

Chapter 3978

Especially Ericson Li, when Mark was still his son-in-law, he followed Mark.

He has seen with his own eyes how such a man has gone step by step, from an incompetent son-in-law who was unknown in the past, and everyone could step on, to a peerless master later, who is number one in the sky.

He ran rampant in Noirfork, and no one dared to provoke him.

He dominates the country, and the heroes worship.

He blew up the Truman, shocking the world.

In the past, Ericson Li once thought that he and Mark would continue to be like this forever.

Until later, Mark encountered the biggest Waterloo in his life.

The East Vietnam Sea battle that year not only destroyed Helen Qiu's happiness for the rest of her life, but also shattered the backbone of Ericson Li and Chen Ao.

If a person has no backbone, then he will be a walking dead if he lives.

Just like Ericson Lisan, only two or three years, but every day is like a year.

Mr. Lei couldn't sleep all night, and when he closed his eyes, he saw the man lying down under the blood-colored sunset.

Only through the numbness of alcohol could he gain a brief inner peace.

In the past three years, these three old men have not obtained any redemption, but the guilt in their hearts has become more and more intense.

Seeing his father and the others take their lives and kneel again, Cynthia Chen finally couldn't stand it any longer.

She burst into tears and slammed on the door crying.

"Helen Qiu, you coward, how long do you want to hide?"

"If you want to wear a crown, you must bear its weight."

"You are his woman, you should bear what you should bear."

"If you can't bear it, why didn't you divorce him when my brother Mark was there?"

"When he was alive, you enjoyed the glory and the scenery."

"Now that he's dead, you're a deserter. You don't care about Noirfork's affairs. Second Master Li and the others come to the door in person. You still want to clear the relationship."

"You enjoy prosperity, but avoid suffering, don't you think you are selfish?"

"You don't deserve to be my brother Mark's wife!"

“Helen Qiu, you don’t deserve it!”

“You’re a selfish coward!”

Cynthia Chen scolded angrily outside.

Ericson Li, Chen Ao and the others hurriedly reprimanded her to prevent her from being rude to Madam Chu.

But Cynthia Chen didn’t listen.

She just wants to say, she wants to say all the words she has accumulated in her heart over the years.

.....

“Helen Qiu, I know you hate my brother Mark.”

“I hate my brother Mark for not caring about the family, and I hate my brother Mark who only knows revenge, but doesn’t care about the consequences.”

“You must think that now the Chu family is ruined, the Mufan Group that was created with brother Mark in the past was destroyed, Noifork foundation fell to others, and even your husband and widow were all caused by my brother Mark alone.”

“You blame him for being impulsive, blame him for acting in his spirit, blame him for not knowing whether to live or die, blame him for disregarding the consequences for his family.”

“But, is this really only my brother Mark’s fault?”

“Do you really think that Brother Mark killed Chumen just for his own obsession? Is it just to avenge himself?”

“Did you know that now the Trumen is sweeping the world, sweeping across all countries, a large number of grandmasters have died in battle, and dozens of countries’ martial arts have been wiped out.”

“If it weren’t for the fact that Brother Mark used his own strength to fight against the Chumen and stagnant the Chumen’s offensive, why would you have had three years of peace and stability?”

“The tree wants to be quiet but the wind doesn’t stop.”

“Helen Qiu, I can tell you that what Brother Mark did back then was not only for him, but also for you.”

“Not only for the whole country, but also for your little family!”

“Otherwise, even if brother Mark doesn’t go to Chumen, Chumen will definitely come to the hot summer.”

“If the skin doesn’t exist, how can the hair be attached?”

“When the time comes, do you think that if brother Mark doesn’t provoke Chumen, Chumen will let him, you, and Noifork?”

“And, you know. Brother Mark set up a great formation in Noifork before he went to Chumen alone.”

“The strongest formation among them is at the Genting Mountain Villa, where you, Helen Qiu, live in the Genting Mountain Villa.”

“Just to keep you safe after he dies!”

“You keep saying that brother Mark has no home in his heart and no you in his heart.”

“But how did you ever know, brother Mark, you are the one who cares the most!”

Chapter 3979

“Brother Mark almost died in Japan back then, because of what?”

“It’s not just to capture the eight-foot Qionggou jade, but to arrange this guardian formation for you.”

“A man who protects you in life and protects you after death.”

“If it doesn’t count as having you in my heart, how can it count?”

“Helen Qiu, you have to let my brother Mark give you his heart, are you willing?”

Chu Nan’s face was full of tears, crying and scolding Helen Qiu again.

She is wronged!

She felt wronged for her brother Mark!

My brother Mark, such a good person, he worked so hard for Helen Qiu, for his small family, and even did many things silently.

Helen Qiu didn’t know, Ye Ximei didn’t know, all his relatives didn’t know.

All the suffering, all the hardships, that stupid guy never told anyone.

He tried his best to be good to others, and only gave the best results to others.

But what about the end?

After his fall, he ended up with an ending where his wife and son were separated.

His wife, who once took his life to protect, still hates him? He didn’t even want to admit that he was Mark’s wife.

Perhaps, in marriage, in the family, Mark is indeed a little incompetent.

But is she Helen Qiu competent?

Her man is fighting for his life outside, what has Helen Qiu helped brother Mark?

Did you help him kill the enemy, or help him solve the trouble?

She couldn’t even support Mark’s brother’s career silently behind her back, and now she is complaining that Mark’s brother only wants revenge, and ignores her family and her.

Cynthia Chen felt that it was really not worth it.

If Mark married Xu Lei back then, it would be much better than Helen Qiu.

Xu Lei can also help Mark to guard Gritsberg, and he can also help Mark to pull out the affiliated family of Trumen, which will cause serious damage to Trumen on the economic battlefield.

Even Cynthia Chen felt that being Mark's wife was better than Helen Qiu.

She may not be able to help much either, but she can give her brother Mark 120,000 understanding and support.

When brother Mark is not at home, she can take care of everything in the house, take care of brother Mark's mother, organize brother Mark's clothes, and take care of brother Mark when his relatives and friends get married. Offering flower baskets.

When brother Mark comes home, she can cook a table full of delicious food, boil hot water, and then soak his feet with brother Mark. Before going to bed, she can also massage Mark to stretch his tired and injured muscles and bones. .

On the battlefield ahead, she may not be able to help.

But she will keep everything behind Mark in good order, so that her man will not have any worries.

Even after Mark's fall, Cynthia Chen would walk from behind the scenes to the front of the stage without hesitation, stabilize the situation as the Empress Noirfork, and protect the foundation for her man.

Waiting for her man, the king returns!

But what about Helen Qiu?

What did she do for brother Mark?

She can't even cook well. After brother Mark's accident, he became a deserter, and now he is still complaining about her brother Mark?

This naturally made Cynthia Chen feel that it was not worth it!

After scolding, Cynthia Chen was also tired.

Not having the strength to go on, I leaned against the wall and wept there.

She misses Mark.

Think of the man who smiled as warm as the sun.

When he was there, Cynthia Chen didn't feel anything.

Now that he is gone, Cynthia Chen just understands that the sky is falling.

Noirfork's sky collapsed, Ericson Li's sky collapsed, and his father's sky collapsed.

The once prosperous and glorious life is now only a piece of chicken feathers left.

If only brother Mark was still alive.

If brother Mark was still alive, the sun would be warm and the evening wind would be gentle. Father and the others wouldn't be so old, and they wouldn't have to kneel and cry. Even the world would be much calmer.

The Chumen will not start a war, and the Yanxia martial arts will not have the power to destroy the country, nor will the martial arts of the whole country enter a state of emergency alert...

Total mess.
