it seemed that they began to understand what George Han meant.

“Don’t be surprised, the leader of my family has long been confident.

Although there are more than 400,000 troops outside, they are just a bunch of scumbags. Let’s go to the barracks. Since the leader has an order, you can enjoy it there.” The North Gate commander smiled softly. , waved his hand, and continued to set off with a group of descending soldiers.

Climbing to the city wall, George Han looked outside the city from a distance.

Seeing a large army rushing towards the south gate, he knew of course that this was the reinforcements on the opposite side, coming to fill the vacancy of the southern troops that had been eaten by him.

George Han smiled softly: “Humans are also weapons. There are many people as long as weapons. Therefore, one inch long and one inch strong.”

“However, Mingyu, you overlooked a point.”

“One inch long and one inch strong needs to be built in a relatively normal environment.”

“If I force you into a narrow place, then one inch long is not one inch strong, but one inch. An inch of trouble, you can’t use it at all.”

“You will regret for the rest of your life that you and I are enemies.”

After that, George Han walked down the city wall and walked all the way to the city lord’s mansion.

As soon as he arrived at the city master’s mansion, Zhang Jiang rushed over and caught up with George Han.

“My subordinate Zhang Jiang, I have seen the leader of the alliance.” Zhang Jiang said respectfully.

George Han nodded his head and looked at Zhang Jiang: “Is everything done?”

“According to the command of the alliance leader, the subordinates have ordered people to search the whole city. Fortunately, they were not humiliated, and the city owner’s account was basically completed.”

George Han smiled . : “Okay, well done, have everything been placed in the four gates of the city?”

“Yes, ten gates have been set up in each gate, and there are eight more gates that are being transported to the City Lord’s Mansion, at most dozens of gates. It will be there in minutes.”

“Very good!” George Han smiled excitedly.

Zhang Jiang was a little confused: “This subordinate dares to talk a little more, Alliance Leader...you...why do you want those things?”

George Han smiled mysteriously: “You will find out later.”
